Red And Blue

Remember when you said I you
Everybody else remember
Do you recall lonely night when you left me home?
And do recall all those tears
No you don't recall any of it
Did you think I was just going to sit around and let you hurt
But now you have tear in your eyes and you are lonely has can be and the Love we had is gone
Unable to get out
Everybody know about it

What Do You Want Form Me?

What do you want from me?

I try to be a better wife

I try to make you happy but that not good enough so I ask you what do you want form me?

I can't keep lying to myself saying it will get I ASK MYSELF what do I want form you

Nothing!

I WANT nothing to do with you

I want to go away and ever come back

But I ask myself why won't you leave

Why won't you say I don't love you anymore!

What stopping you?

So I ask myself what do you want from me

I have nothing to give you

My love has faced for you

SO I ASK MYSELF WHAT DO YOU WANT FROM ME
