Karina Castle(7/29/91)

My name is Karina Castle. I have written poetry for a long time. Its not very good but it helps me express myself.

2/11/2008

Remember when he loved me
I was his world
Wanted to be with me always
We danced and we twirled

Used to be his #1
Now I'm second best
Everything comes before me
I feel like his foot rest

I don't know what has happened
I want to be his queen
Don't want this suicidal feeling
I need some morphine

I'll just have to deal with it
Try to keep my mouth shut
I love him so much
But right now I want to cut

Karina Castle

Alone

I am all alone
No one is here with me
Friends is all I want
Why can't they see

All alone I wander
Around and around
Everyone is talking
But I don't hear a sound

I'm completely alone
Though people are everywhere
This is my short lil poem
About being alone

Karina Castle

Far Away

Red is you're favorite color
It's also the color of blood
We were supposed to be together
But now we're stuck in the mud

5 days we were together
Now 3 weeks we are apart
We had a plan to see each other
We thought we were smart

Our plan went up in flames
Now I can't go
It wasn't my fault
My mother said no

We'll figure something out
That is what you say
I know it will work out
I hope it's Sunday

I miss you more than anything
As I lie here in bed
I will see you soon
Or I'll be dead

Home

10/16/2008

2,000 miles away from home
Missing everything I have ever know
No one to turn to when I'm feeling very low

Nothing is going right
Everything is very wrong
Boyfriend who loves me
Yet still I long

I long for the old days
When mom would hold me
Nothing seemed to go wrong
Why cant it be?

One day I'll go home
But things always change
But at least when I'm home
My happiness will range

Karina Castle

Horrible

All these scars I try to hide
I don't want anyone to know
I lie to protect people
They don't want to know my low

They couldn't handle what I've been through
They would be in awe
All these things I regret
I always disobey the law

I've done horrible things
Mistakes I wish I could take back
My past is what made me
A good past is what I lack

A horrible past
A horrible life
Why must I still be here
This world is nothing but strife

Sometimes I wish I could end it
End the pain right away
But I chicken out
Theres got to be another way

Some day things will change
I hope it doesn't take to long
Everyday seems the same
Like a repeating chorus in a song

How can things change
When every days the same
Sitting in the back of class
Feeling rather lame

I can't change on my own
But no ones here
I want to forget everything
So I drink a case of beer

I get completely numb
But the next day it all comes back
Loving and true happiness
Is what I lack

Death must come soon
I really want to die
I'll cut straight to the point
No more lies

I am very depressed
I pick up the knife
I'm sick of this shit
I must end my life

Karina Castle

I Love You

I miss my baby so much
It's so hard always being apart
We both have our suspicions
But we try to stay smart

In my head I know it wont work
But deep down I know I must try
I must trust you with all my heart
Cuz it would be so easy to lie

I'll always be honest
And you must always trust me
I will never do you wrong
Because together we must be

I love you more then you'll ever know
We'll be together for life
And if you say its over
Then I'll die by the knife

Without you I can't live
Without you I would die
So please don't give up
And never ever lie

Invisible

I'm all alone
But everyone thinks I'm fine
I have no one to talk to
No friends to call mine

I don't like it this way
But I guess I'll deal
It hurts so bad
But I can learn not to feel

Preps always stare
Like "what a freak"
They Don't know that at night
My eyes they leak

I want to kill myself
For no one would know
I wouldn't have to feel
So very very low

Thats it! Its over
My pointless life
Everything is over
Including this strife

Karina Castle

Loser

Why can't I be happy
I have no life
Everything is fake
Except the strife

I don't know why
Why I want to die
It's not you're fault
You didn't lie

It's all my fault
I'm to blame
No one likes me
I'm to lame

Pain is so good
But heart ache sucks
It figures though
It's my luck

Nothing goes right
Every things wrong
I've felt like this
For way to long

Karina Castle

My Bad

I understand how you feel
Cuz I have been there before
Which is why i dont know why i opened that door

You gave me everything and i do love you my actions didnt show it but i swear its true was this just one mistake?

or is this who ive become?
did he rub off on me?
or was i just being dumb?

So many questions yet so many different answers they swarn around my head like unique cancers

the mistake is done there is no going back dont want to lose you love we are so off track

trust is an issue i will do whatever it takes to earn it back but for you those are high stakes

i hope i get the chance to show my true side thinking about losing you i feel i already died

Non-Relationship Boyfriend

You were there for me
When I was going through hell
We have happy times
Secrets we wont tell

The first time we kissed
I felt so loved
I needed you
But I tried not to shove

You don't want a relationship
As long as you love me
That is ok
Together we will be

You're so perfect
To good to be true
But I believe in you
You don't make me blue

This poem really sucks
I don't know how I feel
I know I want you
My lips I can't seal

Karina Castle

Parents

My best friends gone
My boyfriends 120 miles away
I don't have anyone
I hate everyday

Who do I have to turn to
When everything goes wrong
Sure I have family
But they're not around long

They're always together
No time to talk
I get about minutes
Then they walk

Theres always something to do
No mother-daughter talking time
They don't understand
I'm just another couple dimes

Money for they're beer
Only time for each other
I wish someone could relate
I thought you were my mother

I throw out signs
But they don't care
So what...I quit cutting
But look at what I wear

I need someone to talk to
Who understands me
To tell everything to
But that will never be

I guess I'll give up
I'll just stay the same
Keep everything inside
To you I came

One day I'll explode
It will be the end
Thanks for all the help
A hand you could have lend

Karina Castle

Scary

I'm so afraid to love you
Love just isn't very fair
I've been hurt so much
Now I try not to care

Love is to scary for me
I'm just way to weak
The last one I loved
Made me feel like a freak

I thought I'd never love again
For fear I would take my life
Love has done nothing for me
Except to feel more strife

But then you came along
And I think you're my mate
Us meeting each other
I know was fate

Please don't hurt me
Don't ever lie
I couldn't take it
I would have to die

Karina Castle

Suicidal

I don't feel anything good
No happiness in my head
All that is there is bad
I wish I were dead

I haven't been happy
For many a year
I'm scared for my life
I feel mostly fear

I wish I couldn't feel anything
It makes me very sad
I lay in bed and Just get very mad

I'm mad at everyone
The people that want me dead
The people who don't care
The people with happy in they're head

I'm mad at everyone
I know its not fair
People say they love me
And that they do care

When they say that
It makes me want to cry
Thats the times
That I want to die

Karina Castle

The Truth

Why can't I be happy
Why can't it be real
All I do is pretend
My lips are sealed

No one knows the truth
I feel only strife
There isn't any happiness
In my sad lil life

I can pretend normally
But it's all a lie
Every last second
I just wanna die

Some people I love
And some things they say
Like "I love you"
Make me want to live another day

That feeling only lasts a lil while Then it's back to the same old me
Never happy Always suicidal
But that others will never see

Karina Castle

The Urge

I gave up my razor blades
I didn't even have the urge Until you said "It's over"
Then I wanted to purge

You said we were over
And so was you're life
I couldn't deal with it
I had to find a knife

I handled myself well
But the urge was to strong
I had nothing to cut with
But I couldn't hold on very long

My friend gave me a razor blade
But by then I was fine
I had said I was sorry
And once again you were mine

I had wanted to die
All because i thought you may die
I believed you'd do it
But it was a lie

Now were together
And I'm not in strife
Never again because of a guy
Will I want to take my life

Karina Castle

They Don'T Understand

I feel like every things ok
The I feel like I should die
Nothing goes really wrong
But that happiness was lie

I pretend to be happy a lot
And it makes me want to purge
Everyone believes I'm happy
But they don't understand my urge

My urge to kill myself
The urge to make myself bleed
The urge to forget everything
To just smoke a lil weed

I don't want anyone to know
They will think I'm a freak
Everyone thinks I'm strong
But the truth is I'm weak

I can't handle all this shit
I never learned how to cope Everyone I learned from they just used dope

drugs or blood the both work
But neither are the right way
It works for a lil while
But then you have to pay

The only thing that lasts
I somewhat fear
To end it all and not go on Never see another year

Yes it is scary and wrong
But it is the only way
I must die today
I am sorry to say

What About Him?

10/16/2008

So many problems
So much on his mind
I know hes not happy
But I try to be kind

He doesn't talk to me
I just want to be there
I hold him so much
I hope he knows I care

He gets so depressed
I don't know what to do
He mopes around the house
And it brings me down too

I want to help but how?
He wont let me in Talking might help
Why cant he see?

He writes about cutting
And ending his life
Am I that horrible?
Do I make him feel strife?

I love him so much
But I fear I hurt him
I want his life bright
But it is very dim

Hope things get better
And me he wants to hold
Things will get better
He cant always be so cold

Karina Castle

What Happened?

11/4/2008

Told him my feelings
About him and me
Told him I was scared
I thought he could see

Held me when I cried
Made love in my bed
I thought things were going to change
But it was all in my head

Doesn't want to be with me
I feel it in my heart
We're supposed to be together
Thought I was smart

Used to be so sweet
I guess things always change
I'll have to get used to it
It's harder than it seems

Karina Castle

Why

Diamonds are my best friends
They are sharper than my knife cutting is the only way out
In my life full of strife

I don't know how to cope
With all of these lies
You say you love me
But it makes me wanna die

You haven't called in 3 days
Our relationship is stuck in the mud
And every night I have to cry
While on the floor is my blood

I can't break up with you
You're too special to me
It's so anything for you
Why can't you see

You said you wouldn't see me hurt
Does that mean you closed your eyes
I haven't done anything to you
Why all these lies

All I want is to be happy
For us to be for real
I love you so much
But you must not feel

That's it It's all over
My life is gone
I've dealt with this shit
For way too long

You'Re Always On My Mind

I'm very depressed today
You're always in my head
I know you don't think about me
You wish I was dead

Why can't I move on?
Just get through the day
Is hasn't happened yet
But there's got to be a way

A way to forget about you
To become strong
To be able to live
Without hearing out song

I think I'll always love you
I'm sorry to say
But without you
I wont see another day

Good-bye and I'm sorry
But you ruined my life
Next time you see me
I'll be cut by the knife
