4th Of July

last night, as i looked up into the sky, i realized how much i wanted to cry the thought of you with her was too much to bear all i wanted was for you to be here holding me. as soon as i heard the first bang, i looked up and a tear slipped out my eye the colors that filled the sky made the tears fall down my cheek even quicker then bang after bang, and i was still alive, wishing it wasn't so hard to survive.

A Poem

do you still remember all the times we were together cause this isn't a poem of love
or a poem
of me missing you.

do you understand the pain i felt because of you
of mourning
of me wanting you.

do you still want me to say i'm sorry
of forgiveness
of remembrance.

do you hate how much i don't think of you
of hate
of needing you.

do you care that i cant look at you
of me
of you.

because to me,
its just another poem.

A Single Wish

i look above and see the stars slowly and one by one they come out.
i take a deep breath in then let it out enjoying the fresh air around me. my body feels so warm and fragile i feel content with who i am and who i wish to be i look up again at the darkening, dotted sky, i see a shooting star and i hear a voice beside me telling me to make a wish. i close my eyes and try to think real hard on what i want the most.
then without thinking i open my eyes and turn to the body beside me i look down at the handsome face and kiss the tender lips. then instead of laying right back down i lower my lips to his ear and whisper the wish that i made. my only wish wasnt that id find my one true love or that id have a promising career, the single wish that i made was that id never lose the man i loved, the man thats right beside me.

Between Sunset And Sunrise

red and orange with a hint of yellow radiantly glowing in the once blue sky shining down from the heavens above down onto this once perfect world.

a once clouded sky is now a majestic purple darkening after the once radiant red bestowing a chilly breeze to all all sleeping and awake.

once there is darkness and all big and small start to dream thats when the pretty lights way up high come out to dance and play.

the once pretty lights go dim and then, the radiantly glowing red orange and yellow come to play once again only to be followed by more blue.

Blind

i look around me but nothing looks clear all i see, is hurt and rejection everytime i look in the mirror i thought u were my 1 true love and now im sittin here cryin over u i cant see wat i did2 make u do this.
i cant see why youd do this to me maybe im jus a blind fool i believed ud come but u never showed i cant c wat to do i cant c, im blind.
the tears r coming in more than jus truck loads i thought u were my 1 and only because i was so blind i let myself feed off u and now im left lonely cold and blind.
i need u more than u know i need u to need me like the air u breathe i want to be ur extacythe light at the end of the tunnel bcause unlike u im blind be my first aid kit when im your first choice the slices others made the holes and burns and cuts heal the memories that haunt me fade away everything that was once important means nothing but i guess i was blind ur the only one that can make me smile when tears r flowing from my eyes i thought u were the guy thatd make me smile no matter what mood id b in u were the one guy that could make my day u were the 1 i hated to go a day without talking to u were supposed to b the keeper to my heart but im blind, i cannot c.

i failed to c how u truely felt, wat u truely needed i never got to be the 1 that deserved ur presence for the rest of your days i look in the mirror and take off the film thats been blinding my sight everything turns crystal clear uve been my best friend, your my everything and more u always hav been and always will b i look down at wats in my hands and c it wasnt my love for u that was making me blind, it was fear, the fear of losing my one true love, u.

Cry Away

i look out my window @ 7 in the evening my heart falls apart all the bandaids get ripped off. i feel all my pain again i think of all those nites when i was under the stars, runnin from everyone includin myself. everytime i ran out that door i tried to lose myself but all i could do was make another bruise and scar all those nites id cry myself to sleep because i was so alone the only person i needed most was the one who refused to pick up the phone. ive never been daddys lil girl i guess im mommys evil seed but no matter how much ive cried i know youll never come back to me i tried to go and find u ive even dreamed youd finally come to save me every minute of every day i push everyone farther and farther away i even started drinkin just to tuck my pain away but with every shot i downed my mind still lingered on you. you said ud b there just for me and i knoe u still want to be your not perfect which makes me love u even more. i miss u so much but i guess thats never good enough ive cried millions of tears i wish that u could b here holding me, wiping all my tears away when i look into the mirror i see only u and say to myself, 'that jus cant b me' daddy says, 'ull never b her' but u still dont go away the smile i rehearse each day is my mask to keep ppl from seeing my pain to hide my fears, regrets and hurt no one understands how i can do the things that i do but u do.

daddys wife says, 'ur jus like her' every word i say is true they nevr know what im goin through all the memories that haunt my dreams turn into nitemares at the end im in your arms dead, i wish ud cry, but u jus stare what u feel i feel and i realize, im not hte only one thats dead, u r too.
i wake up at three in the morning screaming im alone in my bed and in my head i want to run to only u and finally b ur lil girl but ur not there, u cant hold me and comfort me but my dreams i hav they never leave, and when i wake, ur never there. u leave me every nite and slowly the hope i hav leaves with u i used to hate u and blame u too its never been ur fault, bcause im u i tried to find the love i cant seem to feel in every guy that came my way but they didnt stay long just like u when im lyin in bed late at nite i wish i could bring u closer to me cause only u can understand me but i dont noe if ull ever see i cried every nite for almost 10 years no matter how many tears i shed i couldnt get u out of my head you've stayed and stayed for all these years and nite after nite i cried my tears but i couldnt hate you i luvd u too much so plz jus come back to me mommy, daddy doesnt want me i remind him every day of u ive never been his lil girl i must be your evil seed i wish that u could see me and cradle me in your arms cause all my life ive been just like you i look out side and the clouds start to cry, every loud thunderous roar is saying she doesnt want u anymore she doesnt care about how u feel waht u regret and what u fear shes never gonna come back to u she doesnt even think of u. i hate to think how much its true every lightning bolt that falls from the sky reminds me of all the years gone by w/out my friend, my hope, my mother when the sun comes out to shine every trace of u is gone i knoe ur only a memory in my head stabbing the spot where my love for u lives. i wish i could see u again but i knoe that will never happen i miss u mom, i always will i knoe u miss me too u always have and always will.

David

when life is bad and i am low

i think of you.

you've kept me here though you didn't know it.

you are my best friend you've always been there and you've always cared. i watched you walk away and it took everything in me not to cry.
it hurt so much when you left me here i wish you didnt go i want you to be with me.

and still,

you are my brother no matter what.
even if you never come home, you will always be my big bro. i promise.

Dont

dont run from love you silly girl for it may never come back to you. dont hide your pain you troubled girl for it will never leave. dont cry in shame you sorrowful girl for its not healthy. dont cut and burn you suicidal girl just for selfish pleasure. dont cry and mourn
you broken girl for you deserve much better.
dont hide away you hated girl just because your all alone. dont try to die
you hurtful firl for tons of people still love you. dont run away you tormented girl for no one will hurt you anymore. dont pop and o.d.
you drugged up girl people still want you to live. dont drink and drive you drunken girl
your not the only one that will get hurt. dont fight and scream you bullied girl nobody is going to hurt you. dont shed your tears you crying girl for no one even cares.
dont turn away you lonely girl for all youll have is yourself.

dont bottle things up you un-hollow girl for one day youll explode. dont keep your secrets you hidden girl for one day youll die from it. dont tell lies you lying girl for it will eat away at you. dont shed your blood you morbid girl for its not even worth it. dont let them control you you obedient girl for after awhile youll lose yourself. dont let them hurt you you tortured girl for your heart will get ripped out. dont torture yourself you agonizing girl for youll want to tear out your insides. dont cheat at all you untrustworthy girl for youll never be trusted again. dont waste away you desolate girl for there is no need to die. dont be a prick you cut up girl for the scars will never go away. dont be ashamed you humiliated girl for you have no reason to apologize.

Dont Go Robby Jay! ! !

dont leave me robby jay
dont let me waste away
u mean so much 2 me we both knoe were meant 2 b i need u baby
its mor ethan jus want dont u see?
dont go, dont leave me here alone i cant live with out u my heart will for surely get ripped out.
i knoe we both knoe were meant 2 b
its more than jus want cant u see?
plz dont go, dont let them take u from me do they not understand what it will do to me? i havent had u in my arms for so long and now the need 4 u is too strong five days is so much time my heart is breaking more and more every time the clock changes time its not fair what theyre doin to us but they continue to hurt us its liek they want to keep us from one another its like everyone wants to keep us from eachother.
u mean the world 2 me we both unerstand were meant to b i need u robby jay
everything i am today is because of u robby jay. im yours forever more take me in ur arms show me how u feel and i promise u wont regret it ill shoe u wat i want, ill give u waht u need, bring my body close to urs embrace me in your arms let me melt into ur body caress me with ur fingers kiss my body with ur lips all i ask from u is not to go dont go and leave me here

i need to b with u i hav to hav u forever more with me, even after we die.

Dont You

weeping child, dont you cry the pain you feel will soon subside. weeping child, please dont cry, the world is harsh i wont deny.

teary eyed pup, dont you wallow, the best thing to do is take a deep breathe and swallow. teary eyed pup, please dont wallow, if you want i can lead and you can follow.

sleeping baby dont you wake up, have peaceful dreams and you wont hiccup. sleeping baby please dont wake up, i promise your energy level will go up.

dieing lover dont you close your eyes, the world will fade with all of its lies.
dieing lover, please dont close your eyes, dont go into the light and shut out my cries.

Drowning

i put my foot in,
in felt so nice.

i was in a little,
enjoyed the cold.

then i went waist deep, it caught my breath.

decided to swim,
it felt refreshing.

now im drowning!
i lost control!

dont let me drown
i beg you please!

grab my arm and rescue me!

Dying Love

The strong-hold of your grip, upon my heart, veins wrapped securely, thorns digging into the grenade in which my heart has become.
No beats of life can thrum, bu-bum, bu-bum, bu-bum, only silence, a slight trickle of liquid connecting with liquid is distinguishable.
But still so faint.
Blood slides easily down the vein and onto my heart.
You squeeze and squeeze, tighter and tighter, draining the life right out of me.

You cause unbearable pain, as your grip gets remarkably tighter, and I become dangerously weaker, I submit to you and realize my eyes have begun to flutter.
Fighting to stay open, stay awake, stay alive... while my breathing begins to catch in my throat, hoarsely, my breathing gets fainter and fainter with every second ticking by.
My fluttering eyes cease and shut, I go limp, and watch my life float by.
All the while you squeeze and squeeze, an ocean of not just blood, surrounds you, blood, and love, and happiness, and memories.

I've never given much thought to how I would die, but dying by the hands of love, seems painfully easy, compared to dying by the deeds of a stranger.
Even though I died, you hold my heart always, because I told you it was yours, and you promised to never let it go.

Everytime

i think how funny everytime somebody says, 'ill never hurt u'
cause in the end i know, they're the ones that hurt me most.
i never could have saved myself or stopped the hurt to come u never called me beautiful u never said u'll always be there so how could i have foreseen the day u turned and walked away? i can't say i hate u cause i would be a liar what i can say is, u taught me something new u showed me even sweet guys will hurt u and even ur heart can be the one to lie to u even ppl u hav yet to meet hav a plan to hurt u. everytime a guy says to me,
'im always here' i know they can't tell the future because they're always the first 2 walk some jog, some run, some fall but they're always the first to go im always stuck all by myself to pick up the mess left behind, after the fights, piece together my torn up heart, and paint a smile on my slightly bruised face. walk out my door just to show the world that my heart was never broken i never gave my love to him, i never bent over backward to please.
i always laugh inside everytime a guy says to me, 'baby u mean the world to me' because i know i'll be his world until some one else catches his eye i'll be his baby girl until someone shows him a better time. guy after guy month after month love after love brings more and more tears

more and more pain and more and more hurt only to be left lonely and broked in the end.

Farewell

goodbye my love, my heart has to go but my love for you is, was and will always be...yours.
that is truer than any truth a single tear is all i shall shed considering its your turn to cry. to beg for forgiveness kissing my feet and muttering promises you dont intend to keep i pray a day when we come back to eachother till then,
i will cherish every moment you were mine hold dear to every tear ive cried and never let go of every smile we've come across i hope theres no hard feelings between us i love you i always will you'll always be my baby too. i cant believe a farewell is to be spoken a goodbye we both get to turns our backs and walk away does this mean the two of us are weak?
or was i supposed to be the one to hold the twoo of us together?

when your lonely and old and you think of me just remember this is your doing your the one letting go your the first to say goodbye im just going to walk away with my head held high and show you how strong i truely am.

through the years i've changes ive grown out of control i completely lost my sanity and thats all thanks to you your the first for me to love but hopefully not the last you may not think im done, im gone.... but after tonight im gone, we are done. i cant do thins anymore its putting too much on me goodbye my love, this is farewell after you hear this, i know, you will drink you drank before, your drinking now i love you.....i'll miss you....farewell.

Heart, Love

my love for you
was so strong,
but then our hearts were forced to seperate.
i forced our love to hide, but never leave in shame. yet we found our ways back to eachother our hearts connected became one once again.
our love thrived
but then slowly died.
i came home but you werent there and once again we seperated. my heart was turned to stone, cold ice without the warmth of your heart caressing mine my heart wont beat my love wont disperse.
you won the key to my heart you are the love of my life, without you, i am weak.

but now your back,
here in my arms,
our love can finally thrive my heart beats for only you. you flew away, but you came back.
like a bird.
all our love can finally live and we can be happily together forever more. no questions asked.

our hearts have survived a thousand wars.
but still held strong.
we are meant to be you were made for me.

I

you know im crying,
you know im in pain,
if i were to die,
what would you do?
do you want to watch me die? your too late to save me now the blood is dripping down my arm and i am not quit here. i need to die.
i want to die
but you wont let me.
i want you to quit.
i want you to quit trying to keep me here, because im not here my body is.
but other than phisically im dead.
lost forever,
in a forest somewhere small,
you know i dont want to be here.
and im in such great pain you need to let me be.
i understand you want to help
im gone

I Am Me

ia m a single minded, confident female an intelligent talented child a am strong because i have been weak ive been beaten bruised and broken i am beautiful because i know my flaws my habits my pains ima lover because im a fighter im willing to fight for what i believe, what i love im fearless because i have been afraid ive come toe-to-toe with death stared fear into its eyes and smiled when there was only darkness im wise because i have been foolish i have been stupid in my decisions and blind to common sense ive been around the block and learned all of the trix i can laugh and be happy because i have faced sadness ive fallen down that pit of utter depression cried myself to sleep and screamed while i dreamt i know who i am i am a lover, a fighter, a foolish shild but most of all,

I Am So Numb Inside

i am so numb inside,
i cannot feel it anymore.

the pain you caused is gone the hate for you has disappeared.

i do not feel for you anymore.
i thought that i could live without you.

but now i know i cant.

i wish that i still had you, with me in my dreams.

i know that it will never work since i screwed up big.

the meds dont even work. why won't you say your sorry and actually mean it for a change. i said that i was sorry and actually meant it.

do you remember when i cried?

i wanted to slap you so hard,

so you could see how i felt inside.

if you could see how torn up i am inside,

then you would most likelly have nightmares forever more

you have no idea how much i need to cry. since you broke my heart i have no love left to give, ill always be sorry for everything that i put you through.

i wish that you could see everything you've done to me.

im so sorry t.j. i wish that i could change the past,
but will never understand, youll never be just another ex-boyfriend.

so this is my good-bye to you i will miss you but you must see, i need to fix the broken bits on the inside of me.

ally lira

I Dont Care

your not my baby anymore not my love, my life, my future i hope your happy with her i hope she gives you everything you want and need i pray you both are happy, and the smiles never fade the laughter never dies away.

i know my wished and hopes for you seem a tid bit wierd but baby i want you to be happy, even if it's not with me i need to be the bigger person i want to show you how strong youve made me though you did break my heart you must see, i dont care anymore.

i dont have to worry about you dissappearing, getting sick, if your thinking of me or if your cheating. your not controlling my every thought, every action i wont get my heart broken by you anymore i wont have a reason to be blue.

i will admit your memory is going to influence my every decision for the rest of my life youll always be in my memory youll always have a place in my heart, ill never forget the happiest days of my life, that were spent with you.

I Hope

i hope one day you will die i hope one day you will cry and when your gone youll burn in hell for what you put me through.
i hope one day you will suffer i hope one day ill be tougher and when your finally gone i will be able to sleep all through the night. i hope you pay for all those lies i hope that when you get to hell satin will stick millions of needles in your eyes. and make you blind just like i was when i fell in love with you.
i hope you get what you deserve i hope you never find someone to hurt. because no one should have to put up with a prick.
i hope that one day you finally breakdown i hope that one day youll be the clown you made me look like a fool when i tried to talk about it. i hope that you will find no other i hope one day you will burn you mother fucker! i hate you you stupid jerk and i cant believe i let myself love you so. i hope that the day you reach the gates of hell i hope that satin will scream and yell and when you think that its too rough it gets a million times worse with every second that you suffer. i hope that you never find happiness i hope that you cry for every girl you have to confess. even god will shun your soul for every lie that you have told and every tear you've caused me to cry.

you came and stayed awhile, you showed me that im only human, everything i am, is because of you.
youd come and go run in and out open and close my heart.
still i need you.
your my drug of choice, your love is my medication to my life,
the thing that keeps me going. my first thought in the morning is you i think of you during the day, youre even in my dreams while i sleep.
my world is centered around you
you never leave my mind, even when i have a million things to worry about.
it hurts to knoe that i can have you in my heart, but not in my arms.
i wish for you to be with me, to own my body for the rest of our seconds together.
i am forever yours,

I'M Sorry

im sorry for your grandpa im sorry for your pain im sorry for all your grief im sorry i cant help you.

im sorry for all your hate im sorry for your broken heart im sorry your emotions are so strong im sorry i cant change your feelings.

im sorry your so sad im sorry for everything that happened im sorry that you lost a friend im sorry he'll never come back.

im sorry i cant make you laugh im sorry you feel so low im sorry your lifes in the dumps im sorry i cant say anything more.

Im Willing

do we have to say goodbye am i supposed to let you go, you cant expect me to watch you walk away with a smile on my face i dont think i could bear losing you again... crying in my sleep, screaming while i dream.
you know exactly what you mean to me for i have told you twice before.

a pain so intense is harboring in me cutting me at the knees disableing my beating heart love is the slowest form of suicide i guess that means im willing to die im willing to cry everyday and night for you smile every broken frown for you mourn to every song for you and give every bit of my heart, body and soul to you im willing to love you for the rest of my days be charged in cupid's court for loving you too much, intruding in your dreams and robbing you of your heart.

im willing to go to the ends of the earth for you but what more can i take?
you come and go, your in your out your up then down, your hot and cold can i honestly be played by you again? i guess the better question is.... am i willing to endure even more pain?

Lie To Me

every time you gazed into my eyes held me with your hands, whispered in my ear you would make my heart leap with joy dance with life, and smile with the intent to never stop loving.
i know you whispered false hope false happiness, false love but i loved being embraced by you.

lie to me if you want, lie to me if you please treat me with false tenderness fool me into being at ease i opened me newly mended heart to you showed you who i was and accepted you for you.

Love And Lose

there is a saying that i once heard it said its better to love and lose then to never love at all. i used to believe that it was true until i loved and i lost.
now i hate that saying i hate it with a raging passion. i have loved and i have lost now i wish more than ever that i had never loved at all.
not once but twice.
i loved him with all my heart but he decided to be unfaithful then he chose to get rid of me if i had never loved then i wouldnt be hurting. now that i have lost he said he needed time to clear his head but i didnt think it was true. so for all of the people who have not only loved but also lost, i know what your going through i once heard this saying

wait, no, i dont believe it anymore.

Love Without Pain

it is impossible to open your heart and not get the hurt.
impossible to be completely happy, without being the least bit sad. you cant love, without the pain.

it is impossible to be completely empty and not have any other feelings. impossible to shut everyone out and not feel lonely.
you cant feel pain, without the love.

it is impossible to feel angry and happy at the same time impossible to be consistently sad but not be depressed.
you cant feel love without pain.

some people would rather have pain than love rather have a numb feeling than happiness built up inside you cant feel anything, without its opposite.

Love.

What is love?

And how do you know your in-love, or even loved?

There's songs, stories, even movies about love, but none explain what it is.

In stories its not only an emotion but its physical, it makes you sick, you get so lonely that it nearly kills you to be away from your lover...

but is that right?

Can you feel physically sick without a person?

In movies its all happily ever after... but what about reality?

In songs, its people believing they're in love then they get brokenhearted.

Can you truly ever trust a person, even though you never really know them?

You only know what they want you to.

Is anyone ever faithful anymore?

Has chivalry and honor died now that were in the 21st century?

Ive seen marriages end as if they were pulled straight out of a horror movie, babies being born out of wedlock, does anyone have any morals anymore?

Has our humanity truly been changed to the point of no return?

People no longer love themselves which makes it impossible to love another person... and why am I being criticized for not succumbing to such stupidity as drunken sex, or better yet, not tolerating being walked on?

Where have women's self appreciation gone, and their confidence to know they're one of a kind?

Where have the honest to goodness men gone, where chivalry and manners are everything?

When did people change so much that sex is now meaningless to people?

In my eyes sex is everything, you have to give a very intimate part of your body to another every time one has sex, they lose apart of themselves, and who's right is it to judge another based on what happens between the sheets?

Has love truly been lost with time?

Love. A four letter word that for some, has no meaning.

For others its everything.

Love isn't just casual sex or a word to jump someones bones, its a feeling, its intoxicating, and subtle. It makes you giddy its frustrating and horrible.
Its flirting with the unknown, having confidence in yourself as a person and with your life, everyone at least once in their lives wants to be loved or to love another, but nowadays, people rarely get it.

Girls and guys both get scared to give themselves completely to another, but why?

Love is not sex.
Its wanting someone for who they are as a person, so why did everyone stop looking? Love is not controlling or possessive, its trusting and teamwork, but what do I know? Maybe I'm wrong.

I can only give you my opinion of love.... now honestly, search within your heart and soul, what is love to you?

Maybe

maybe one day we'll grow old, maybe we wont be told,
maybe one day we'll forget eachother, maybe one day we'll forget my mother. maybe one day we'll together maybe one day we'll fly away light as a feather. maybe one day i'll show my love maybe one day we'll watch the stars above. maybe one day we'll say our vows. maybe one day people wont slaughter cows maybe one day we wont wollow maybe one day ill take a deep breath and swallow. maybe one day my dreams will come true maybe one day, i wont have to say maybe itll just be us two.

No One Will Ever Know

why cant i let go?
i want to so bad but right when i start to i get kicked back down am i not strong enough to go on?
i do so well for so long, then i fall back into my addictive habits why is it so hard for me to tell you to go to hell? am i supposed to go through life stuck in a xanax haze?
not knowing who i am, how to talk, or even how to walk.... all because of what you did to me?
couldnt you have just accepted me without having to take away my innocence?
i cried and cried, in return you slapped me and whispered soul shattering words in my ear i remember, i relive it almost every night, still.
you threw me into the street when i was drugged and barely conscious the words you spoke still echo in in my thoughts in my dreams i still feel all the blood, my blood, across my body while you shredded my life and body to pieces when these memories succumb me why do i turn to the poisons that once rendered me vulnerable in the first place?
am i actually addicted to the pain? no one knows, no one will ever know how you humiliated me, broke me, and haunt me no one will ever know, how i scream out in pain late at night how i still have to scrub my body in the shower because i still feel blood. no one will ever know why my pillows are soaked in tears and sweat no one will know, but you four plus me.

Not This Time Robby Jay

So here we are again 2 years later you weaved yourself back into my life re-attaining the hold on my heart reserved for only you, and once again I find myself gasping for the air you have taken out of me I couldn't find the strength in me to love you again to re-live what we had, but I played the part I pretended that what you've done to me doesn't still hurt, I plastered that smile to my face while inside I was screaming for someone to save me.
I don't love you anymore, I can barely stand the thought of you I gave you the purest love but that's not what you wanted, and now I find myself loveless and void, uncaring and cruel all because of you.
You tried to play your tricks again, I know, but how did that work out for you?
I've learned your tricks, I play your tricks and now, maybe just maybe I'm too much like you. I didn't miss you one bit, I just missed your memory.
What is it you want from me?
Why are you still trying to make me yours, then casting me off?
I'm no ones property, no mans land, so go away, don't look back, and please just forget about me already please.

One Day

one day we'll move on on our own by ourselves without eachother.

one day we'll find love love or lust forever more without any questions asked.

one we'll be happy happy with every other deep down inside without a fear within.

one day be gone gone forever with eternal peace without any dispair left in us.

one day we'll be together forever and ever with eternal love without any doubts between us.

one day that day will come, and we wont be saying one day, we'll be saying today, then yesterday then finally, 'that one day'

Pain

The pain within,
so hard to swallow, im all choked up'
so deep and hollow.

so much pain
and so much hate, to hard to bear cant run from fate

i lie awake wishing needing not sleeping.

i feel the tears swelling in my eyes trapped like prisoners trying to be freed

its stabbs like knives, tearing to shreds my happiness and hope.

burning eyes see it perfectly iwont breakdown not now the pain thats felt mixed with regret are boiling stones straight from the fire.

like hell but living not heaven but life.

Poison

ur words are venomous poison, seeping through my veins spreading to my brain causing me to falter to weaken my every instinct shutting down every wall to blow to dust cutting off my common sense breaking down all of my will power your voice is so intoxicating pushing me off the edge forcing me to fall, filling my mind with pointless hopes eliminating all i've worked for every hit of you i take is making it even harder to fight to remember that your wrong that all you've ever done is hurt me, and trash my heart to bits everytime you stick the needle in again i lose myself a bit more now i've lost myself completely you have covered my eyes and whispered nothing but lies shielding me from all that i need afraid that i'll turn away and never come back, your words will always be poison, your voice will always be intoxicating but if i have to take all that to be your one and only i'll take it with pleasure because i know your heart is pure, your love golden and no matter what i'll never love anyone lke i do you.

So Hard

so close to death, so far from life youve made the decisions that got you to where you are, you look back and all you see is pain everytime youd seek some help, they all would disappear, run screaming from your side. they lie to others about who you are,
they tell the false tales, and ultimatly tear you bit by bit all the way from your head... to your toes,
inch by inch they cut and tear and break away your every being.
your murderers are all youve loved, all that you thought loved you back. they use and use, abuse and trash you, but you keep coming back for more? ? ?

i dont understand,
how you only wish to be loved, you just want happiness and family, but you never get it do you? ? ?
the never want you, they just want what your willing to give them your all.
you cant cry, your too messed up in the head your secrets that are hidden, theyre starting to resurface you give your heart out only to be rejected, repeatdly. the scars, they never heal, thetre only daily reminders, of who you are, and what youve lost and where youve been.

so many things theyll never unserstand so strong but yet the weakest link they dont understand, how its so hard to just live with all thats inside.

Song

the bird sings a little song that lets you know that a new day has begun.
it goes a little like this:
'wake up its time to begin a new day, just cause yesterday might not have been all that great all it means is you should make today your fate and have today be beautiful. wake up, no need to mope he broke your heart now its time to just cope' there is a special bird that sings specifically to you so that only you can understand.

look around open your eyes look at the beautiful flowers around you though you may like many there is a specific one for you it holds all your beauty and as it sways in the wind it sings a slow song
it goes a little like this:
'all you've done and all you do is never them
its always you.
if selfish pleasure is what you seek then let that selfish pleasure make you weak. if remorse and regret is what keeps you from sleep then let the remorse and regret make you take the last dreadful leap.' your flower knows your heart, mind, and soul.

the bird that lifts your spirits high with every intention of breaking you the flower that makes your moping heart cry because everything it says is true just listen to the little bird and listen to the swaying flower for they both are you.

Suffocating

the walls are coming closer, caving in a scared and lonely me boxing my torn up heart in. my life briefly flashes past my eyes, and i relive the painful and happy times. i briefly see the laughs with you and i pray to god youll remember me too. then in an instant i see when you boke my heart the big whole in my heart you caused the ocean of tears shed for you it feels like the memory stays for a second too long the air starts to escape out of my lungs and i find it hard to catch my breath. i wonder if i could live without air and i discover that living without you is exxactly like living and not breathing. i hold my breath and try to convince myself to forget you. your eyes, your mouth, the love that you showed me, all stir up the memory of you.
with every ounce of my strength i have left, i fall to my knees and cry.
i feell all the pain once again and as i look up to speak to my father i see the ceiling start to fall faster i look around and see thee walls start to spin telling me its all my fault. with every word it says it feels like im being punched in the stomach time after time. the breath that i was holding finally escapes my shattered body and leaves me sprawled across the floor broken and torn up once more. i cry harder with every memory of the memories that we made finally i give up close my eyes for the last time, and all into a very deep sleep.

Te Quiero

i wish i never would have saw you, especially since you stole my heart,
you refuse to give it back to me i need to have it back. your with her while im all alone, you wish for me to wait a year, but im not sure i can last a week.

soy quien por ti,
i want to be with you.
soy quien haces viver,
only me.
you make me fly so high usted hace dano a mi tan mal and just so you know, el mal le espera.

desde que te conocido te quiero muy mucho y mil conciones al oido contarte cuando no te tengo cerca sin tu enspiracion, no existeria esta poesia. whenever im around you
i need to abrazarte noches y dias hola mi vida, adios mi amor.

te quiero baby te quiero.

i love you

you refuse to give it back to me, i need to get it back.

you wish for me to wait a year,
im not even sure ill last a week.

it is me who lives for you,
i want to be with you.
it is me, whom you make live,
only me.
you hurt me so bad.
and just so you know,
ill wait for you.

since weve known
i love you very much, a thousand songs to the ear to tell you when i do not have you close. without your inspiration this poetry would not exist.

i need to embrace you nights and days hello my life
good bye my love.

i love you baby i love you.

Tear

tears streak down my suddenly blue tinted face my eyes r bloodshot searching 4 someone but not seein anyone my breathing goes hoarse, while my throat starts to burn as if being cut with razor sharp blades im searching 4 help but no one hears a word my heart goes thump, thump, thump....thump i start to go limp but i cant stop the fight with every movement my body aches, it burns, its in plain torture i still move, and finally manage to scream, 'run juliet, run! ' a hand strikes my face over and over and i feel heat my head hits the rough wooden floor till im semi-concious i want someone to help but once again my airway is blocked i close my eyes and leave a single tear.
i open my eyes and look into a bright light its the way out of this horrible dream i walk toward it but something trips me, and i start to fall farther and farther away from my escape into a bottomless black hole suddenly i hit the bottom but nobody comes to my aid dizzy, nauseous and in an awful pain i try to get up but somethings holding me down i fight and fight but its no use, ill never get up now i try to touch my face but my hands are bound behind me suddenly i get madly jerked around and thrown through air into somethind cold, hard and metal once again i cry a single tear. is top the fight im too exhausted, my body is too battered but my mind is still racing my head is pounding to the beat of my heart thum, thump, thump over and ovr, faster and faster i want to cry for help but somethings in my mouth cotton, lauged halfway down my throat all the pain ive felt through my life gets multiplied by 100 i try to open my eyes but something is forcing them shut i force a single eye open, but what i see startles me, i see a guy, a familiar face, one ive seen so many a time a guy that was in my dreams, my fantasies, the one whom holds the key to my heart hes looming above me with a sick perverse smile played across his lips enjoying what he sees that hes done about as much as the pain that he has forced onto me i shut my eye and see what i saw, only in my head, my brain trys to process the image but nothing seems to register my hands get set free, my ankles do too the sock that was gagging me disappears while a soft, yet still strong hand wipes the blood from my face, and the tears fom my eyes i silently dare myself to look up again, and i do my aching, briused body begins to tremble i cry and cry,

'why, why, why? '
are the only words that come out of my mouth 'because i love you.' are the last words i hear and with that a hand holds me down a cold barril of a gun gets pointed at my temple. bang, bang, bang three bullets get lauged into my brain. because of love i payed the ultimate price, i died. a bullet never lies.

Tears

my veins are pounding my heart is racing my face is red and blotchy. here they come streaming down my face. my nose starts running and i start shaking.
it all comes out the pain and regret then anger takes over and the tears are lost until there is more pain to be beared.

The Woman

off in the distance she runs in the street looking of only five years you slow, yet before your eyes she grows.

a sweet child of twelve now, crying at her fathers feet as he gets ready to bored that plane which will change him as a person forever. shes slightly freckled, with big green eyes, and dark blond hair to her waist crying and promising anything to keep her daddy home.

while closing the space youve drivin, a still slightly freckled, with dark blond hair and big green eyes, woman of thirty, has a baby on her hip, but no man by her side, she stands with poise and dignity as you pass.
with a tip of your cowboy hat you drive off.

a woman of ninety, stands in the place of the child and woman gazing at the back of your car watching you leave... seeing the look on the womans face makes you stare shes sobbing, clutching a pictyre and desperatly trying to breathe. you only look away.

several years pass and you find yourself driving on that very same street, shes still there,
shes still five and running in the street.... shes still twelve and crying at her daddys feet... shes still a woman of thirty with a baby on her hip but no man by her side... shes still ninety and clutching the photo of a lost love, gasping trying to catch an even breath.
only now you notice, the tombstone of the woman you once loved.

Today

today,
i woke up to the thought of you, when i first gained consciencness. i was secretly hoping you would be there to greet me.

today,
i woke up and thought of what you said. you called me a slut that name cut me deep and i dont remember what i did to you.

today,
when i was writing this i was wishing you would come and steal my heart like you did not so long ago.

last night, when i was deep in sleep, you entered my dreams and whisked me off m firmly planted feet.

today,
when you came to my house i silently watched and wished that i could be the love of your life that we could live our lives together forever in peaceful bliss.
that through thick and thin we both would love eachother to the end.

today,
while i was resting i silently thought of you and i wonder why i let you mess with my head like you do.

Un-Named

its so wierd the way i feel he cares so much it tears at my heart.
i dont understand
why life is so cruel everyone copes except me i live with regret i live with the pain of life nobody sees it nobody hears it, but i can feel it.
pressing down on me holding me down until i stop struggling. like drowning
only without water, like burning only without fire like crying only without tears.

Untitled

You know im crying,

what would you do?

do you want to see me die?

your to late to save me now,
and im not quite here i wish nothing but to die.

but you wont let me
i want you to quit.

i want you to quit trying to keep here because im not here my body is.
but other than that im gone

and i am in such great pain you need to let me go,
im gone.

ally lira

Used

when i look back at that nite i realized you didnt care about me you just used me.
you could have said no you shouldve pushed me away instead you used me.
you took what you wanted stole what you needed threw away the rest of me. you simply used me.
you laugh at my bruised heart tear the part of me i gave, burn my feelings i have for you i was used by you.
you love her while im a fool.
you hold her while im all alone.
you kiss her lips
while mine are shriveling up. you whisper good nite in her ear, while i cry myself to sleep. i dream about how u used me before that nite, my heart was bruised now, because of selfish pleasure, it broke. its never been so plain to see, you got what you wanted from me, you left with what i wanted and more, whatever you wanted to show me, got thrown away, when you chose to use me.

ally lira

What Do I Do?

where do i go which turn do i take?
please someone come and help me your love was like ecstasy the ups and downs tosses and turns the highs and lows.
it was so addicting and when you would touch me it would send a warm tingly sensation through t my body it was supposed to be different everyone knew i loved you with every ounce of my heart but it was never good enough for you oh how i wished my wedding day would come and you would be there right next to know one but me and now i know the lies you told the slap in the face you gave me now the only thing left to do is cry, and then say my final goodbye.

What Do You Call It?

when love replaces all the pain and hate disappears from all your veins when your first thought in the morning is them and you disregard all other women and men
what do you call it?
when all your thoughts are centered around that one and all you can think about is how you miss them a ton when all you want is to be next to no one but that person and all of your hopes relive and you start to have more fun.
what do you call it?
when your heart bursts open and you feel alive and you feel like you dont have to strive to survive when the insides get all fuzzy and warm and you stop worrying about the harm
what do you call it?
when you start to miss them more and more and your feelings are exposed all the way to the core when you want to be with them in the future and you hope that one day you will be there to pick out furniture
what do you call it?
when you feel like their 'the one' and you start to say things like 'baby' and 'hun' when you realize how much you two are alike and you start to sing in a mic.

ally lira

What Do You Do?

when they break your heart and torture your mind with every word when all you want is the love of your life back, and every one else knows its gone when you said you'd wait for them and they screw you over in the end.
what do you do?
when their happy with another but you don't want any other when your life was centered around that one and you miss when they called you 'baby' and 'hun' when love wasn't enough and everyone else but you could see it.
what do you do?
when they say they'll love you till the end but because of them your heart has to mend. when alcohol and drugs aren't enough and now theres no hugs and your forced to be tough when you just wish you could find that one but playing and flirting just aren't as much fun.
when your forced to move on but your not sure you can when you cant get them out of your head and at night you lie awake in bed. when writing about it doesn't help and hate how you feel but most of all, how you felt.

ally lira

What If One Day

what if one day,
were not together.
what if one day
we hate eachother?
what if one day
we move on what if one day
i cant pass on.
what if one day
we grow old
what if one day
our lives unfold
what if one day
we have kids
what if one day
we wont feel the need to say fibs. what if one day were not together what if one day we dont love eachother?

ally lira

Why Does It Hurt?

when you say how you feel but nobody bothers to listen, and they tear out your heart with every word. when everyones yelling but nobodys listening and everyone is hurting inside. when all of you are crying but nobody cares and all of you seek attention.
when you think you are happy with someone, but your parents say no more and you really like this person. when you feel complete but nobody understands and you want them to be with you when your hearts ripped out but you arent answered when you call for help and nothing heals the place where happiness once thrived.
when your always so depressed but you cant cry anymore and you need to shed those burning tears once more, when you rehearse the same smile over and over but after awhile your the only one thats fooled.
and you cant seem to fool anyone else. when you hate your past but thats all people seem to judge you by and you regret it every single day.

ally lira

Why?

why did i let you hurt me?
and take that one thing i wanted to keep why did you call me just for that?
you knew i would do anything for you.
the sad thing is i knew what you wanted to do. you took my virginity the one thing that made me pure you tookk away gods gift to me i dont know what i should do you said you wanted to finish what we started but im in too much pain right now. it must have been a sight to see us standing there it felt like you guys were wolves hungry, determined and big.
while i was like the little deer shivering through my knees. scared, innocent, and alone. ill never see the world ever the same again. but while you were inside of me i didnt think of you i thought of my ex abd wondered if he was thinking of me too.
you asked me what was going on inside of my head and i just simply told you you dont want to know if i could go back into time i honestly dont know if i would.

ally lira

You

I feel it now, haunting me
i know your here hiding, not ready to reveal yourself.

i beg you, dont let my foot slip what should happen if im not here?

will you forget me,
or will you mourn over my lifeless body?
will you shed those burning tears, or will you hide and pretend to know nothing?

i know you are there i can feel your eyes, staring coldly, straight through my body.

i feel cold, bare and naked, as if your eyes stripped me bare you tore down my walls and left me stranded alone and lost without a strand of hope of left in me.

are you afraid, to show yourself, to show me you are there?
i can feel you your heart pounding in my head driving me crazy.

stop hurting me
im in too much pain to bear.
i need to cope and your not helping,
so please, just go.

you saw my tears and yet you show no emotion, how cold could you be, what a disappointment to me.

Your

your white as snow soft as cotton
cold as a winter breeze.

you broke my heart but still i'm here living through each minute of every day.

smooth as silk

but please,
you put me through nothing but grief and misery.

i loved you so much you were always on my mind and in my dreams.

smart as a monkey and quick as a spider my heart is falling freely drowning from my tears that you caused me to cry.

and yet,

you're white as snow

smart as monkey quick as a spider.

all of these make who you are,
you are derk-a-derk,
a complete jerk-a-jerk.
