Box

The things u once loved what happen to them?
Did you throw them away or did you keep them in a box in the attic?
Am i in the box too?
Because you seem to not love me anymore?
You dont look at me the same or even talk to me.
What happen to the person you loved?

Gamer

The world you live in is virtual
Did you ever stop and think
If you lose the girl you love you cant just reset it.
The girl only wants a guy who knows real from fake.
So if you ever realize that you can't just restart the love we had take a good look because I'm gone
You just can't keep on living live like it's a video game
Sooner or later u will realize life isn't just some video game you can reset at any time
you only get a few tries at making things right so please before you lose me for good
Come back to real life and love me like you use too.

Good-Bye Heart

The Days were getting shorter
It wont be long now.
before you come
come to take my heart away
Please get here soon
I don't know how much longer i can take
Its been so long since i have loved someone like you
Are you here to stay or walk away?
I've had so many just come in and rip my heart out.
Thats why i built a wall
Is that you climbing it?
I didnt mean to keep anyone out
But to see who would climb over it for me
I can only hope you're the one who will risk everything just to get in
Will you stay when you get in?
Or will you think I'm not the one you wanted?
What will I do if you walk away with my heart?
I dont want to get hurt again
There i go again putting up more defences
I guess no matter how had i try
I can't let my guard down
I would realy like to get close to you but i don't want to risk getting hurt
I already gave you my heart, so why cant i give you the rest of me?
Well i dont care what my head says my heart says risk it If you love him. I love him so.
Im going to risk it
Good-Bye heart i hope you don't get shredded

Lone Tear

As I sit here on my bed.
Surrounded by my things.
I sit and remember.
The reasons behind the scars on my heart.
I do not cry two tears over them.
But just a lone tear.
A tear thats lonely just like me.
Sure i have a man, but what's a man who rarely ever see's the real me?
The real me who loves to dance and sing, or write about stuff i dont know.
You can see the outer me.
My friends see me through my eyes.
The lone tear in my eye.
So when will you see the lone tear inside of me

Rainbow

Rainbows use to make me smile
Cause i knew the rain was gone
But not anymore cause now
your not here to share it with me
There was a rainbow the day you were taken
So now everytime i see a rainbow
I CRY

Random Thought! !

I thought you were different.

I guess I was wrong.

Why didn't you tell me you were like everyone else?

I had a wall built up around my heart but I let you tear it down.

I should have never let you close because every time I start to actually care about some one I always get hurt.

Just like now.

I can't believe I was so stupid as to let someone get close to me.

Now I sit here wondering why.

Why can't I just find some one who loves me for me and not hurt me if I let my guard down?

I thought you would be that guy but I guess I was wrong.

What is wrong with me?

Why can't I find someone like everyone else does?

I guess I'm the only girl in this school that can't find a guy who will notice she is standing next to him and care.

I want a guy who his friends will ask "who is that? " and he would say "Oh that's my girlfriend."

What happened to all those kind of guy's?

Wall

I had built a wall around my heart to distant myself
I never thought someone would come and care enough to tear it down.
Well I guess anything is possible because you did.
At first you were my friend
Then slowly you eased your way closer to me
No matter how hard I try I can't rebuild the wall that was destroyed
No matter what when I'm mad and you come around me I cant stay mad
I always want to smile now days because of you
No matter what people say I will always love you.
