in my child hood i love nature, i always love to read poem and poet so, this habit infuanced me to write poems and story.

Life Without Sorrow

Without sorrow,
no meaning of life.

Life ia a temple,
if there is sorrow.

It can't see the world,
If there is no sorrow.

If there is sorrow,
There is justice, truth and religion.

Like the patient without medicine,
Like the life without sorrow.

So sorrow is important in our life

Man Is A Machine

Man is a machine,
If we give some feed,
he will be run automatically.

If we give good memory in his input,
he will be give good output.

If we give bad memory in his input,
he will be give bad output.

find good or bad that depend upon us,
For find allways good response to him.
always give good input to him.
