Hi i'm Courtney. I'm 18 and i'm a single mom. I've been through alot in the past 2 years. My brother died, my boyfriend left me when I told him I was pregnant, and I've been dealing with everything on my own. I love writting poems because it helps me express how I feel. I'm trying to improve the way I write so any advice is helpful so just message me.

A Dream

I'm drifting from my mind
Slowly,
Each day I wake up
I feel more distant and lonely

My heart is broken
I can't tell if it's there Maybe lost somewhere inside me
This just isn't fair

I never wanted to be like this This isn't the life i choose I just want to be happy And at one time I was

Maybe I'm destined for a life
Of agonizing pain
For god does not care
He lets it be this way

The one thing that makes me truly happy I cannot have I cannot be
And it makes me mad

Because him I need
Most of all
To help me survive
To help me up when I fall

But in my mind
It's all a dream
It'll never be that way I'm stuck like this, is how it seems

Check Your Mind

Check your mind
See whats right
My friend, you are not meant for life
Causing problems
Creating pain...
Memories, are such a shame People come,
People go,
But sister, you must know Life goes on and never ends We'll all suffer till the end Can't escape
Can not break
Can not wait for another mistake
Cry each night
Get no sleep
Another day, another week
No ones there
They just can't see You dieing right in front of me
There is no hope
There is no light
Life blew it out Without a fight
Cut your wrist Bleed some more Whats the point if no ones there...
Left behind like no one cares Crawling, sinking, seeing Whats not really there Loves her curse
Loves not there Loves not meant to be everywhere
Stoned with rocks
Beat up with fear
Destined for death
Destined for here
Check your signs
Check your pulse

Yes still breathing
Still bleeding,
Still dieing each night
Check your mind
Check your signs
Watch them stare....
Do not expect them, to care

Daddy's Little Girl

No matter what,
I love you he says right after he tells me, he's leaving again.

To be a soldier once more,
so far away,
to fight this war fear of death, from day to day

He leaves me here to worry of him,
As he fires his rifle, will he loose or will he win.

So proud of him for all his work,
no matter what
I'm daddy's little girl

Empty

Empty souls, created by hatred, love, and lies.
Stone hearts,
seen through broken eyes.

As time goes on,
and everyday that passes.
Hearts are broken,
and turned into stone statues.

For every lost soul, yearns for the one.
Who can fill the black holes, someone for them to love.

But each disappointment, is another stab to the mind.
Lost for eternity,
lost in a slow empty time.

Given Up

I've given up on you I've given up on me
I've given up on love
I've given up on everything

For nothing goes right
It's all wrong
I'm mentally exhausted
I'm losing my mind

Thinking of you
Thinking of me
Thinking of love
Thinking of everything

I thought you were right
But I was wrong
I'm just so exhausted
I'm closing my mind

Goodbye

Alone,
Crippled by thoughts of you weakening my mind slowing down my every move

This war in my mind Killing me
I'm not happy anymore
I just want to leave

I want to run so far away that you never cross my mind but what will it take distance or time?

but the thing I want most is for you to hold me in your arms to let me cry to let me feel loved once more but now I'm nothing but broken in my eyes all I see is emptiness and sadness nothing, thats me so now I'll start running to see how far I can get before I turn and run back Goodbye, Goodbye I'll love you till the end

Her End

She stands on the stone, so dead, so alone staring at the ground laying distance between her.

For the life that she lived, is one disaster after another only one to help her, only one who loved her.

but the lies that he told, has pushed her to the edge shes done and through,
'i'm sorry', he said she turned around at the sound of his voice she looked in his eyes, but this was her choice

she turned forward again, she steps off the ledge the ground moves faster toward her this is her end for his words were to late to save her lost soul shes dead, shes gone it's his turn, to be alone

I Walk In The Rain

I walk in the rain,
so no one can see,
the tears that i'm crying and the sorrow of me

The roar of the thunder,
The sudden burst of light blend with the storm that some call my life

I'm all alone,
yet I feel so free, Walking in the rain
so no one can see

I'M Gone

I feel my feet hit the ground, with greater force as i pick up speed running as fast as i can, the wind blows my bright red hair around me, like fire being released from within.
The storm building up inside me,
My tears the rain,
My screams, thunder Confused, i stumble hitting the ground, I just lay there.
Lightening flashes around me as I stare into the sky.
I go weak
Cold to the touch, stone eyes.
I'm gone
never to be missed,
I'm gone

In A Flash

The feeling that washes over me, the hurt I feel,
when I think of my little brother, and how in a flash he disappears One moment he's there, the next i'm being told,
he will never come back, he's dead, he's gone For every morning,
all I think about is him,
I love you Jimmy.
I'm your big sis,
no matter how it ends.

In This World

Lost in this world, full of confusion and hate.
where loves is pushed behind our minds, and kindness seems to fade.

Where everything we do, never seems to be right.
and all the things we say, brings sorrow to our lovers eyes.

As we sit in this world, and look at everything around us.
we wonder if life could of turned out different, and if our fate is a must.

but one thing to remember, destiny we can not change.
and no matter what we do our life will end up the same.

Life

The sound of tears hitting the floor, a heart of sorrow, a soul of stone forever more, a mind of secrets forbidden to be told a cold fire is seen so blue, so mean waiting to be controlled.

The time passes quickly a new day, new week life flying by each day, looking death in the eyes daring it to come near daring it to take us away

We see no light, as darkness takes over our every being everything the same, hate, lies, deceit, no change, no love
but so common,
we take no notice
this is life

Life After You

I look fine, I smile
I act fine, I laugh.
inside i'm screaming,
I'm so broken and sad

Each day I remember, how your love felt.
how your arms felt safe, and your kiss would make me melt.

I look at our babygirl, and I remember how you left.
when I needed you most, but all you did was forget.

Forget that you promised, you would never hurt me.
Told me we'd be together forever, and you would never leave.

Now I sit here, crying silently to myself.
Feeling the pain, and dealing with my life thats left.

For no one can see, how much you truely mean.
No one would understand, what your love meant to me.

Now you don't even think, about me or our daughter.
You don't ask about us, or try to be her father.

You have left us alone, to take care of ourselves.
We struggle and fight, but you don't try to help.

You have a new life, that doesn't involve us.
You don't want, or need,
or care, or love.

My Angelic Devil

At one time I thought I loved you Thought I could trust you with my heart Till you ripped it out and stabbed it, Killing me, as you tore it apart
And you didn't try to help,
You left me there to die Bleeding, Screaming,
Tears streaming from my eyes

At one time I thought I knew you, I thought, you would never lie Till I found out the truth,
That you, were never mine

All you did was use me,
And now I feel stupid that I ever believed,
That maybe deep down,
You could of actually loved me,
But I was very wrong
I should of listened when they said,
You were a trick and a liar,
I will hate you till the end

My angelic Devil
Inflicting me with pain
Knowing that I love it,
You will always, be the same

My Sky

I woke up this morning
Laying next to you Feeling so happy
My sky was so blue

But one thing at a time Things started to change
The clouds cover everything My sky turns to grey

Minute by minute
As time goes on My sky gets darker
I feels so alone

The blackness rolls in
As the tears poor from my eyes
A storm in my mind
Caused by your lies

But as i go numb
My colors change
Your out of my mind
I feel no more pain

Then I turn cold
Like the first winter frost
As my mind goes blank
My thoughts all lost

Saving Few

For time passed quickly, as he walked home alone another week is through, another day is gone reaching his block, he stops in fright as he looks at his house flaming against the night

Sirens wail louder, as they come near,
screaming past his stilled body so stiffened with fear for everything is gone, everything he knew burning to an ash, saving little, saving few

Sorrow

Through sorrows alike, stuck in this endless time hole.
Destined to be hurt,
We fail at what is seen through the eyes of the loved, our fate awaits us..

Sweet Revenge

She looked in the mirror to see what was her, but she couldn't see anything it was a blur.

She looked at the sink where she spilled the pills, thinking to herself this is how suicide feels.

All went black as she fell to the floor, last thing she remembers is him opening the door.

The look on his face,
The pain in his eyes, as he watched the one he loved take her last breath and die.

Smiling peaceful,
stuck in an endless sleep
Sweet Revenge,
this is how it must be

The Pain That I Love

I lay on the floor, in my own pool of blood.
I take another blow to my back, as you throw another punch.

I close my eyes, put my hands over my head as you hit me and kick me, when will it end

I don't know why I let you do this to me,
Its gone on for so long you'd think i would leave

But I love you so much, which is ironic some would say, you'd think I would hate you, because you treat me this way

But when its all over, I feel better than ever,
cause the pain is my paradise,
My life, My heaven

As you yell at me,
I look in your eyes
The love that i see,
and the Love is the lie

But as I lay here now feeling dizzy, and free I start to drift away, my body goes weak

Finally your done and you tell me you love me but i'm already gone in my eternal sleep

the pain is no more cause now i'm alone Stuck in this nightmare
That I now call my home

I sit here and wait, for when your time will come that you will join me in my new life and cause the pain that I love

The Same

As I lay in the dark I remember the times, when we layed here together and you were mine

but thats all in the past never again will I be in your arms nor thought of in your head but now comes the time that i'm totally through of running and chasing, and thinking of you for now I feel nothing when they mention your name your just like the other guys your all the same

Tired....

Tired of sorrow
Tired of pain
Tired of the sun
Tired of Rain

Tired of this place that some call my mind Tired of living this thing some call my life

Tired of wishing that I could change Tired of seeing things in this way

Tired of hating the people I should love Tired of knowing Tired of us

But most of all the thing i'm tired of the most is being tired of everything around me and having no one

We

We live in a world of hate, fearing the truth, blinded by lies, lost souls, and glazed eyes, silenced screams of terror and pain, we ignore the helpless for fortune and fame,

We convince ourselves that what we do is right when all we do is kill and fight, for our beliefs may corrupt us, and make us believe what is not there, what to say, what to hear, what to wear.

We live among millions, but each one of us alone, in our mind, our body we make these choices we are only one...

When I Look Into Your Eyes

I look in your eyes, and all I see is the same empty look I wonder what you need you smile and laugh and act like everythings fine but you look so different

when I look into your eyes

you kiss me, you hug me you tell me you love me I try to believe it's true so that maybe I can feel something but I now it'll never be cause the only thing I see is that dark empty look, when you look at me
