magenta cyans()

hi, thanks for stopping by to my heaven, yes i call my poems my heaven, cos they truly are, give me peace whenever i'm with them, give me joy for birthing them. don't really care if it doesn't even rhyme or rhythm, it's just me or at least another side of me. so, happy reading!

Angel Fly

love falled apart
dreams passed me by
hopes went away
desperate....
longing to be in your way

angel fly
angel cry
angel say good bye
angel wanna kiss your lips untill her die

magenta cyans

Black Is Not Enough

fairytale
happily ever after
if i see u next to never there is no ever after believe only in pain, death & sorrow buried my soul already it's only a matter of time this flash come along the promise of fairytale will left alone i know, u know, he knows but i'm blind, he's blind u're not blind, u're left behind this bruises turn into black red is not enough
this tears turn into dark
black is not enough

Wrap this zeal with silk of emptiness Don't start wishing Won't happend anyway
Black roses start to bloom Provide no colour of my future Long road it was Stop.. birds of death fly over my head
The windows of hope start to close Last kiss I should have
For there is no tomorrow

Breeze Of Desert

Breeze of sand on silent desert orange sky turns into dark so dark, i see no horizon still wish i could be there in that bloody war with u lay down next to u
lean on ur everlasting arms
feel safe, feel free

I love u
U love me
sounds perfect
but again
world is no perfect
will never be
there will always test for everybody that's including 'we'

storms rage on that lonely desert stars fall one by one
don't lie, i know how u feel wish could be in someone else's face wish could be in someone else's faith as long as her faith is with u

magenta cyans

Bring Back My World

where is my world now?
please bring it back to me
anybody? i need help here this head is needed a surgery as black now only i can see and where is my laugh now?

please give it back to me
anybody? i need smile instantly this heart is hunger of certainty as alone only i can be

you're so perfect
what my eyes see, you're such a beauty you'll make me adore you endlessly but knowing that u're not made for me i prefer to die immediately will let my self live in sorrow sell my soul to beggar

even run over fire
or walk on thousand thorns will do anything
if anybody can grant me that in the end I can hold you eternally

magenta cyans

Brother

Rain

Rainbow

Smile, You..

I remember you who gave me the smile in that rain

Simply lovely

Night

Over Midnight

Laugh, You..

I remember you who made me laugh on that night

So darling

Attached to you ever since

I found a brother in you

Someone I never had

No more loneliness

You fill me with love

Hours and hours time we've shared

Hours and hours moment we'll share

Will always love your story

Will always love your journey

Don't worry

For whatever that may come true

Remember I will always stand by you

magenta cyans

Chain Of Love

chains of love got a hold on me even i can't be with him i found spirit, they couldn't ruin it i found faith in the song he silenced this love is undivided so true, innocence one

I have suffered from my anger the damage is done, devastated but from a distance my love tell me There are wars that can't be won take it easy
don't let your heaven turn to hell ah..so easy
my love shows me how to get up off the ground shows me how to fly and never ever come back down

yet it will not be easy to leave the trace of my love with u as it will paint eternally as the most wonderful song i've ever sing

magenta cyans

Definitely Maybe

Always in doubt
Totally misgiving
Living in uncertainty Is my daily being

Following your steps is hard Where I stand?
Portrayed in your heart?
Or simply just standing bland

Existence of me is for u only
The big question is would you be for me?
Aaahh still it is -
definitely maybe

magenta cyans

Denying Love

used to think love is bullshit now i think like double bullshit why should i have this love anyway if i can offer my love nothing if only he knows what i've been through if only he knows how i feel well live is shit
u can take that for granted

things happend for reasons people say that everyday but can't find out single reason for this one if only i didn't meet him that day i would be more than happy with my destiny
when i know i can have this feeling again have this love one more time but then have to leave it for reason i don't believe for name of honour, dignity what the hell
see, no more rhymes in my words who cares anyway?
i don't

magenta cyans

Do The Sands?

this heart has questions
About the sea, about the ocean Why is it always blue?
Why is it always in motions?

About my feeling, about my emotion Why always asking 4 u?
Why always hurt like poison?

The sands have the answers for questions why the sea always in blue
always in motions

Do the sands have the answers Why my heart
Always longing 4 u
Asking u for my passion
Do the sands?

Eagle Eyes

eagle eyes, captured me once took me fly with him
wandered on white blue sky that was so clear
mmhh...so real

eagle eyes, safed me once took me to his dreams
so beautiful, will it last forever?
ahh...almost

eagle eyes, never lied
just too good to be true I know i can't have you may be in another life, heaven only knew destiny won't die, that's for true should I stop my dreams now, I have no clue i know, what i feel inside is just for you my dear is only you

eagle eyes, loved me once
now have to leave me
cause i told him to pain, hurt? yes i feel them too destiny won't die
who knew?

Erzurum's Station

night, erzurum's station expectations are staying, i'm going reaching for what it's called love reaching for what it's called hope
..... you

noon, erzurum's station shadows are going, i'm staying waiting for my destiny
waiting for my dreams

i'm a wanderer
taking long walk to find my heart
taking long walk to find my soul
..... you

magenta cyans

Grey

when time's clicking
to the end of my day
there's no other way
unless his way, his colour colour that's created for me colour that kills me, slowly

not black nor white
grey, always grey
between fake & lie
or deny & decline
try to figure out
but too dumb to see
why should follow the colour anyway?

forgive if i'm no perfect but this is a love i can't reject

magenta cyans

Have I Told You?

Have I told you?
I've been in love before
But the way my heart beats for you I know there's something More beautiful than that word

Have I told you?
I've dreamed heaven before
But I never knew
God has created something more amazing
In this world, you

Have I told you?
I've been kissed before
But I had no clue
If your eyes could make me more trembling Than all the kisses i've been through

Have I told you?
I love you

magenta cyans

Heart, Love, Life

heart, enchanted
here, tired, alone
want to be with the darkest miracle

love, addicted
here, restless, alone
want to be with the deepest desire

life, devoted
here, sleepless, alone..
want to be with your soul forever enchanted, addicted, devoted so pure.. why can't you see them so real.. how can't you feel them

are torn
again..

I Love The Eagle

Eagle of desert
flies on the wings of no fear he protects me
he protects you
he protects everybody
but not his heart
it's bleeding
i can see

runs through the wild of war he rescues me
he rescues you
he rescues everybody
but not his body
it's so tired

the doom is still going on wane everything
has no mercy
there's no beautiful world
bleeding also in my heart i try not to see
blinded my eyes
but i know
not he

magenta cyans

In Love

feel like an attorney
who doesn't have a case
i hit the ground
i got crashed
if he wants to know the truth he simply would have dived into my eyes so obvious i'm obsessed his action my reaction
i'm lost, i rest my case
fall so hard
have no arguments
i can't define
i look his way
i take his path
he's all over my head
he's taken over my breath even dumb can see through me i'm dead
got my heart locked in simply just breakin
simply just fallin
in love
with u

magenta cyans

Innocent Heart

Innocent heart stands still never hesitate spreading passion this wanderer believes it's pure, that's why she stops no more running
no more seeking
she surrendered
to that heart
fully, willingly, wild

try to understand
why her heart beats so fast why the rhythm sings the longing why the pain likes to stay so much questions
the lord of reasons doesn't have the answers

only one thing she believes if her journey has to end on that sin she will smile in moment of eternity cause that innocent heart has fulfilled her dreams completely..

Let Me

let me fool myself
for try denying ur existence let me hate myself
for causing u that pain

let you curse me
for can't give u my world
let you disgust me
for letting u down

but never doubt what i feel for u never doubt for this love is true been promised u my heaven but give u hell instead wish u will forgive me

magenta cyans

Let Me Be

This black love is amorphous
May be real yet bemused It's strange
I can feel your existence
But also your extinction your concern is potent
your touch is important
for me

I simply drawn in your heart simply lost in your eyes Swim in your soul
A dropp in your blood
Be vampire in your dark Shadow of your actions Can't touch or be touched But I'm there

magenta cyans

Let This Hurt Stay

my last song
let them hear it
a broken wings
trying to get up
pick up all the pieces
get on with my life
wish I could turn back & beg the hands of time when it brought u to me
did open up my heart
but all I did was bleed
never sorry
never worry
for loving thee

sorry can't say sorry
the words just got in the way
sorry can't say worry A broken heart got in my way have lost my faith when face reality now loneliness has found a home in me but won't share this hurt with anybody this pain belongs to me don't take it away
please, let it stay

at least this hurt won't forsake me

magenta cyans

Loosing U

u may not notice
my heart beats faster
when i think of u
u may not see
my sky seems brighter
when i dream of u
u may not hear
my laugh sounds lighter when i'm with u

so amazing
so breath taking the thought of having u

who should i blame then
for tomorrow is the last day
i will have my heart beat who should i curse
i have my sky blue
for tomorrow is the day
i'm loosing u

magenta cyans

Loving U Is Killing

been through some changes been through lots of games But one thing always stays the same this feeling i have for u like engaged with the devil sweet in the beginning
bitter in the end
want to let it go
but can't let it go
as it's trussed to the vow

it's no use for grieving i stop crying since this heart dying i stop running from living ignoring everything as i'm walking i force smiling
but there is no more meaning still my dream is my only leading as in my dream i still can hear u saying

Mr. C, The Boots & Me

a classic white boots, mine a real gentleman, mr. c another story, of me

the boots is just fine, still mine this gentleman? you should really see he brings so many smiles, to me the boots still bind as mine but with new thinkin, when I see aaaah mr. c, you really are something to me

:)

magenta cyans

Not Mine

hei do you still remember when sun still gives us so much hopes like we did say
there will always be tomorrow there will always be another day a new journey, a new dreams from orange to red
the promises are there
waiting for us to reach embracing us to stay

where are you now?
i'm missing you
the sun is still there
but the promises are left behind now
sun is only a sign
that the day will always bind with another tomorrow
but not mine

magenta cyans

One Way Or Another

sorrow comes with love
sorrow will always be there bind with love that i have
it's a package
bliss & grief are tied up together united
it will not go anywhere giving so much pain
but i'm fine
i'm trying to be just fine

this way i choose
leaving trace of pain
in its every step
but not to you
you don't deserve that you'll find your heaven
you'll find your angel
you'll be fine
i promise you'll be just fine

magenta cyans

Rain Of Fire

will never stop burning desire and that sea of dreams
with shore so unforgotten it embraces the sun so tight seems so lazy welcoming the night

i was here
i'm here
i will always be here
can't run
don't want to run
so comfort here
sea, shore, sun..
i belong to that scenes every single dropp of my tears is coming from that sea every single hope that i have
is made from that shore every passion that i long is bind with that sun

i can see ur smile
in the eyes of my cry
you are heaven of my hell
rain of fire
you are my deepest desire

magenta cyans

Re

Atmosphere, clouds were your family Earth, stars were your legacy You dawn this world
You were known as Lord

You cried
Human were made from your tears
We inherit that sob
And fly around this world like bees

Then you created Nile
That length for miles Awarded an olden history Of earth, used to be

magenta cyans

Really

Do you remember me?
Yes I'm torn if you care to know Yes I'm hurt if you care to hear
No not because of you
It's just my silly heart Longing for you

Do you remember me?
Yes still can feel that blade over my heart Yes still call your name in my sleep
No not because of you
It's just my head
Dreaming of you

I miss you Really, I miss you Really, I'm missing you

magenta cyans

Shun Your Shadow

trying to shun your shadow seems impossible to do
why is it very hard
to put you out of my mind?
refusing your existence is beyond my reach should i curse for this love i have?
Lord please let me know how can i end up this feeling?
like hell moving to my doorstep

peace no more in my heaven

you're so far away
yet so close to me
every step i take seems tracing your way every move i make seems following your day even in my sleep you are there if only i can have you here soothing me tenderly
saying everything will be oke

magenta cyans

Slave Of Love

Dreams' shattered, heart's broken don't question how i feel even cloud nine can't unlocked my pain thousand black shadows came by screamed my deepest willing my nerves never lie
it's longing for u
so wanting u in me

so many times
i feel like knife stabbing my stomach so hurting, much
so many times my tears fallin' without i could resist
not your fault, never been your mistake my foolish done it to me although my heart still love u my conscious still need u i have to leave u
for my own sorrow

no more dignity
pride is vanished
i'm ur slave of love
in my selfish cage of dreams not more, can't have more just let me hold a little piece of ur heart to be with me forever

magenta cyans

Soldier

soldier is coming
war is not over
a battle just begin, a rage in rapture don't know how to hide
i'm going

soldier is leaving
still war is not over
a new combat just begin, insanity captured don't know how to run
i'm staying

cry till your last tears soldier is saying
last tears then i have yet feeling stays unchanged impair..
soldier is disappearing
while i lost my wings
i'm dying

magenta cyans

Soul With Me

scent this rose, smell me feel the sun, sense me
growing, blossom, wild
this adore inside me

see this dew, notice me touch this fire, have me blooming, raising, untamed this zeal within me

longing is over, i have ur soul with me wishing is after, i have ur heart surround me pretending no longer
'cause i know
there will be love
from thee

magenta cyans

Stranger

let that love blooming
the stranger was saying let that feeling spreading the stranger was telling I was still trying to get my nerves out when the stranger was coming so how could I listen to him?

my world was tumbling
when the stranger was calling let your affection growing again the stranger was telling I was jumping to joy
when the stranger was saying
'love you for real'
now should i listen to him?

the stranger's finally saying I want to know you for inside out for shut & loud
for joy & tears
for weak & strong
for black & white
for rock & tender
for ice & fire
for last & after i want to know u for inside out so, should i listen to him?

magenta cyans

That Sea

that sea so blue
more blue than my soul
that sand so white
more white than my lips
that sky so red
more red than my anger
that wave so rage
more wrath than me
this paradise has no bridge to my heart anymore

so soundless here
like my strength
fade away
that sun fading so slowly west will i go, following that sun will shine no more enough giving the lights need to be alone
that sun need to be alone
the dark wrapped me
tears with this silent
how could we?
that sea is still so blue
i miss u

magenta cyans

Trap

it's a trap
all the sudden
that feeling getting deeper swallowing me, alive
i give up
i know i had to embrace me, i'm begging you just hold me tight

your love is a devil
drag me from pain to suffer from wrath to anger
but i love that devil
somehow i feel safe in your hell

it's a trap
but never regret its existence cover me, i'm begging you just pull me close
i want you...

magenta cyans

Where Are U

That song so far
can u hear it?
sounds so damn beautiful
remains me of u
romance room where we met so much memories
so much now
hey that undivided love still here at least in my memory

cheer up that's what u said that easy?
really?
and where am i?
still hide behind my pain?
wish can follow that song sing along
but can't scream even a whisper listen, it will lead u to me at least reminiscence of me that's what i got
what about u?
where are u?

Without You

tonight is so black
only dark
i can't even see my own soul so hoping i can hear you even a slight of your breath to let me know that u're still there longing for me
like i do now
miss you in misery

tonight is soundless
so silent
can't close my eyes 'til dawn only a step away i have to let you go release you to find your own paradise without me
without my destiny
still can't believe i have to lose you i was seeking for my sunrise when i met you
but again
right person, wrong time wrong spring, sun in winter I'm breaking down
When i found u and then have to let you go My crazy heart runs wild boils up
cause what my eyes see
longing is for me

I'm out of tears now
can't cry anymore
have to move on
forward
go on
without my love
will close my heart until doomsday only a wish will be with you again somewhere in heaven

one day

magenta cyans

Your Heart, Love

as the rainbow
will fade away as the rain over as the arrow
will fly so fast as released from its crossbow

how can't i hold it like forever?

offer me nothing but sad, pain and sorrow

heaven, tell me
why i can't choose for whom my love for?
still my love for thee
will last 'til endless tomorrow

will never like rainbow nor like arrow
your heart, love, may i borrow?
