Brysha Mull(10-23-90)

I feel like I can explain the feelings that I don't talk about with anyone in poetry. I work full time at a resturant and I volenteer at a no-kill animal shelter. I have been writing poems and songs for as long as I can remember. It really makes me feel better to let my feelings out in poetry. I believe everything happens for a reason.

A Love Poem

I want to write a love poem,
But the words cannot be found.
I want to write a love song,
But there is no sound.
I want to hear that you love me,
But I cannot hear your voice,
I want to stay with you,
But there is no choice.

A New Day

My room is dark and lonely,
The moon is shining bright,
I am wondering why,
Your not holding me tonight?

The wind blows through the window,
And a cold breeze sweeps over me.
I'm so alone tonight,
And the moon is all I see.

The clouds are dull and gray,
And they start to cover the moon.
The sun is almost rising,
A new day is coming soon.

So I will tread the water,
As I do each and everyday.
Hoping to find my someone,
Somewhere along the way.

Alone

In this world, alone and apart
The pain is too great, from my breaking heart
The colors are fading, alone and away
Am I ready, for one more day?
The same routine, alone myself
I hide my feelings, on the back of the shelf
All these hours, passing by
I'm so alone, and I wonder why
I start to think, never again
Will my heart, ever mend?
It's breaking now, it was broken before
I'd hate to see, it break once more

Anything For You

I think it's true, you made me fall.
You made me love you, more than all.
I fell into your arms, and everything felt so right.
I need you here, with me tonight.
I only want you, to hold me tight.
When it all fell apart, you made it alright.
How do you know, when I want to hold you hand?
I'd do anything for you and everything I can.
I don't want you to leave, it would tear me apart.
You're the only one, who hasn't broken my heart.

Destiny

I've given up too much,
For the promise you made to me of happiness.
I started out as a whole person,
And now I am one big mess.

I was lost in you,
Now I am lost inside.
I realized a while too late,
We never stood side by side.

Now I am on my own,
And the promises did fade.
I have loved and lost,
But I still love the person I became.

I have learned how truly strong,
I can be in the face of heartbreak.
I learned there is no set destiny,
My life is, what of it, I make.

Do You Love Me Too?

Do you even love me?
Why do I love you?
Everything happened so fast,
Are you happy, too?

Sometimes I start to wander,
If your love is real.
It's the little things you say,
That make me feel the way I feel.

You can make me laugh,
And you can make me smile,
If you'd just hold my hand,
For a little while.

You can make me cry,
And you can make me scream.
You would be so perfect,
If you wouldn't be so mean.

Endings And Beginings

My world has changed,
I was fifteen and wanted to be free.
I almost lost it all,
Almost lost all of me.

And the days that followed,
Were a new begining for me.
The world that used to be so small,
Has opened up for me to truely see.

I looked up to the sky,
And I truely understand.
How big the world really is,
And that I must lend a hand.

Forever Tonight

Forever tonight,
Is here and now.
Show me love,
And I'll show you how.

Forever tonight,
Let's make it last.
I'll remember forever,
Those nights long past.

Forever is now,
Tonight is here.
I know I love you,
It's all so clear.

Heroes

A hero is my brother,
Who is over in Iraq.
The only gift I want for Christmas,
Is for my brother to come back.

Only a few people,
Know the pain I feel when he's away.
Although I am so proud,
Of him each and everyday.

He is my hero and my friend,
He is one who helped me grow.
He loved me unconditionally,
And I just wanted to let him know.

I'M Okay

It's midnight now,
My head is spinning.
It's 2: 06,
And my ears are ringing.

It's all dark now,
But I'm awake and thinking.
Right about when,
Did I start sinking?

My world is falling,
My arms were open wide.
I close my eyes,
I've got nothing to hide.

I'm in too deep,
But I'm okay.
I'll wake tommorow,
To a brand new day.

Inside

I don't feel together inside,
I'm not sure about dependence here.
And I won't cry,
If your anywhere near.

You make me shake inside,
You can occasionally make me smile.
I want to feel secure,
For just a little while.

Inside of me,
Is one big mess.
Do I try to hard,
That's my best guess.

Inside my mind I wonder,
Why I feel so crazy tonight.
My head's spinning in circles,
I want to feel alright.

Invisible

I feel so invisible,
Standing alone in a crowd.
No one is there to hear me,
When I cry aloud.

My heart is breaking,
But no one takes the time to see.
I feel so alone and torn,
Between my family and me.

What did I do wrong?
I grew up way to fast.
That's not my fault is it?
But the trauma will forever last...

Alone and vivid in the back of my mind.

Let Me Live

Let me live, and let me be
Let me learn, and let me see
Let me love, don't let me fall
I need you now, more than all

I'll let you know, you make my world everything that it seems
You're the only in my heart, and the only in my dreams

You make my world spin, and you make my heart beat fast
I want to let you know, I want this to last

So just let me love you, with everything I can
And just let me hold you, hand in hand

Lovely

My world is dark and scary,
I am still a child deep inside.
I scream so no one hears me,
And I try to hide.

But when I close my eyes at night,
And slowly fall asleep.
I find another world,
In which I'd like to keep.

I found my dreams,
And they are so lovely.

Move Along

I've got nothing to prove,
To anyone including you.
I won' explain a detail,
About anything I do.
Im so sick of trying,
To explain the way I feel.
You won't listen anyway,
It's not a real big deal.
I'm so used to silence,
I will smile while tears well inside.
Even though you said,
There's nothing I should have to hide.
I'll never have you back,
But don't worry because I won't try,
So just move along,
And don't ask me why.
I'm a little numb,
But I guess that I'm okay.
I don't need you advice,
There's nothing you can say.
I guess I will be strong,
And hold on to what I've known.
I know that life goes on,
And I'll be fine out on my own.

My Heart

The days will pass,
And seasons have changed,
But in my heart,
The feelings remain.

This love for you,
Makes my heart beat strong,
It's been a few months,
But it feels like so long.

I know I love you,
These feelings are true,
I want you to know,
My heart beats only for you.

Over My Head

Did you ever think,
I asked to feel like this?
The same things everyday,
What did I ever miss?

Relationships don't change,
Or at least they don't with me.
The lies all cut the same,
What didn't I ever see?

I'm in over my head,
I know I'm losing you.
What did I forget to say?
What did I forget to do?

Smoke

The smoke swirls in an endless rays of light.
The darkness is lit by the stars in the night.
The clouds so dreary in a sky of blue.
Are countered by the snow so new.
The rain will fall like tear drops around.
The flames burn without a sound.
The wind will whip and consume it all.
As the stars will silently fall.
The sun will burn in the sky tonight.
As the smoke twists in the rays of light.
Tonight the moon will fail to glow.
As everything crumbles below.
The warmth in the world is no more.
As the world is shaken to the core.
The last breath is gone and cold sets in,
As everything grows cold, the silence begins.

Brysha Mull

The Wolf

The wolf so lonely,
Howls at the moon.
He screams his beautiful,
Sobering tune.

He stands on the cliff,
Apart and strong.
He is the symbol of strength,
While he singing his song.

This wolf so mystical,
Will never show his fears.
He just turns to the night,
And disappears.

Brysha Mull

Tomorrow

Tomorrow will come,
And my tears will dry.
I'm not okay,
But I will lie.

No one will know,
Because no one will ask.
I'll keep on my fake smile,
Till' I can take off my mask.

You'll never see me cry,
Because you never take the time.
Is this all that's left to say?
Is this my final line?

Underneath It All

Underneath it all,
With the curtains pulled back and the sun shining in,
I dread the day that's breaking,
It begins once again.

Why?
Pull back the curtains and begin the days endless routine.
Why?
Face a world so unkind and unknowingly mean.

So I sit alone,
And I dream...

Looking nowhere,
A smile quickly fades,
No one's around,
So I'll end the sharades.

Keep it calm they say,
And keep it direct,
But when no one is there,
I can only reflect.

So collect all the white lies,
And every fake smile,
So maybe tonight,
I can breath for awhile.

Walk Away

I try so hard,
To hold my tongue,
But the shit you say,
Just gets me sprung.

I want to scream,
And shout at you,
But it never changes,
The things you do.

So I'll walk away,
Out the door,
The same routine,
I can't take anymore.

I won't cry,
Or shed a tear today,
I'll just leave,
And walk away.

Watching Over Me

Sometimes i think that i have lost
The things that make me whole
To fake a smile but at what cost
Its tearing at my soul

To look up at the sky
And to know your life is small
But then to wonder why
And fall back into it all

The joy i used to keep inside
Has faded away somehow
The tears i try to hide
Will not be stopping now

Then i look inside myself
And try to see things clear
Someone's watching over me
And they are always near

What You Do To Me

Tonight I'll wait, and stay awake,
And fall into your sweet embrace.
Forget my worries, and all the pain,
and slip into another place.

It's your love that keeps me warm tonight,
And I just hope you know,
For all the money in the world,
I'd never let you go.

I have waited all my life,
To find someone like you.
I never thought i could fall deeper in love,
with every new day, but I do.

Where I Went Wrong

I remember sunny days,
But inside me was only rain.
I still hurt inside,
When I think of all that pain.

It's so hard to see,
These things still cloud my view.
I only wanted that same love,
Except from someone new.

I think I've tried,
To put those feelings into you.
But as I've learned,
It was the wrong thing to do.

You make me wonder constantly,
Where I went wrong.
Was it because,
I loved you all along?
