hey...well the names rebecca...i was born in lowell andi plan to stay here. at the time i'm only in high school (imma sophmore at LHS) and i love to sing, witrwe, and dance. i love to express my feelings through 's really the only way i can.

All Bottled Up

I don't want
To let it out don't want for it to show

but I want to let you know I like you a lot before you go

I don't know how long i can last without telling you all my truth

But I'll stay here
until you have to move
-becca hansen (12 22 05)

Instead

I really wish
I could tell you
How i really feel

But in the past
My hearts been broken
And it's hard to heal

You to feel different
Instead of liking me too

Don't want another Broken heart but i really do want you
-becca hansen (12 27 05)

Make a Choice

If you saw
A broken girl standing by your side would you just let her go let her run and hide? ?

or would you look into her eyes and see the way SHE lives... see how much was taken from her but yet how much she gives..

you don have forever to make this one decision

But my advise to you just is

Put yourself in their position

As The Leaves Fall, So Does Care

A walk in the park used to mean so much more.
Now all it does is add to my already messy life.
Like leaves falling in the Autumn,
The wrappers fill up our streets.
Scattered debris, cluttering our lives Like an over scheduled business man waiting to retire.
Letting litter lie like lions on the grass.
Each paper falling is one step closer to a death Day by day, I hear people say,
As animals lay,
What can a simple piece of plastic do?
Animals die, as we just walk by, why does this world kill.
Trees try to live as the trash takes away life.
We choose to lose environmental life by adding strife to those who 'do not matter' As we keep digging ourselves into this hole which we can't seem to climb out of This death is piling higher, every step, every wrapper, as each animal suffers.

At This Moment

as i sit here in this room all to myself just thinking all alone about how ive got no one else then i realize i got someone but we just wont admit just how much we love

i dont know why we dont just show
'cuz then if we do we'll finally know...

and we'd be oh so in love
but at this moment, we both must have nothing

Awkward

is it awkward when i say i love you?
is it awkward when i run out of something to say?

or can you look past all confusion and into the depths of me into my inner heart that wishes to break free?

when i write you songs, and poems does it make you feel uncomfortable? cuz if it does i'll stop i dont want things to be awkward

becca hansen

Bubble Gum Pink

everytime i talk to you there's a new song in my heart a new hope in my life a hope that we'll never part my face turns bubblegum pink and my eyes moon white i just want to be with you the for the rest of my life

Can'T You Just Love Me?

you and i are just friends and i hope this friendship never ends cuz i can feel something starting but i dont think you do well, i want you but i, cant have you and if i, cant have i just dont want to go on cuz without you im not, completed and now i know, i want to open this door and have more.

when you walk into this room my heart goes into zoom [boom boom] i swear you dont see me staring but i bet you can see me right through dont you see the fire in my eyes i dont get like this around other guys and every little thing you do just turns me on why the hell do you think im writting this song...

..for you!

i want you
and i gotta have you and if i dont have you i dont want to go on cuz i need you you complete me, yeah there's no erason for us to not be...

cant you just love me? ?

Controll Me Not..

i needed you my world revolved around you you were everything i wanted and more but then you left me and now your beggin me but i just cant not carry this anymore

no i will not be controlled by a man i dont need you to hold my hand im doing fine on my own
i think its your turn to sinnk in the sand its time for you to understand im fine all alone..

you were really great someone i loved to date but the problem was, you would never listen you told me our love true boy, i wanted to beleive you and now your telling me i dont know what im missing

im fine all alone..

i had some fun but your not the one im not your toy and your not my boy i want to stay but dont want to play just let me be oh why cant you see...? ? ? ?

that i will not be controlled by a man dont you dare try to hold me hand i will get by on my own i hope that you understand if you dont, then i deman its time for you to leave..

..me alone

Daydream Happy

the colors of the black and white screen the hush of the lions roar the joy of a horrific scream the bang of a gently creaking door the darkness of the day the brightness of the night the moving at that stop sign the 'giving up' with 'all your might'

some say these are lies some say these dont make sense but i say there's nothing wrong about making things a littke tense i say to daydream happy LIVE your life with the DEATH of pain MOVE along, in the STILLNESS of the earth and let the darkness of the day shine on through...

becca hansen

Done

I'm done with all the games I just want to live my life Because when you play the game of love It can cut like a knife

I showed you how I felt
But I guess it doesn't matter You don't want me in your life I guess you'd rather have her

But that's okay seeing as I'm done
I just cant believe
That my heart you won

And once you got it
You broke it in two I can't even believe I wasted my time on you...

Dream On

Dreams are reached
By facing obstacles
And reached by Climbing hills

It' not going
To be easy
But you got to Face it still

You may hit
A fork in the road
And a few
Bumps or two

But eventually You'll make it
And what you want
Will be waiting for you.

Dying For A Place

theres a feeling i cant explain everytime that i hear your name just wanna hold u so, and never let go

there's a song in my heart about how we'll never part i'm gunna sing it to you thats what im gunna do and imm dying for a plce in your heart [x4]

Everything..

well sometimes it feels like the walls are closing in i'll fall down and it's hard to get up again surrounded by a million buildings with no where to run sometimes it feels so hard to survive but i know, that i should just take a dive then once i am done, lay down and take in the sun

and

soak up everything i can to get through every single day find the one thing that makes me happy and in it i will stay ignore stuff that gets you down learn how to swim so you don't have to drown.

For Real

I want someone who is real dont want another fake becuase i dont want the lies Lies, i will not even take

If you say 'I love You' I expect you to mean it Cause when I find it's false I wont take it one bit

No matter cute you are or even how funny if you are a fake you wont be my 'honey'

so what i want is a relationship hard as steel but really over all, i just want it to be For Real

Hidden Scars Led To Hidden Soul

she walks around with her head so high. she can be anybody's friend and get any guy

people look up to her and thinks shes so grabd but no one sees her go home and how her dad pushes her down as she stands.

she'll un away from hinm and his beating hands but he just folows her and keeps sending blows she just hope that the scars wont show when she gets back to sees her 'loyal' boyfriend he had found someone new abd cheated till their end.

the girl was breaking apart, had no where to turn so this urge inside her started to burn that day, she NEVER returned, she ran away for good. she swam down to the bottom of a lake and inhaled.

it was the only peace she could find

becca hansen

I Am

I am curios and helpful I am the mountains in the distance I am the crash of symbals hitting the floor I am a spirit, wandering in and out freely I am unconditional love I am lost hopes and dreams I am the smell of a home-made meal I am everything i could and ever will be...

I Love You & You Love Me i think of you every moment and sing a song of you everyday there just isn't a single thing that you don't have to say i'd love you no matter what and i know you'd love me too and without our love in my life i don't know what i'd do i cry when your not near me and just smile when you are and when i look into your eyes i never feel i'm far i love everything about you he way you smile and look at me and everyone can tell that i love you & you love me

Im Running Out

im running out things to say [im running out of lies] im running out trust [im running out of spies] im running out of love [im running out of hopes] im running out of dreams [im running out of silent screams] im starting to get tired of running toward you so i guess ill just start running away

Inside

We all have thoughts
That we want secret
But some things
We can't hide

And some of us seem to show whats going on inside

the ones that close their eyes and cry becuase of what they're feeling and how we let them sit and cry its their hope that we are stealing.

It Could Become So Much

passing glances between two people making so much eye contact dancing in the moonlight nights and loving with all our might let our love wander into the depths of our feelings express your thoughts, your inner self set free

let it all go, like a parachutist jump into the air with just one thing that one thing could be my love and it could stop you from hitting the ground

because when you hit hard, it hurts but if you have someone there that one could be your comfort, take all the pain and burn it in the fire we make let your loving side give in let's become one intimate creation our personalities blend and thoughts collide let all go, let me see inside your soul

It's My Life, Your In It..

the life i want is complex but yet i have one simple detail missing.. a detail that makes a house a home and a mother, into a wife..

you

my world may get crazy but one thing remains sane complaining wont get me anywhere anytime i need to vent, you yes, you, will be there i may sound a little forward but you will be there you will guide me you will love me and most of all we will be perfect..

i'm not perfect
your not perfect but together, theres nothing ever wrong..

so as one, we are perfect...

Just A Thought

sometimes i feel like a peice of broken glass a ripped part of a shirt a fallen down tree

the world is crashing the people are dying the church is sinning

and times i wonder what went wrong
how did life get this way?

no more joy in the owrld no more love
no more nice things to say...

i think to myself there has to be a place where war and suffering don't exist

where love replaces hate joy replaces sadness peace replaces war abd truth replaces guilt where money wouldn't matter where hearts wouldn't shatter we'd all be together and never be alone

sometimes, when im mad i try to think of why i ma becuase, really, its not even wirth a bit of pain

if you'd look at the worls through a birds eye view you'd relaize how much we've lost and wasted on things we say and do we do things to hurt hurt ourselves and others sometimes people end up without fathers and mothers i write this for the world and i write in hope that some day people will see... life's just not worth the pain

My Friend.. Drummer Boy

i walked through the door and the first thing i saw was you your were just chilling there behind the drums and i didnt have the slightest clue that you would never leave my mind that i would long to become close to you as a friend or maybe more but now im feeling for sure im feeling a drive towards you one ive never felt before a feeling that goes deep way down into my core

everything has meaning
but its not always clear but one thing that's plain to see is that i just want you near...

im feeling like ive lost my heart but im gaining a new soul im feeling worn, torn, and pulled apart waiting for something new to start i feel like ive been emprisoned no where to go, with people im missing but im feeling oh so cared for your really keeping me alive i was wandering down a lonely road with a heavy burden and an awkward load but you saw past my anguish you saw past my pain
and now im happy to call you my friend..

you saw past my anguish
you saw past my pain
my friend..

My Motivation(Written As A Song)

If you just knew What I'm thinking inside
I think that I Would just have to die

Cause i don't want to let it show Cuz if you don't feel the same I know, that'd you go away

I love you, and i need you Without you I'm so dry Your my motivation to go on everyday and if you don't mind, yea could you stay?

Stay here with me, near me in my heart Please comfort me, when I am hurt Cuz your the only one who can, keep me alive make me stand And I know that you are the only guy.

My Song To You.. [i Love You Ryan] here i go again just another stupid day no one's here again to listen to what i have to say that's how i used to feel, when you werent around now your here to help me deal, your my security, ive found that boy, dont you know i love you boy, dont you know i miss you boy, dont you know i need you in my life

boy. i just wanna hold you boy, i just want to kiss you there's one thing i want in life, i wanna be your wife...

and there you smile again, you dont know what that does to me you make me laugh again, you dont stop, you make my heart beat the only thing you ever did, to make me hurt was when i fell hard for you, we gotta make this work

boy. i just wanna hold you
there's one thing i want in life, i wanna be your wife...

you have no idea how much i love you and you gotta know that if you ever left my whole world would collapse cuz you are the one who holds me up so high

i can't resist this fire deep down inside

boy. i just wanna hold you
there's one thing i want in life, i wanna be your wife...

No One Knows But Her/Lonely Girl

no one she's there sitting there with her black dyed hair looking around like shes lost no one know she cares when they look and stare they think that itts just her lost nobody knows that she goes home and cries nobody knows that she just wants to die

no one knows that she just wants to be no one knows that it becuase of you & me

one day when shes at home feeling so alone she gets a knock at her door its some girl from shcool whos real cute and cool with some jesus in her heart no one knows that that girl really cares

no one knows even why she did but only she knows that shes not alone anymore

the world needs to show how we can grow and go and praise God all round the world

there's always some one there that with you can share so don't be the Lonely girl

becca hansen

Pasted Smile

when you were in kindergarten you could paste just about everything together well, i feel like that sometimes and i'm pasting on a smile i have so much bottled up i dont want anyone to see i ignore everything that's happened i just fell it's not worth while if i could go back to every time i covered up my feelings i'd throw the paste away along with all this pain i would express what i really wanted because now i see it's not worth not worth a second of my time cause when you keep it....

NOTHING is what you will gain.

becca hansen

Promise

Don't ever leave me
And don't let me go Don't be afraid to Ever let it show

I am yours
And I belong to you
And I'll be cool
With whatever you do

Just promise me
One simple single thing, You'll always love me
And it will always bring

Promise me that You won't let anything hurt me Promise me tha
You and I can become a WE

With all my heart
I hope we never Ever have to part

Ribbons In Here Hair

ribbons in her hair thats al he could remeber there were ribbons everywhere just them no one else was there he doesnt know why he wanted to hold her high give her everything she deserved and please her with every single word but he knew when he saw those ribbons in her hair that the world was so wrong they were in love..and thats where they belonged

Set The Stage

everyones waiting
nothing really going on hesitating
dont know what they are there for in the curtains of a dark stage with a single spotlight in the middle a man sitting in the audience reading a book then turns the page..

he says
well, the stage is set, what do we do now? they say
well what do we do? just do a dance and then sit down?

you entered these doors, without even seeing?
you entered these doors, just following the crowd?
why did you come, when you did not know what to expect?
some one, explain. take center stage. speak loud a little girl walked up said i just had faith

i had faith that this would be safe and that i know i dont have to hesitate the man smiled and said this little girl steps above into the clouds of a new power she didnt have to speak for an hour she says a few words and shes done. with faith like a child.

hesitating
still dont know what they are there for
now with a little girl sitting there..

reading a book then turns the page..

another boy comes up
he says
in my teenage years ive been told and scolded ive been beaten and brought up but ive never, had to come into the light. i have never been able to win this fight. inside of me there is, something i cant explain and it seems sometimes, that all i do is complain. i see that this stage is set.
and im going to take control.
im ready to be told again, tell me, whats my role?

the man sitting in the audience gets up and walks to him.
slides the book across the stage and says i dont know, you tell me...

hesitating
reading a book then turns the page..

the stage is now set.
dont you all realize?
time is running out.. maybe you should take advange of the things we take for granted and come to the spotlight.. dont perform... but present what god has made for you...

So Much

I want you
oh so much
I want you
and i to touch
I drive myself insane
When i hear your name
And face, it makes me smile Can I stay with you a while?
Without you
I'm cold
Without you
I fold
I break and fall
I break and cry
I want to be your girl
I know for sure that your that guy

Stand In His Pride

there was a time when life was rough
there was a time
when i thought that they were enough

there was a time
when i couldnt see
there was a time when i thought it'd never be but now you've come into my life you are the only one for me god i run to you with open arms god i'd notice you without any alarm you are the one who takes my sin away you are then one i want to always stay you are so great you created man i just cant wait for in your presence i'll stand my life is your go ahead and take control go take the wheel so we can get on the role cuz now you've come into my life

you are the only one for me

god i'd run to you with open arms god i'd notice you without any alarm you were the one who changed my life you are the groom i am your bride god i'll live for you here, i stand, in god's pride.

Tears

some tears mean sadness some tears mean joy sometimes they're shed when in love with a boy we have them to express just how we're feeling it's kinda like a way to vent its a way of dealing tears can taken away sometimes so you can be happy and all will be fine

you just need to find a way of getting rid of them

The Two Lists In My Life in my life i have two lists.

one: things i dont miss two: things i DO miss i miss your kisses

i miss your hugs

i miss talking with you drinking co co out of our mugs i miss the way you held my hand i miss how you'd say 'im your man' i miss late-night camp fires i miss the sounds of your tires as you pull up to my house i miss your 'always and forever babe' i miss how you would get in trouble if you stayed

my list of things i will miss is a lot bigger than than list of things i wont and dont miss the one thing i wont miss:

trying to keep a relationship above water while i was the very one trying to sink it..

Tired Of Feeling Like This

im tired of feeling like this trying to stay all bottled up.. convincing myself im happy when im not trying to make you happy suffering because your not and trying so hard to get you to understand that life is more than this its more than just you and me more than just crying your nights to sleep and trying to get me back time to move on and start realizing something that i'm not the one i'm not you 'love'

your 'babe'
your 'sugar'

i'm nothing but your friend. that's all i can be

becca hansen

Wait

I cant wait
To be in your arms
I can't wait
Till love is ours

But..

I guess I'll have To just keep sitting Alone in this room
All to myself

Cause I might have Your picture close
But I want my picture
To be on your shelf

So I'll sit here and wait Pretend to not care
For you to much Boy, I want your touch...

Why Did...

why did you have to change go the total opposite direction why did you have to lie just to maintain protection i would have understood if you had only told me i would have actually cared for you but now you like both women and men you say your a beleiver and have jesus in your heart but if it was supposed to be same sex it would have been that from the start i know i cant change how your feeling but at least i can pray its my way of dealing

thing seemed to have been going so well.....

You Came In Timee

i feel sick and worn torn, left alone don't want to be me, dont want to shw below this mask i wear and tear it down frown because of love and strife feels like a blade a knife, cutting deep i weep, i long for strong caring sharing arms to hold fold into them, say babe, i love you i need you..

because i do you came just in time
