Donielle Smith(12/21/70)

Hi, my name is Donielle. In speaking of myself, not only am I an aspiring freelance writer/poet, but I am also a 2005 hurricane katrina survivor and a proud mother of a teenage daughter. In my spare time I enjoy writing, reading, going to movies, watching television shows, attending church activities, traveling, and dining out. In my journey as a writer, which has been over a course of five years, I have had the overwhelming pleasure of writing numerous articles, poems, quotes, and much more. You can find a variety of my work featured throughout the web. I am also on social networking sites such as: Twitter, Facebook, Shoutlife, Myspace and many others. The poetry that flows as a creativity of words from my heart relates to my personal life, life of love ones, and from just life in general. My poetry has been on a variety of topics which stem from, love, life, sadness, triumph, nature, seasons, the economy, war, peace, abuse and so on. my overall goal is to continue pursuing my dream of someday becoming a published magazine or book author. When it comes to writing, I hope that through my writings that I could make a huge difference in this world.

A Mother's Love

there's nothing like it It's even better than ice cream and cake the loves that dwells inside of her will always be real
It could never be fake

She lights up the room with her dignity and grace
No wonder I would do anything to see a smile on her face Her strength's I love that she courageously shows

Weaknesses I'm sure, but no one really knows Loving God is her first priority
Of course family and friends follow behind
When it comes to following your dreams

She says seek and you shall find
As support she's there through thick and thin
No matter what the battle
She encourages you to win

Her love can never be replaced
And when she's gone from here you'll see her in a brand new place

A Good Man To Me

He's everything a man could be and more
When it comes to him the heart adores
The love that he gives
Is like no one else that you know

His love together with yours
Is better than the winter's snow
There's no mistake
About his love and feelings for you

He only wants to do what's right
And make you more true
A good man is this you see
When he encourages

He makes you feel like there's nothing
On earth that you can't be Upon seeing you he often cracks a smile
Being with him is always worth the while

He gently holds you tight
In the middle of the night
This good man unlike others
Will make sure that everything's alright

He gives you love
That you just can't resist
A good man believe it or not
Will always exist

Even when it's cold outside
He'll do his best to keep you warm
A good man will not cause
Arguments or bodily harm

My friend as the love of his life you are
A good man would not hesitate
In making you feel like a star
Ladies you dream of him

Even in your sleep
A good man you will Always strive to keep Remember that he's more

Than words could ever say
A good man no matter what
Will never go away

A Writer's Dream

A writer's dream
You keep trying
Never denying to one day achieve
Despite what most believe

A writer's dream
You never give up
Regardless of what others may say
But wait patiently until that day

A writer's dream
Although it's been a while
It made you smile
To see your dream coming through

No matter how long it seemed to you
A writer's dream
You always believed in yourself
That's why your time has come

To be a successful writer
With the privilege of making much income
A writer's dream
You're happy to finally get this far

The world knows just who you are Now this new sudden fame
Makes you feel like a star

Financial Blues

money is scarce as can be our wallets and purses are just as empty these difficult times are taking a toll on us making our lives one big fuss

we hang on to hope like a never ending rope wondering when is a change going to come realizing now that life isn't all that fun as a family we are trying to keep food on the table it's hard enough knowing that we're being labled can't wait until these financial blues are in the past wishing instead for the good times to come and forever last.

God's Love

It is one of a kind
To know Him is to go inside His mind
He truly loves us all and wants the best
Even when life becomes more than a test

There's nothing that compares to his love
When we hear from Him
It's like a sign from heaven above
God's love is there in the mist of it all

Letting us know that we could rise or fall
He's there to lift us up
Even when we are down
Looking to change our situation around

Denying Him is never the case
And when it comes to His love
It could never be erased
The love that He gives

Is better than fame
When He comes to you
He's always the same
He never changes or goes away

He hangs in there from day to day
And in the end
His love for you will always be
Despite life never being easy

He's Gone

He's gone and I'm all alone
Our relationship has left its zone
I never knew that it would be this way
When it came to him not wanting to stay
I cried at just the thought of it
Not seeing him anymore or being intimate
It hurts to see him go
I don't know what I'll do
I feel that he betrayed my love that was so true
Realizing that in time
I'll have to move on Wondering how I'll get through this on my own

Loving You

It's what you should do
Be genuinely real
In who you are to yourself
No one likes a fake
A never ending earthquake
Don't try to impress
Whether it's in the way you act or dress
Someone will love you for you
If only you knew
Stop pretending
And stay true
You're one of a kind
That's why God made you so
Never give up in self
Always have hope
In the end it's your inner beauty
That will stand out
Loving you will no longer be a doubt

My Country

A test has come our way

We are not exempt

Just looking forward to a seeing a better day

Hard times has fell on us all

We are only hoping

We can stand strong and not fall

Jobs are being lost each day

Bills are getting higher to pay

We now have a tendency to pray

Asking God to make a way

Businesses are crashing down

Our lives are too

I only pray that my country

Could see this through

Naked Womb (Unborn Child)

Her life was difficult enough you see What made matters worse
Is when she gave up me
I had never had a chance
Looking at me
To some was just a glance
I wanted to come show myself to all
But to my surprise
I wasn't even worth a call
I would have made life a real joy
The only thing about it
They got rid of me
Who was a healthy baby boy
She could have gave me my father's name
But instead she feared
Her life with me would never be the same
I forgave her because I knew I was a big risk
It was hard enough not knowing if I would exist
I didn't want to leave this place
That I called home
What made it worse was that I was not alone
But in the end
I was happy to be set free
Because I knew that God had a home
Just waiting for me

Peace On Earth

I wish that there was peace on earth
Silencing crime, war, and racism
Other than wedding days, holidays, and birthdays
I wish that we could all get alone
Tranquility, happiness, and joy in a world full of turmoil
It seem to good to be true
As long as we are living
There will never be true peace on earth
Only when we close our eyes
And depart from this place that we call home
Will we truly know
That our peace on earth was nothing but a temporary loan

Secrets In A Marriage

Secrets causes one to mistrust
The love doesn't feel the same anymore
Instead of feeling happy
You feel lonely and sore

All you do is argue and fight
It last through the morning
And carries into the night
The smile has disappeared off my face

When I think about this marriage
I feel nothing but disgrace
In hopes that things would change
I stay looking to God's grace

Instead of looking for space
The love feels empty inside
Sometimes when I think about this marriage
I want to go away somewhere and hide

I don't know where our love will go
But deep inside my heart
I'm wishing that it would last
Hoping that the hurt
Could be left in the past

Single & Free

Right now that's how I rather be Marriage failed leaving me single Giving me an opportunity to mingle
Having the freedom to be myself
The divorce made me
Realize that there wasn't anything left
This life I live is new to me
Sometimes missing the joy
Of marriage and family
At times it's hard getting adjusted to However I like the freedom that it gives you Although marriage may sound a lot better
That's what people say
Those who choose the single life
Won't feel this way

The Famous Life

It comes with fortune and fame sadness and pain celebrity status may take you by surprise only in the event to see you rise

Causing overwhelming attention too hectic life sometimes you wish it wasn't you Paparazzi following your every step just waiting for you to lose it all and have nothing left

Your life is highlighted because of your fame now because of it life is never the same
No one knows what you have to face

The life of fame is like running a race you go from slow to fast
In the life that you live never expecting it's outcome to be a take and a give

The Killer Swine H1n1

This flu has crept on us
Killing more than enough
Protecting ourselves from this epidemic
At first was our only cure
Wearing face masks, washing hands, and sanitizing Was a must
Fear took over us
God must have knew
Because he made the shot
In this we trusted
Happy were a people
When it came to this flu
The Killer Swine
Surprisingly took more than just a few

True Happiness

True happiness is all around
Despite it not always be found
To many it's in who you are
You should always make Yourself feel like a star
People may let you down
But never keep a frown
True happiness may be what you make it
Knowing that when it comes to you
There's no faking it
Stay true to yourself
And in what true happiness is It's everything that money and fame can't stand
