marysol hinojosa(10/19/1993)

I lived in Georgia all of my life and never moved...But when it came time to part from it....it was hard....it was as if life took the only thing i rele loved and never gave it back.

' The Empty Chair'

Looking through the room, all I can See is an empty chair
The chair that was with a person
With whom I shared my thoughts with
The chair that used to stand for a Friendship bond between us
A bond that stronger than any friendship I had ever known
The empty chair was not just a chair but a sign that you were always there But now you're gone and there the chair will last until the person whom was sitting there comes back

**brandon Lopez****

When i was in need you were always there
When i neede do you, you always had my back
When i was going to make the wrong choice, you there to tell me no
When i was going to do things that i knew were going to consequeunces
You always no.....

Then time past and you were gone.....
You were in love and you forgot about me
Our friendship was going good until that day

That when you did everything to hurt me
You lied to me, when you never did
You left me when i most needed you
You left me to go with her, when we had not saw each Other for days, and didn't care

Our friendship went down the drain
And soon what goes around will come around
And you will feel the same way I felt Soon someday we will become friends again

Maybe

A True Friend

You were always there when I needed you
You picked me up when i was putting myself down
You believed in me when I didn't even believe in myself
You had Faith in me when I didn't even have faith in myself
You showed me the true beauty of a friendship.
You showed me how to trust people when you have nothing to lose
You showed me how to love myself for who I am not by what people say

It took me some time, but I know now that you are

A TRUE FRIEND!

I Still Remember

I still remember the way you hold me in your arms
You told me that you loved me and you were never going to let me go
You made me a promise that soon became a lie
I still remember the times in which my world was in agony
And you were there to keep me comfort and my tears dry

And as time went by I knew that our world was going to die
But what I wonder is why say that you loved me if you knew that it would break
me inside
Why torture me if you knew that I couldn't handle it
You watch me slowly fade away but u didn't care

Sooner or later my love I will pay you the same way

I Still Remember Do You? ?

I still remember the way you hold me in your arms
You told me that you loved me and you were never going to let me go
You made me a promise that soon became a lie
I still remember the times in which my world was in agony
And you were there to keep me comfort and my tears dry

And as time went by I knew that our world was going to die
But what I wonder is why say that you loved me if you knew that it would break
me inside
Why torture me if you knew that I couldn't handle it
You watch me slowly fade away but u didn't care

My Love For You

My love for you was more than just a feeling
It was more than you lifting my heart and taking me to a whole other world
It was there just the touch of your lips and the warmth of your body
It was more than any one could ever ask for

My love for you was more than watching the rose pedals floating down the stream
It was more than the emotion a person gets when you are with the one you love
It is more than just words that comes out of our mouth
My love is deeper than the feeling itself

My love is what I felt when I first met you

Saying Good-Bye

As I walk into my world of sadness and guilt you were always there to pick me up with the words that lifted my soul from ground dump and that let me know that you were a true friend

Time went by and Christmas came around and went two weeks without seeing each other

But then to come back and see that you changed into a person that I knew wasn't you made me hurt inside

Even though it hurt me to say good-bye I had to do it but then you asked me why

And I didn't respond and as I walked along the halls that made our friendship stronger

I looked back and by the sadness of my heart I said good-bye

The Power Of A Tear

I walk through the hallways of the school and you with another girl
And to think that I was going to give you all
I was mistaken for the beauty that I saw in you

I get home with tears down my cheek
I hit my knees and pray for a solution to this depression
I hit my knees looking for answers that I needed

I pray to God to answer my prayer and bring you back
Or to make you pay for the broken heart that you left me

As I am in the room of darkness I begin to see a light
A light that gives me comfort inside
Then I hear a voice from up above that says

' My daughter do not suffer but be happy for I am with you'

Things I Miss

I miss the way you hold me in your arms
I miss the way you took care of me when i needed it
I miss the way you gave me nicknames for everything I did
But most of all I miss the way the warmth of your lips against mine
The way you showed me that you loved me.

When I Met You

When I met you, it was like nothing i had ever felt
When I met you, my life was never the same
When I met you, it was as if my dream came true

But as time went by we started to seperated
You never returned my calls
You never tried to find me

My life became a complete darkness
You were the light of my world
The one i gave my all to The one i wanted to spend the happy moments with

But in a flash you were gone
Gone forever without explanation to why

So long my love

When I Saw You

When I saw you day after day, Something inside told me to reach to you
When I saw you day after day, my heart became lonely just remembering how I treated you

When I saw you day after day, I never knew you begin to end up like me When I saw you day after day, I never thought that the hurt I gave you would bring you down low.

When I saw you for the last time, I felt that I needed you and without you I wouldn't nothing in this world

But when I caught up to you I was too late.

You were gone forever not knowing that I felt the same way too
And now I will die with you forever and never let go of the way you loved me once upon a time too.
