God Will Only Know

I will ask God to help
He will help me to find the right path
I'm searching for

Far and wide he will stand
To search for whoever you want to be with

And I asked Jesus Son of God
To help me find the truth
In my world

That one thing what I want in life

God will be the one that well be there
And I'll choose what's right for me

Hope that God could hear this me
Wherever he is

In the universe

Pray to him always

And he will set you free

I Still Remember You

I still remember you
The first time we went to school together
I was too shy to get close to you
You were just there reading a book
By yourself
I went up to you
And said
What's up
And I was like why are you sitting by yourself
And you smiled and then
And I smiled back at you
The first time we kiss
It was magical
And sweet
When we hung out together
Don't you remember that
The first time I went to your house
Didn't we had fun
I know this is hurting you
But I just want to let it out
Not hideing it anymore
I still love you
You know that
I'm sorry
About everything I did to you
Even though I didn't
And I don't know
What I did
But I understand
Even though that's not enough
I just want to say I'm sorry

Is This Is Who I Am

When I was a little kid
I always like to dance and play around

Like jumping on beds
Just like trampoline

I don't remember much

My mom said that I got sick when I was a little kid
That I had a convulsion
And couldn't breathe
And almost died from that
But I didn't thank to God

I always was quiet
When I was at school

How was wrestling
I made it to District twice
And regionals once
It was fun
And I almost made it to state

I play track
I was a hurdler
And I made it to state

But now like a video games
And watch movies all day
When I'm bored

I don't know what's my future going to be

Lonely sad depressing
Life

Or am I ever going to find would make me happy

But I am a nice guy and sweet to

I always like to joke around if people

Sometimes

That's who I am

I like to put smiles on people's faces

I don't talk about myself a lot

Cuz I don't know what people might think

Life

Life is a good feeling
If you find the right path
You're looking for

Life is wrong feeling
For those who chooses to do wrong
In life

There are so many people in the world
That tries to do right or wrong
God only knows what the will do
Seitan will bring you down with scars and Hate
And misery not forgiveness

For those in front of you
For those who you will see
Of this days

We will see
To find our way
To make things right

My Life Is The End

My life is ending
Don't know where to go
My life. Doesn't have the meaning
No one understand

I don't know why I feel this way
But I just do
Because I want to be with this one girl
To make things right
But don't know where to go
From does breaking heart
So bad as a black hole
Can not affect me
I am strong
Not sweet like a twig

It just shatters everywhere
But I won't cry
Don't know what to do

Just trapped in a box
With no way out
The beauty of her

Makes me want to love
She is so pretty like a butterfly
In my stomach

And when I talk to her
She makes me feel real

Like a twister in my head
Just can't let go
Of the past.

My Princess

When ever we First met up
I am going To tell u
How beautiful u are like a angel from heaven
To see ur eyes
Changes colors
Like rainbows
So pretty
Like
Butterfly
And so
Cuddly
Like a bunny
I will try
To give u my love
To u
But just want
To tell you
If u think
U are right for me

Snow Is White

Snow is white
So cold
As the weather changes
Like a white bird
Flying in the sky
Two lovers
To one
Snow is white
Like angels from heaven
We stand together
To protect humanity

Snow is white
Like a globe
Cracking
As snow
Is building
In the snow

Snowflakes
Fall from the sky
Freezing everything
That it touches

Like water
Falling from the sky
Into rivers
And lakes

Nature is happening
Every where we stand
And and then spring becomes Summer Falls

And kids playing side
To begin the adventure

That is coming to them
Happiness everywhere

Can't live without

Sometimes We Wish

Sometimes
We wish we
We can go back in time change everything

That went wrong
But we can't That's life

Sometimes
We wish that everything would turn out good not bad

Sometimes
Sometimes we wished that you are alone
In the world

Sometimes we wish to have someone
There for you

Sometimes we wished
That the whole world was perfect for us

Sometimes I wished I wasn't myself with you

Sometimes I wished apologize every little thing that we did wrong

Sometimes we wished we weren't afraid
Of telling them their mistakes

Sometimes we wished never stop when were told

Sometimes we wished we had someone to love
And cuddle with

Sometimes we wished to tell secrets to each other

Sometimes we wished

The Dark Room

There is a dark room
In the corner of your eyes
No doubt what you'll see A secret place hidden under the Darkness Caves can't see anything
So dark you walk farther and farther
Can't escape.

Like something is chasing you
Can't see his face so black
Like the darkness skies up above
And it grabs you can't let go
Tell the end of your suffering
And forgiveness
It won't let go
Hunting you
Until you cry
And weeping
Your eyes softly
It reaches a point
Until you die
You will see
What you have done
It doesn't stop
Until it reaches
You
And the last second you step
It will let go
When you see it
You will be afraid

The Darkness Behind You

I see a Pitch Black
Tourneau

Who knows where it will take us
To the darkness behind
When we look back

Like something staring at you
Like red creepy eyes

Like blood dripping everywhere
So whatever you do
Don't look behind you

Because you will not Know what will be there

Right in back of you

In the shadows of Darkness

It will be hiding

Don't call his name
Or it will never ever
Let go

The Killer Kids

There are 3 kids
We don't know who they are
They kill for goodness
And no one to be found
And there is a spooky forest That so dark
That you can see a thing
Until today feasting. killing bodies
For the sake of Satan
We well do
And written in their bodies
It says I will be back to haunt you Hahahahaha
So don't be afraid
Or else they'll get to you
Even if you scream
Or shout for help
You can't escape
What have been done
When you are alone
Turning the lights off
And you will see the truth
For your forgiveness

The Lonely Man

There is a lonely man
Walking down the street
Seeing where to go

But nowhere found
Into tears of water
He will cry

To seek the love he needs
Only a lonely man

Just sitting by yourself
In his chair

Thinking about everything is going on
All around him

Cuz the world is ending
So small little town

We live in two

Until the end
Of happiness
We will find the truth
And forgiveness
To all those that hurt us

And the love we deserve

Someone to marry and cherish
For all eternity

This is the lonely man

jovan lopez

The Lonely Tiger

There is a lonely tiger
In the forest
Trap as can be

No escape where to go
Crying and crying
Trying to find his mama

But still lost
In the darkness of the forest
Like trapped in a box
With no way out
You can't see anything

And the moon rises up
So shining like a light

Seeing shooting stars everywhere
Everywhere you see

And dolphins jump up from the ocean
But the lonely Tiger is still lost
Making wishes to come back to his mom
Saying Mom mom I wish you were here

How could I be lost in this forest without you
By my side
Seeing the danger he must be
Until he found his mom
For the last breath he took

He was glad he found

This Is My Angel From Heaven To Earth

This is my angel from Heaven to Earth

Walking through the distance of waterfalls
So sweet so pure like water and Glass it cracks
When you get your heartbroken by someone
To forgive those who must to wrong
Or never forgive

But there comes a point
When you have to forgive those who did right for you

To come down like a volcano corrupting
Into lava
And never seeing them again like ashes

When they all come down
When we die alone by ourselves
And no one taking care of us
That's one we crash
And fall apart

To never see ourselves again
When did Earth will come down to perish
One by one
Eventually a person dies from a second
We look through the mirror
And wonder how is life going to end

If there's going to be sadness
Or happiness in the world
Where we live to

People don't share their feelings cuz you're scared what other people might think about them

But there are just feelings
What we take inside

And what's goodness in our hearts
We will raise up
And find what's real
But not now because I don't know what's real and what's not
I don't know
If Heaven's real
Guide me through what's real
In the earth of hatred and love
To not be sad again

Let me choose that one thing I want in life let me get married with someone that it's pretty and amazing
To fill my heart with joy
To the Heaven and Earth
It will go
And God will forgive us all

jovan lopez

To Be Alone

To be alone
It feels so cold

Can't feel my fingers
So cold like ice broken like glass

And Frozen in Time
So slow
Like a slug and so alone

Like something is not there
Are you feel so alone
That your heart shattered
Like the world is breaking
Or cracking
Like someone breaking their back

And shattering every piece of you
That you start crying
Of sadness and anger
And regret

But it's okay
We can have some one that we love all the Time

jovan lopez

To God

God I hope you guide me a new life a future to live for not to perish
I wish to get married someday and have kids
I know I've been wrong sometime
I just want to make things right
I don't know if I believe in you or not
I just want to be happy
I do believe in you
I do want to cherish you
So whatever you bring me
In this life
Goodness
And love
To help me find the right path not the wrong

I don't know if you're hearing this but I am writing to you

You Make My Dreams Come True

And find someone to cherish
And the love
With no lies to hide

Thank you God
