grace quintos(june 19,1991)

i want to know GOD more..

i want to fall in love with him over and over again..

i know i've known him all my life..

but my faith is not very strong yet.. i want to get to him really close..

i know each day i will grow spiritually..

you are my strength in everything that i do..

Always Here For You

bear in mind that you have a GOD that will love you that is always loyal, honest and true 'cause his on your side to guide you and show the path that is foggy for you you are special in your own way whatever criticisms they say don't worry of those people who are tearing you down will be judge by GOD for their sins someday if you have a problem why bother? draw near to our heavenly father and don't forget that you have a daughter to take care of you to help you to cheer you and lastly to love you

-love you mom-

You Are The Best

you gave us good education and also a proper nutrition you have been a good father to me and a good person to everybody you made us live in a world where there is love and hope that is from above you have taken care of us since we were just a seed and you have given all that we need you let us experience the life of a kid you also let us know how to serve so that we can lead and you taught us how to pray to our LORD so that we could share God's word i hope i could pass on the legacy you have taught to me i pray that everyone will be blessed with my simple request

-love you dad-
