18 Months

I picture you inside my mind
Your gorgeous face, your big brown eyes
Deep, calming, hard to resist
Lips full of longing, beg to be kissed

You hold me in your big, strong arms
With you i'll never come to harm 18 months and going strong
I know you'll never do me wrong

I feel your heart it beats for me
I live for you I hope you see
You're perfect in every single way
I know my heart will never stray

You're so loving, kind and sweet We're made for eachother, everyone can see
Our relationship may have flaws,
But my heart and sould are forever yours

Darling, you'll complete my life
When we have kids and I'm your wife
I hope I give you everything
You want your life and love to bring

Adam's Poem

I felt it from the very start
My love for you, it fills my heart
It grows and grows with every day
I know our love will never fray

I love you to the sun and back
Being apart makes my heart crack
I wish we never had to part
Although you're always in my heart

Your smell's the best i've ever smelt
Your touch, it makes my body melt
So does the way you look at me
'Cause we were always meant to be

When we were young I thought you hot
And through the years I never forgot
Who'd have thought after all this time
We'd fall in love and you'd be mine

But truly it was worth the wait
All my life 'til our first date
Kissing behind the trees and truck
I honestly can't believe my luck

I guess that what i want to say
Is I love you forever and always You're the bestest anyone's ever had Now i've got you I am so glad

Another For Adam

When I'm upset
You always care
When I; m in need
You're always there

You make me smile
When I'm i tears
You wipe away
All of my fears

You patient, kind
Loving, true
I'll never find Another you

I wouldn't want to Anyway
My love for you
Is here to stay

You make me laugh
Constantly
We were always Meant to be

You make me happy
All the time
Adam babe
You make me shine

My soulmate,
Lover, and best friend
Our love it seems Will never end

Best Friends

I know we can do this We've done it before
We've stayed this strong for all these years
Through the ups and the downs
The rises and falls
We've always made it through the tears

i smile just knowing you'll always be here you make me laugh just by looking my way the trouble i find whenever you're near i'm glad it will never go away

I know i can trust you
With all that i own
You've never let me down before
You've stood by me
When i was alone
You've been there when my heart was sore

True, we've had fights
Our friendship's had flaws
But we've come back stronger every time
We're there for each other
Whatever the cause
Whatever mountain we have to climb

That's why i know
We'll make it through All the hardship we've yet to find
'cause you're my best friend
And i love you
You'll always be in my heart and mind

Missing You

Baby I know you're not far away
It really shouldn't bring me this much pain
This missing you
This loving you
We're on the phone but its not the same
As staring right into your beautiful face
It's not kissing yo
Not touching you

It's so painful
I know that you're close but I can't see you Painful
I know that you're near but I just can't hold you close
To me

I try to go on as if nothing's changed
But living without you drives me insane
No holding you
No smiling at you
All of these people try to keep us apart
Not being near you is breaking my heart
I'm missing you
But i'll never stop loving you

Things I Miss About You

I miss the taste of your lips the feel of your breath on me
The sound of your voice
And you being there for me
I miss your cute laugh
And your funny remarks
I miss all the kisses
I miss all the sparks
I want you to wipe my tears away
I want to be with you for one more day
Just one

What If

What if i'd been sensible Hadn't made that mistake
Hadn't made you think that about me
Would i be the same?

Would i be ashamed still About something else perhaps
Would i blame myself each day
For that 'small' mishap

Would it have made a difference if i'd have waited, changed my mind never thought about it or Made the decision another time

But i didn't change my mind
I went through with it too soon
I changed my life forever
For all the wrong reasons too

You Lied

You lied.
You made me cry.
You made me waste what was meant to be
The most important thing to me
Right now
And i'll never get it back

I'm mad.
You made me sad.
All those times that you were 'busy'
And then you had the decency
To walk
Past my house with all your friends

I was used
And then abused you couldn't even spare me just a little bit of dignity you spread nasty rumours all 'round school

And then
You try pretend
That all of that meant nothing
And you say you want me back again
You don't
You just feel a bit alone

And now
And God knows how I love someone who loves me back
He's truthful, kind, my heart won't crack
In two
Just like it did before
I'm over you.
