Binding Starts In Self Healings

Binding starts in self healing meaning you have to learn to let go and let God and believe in you.

The past is the past we must learn to let go.

Not because we are being mean, or we are sad, it's

Just to let those who hurt us know that we are stronger then we Have ever been before.

I am not trying to sound ridiculate, articulate, ridiculous i am not being rude It's all about showing you can have strength.

You are now stronger then you have ever been before.

Binding self takes courage, strengths, beliefs just thought

I'll let the world know.

Never let no one see your weakness, see you fall you must remember to always stand tall.

Heal yourself from the shadows of your past forgiveness only take one shot to your heart with out breaking

Your skin.

Blow Like The Wind

Blow like the wind, fly like a bird,
Gloom like a daisy, go crazy be yourself.
Don't allow no one to change your mind,
Blow like the wind be that sun that shine.

Do what you want to do, be yourself shout
Out loud be proud don't be afraid of who you are Can't no one Judge you but God.

Shout out loud be proud of who you are if you
A lesbian, gay, straight male or woman be who you are.
Bisexual you are human be who you are we all are human no one can't judge
No one but God.

No one earth is better then you neither am I
Do what you believe in
Be proud of who you are.

Blow like the wind be you do you be happy for you,
You are apart of the world like heterosexuals are too.
Can't no one judge no one but God.
You can change your way but you have no one to answer to
But only God.

God is first, God is last he is first God is the best man there is.
He is a keeper the creation, the creator
The one who would uplift you if you fall down.

God Ain'T Say He Hate Humanity

God ain't say he hate humanity. But
He did say I will heal all my beautiful people.
God ain't say i am not gonna be desperate to be your friend,
He never said i am going to stop being your friend.

But he did say even if people talk behind my back
I will not stop being their friend, he said he will for father for them all.

I am going to love you for eternity still.
I am going to be there for you in eternity still.
He did not say forget my children, he did not say i hate my children he didn't say i hate women.

He did not say i hate me i love them all even if they sin, over and over again.
He did not say i hate humanity or the who entire race.
He didn't say i hate animals, he didn't say i will kill my kingdom.

But he did say i will heal my beautiful, feed my children i will love all people.
He didn't say forget men and all people.
He didn't say imma throw all my children in the pit,
He did say he will love everyone who walk right beside me and trying to make world better for people of today.

I will have them a Guardian angel in the new night and life of the living
Each and everyday.

God Is First/ God Is Last

God is he who is first, God is he who is last. God is the best man there ever is
Will always be, he is the keeper who will set all children of his Kingdom free.

He is the creator of all things
He is the man who will lift you up
When your foot fall off the ground.

He is the one who will keep you from harm of others.

He is the maker the King the savior a lover not hater so don't allow others to over take you.

In life you must live for you no one in this world is not the maker of you.
You must walk by his side so he can see that you are safe and free pray to him ob your knees saying father stay with me.

He is the manager of all universe, he is undefeated, un moved he can never be undone.

God is the first, he is the last
He hold in him all power of our univey and land God is key, he is free the one who have all power over you, him, her and me.

He is peace, he is a healer, he is love,
He is right the one who send his Jesus to die for our lifes.

He is outstanding, he is all we need
God is King the creator of all things.

Living Life

There's nothing like living life as you please, living in peace
Merely as happy as can be.

Living in your own comfort Zone
Enjoying the beauty of life now that i am Grown.
Relaxing staying from the negative
Enjoying me living free doing me.

Living life having fun embracing life
Having fun relaxing my mind being at peace loving and enjoying every moment of self, and loving me.

There's nothing like having peace it's nothing like being Able to do me.

Love And Art

Together you and I can have a love hangover where we can share each other with our hearts.

You look into my eyes i gaze into yours while we share each other body scent.

We can listen to beautiful music some that is slow and sweet, together we can share a love hangover where it. Can be only you and me.

Together we can share love and art where i can be the shape that can step in your heart together we can love each other until death due us apart.

Love Your Woman

If you love your woman, you won't
Let her go if you respect your woman, you

Loving You

Loving you is what i will do,
Baby it can just be me and you.
Loving each other as one, being there for one
And another as one.

Loving you is where i want to be Loving one another together is where
We ought to be making one another feel
Warm inside giving one another love
Share our love in the world just you and i
In the world of happiness.
