Keke Lee(8-28-91)

hey my name is caretha lee but all my friends call me keke and went i was grown up i had some hard time i didn't have every thing that other people did that's what made me to day.I see people in there good cloths and there good shoes but i look at me an say that i wish i had it like them but then i said maybe i am this way for a reason maybe god got something for me and he did. so be careful for what you wish for because you might just get it like i did. And i never had a daddy in my life i always called my mother daddy so if you see some body growing up with out a daddy in there life don't laugh because it is not funny growing up with out a daddy i know i been there done that so if you have your mother and father treat them right and not bad because i don't have a daddy i just got a mother and sge i taking care of me and my big sis and my lil bro

~ Love ~

Love hurts it burns

inside and out to see you with her when you know that we should be together but why when the love that i had for you fade way and every day i wish that the pain was never and that we never met or kiss that one time but it is done and over and so are we so live with it babie

~ Pain ~

I can take the pain and the rain together you will see us making love in the sea the pain rushing thought our body the love that we will make in the sheets holding each other while teaching each other new stuff while i huffing and puffing because the way you are making me feel knowing that at the end we will chill.

i am lying on the couch touching, kissing and i just want the pain to then you beat it up but while i'm in the zone screaming your name over and over but the nut want last and right before you know splash! ! ! !

~love Is A Powerful Word~ love is a powerful word but but how can you say you love me but you always leaving me it hurts to know how you feel and know how you drill but i know you will give me what i need when i need love, sex and pain i know you will give it to me because it was free but it will be with me holding you, touching, and feeling you. indside and out knowing that we want die out.

but just to hear your voice and your touch it made me feel good indside and out. knowing that we want cry

~smile~

Your smile brighten up my day when you smile it feels great but in my heart i know you feel fake. but i will always be there when you ack. When your heart is broken i will have a token of love so you can feel your broken heart with love so now you can be free and now you can smile like me.

How I Feel

I feel good

I feel bad
i feel like drowning in my bath

How My Life Is Spent

I spent most of my life sleeping because i am in pain from heart ack and back ack can you see it or you to stuck up to believe it.

I spent most of my life crying because i don't have a father in my life can you feel my pain can you even see the range in my heart.
or do you think i am a smart girl i am too young to be in so much pain well now i can feel the rain. this is how my life is spent! ! !

so don't judge me because you don't know me.

Love & Trust

Someone you love should be someone you trust. Not who want lust. Someone make you happy inside and out. not someone who make you sad and leftout. Someone who care about you and like's to do what you want to do but you have to do the same too.

That my peom i did my best so now i must rest.

'The Mask I Wear'

I wear the mask

i am alone in the dark I try to search for someone but there no one there in my heart.
I look, i look there's no one there I look everywhere. I still feel scared Then i saw something in the sky it was a man he was so high.
Then i was flying then he said you are not alone so stop lying.
