Im just a simple human trying to achieve the best, i hope that some day, ill be able to change the world to a better place, and poetry is my way...

i find poetry lets out my inner thoughts, my hopes and wishes, i dont know why, but when i write poetry, the thoughts that come to my head, the feelings that i feel, the words that i say, just make me smile, and put my hopes up again...

i havent been through much in life, i just feel if i start now, trying to change the world..i might just have a good chance at it...my main aim in changing the world, is to just have one thing that will invade our everyday, and create happiness everywhere...PEACE...thats all i want, thats all we need...yet theres no harm in dreaming...

some people, live their everyday with no food, no drinks, no clothes, no home to sleep in, and yet if i compare myself to them, i'd say i live in heaven, if i dont have them problems, then i will get problems concerning what i have, and whats around me, and with the help of god, i shall jump over these obstacles and walk smoothly down the path of life...

i have many dreams, i have many hopes and wishes, yet although most of these dreams, and wishes dont come true, i still keep trying to achieve them, everyone has a chance to shine, and ill get my chance soon enough...

to those who have dreams, i hope they come true, to those who live in poverty, i hope it gets better for you, for those who are suffering from any illness, i hope you get cured, if your crying, i hope them tears get replaced with laughter, i hope that everyone will get to live in peace and tranquility, and laugh, smile and live with all their rights and freedom, i hope, ill keep on hoping, and ill never stop hopeing

Change In Me

I had my mind set
To change my ways
Because my heart won't let Me live my days

I know my actions aint right
Im truly trying to change
Im in the dark waiting for the light
Im living in a suffocating cage

All i did was cry
On the things I've done wrong
But now i will try
To be nothing but strong

I admit the past was a waste of time
But my future is waiting
Changing isn't a crime
My old self im hating

People don't change over night
But im gonna start from today
To my last breath im gonna fight
To not change what i say

It's time for something new It's time to see
All the wrongs I've done
Need a change in me

Dear Mr President

What have we done?
To receive this pain
Killing us with guns
Missiles fire down like rain

People dying everyday
You are to be blamed
Where's the peace you always say?
You should be ashamed

Heartless men walk the ground
Innocent people crying
Shooting people all around
To escape, they are truly trying

You treat us like trash
You assume were not strong
All you want is the cash
Your 100% wrong

Where's the love after a fight
Nothing is there but hatred
Nowhere to sleep in the night
And you say you've always cared

Oh innocent people its time for a change
Your suffering your everyday
All you do is live in a cage
To God is the only WAY!

Education

You have an education
Don't be a humiliation
Destroy the temptation
And be a sensation

You have a culture to uphold
Believe in yourself you are told
Be warm don't be cold
Have a pure soul

Many people out there
Walk around with no hair
Their feet are bare
Yet you still don't care

You don't have to be a nerd
Nor a singing bird
To just be heard
That just absurd

You have a future to create
This needs no debate
It's never too late
To change your fate

Hunger for education
100% concentration
In this very nation
Will be the new generation...

Family

The warm feeling
The tears that get wiped
The hug that holds you tight
That is family

The tearless nights
The everyday smiles
The echoed laughs
That is family

The helpful advice
The ending fights
The endless talks
That is family

The waking sunshine
The sleepy sunset
The bright faces
That is family

The amazing voices
The wrong choices
Directed to the right direction

family is all around us!

Hope

Forget your sorrow
Hope for better days
Hope for tomorrow
Will be different in many ways

What's that over the mountain?
Is that a rainbow after rain?
Is that a fountain?
That will wash away my pain

Can you see yourself shining?
Through the darkest room
Making a cloud with a silver lining
Can you make a flower bloom?

Walk the path of life
And live with no worry
Just work and strive
And never be sorry

There are moments that are dark
Ones you have to cope
The ones that will leave a mark
But all you need is hope

I Miss You

Now you're gone
I imagine you there
Ever since i was born
You were the one to care

Now you're away
I can't live any more
Day after day
Life is becoming a bore

Where are the days
Where we'd laugh and sing
Now you're a long way away
I miss the happiness you used to bring

Why did you leave me here?
All alone in this life
The future is what i fear
Im on my own to survive

Who's going to comfort me?
When im all upset and crying
Can't you see?
You're the point why i was trying!

Look at me today
Im always so blue
I wish you were here
Cause i miss you

I Moved On

Even though you're not there
To hold me close in your arms
You're face is everywhere
Along with your glowing charms

I know you're not around anymore
To wipe my tears
The ones to the ground they fall
The ones i bottled up for years

It's not you im hating
But it's your actions that worry me
When you were around i was suffocating
But when you went it was easy to breathe

Yours lies over a million times i met
Yet instead i still believed
All i want is to forget
All the dreams i conceived

I used to see it in your eyes
All the hate you had for me
Im glad i realised
We weren't meant to be Sure my heart is insane

But i know I'll strive
I'll fall in love again
But for now i moved on in life...

Life's Ups And Downs

Hoping for me to have a say
Hoping god will help me day after day
All i want is a simple miracle
That will just blow us away

No food to eat
Neither chicken nor meat
Just pieces of bread
To keep us strong for the heat

People becoming sick
Is this supposed to be a trick?
Laughing at our disgrace
Do they have hearts out of brick?

I suppose this is a nightmare
No one out there to really care
We are humans as well you know
This is definitely not fair

No centerlink to give us money
I suppose this seems so funny
We have the bees
And you have the honey

No nice clothes to wear
No one to do our hair
Ha-Ha im laughing
I suppose this is my silly despair?

No laughter to hear, all we do is weep
Not a single place to lie down and sleep
This is an awful life
This is giving me a creep

No internet to use
No $100 shoes
No books to read
No holidays on a cruise

No shows to see
I wish we were free
To live our lives
So happily

No heaters in the cold
No goods to be sold
No ice creams to eat
No toys to hold

This is our life
And thank god we can survive
Because without his help
I don't know how we are to strive

No shops or towns
No smile just frowns
I suppose this is life
With its ups and downs

Losing Someone I Love

We laughed all night long
We cracked jokes and sang a song
Tonight was the best night
For our friendship was so strong

The next day came so fast
We thought it will forever last
Yet she was upset today
"What's wrong" i asked

She got up and started to cry
She said "oh why oh why"
I looked at her in sympathy
I knew this cry was no lie

I hugged her with care
She sobbed and said "this is no fair"
She cried and cried
My heart was in despair

I listened to her all day
Crying away
I wonder what happened
We all have forgotten about yesterday

She said "she must be above"
"Flying like a dove"
I looked at her with tears in my eyes
"For today i lost someone i love"
