Earth Dreams

Chimes from the piano take center stage,
...Dancing over the hills and mindly views.
Gentle giants' whisked me away into the distance,
...Where the light meets the horizons' queue.

Fluttering flutes engulf the scales of tomorrow,
...Bringing reflection stare-ripples to the mindless few.
Presenting peace and calm to the ever intensity,
...Instinctive passion distracts from the night sky's hue.

Delightful intensions crave the star light desire,
...Guiding sights drag on between the shifting tides.
Blooming mountains peak up through the dense fog,
...Exposing the dazzling dive to the beaches and wide.

The Silence Of Listening

The undulating sounds of silence,
...Takes me by surprise.

A goblet of choices is presented in front of me,
...I start to feel alive.

The foreground to my background,
...Becomes my reality, and I'm in love.
