Maddie 'Rae' Berry(30/3/92)

. That's me, my writing, my pain in a nutshell. Why I do what I do; I write because many aspects of life inspire and enthrall me. Although I am but a casual observer in the world, I long for a creative outlet. Writing gives me freedom, peace of mind and all that jazz. That's what I wish, to give to others how I feel and what I think...And that's about it.

A Stunning Mystery

Pools of green,
been seen to me.
Leaves a stunning mystery
that grabs ahold of me.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

A Thing Called Love

Two people glance over at each other,
Having eyes for one only another,
Ignoring any other.
Because for that one moment,
That one moment.
Everything becomes a blur,
Everyone's words begin to slur.
Like nothing else ever existed
Or would ever be the same.
As they fall unifiable in to a thing they call love.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Anything More

As our hands combine and our fingers entwine.
My feelings cross over the line;
As to when you put
Your hand in mine and mine in yours.
It opens up the door
To a love I've never known before.
You are one that I adore
Could I ask for anything more?

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Baby, It's Not Alright

You might think that everything's alright because it didn't end up in a fight...
But no baby it doesn't end there.
Because you don't care, you have never been there!
So next time you ask me what is wrong and where I have come from.
I'll answer that, no baby it's not all right,
I can't do what you want me to do tonight.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Butterfly

You are the butterfly that constantly flutters
into my mind and heart.
Please don't tear me apart.
I am as fragile as your life.
And want nothing more than to be free from your strife.
So stop flying into my life and go die somewhere,
I don't care as long as I don't know you're there.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Cannot Love

I cannot love when my heart is shared by the one who hates me.
As long as I and she are we, you and I will never be.
Hopefully in time when I catch your eye,
you will understand that I have to say goodbye.

We have to let this die; she is no longer my hidden alibi. She is part of me; all of me, always there and she never cares.
About how I feel, how you feel, how anyone feels.
It does not matter; it is of no relevance to her quest to be real as flesh and bone.

She makes me feel so alone, there is no escape from her essential being.

She has taken over me, and is forever seeing.
But do not fear I will be there for you always, just close your eyes and I will be there beyond the depths of her eyes.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Change...

Taken it back

I knew you would succumb to something like that,
leaving my mind in a clouded haze...and my eyes trapped in a troubled daze
Fearing that the worst has become your best feature.

Trying hard just to reach ya, what has turned you in to this creature?

Baby, baby tell me are you still there?

Do you even care?

All I ask is for you to change

Love you took it back and lunged for the attack.

Ripping out my heart and never given it back
over and over again.

Though I'll still love you with the emptiness that's left,
I will love you to the death.

You are pessimistic and vain

You're a force that will never be tamed

You have a anger that's hard to name

Your nothing like they say and see

The only true person to have seen you is me

You're my kind of drug

Whoever you were,

I loved him dearly

But now you are his opposite half.

My love for the both of your traits is tearing me apart,
So baby come back to me.

Tear down the defences

and just come back

Change...

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Conformity

I don't want to go,
I want to stay.
I'll do anything to
avoid going that way.
Where everything I say is unheard
I feel like I'm in a herd
My number,
Six hundred and thirty three
A slave to conformity
Told to do things normally.
When I'm anything but
An ordinary story.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Could Have Been Great Together

I hear you like me or so they say
Then I thought wow, someone actually likes me in that way.
Too bad it never came true
Too bad it ended.
Before it had time to start
Too bad it's stolen apart of my heart.

We were three months strong
And we famously got along.
I thought everything was going well,
Until she came along and
Said her feeling for you were strong.
So strong that I guess you
Thought that I didn't belong so you two got together
And say that you're going to love each other forever
I barely hold it together,
because I know that we could
Of been great together.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Dark Beauty

Beauty shines through the light,
rarely seen at night.
The sharp edges leave a sense of danger
That prevails on through this dark night.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Darkest Ride

Manipulating witch, what makes you think that you know me?
Can't you see how much you disgust me?
Of course you don't. You spoilt cow, you're idiocy
Is killing me now.
You're a manifestation of the purest evil
You're the force of unspeakable malice.
Filling my head with insecurities and lies, as your say your goodbyes.
Yet that would be too much for you, to do something good.

I know you never will, you seek the thrill,
Of a life dark and wild.
There is no room for someone as pure as me.
So what are you waiting for?
Perform your darkest will
Darken me from the inside
Make me your most thrilling ride.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Disguise

It's like the world has become so blind,
I can't seem to find the strength inside
To put on some disguise and pretend that I'm alright.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Erase Me From Your Memory

Please move on and never think of you and me
Becoming a 'we' again.
Since that did little good from the first time we met,
This took me forever to forget!
Because it's hard to forget you and you know that is true
Now, I pass this mission on to you.
To forget about me and what we could be
To erase me from your memory.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Fallen For The Stranger

I don't know who you are,
I don't know why you care.
But I want you here, here beside me

I don't know what this is but I trust it,
As I trust you because I think I have fallen,
For the stranger that's true
I think I have fallen in love with you.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Fingers Entwine

As his fingers entwine with mine,
it creates a familiar heat.
A unknown beat to which
my heart had no knowledge of.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Go Away

I know that it's not a nice thing to say but I'm going to say it anyway.
Can't you just go away!
It's hard enough that you can't stay away
or the fact you're in my class each day

So can you just go now, please?
And stop being such a tease
Because your making me go weak at the knees and I really don't know how much I stand

I need understanding and meaning, not this empty feelings.

So go now, get out of my way
It's either you or me.... and now I see
It comes down to me,
To let this feeling fly
or to let it die.

Good Enough

There is not much I can offer, there is nothing I can give.
How can I? When I'm invisible to your eyes.
I just want to shield you from the lies.
The hurt and pain that you have felt.
He's been there, but has he cared?
If you let me try I could be good for you.

I would be there because you would be my life.
I would protect you; I would make you feel good enough.
When times are rough, I'll be tough...for you.
I could be your something, if only you would accept me.
You know that you would reject me.
Yet you will never push him away.
He'd be the one to stay.
Because you'll never swing my way, instead you would rather watch him stray.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Hard To Do Around You

Forgiveness and happiness are emotions hard to do around you.
Even though they're simple they're hard to portray,
when your heart has gone astray.
And the world has become black and white
Leaving you little hope for the next day,
for all the new obstacles that will come your way.
As happiness and forgiveness are hard to do when you've been hurt
and you feel like dirt.
Because your feelings are never put first.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Hate That I Love You

And wouldn't you just love to know that I hate that love you and I hate your friends too.

I'm so sick of wishing for my wish to come true
Because I hate you, I love you, I truly do.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Hate You, Love You

I hate you, I despise you.
You and your venomous words
That's true.
There's not much I can say that I like about you.

I hate the way you look at me,
I hate the way you walk and talk.
The ways you make me feel so small,
Like I'm nothing at all.

Yet every time I see you, I get this fluttery feeling and my heart rate rises to the ceiling.
I don't want it but I can't stop it,
I can't hide it

I can't stop hating you,
I can't stop loving you.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Heels Over Head

Why can't I forget you, after the silent hell you put me through?
Why am I the fool that falls heels over head
and head over heels, in love...with her.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Hidden Inside

Night has become blind, light too hard to find,
what binding force has become of here.
In the shadows and mist,
the things that twitch and twist
wreath beneath the darkness of this ancient soul.

Which, has become much like an ocean
Its waves bash and crash into the dark rocks of despair
Inside of what this one has to hide from a crazed world,
both cold and uncaring.
His strength is failing. As his pride stops him, from showing the pain that lies below.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

I Died For My Love

I loved you and you loved me, you where my king and I was your queen.
Each day our love poured into a stream of never-ending love and
I believed that you would be my only love.
But our love was destroyed the night you left,
when you said it was over and walked out of my life.

I wept for months on end for you to take me back,
but time made me stronger.
I thought that I would never want you back.
Rich and famous I had become, but I thought there was something that lacked.
One night I drove along in my Mercedes Benz and saw your parents walking in the rain to an unknown place.
With tears running down their faces, I jumped out of my car and followed them round.
That's when I saw where they where heading towards
A gloomy graveyard with a secluded coffin, atop laid a picture of your smiling face.
I cried to your parents and asked what had happened of your fate
They told me that died one month after we broke up and showed me the note you wrote.
Stating that our break up was a huge mistake and that you still loved me
I cried so hard at your funeral and I spoke of the good times.

After I became numb and I tried to forget our good times,
but they haunted me through out my lonely nights.
Until one day I could not take it anymore and I turned off the lights.
A day later, I was found with a picture of you in my arms
My parents and friends wept and my fans mourned, as they placed my tombstone next to yours which read 'I died for love'.

I Have Written You A Opera

Feel the music cascading from my heart, on to paper forming notes and words.
Notice that they are all about you and the wonders you do.

I have written an opera.

Yes it is true.

All of this is for you the characters, the story, and the stage, are dedicated to you.

The piano symbolising our love;

Perfect and constant never heaving to pressure.

The pianist fingers move with that type of efficiency.

You frequent on and I haven't even begun to describe the rest of the band.

This would in a way describe your perfect hand.

As it grasps mine in time with the music, to dance across the floor. Your embrace draws me in more and gives me ideas of which I have never had thought of before.

Being without you...Is something I could not bare. I cannot write it alone. You're my muse, my inspiration, my source of strength.

And you don't even know of it. How the ways things fall into place, when I see your beautiful face.

Left to right the beautiful dancers swing in their allocated space, symbolising your inner grace. Moves of such precision and beauty, this remains my duty to mirror these. For everyone to see, the person I see.

This, I guess, brings us to the work of actors. Melodrama and realism used to create, a fixed portrayal. Of how you deal with life's hurdles, moving, screaming, crying and bringing an essence to the stage. An essence I see about you. You're a secret director that brings things together in place. You will never be afraid of what the critics have to say, a hidden strength, a leading force. There is almost nothing you can't indorse. Yes that is right you have always been beside me in spirit and hope.

You're the show I hope you'll like it. You don't have to buy a ticket.

You already have a spot...In the chorus, in the band, in the back row and in front, in my mind and heart, this is the opera.

I have written for you, and only you.

I Really Do Love You

You're dumb,
You're no fun,
Your have crazy, outrageous style.
That goes with your disjointed smile; maybe it's due to the fact
That your shoes never match and your belief that you are the world's biggest catch.

You will always be far away from society's definition of normal
As you boycott formals and you're always hormonal.
But you've never caught on, to catch the clue
That despite what I say
I really do love you.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

I Will Never Show

I love him more and more each day for he is perfect in every way.
Though I'll never show my feelings on public display,
for I don't know what I would say would he walk away?
Or say he feels the same way?

Each day, I try to run away and forget my harboured feelings for him.
For he is my weakness, that lies within me oh.
If only he could see,
he is my obsession, my world but I could never tell him so.
For he is with another girl I know
And they are happy so I'm not that girl.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Knight What Do You See?

Will you be the knight I need?
Do you have a heroic white steed?
Can you rescue me from my tower of insecurity?
Will you see the true me? Or a princess of conformity.
Enslaved by peers that act like goblins trying to make me something I'm not.
A villain or victim?
Sir Knight which do you believe is me?

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Lie Next To You

I see you from across the classroom
A glowing light in the doom...
Well maybe that was a slight exaggeration on my part
but seeing you does thing to my heart

To thump and shake again
My breath starts to quake again
I don't know where to start
But all I know is that you have stolen my heart

Because I see you looking at me and I hope you seeing,
what's true, the happiness I have felt around you.
Oh you are the one
I should've know that right from the start

If only I could lie next to you,
I would wrap my arms around your waist
and kiss you on the face. You warm in my embrace,
I would just marvel at your sweet taste
Come on love there really is no time to waste.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Link It Up

Link it up between you and me
and see if it will become a tragedy
A love comedy or a catastrophe

What will it be? The choice is up to you,
you see.

Will you be there to hold me tight?
Will you make me feel alright?
Will you be there and say you care?

Link up our chemistry,
will this love be clear to see?
Or will this be like a fairy tale or a tragedy
It's up to you.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Love Game

What is this to you?
What am I?
A game?
Am I mere toy for you to play and discard?
You must assume it so, you blur what I know.
Do you even know what I've held below?

Your ruthless, unkind you've driven me out of my mind.
You don't really know me; you don't try too and why should you?
That's what I know is true, I'm not the one for you.
Because your naivety blocks you out from what others are feeling.
This is no crush I'm dealing, this is a full blown out feeling of which your rumours have no meaning.

I do not love him like you have believed I should, I don't believe I ever could.
He's a friend; your fictional romance between us is pretend.
All I want is your rumours to cease, please.
My love cannot be swayed; it is displayed for a soul less obvious as it is ruthless.
Can't you see past your pretty brown eyes that it is you that I desire?
Not him, but you, can't you get the clue?
You oblivious, self centred git!
Must I shake your head for these words to get through, I'm crazy for you.

But you'll never see what you mean to me, I can't get it past your oblivious eyes.
No matter how hard I try, so I ignore your false lie and wait for the day.
The day when you look into my heart and realise you are tearing it apart.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Love Worth Fighting For

Give me a love that's worth fighting for.

A love that's secret.

Unknown to shadow and soul.

Someone that spirals context out of control.

Taking much needed senses and breaking iron defenses,
at the mere mention of their name.

A love that's impossible to tame that relies on heart and soul rather than the logical brain.

Give me a love to entertain.

To name.

To maim.

To keep me sane.

To love me over and over again.

Give me a love to save me from becoming a plain Jane without a claim.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Love's Light

So many times I have sat down there,
watching a happy pair of lovers,
walking on a pavement covered in light.

They had a kind of glow about them,
it almost looked like true love's light.
I thought I would never know,
that tender, loving glow.

Though I wish with all my might....

'was I never made for love's light? '

Then suddenly a angel has said they couldn't live without me
who's sweet kisses bought me
back to life.

Which made my heart seem so light,
might it be love's true light?

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Loving From Afar

Loving from afar,
knowing exactly who you are.
But you won't know me and you never will.
For i will hold this secret until my dying day or if I ever go away.
These feelings are here to stay but once again,
another girl comes your way
she smiles and giggles and pulls you away.
I clench my jaw and look away,
it was never supposed to be this way
you where supposed to be mine,
but because of my stupid pride
I will never tell you how I feel inside.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Mark Of The Sea

In a sea of blue rises secrets true,
that pulls few in and gives few back.
Sea of light, sea of dark
leave their mark
upon my heart.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Masks I've Hidden Behind

Don't be fooled by how I act,
don't be fooled by the posterior I show.
For I have thousands of masks
though none of them are me.

I give the impression that I'm secure, upbeat
and confident.
But inside I am really insecure.

Confidence is my name and coolness is my claim
I'm the one that's in command but don't believe my lies

Beneath me dwells who I really am,
alone in darkness and fear.
I hide this from everybody because I don't want them to know

That I instantly freeze at the thought of my weakness being exposed.
So this is why I create masks to hide behind,
to let me pretend to be someone better than I am.
To shield myself from their knowing glance but this glance is my salvation, the only salvation that I know of if it is followed by acceptance and love.

But I don't tell anyone, I don't try because I am afraid to speak, I'm afraid your glance won't give me,
the love and acceptance I need

So I begin to show my collection of masks,
I chatter aimlessly in suave tones of small talk and I tell you everything that means nothing
and nothing of what means everything to me of the battle within.

So next time you see this, don't be fooled, listen to me.
Hear what I am really saying
I don't like to hide...
I'd really like to be loved, genuine and me but you to help me.
You have to lend me your hand and understand.

Each time you are gentle and kind, my heart beats a new hope.
Small at first but it begins to grow with your sensitivity and understanding

You bring life to me, I wish to tell you that.
I want you to know how important you are to me
by being the creator of me...if you choose...

You alone can break the walls I tremble behind,
you can remove the masks, please don't walk by.
I fight for everything I long for,
but isn't love stronger than these horrid walls in this, lies my hope.
Bang down my walls and make them crash to the ground but be gentle

Who am I?
You may ask
For I am someone you know.
I am every man you'll ever meet and
I am every woman you'll ever know.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Meant To Be

Blinded by hatred, guided by your love
to find a strength not known to me.
That shows me who I can be
Your love sets me free.
This gives me strength to see,
that you and me were meant to be

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Metamorphose

Saw you there across from the hall,
I couldn't take my eyes off you.
Usually I'm shy, pathetic you name it all yet seeing you made me feel incredibly high
I know this feeling will not die.
You've made me into a divine butterfly in the making,
metamorphosing to be part of your beautiful world full of secrets untold.
I know that I am sold as to when your eyes meet mine, I get the feeling that if have broken, broken from my secure cocoon and into the warmth of your intensive eyes.

This love is not based on lies; I can see it in your eyes,
you've made me metamorphose.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Morbidiathesis

Babe, you know it's true.
I only have this message for you

'You have made this world seem so vial
With your everlasting claims of denial.
They take hold of me, bruising me from the inside.
Everything you say is all so snide.
I just want to hide, from the hell you've put me through.
What have I seen in you?
You don't even see me, you don't acknowledge me.
Your purpose is only to disgust me.
To inevitably make me wish for your permanent vacancy,
Far away from my ruined life caused by you will to move in
For the kill.
Leaving me a lone, ripped up carcass,
my heart left for the start of a permanent morbidiathesis.'

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

My Kind Of Guy

I wonder if you know
Is it obvious how my feelings show?
I try to keep them down below the depths of my heart
But seeing you sets them apart
And the mumbling begins to start
Though I never seem to know why
You make me feel as if I can fly....
Which lets me know is that you're my kind of guy

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Never Belong

I will never fit in,
I know I'll never win.
The right to be accepted,
as I'll only end up hurt and rejected.
Living each day as if I'm sedated,
Not to feel anything real, because I don't know how to deal.
With all the hurt I've gained after spending years in the rain,
being hurt over and over again.
By your fake promises hoping for the best,
that I've passed the test.
Only to be hurt
As these promises turned to lies, when you whispered goodbye,
leaving me here to die.
Because I know I will never belong,
You made sure of that when you strung me along.
Saying I was wrong and you'll make sure I would Never belong.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

No Clue

Oh god, how I am without you. You don't know me.
Yet I here I remain, hopeless for your touch.
A touch unknown to my skin and memory.

I'm dying to let you know I exist, to reach beyond my fist.
To witness your kiss, I would cherish forever.

Oh, what can I do.

These feelings will not be returned too.

I need to be free of you and the feelings I have held true.

But I can't escape your essence, your being.
I want to know how it feels, how you would fit.
I can't quit my addiction of you.
You're an obsession, a mystery, you're too much for me.
You cloud my thought and judgment.

You have no idea what you do to me. You have no clue. The way I feel about you.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Once Upon A Lifetime

Once upon a lifetime, leaves us a second chance
So let's not waste our second chance,
by not being here tonight.

Once in a lifetime,
You were mine and I was yours and
we held each other long throughout the night.
Wishing on a falling star of light,
that we would stay together through the good and bad.

But once upon this lifetime
The promise fell apart, because you played with my heart
and everything we had apart.
Once upon a lifetime

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

One Glance

With just one glare, I feel as if I'm not there,
That my soul is stripped bare
As I know you care
and that love is fair.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Opposites

Light and dark,
white and black.
Such polar opposites,
do they attract or do they repel?

Heaven and hell,
fire and ice.
Put me under your darkest spell.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Playing With Fire

I cannot love when my heart is taken by the one who hates me.
It is an incapable almost struggling feeling to me as she demeans me inappropriate to her attire.
Her words burn like fire, blazing hot within my skin.
When her tormenting begins...

She loves to tease me so, but what do I know?
It's my fault to have been involved such things can't be resolved
With one who plays with fire, they're subjected to their own pyre.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Pretend/Love Like You Did Yesterday

And as it all came to an end, I realized that in doing so
I lost a friend and my first boyfriend
But it was pretend...he was pretend,
so it did not take long to mend the supposed parts of my broken heart.
Because I see that you must have hated to spend your time with me
when you started to ignore me in the dropp of a hack
you went in for the attack, leaving me to cry all alone
you wouldn't even pick up the phone to explain why but I am okay.
Even though you would not stay, I just wish you could have told me that you didn't love me like you did yesterday.

Reflection

Trying to survive in a world of hate
that will find a way to thrive,
trying my best to survive.

Struggling to stay afloat in a dark, unmerciful river,
just to look in the mirror and accept
Who I am.

Retaining Meaning

Why must you look forever look through me?
I thought you knew me well enough to know of the feelings I show but you still don't know.
I'm tired of trying to get through to you,
can't see what's before your eyes.
Or is my disguise painted on so smoothly that it hides my intentions? Guess it must be so, you'll never know what I have felt and had to deal with.
You couldn't possibly know because this had never happened to you, such feelings would pass straight you.
But I'm strong enough to pass such muddled feelings;
they consume from within to make such a painful dealing.
Yet I must go on, I know that I have to survive the dive of this unrequited feeling to retain some meaning of the life I'm leading.

Safety

Into the safety of your arms,
keeps me safe from harm.
That works like a charm which makes me love you more each time.

Star Crossed Lovers

In a undying wrath of vengeance and hatred,
a young love is created.
That fights not to be torn apart by their parents foes,
Living on forever escaping the woes.

As their destinies entwined, no one seemed to know why
they combined or how their fates became star-crossed.
A line that was not commonly crossed,
but those two did, heaven forbid.
Look what they did,
Romeo and Juliet made the bet.
To love each other from the moment they met and to never forget.

The love they would share over those three short days,
As their lives did not last long because
When one star dies to other soon follows.
Which became the lover's case, as they took their lives to be together
In another time and life,
Away from their parents hate and strife

The Heart

Goodbyes hurt the heart,
lies fill the heart,
breakups burn the heart but
love releases it towards a new start.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

The Music Of You And Me

Your melody takes hold of me as we become a harmony.
This echoes through my head and heart
even though we are worlds apart,
you'll stay forever in my heart.

As your voice rises above the noise
As it prints its elegant design on to my heart,
setting me towards a new start.

The 'sane' One

Can't stop myself can I?
Can't play this naive alibi
When you walk by, you say hi
The frostiness melts away and I'm no longer in control...
Of my mortal soul
Because you've left a hole, mauled who I used to be Changed my identity, I'm not the girl I used to be It's because of you that I've become a shell of what I used to be...Oh why can't you see
Your denial is criminal
To what has become of me
The game has just begun; I'm no longer the 'sane' one

This Life

I soar through this life with wings that were not mine.
Soaring across a violet sky,
looking down at those who cried.
Whispering from the sky,
'do not cry for me for I am free.'

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Two Sides

Two sides both alike in power and play are light and dark.
Both impossible to break apart for they both
need each other to survive,
in the body of which they reside.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Walk In The Night

I walk in the night, away from the light.
Where nothing feels right, I don't possess the strength to fight.
When will I live my life?
Away from trouble and strife that runs
deep through me like a knife.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Want To

I want to hear you, want to see you and want to feel you.
So why aren't you here with me?
Was it something I did or said?
Because it seemed so right,
why aren't you here tonight?

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Weakness For You

I will never get him and I can't even try.
Because I know that he'll just walk on by,
not even looking at me in the eye, like I'm not there.
Why should he care?
I'm not her but life would be so much better if I was forever his.
Instead of the deformity, which is me?
An ugly girl for the world to see,
for being beautiful, was something that I was not meant to be.
Maybe that why he can't see as it separates his girl from me
Can't he get the clue?
Can't you get this clue?
I've been through hell for my weakness for you.

What They Can Do

The drugs I'm told are forbidden and dangerous.
But as usual I was quite precarious as to the excrescency
behind those small, white pills.
Looking at them even now sends those cold chills, up to the top of my spine.
The feeling of dread creeps in, in to my soul.
Yet I don't care.
It's like my feelings quickly expel, due to the pills sending their magical spell.
In to the intercity of my young mind, making common sense hard to find
That one pill won't bind me I haven't got all eternity

6 months on
I should have stayed strong but the force strung me on,
I knew what they could do and who I would turn in to.
But I couldn't except that it was true.
Sure enough these things do happen, I was forever taken
In to another version of heaven and hell, my mind not fairing up as well
I lost my friends due to my new hostility,
because they could not except the new me.
And why would they when I treated them so badly?
Or so I'm told

Practically everything has become a haze, that's what you get for joining the latest craze
So listen now, and listen well to what little I have to say...
Drugs, no matter what substance,
will ruin your resistance and forever change your existence.

What To Do

Faded from the perfect picture, never to feel a wonderful venture of love so pure and true.

Love that will never be returned by someone like you.

What shall I do? When my everything revolves around you?

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Why Should I?

Why should I believe you when all your lies
turned out to be true?
Everything has become undone because you
were the one I relied on

Why should I trust you?
After all the pain you have caused me
because you are too blind to see,
the impact you have on me.

Why should I love you? To be true
when you have never loved me.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

You Are My Lifeline

You are my lifeline, my truth, my light and my knight in shining armour of love.

Here to show me what love is all about and in doing so you have become part of me making my blood run freely
within me.

At the thought of where we are at and I am loving every moment that we have as you are my wish come true here to lift me from my depressing shade of blue.

Maddie 'Rae' Berry

Your Eyes

A sparkling light resides in your eyes,
full of life, wonder and joy
that not one person could destroy.

And its then, when I look into your eyes
I realise what wonder lies beneath your eyes.
