A Second Chance

Spend all your life waiting
For that second chance
With past time all hating
Wishing on the final dance;
There's always some reason
To feel not good enough
You go season by season
Ev'ry thing gets so rough;
I need some distraction
Or beautiful release
It's time to take action
It's agains all my beliefs;
My life feels so empty
And weightless, I fear
That ev'ry one left me
I must leave from here.

Acid Tears And Hope

Tears, tears run down my cheeks
My legs go numb and I grow weak;
My heart and my soul cry out in pain
As i suffer and suffocate with the stress I gain;
I cry and cry in search from some relief
The blood doesn't help, so I cry with mor grief;
My life can not end, I have too much to loose
But I need some help, so what do I choose;
I need and I want this pain to go away
Like a 'drug', a relief, to help me through the day;
But that is wrong, I can't do this anymore
Why would I do this? And I fall to the floor;
My acid tears burn through the ground
Then I look up to what i found;
Maybe a light to brighten my day
Or maybe a light to end all my pain;
Either way it has made me smile
So I know I'm going to live another while.

All Alone

Spend all your life waiting
for that second chance
with past time all hating
wishing on that final dance;
There's always some reason
to feel not good enough
you go season by season
ev'rything gets so rough;
I need some distraction
or a beautiful release
its time to take action
its agains all my beliefs;
My life feels so empty
and wightless, I fear
taht ev'ry one left me
I must leave from here.

Another Day

Your legs will swing out from the covers
And you sit up in bed
Another day just like the others
The tears will not shed;
Bare feet step onto the cold, hard ground
Off is how the lights stay
Listening for nothing but a sound
Only the words you say;
Your mouth opens but no words will speak
People then pass you by
You still go on, don't know what you seek
And the truth is a lie;
You don't know and you don't really care
And thoughts go through your head
Walk in your room and do what you dare
And lay down in your bed.

Burning

You bring me down, to a lower level
With all this hate, just to see the devil;
I know it's true, you want to see me in flames
But here's the clue, I'm through with playing these games;
I'm cold as ice, so put away the fire
I'm done with you so I'm gonna take it higher;
You think I'm stupid, you shld think it over
I say goodbye, you're not my lucky clover;
You made me mad, so now my skys are gray
I'm hot as hell, so just step out of my way;
Give me a minute, to catch my self again
So I can stop, and make sure that I'm certain;
And I lov eyou, but you make my head go crazy
And after that, it makes my day go hazy.

Clouds Cry

I look outside through the window watch the rain pelt on the glass starring out, forgetting ev'rything I know standing there letting all time pass;
For why are the clouds, the sky so sad the rain is the skys many tears the sun, a smile, what the world once had rain from clouds is all thats left here.

Miranda DeNooyer

Destroyer

You used to be my life
You used to be my soul
Now you are my pain that
I burry in a hole, and now;
You sucked life right out of me
Now I lay here just to bleed;
You could care less if I died
So one night I actually tried;
The blood steigns lay on the floor
Yet I know I could've done much more;
Then an angel came that night
They came to tell me wrong from right;
I stood up from the bloody ground
Away from deaths light all around;
I found good and bad out of my before sad life
I took my angel's hand and stepped into life's light.

Miranda DeNooyer

Give Up

My blood seeps out the veins
And drips off my finger tips
Whats left on me are the steigns
Or scars, darkness from eclipse;
You think all that would be done
'Cuz I hide it all with a smile
From my problems I try to run
Even though the run is vile;
I don't care how much blood I loose
I'd give it all up if I could
Sadly I know this is what I choose
To give up life, at end it will be good.

Goodnight

I love you sweet sun, I love you I do
But I need some sleep and so do you;
So I call to the moon to come tonight and all the stars that shine so bright;
I shut my eyes and try to sleep
As i slowly count the sheep;
The lights around me start to fade
As i dream the dreams I've made.

I Can'T Fly

This time I've had it, I've had enough
Staying here all these years is so rough;
I turn my head to look in the mirror
To see myself is no longer here;
I wish I had wings to fly away
This pain is too much to make me stay;
When it starts to control who you are
What you do, say or think and how far;
I want to go away, go up high
When i forever will close my eyes;
I'm not happy with myself at all
I would rather say goodbye and fall;
For all that I know has been diseaved
Watch from my eyes, my breathes and life leave.

Miranda DeNooyer

I Can't Let It Go

You let my past burn up in flames yet I know I'm part to blame in my eyes you can see the shame
so i can't let it go;
Tears shed when I rethink it all you let go and I took the fall to feel safe, I hide behind the wall
so I can't let it go;
Now I count the days that you're gone know that we could've held on through it all, neather has won
so I can't let it go;
All these fights made me go insane every work you said was in vein this endless nothing caused us both pain
so I can't let it go;
You stood and watched my blood seep down sometimes I wish I could just leave town as more and more blood dips to the ground
Now its too late to let it go.

Last Chance To Dance

You're so beautiful
And so sweet
You are wonderful
So unique;
Today is the last
Time to dance
It goes by so fast
Use this chance;
To enjoy the day
Give your all
You will want to stay
Just don't fall;
You should get ready
Last time here
Just take it steady
Love you dear. <3

Miranda DeNooyer

Last Day

If today was your last day
And tomorrow was goodbye
What would last words say
Before you begin to rise;
You just have to choose
How to live your today
You have nothing to loose
Live best for your last day.

Lies And Fake

Happiness comes from near and far
When all sadness is locked in a jar;
That's how I feel when it comes to me
Then others speak and I wish to just be free;
It doesn't matter what colors you wear
It's just the smile to show that you care;
But the smile on your face I know is fake
The words you speak are lies, it gives me a head-ache;
I can tell by your face that I am not approved
When I've tried and tried but I'm never good enough for you;
So don't lie by telling me everything is ok
When you know it's not, just get out of my way;
For years I've tried to pretend I don't care
But deep down inside I've been roaring like a bear;
Your lies can not cover up anymore
One more time and I'm out the door;
So I suggest You stop all these stupid little lies
Unless you want me to walk out of your life.

Many Memories

All the memories of running around so wild
With the feeling of being like a little child;
So careless and happy, you can just run free
You are so innocent, no evil you can see;
Off in you own world everyday
While soaking up all of the bright sun's rays;
Running all around across the ground
To the new adventures that were found;
Hours spent with friends that arn't real
Yet happy is still how you feel;
With that smile on your face
All the dreams that you chase;
Travling to the past
Memories that will last;
From past to future
Your life is so sure;
Just keep that smile
For a long while;
Let your heart
Take the start;
Beating
Breathing;
Feel
Real.

Me V.S. You

The stress, the pain, the horrible nights
No, don't do it, don't turn out the lights;
My life is over, I'm completely screwed
No, there's still hope, I believe in you;
I cannot take back what I have done before
Well you may not but you can get off the floor;
I cannot take back the blood and the wounds
Try to forget them and you'll pull through;
My life is over, I have to end it now
What about your angel? You can't leave them now;
You're right, what am I thinking? I am all wrong
So many people love you, you and life will get along;
I have no need to take my life or anything to screw it up
There you go, that's positive, now just keep it up;
I have so much to live for, and so much I can lose
You have your whole life to live, all you have to do is choose;
I choose to live my life on, all the sad stuff can go by Looks like my work is done, goodnight and goodbye.

Miranda DeNooyer

Mistakes

I'm sorry for the mistakes I've made
Is there any way you can forgive me?
For you it's over, for me it's not
For this we seem to disagree;
Through tears and smiles, cries and laughter
Our memories go on, happy and alone
I've asked you before to please come back
But now I face life all on my own;
If your dissapointed, tell me now
I know that's how you feel deep inside
Through all that happened, through all the pain
Knowing it's over I sat down and cried.

Miranda DeNooyer

Running Away

Don't walk out the door
And don't hit the road
What's this really for
You're in the wrong mode;
And why would you leave
Well I have no clue
All is deseaved
You know that it's true;
You're not even sure
Now don't lie to me
Feel there is no cure
For what do you seek;
And what hurts the most
Is hearing you say
We were never close
Please don't go away.

Miranda DeNooyer

Secret

Lost and confused without knowing what to do
Hiding so much, wish I could just tell you;
But I'm afraid you'll judge and not understand
Why I ever would, and let go of my hand;
But in a time like this, that's the last thing I need
Is to be left alone, like a lonely little seed;
One that cannot grow, because it is too deep
In the hole it dug, lost all it wanted to keep;
So this is why I hide what I truly am
Why I give up, like a helpless little lamb;
So I still wish to tell you but I know I can't
I'm sorry, its better as an un-grown plant;
Because I know if i tell you, I know you wont
Want to be with me, I do turns into I don't.

Miranda DeNooyer

Stay Awake

Have you ever thought of a night so long
Where you don't wake up and your dreams go on;
Where you don't feel the pain from the day before
And you can just lie happily there on the floor;
The long night goes on, and you realize and you miss
All the happiness before, the smiles and a gentle kiss;
And the one that you love, your true heart's desire
Is the reason you're alive and you have not died prior.
And you were trying so hard, you were trying to disappear
Then you hear the words 'I love you' get whispered in your ear;
So you decide to stay awake, just a little bit longer
Instead of falling asleep, going deep, down under;
So I, I ask to hold your hand, to gently hold it tighter
And please hold me close, pull me away from the fire;
I'm here in your arms, that's the only place I want to be
For that is my safety, my comfort, that's where I can be me;
For my love please hold me, please hold me all night long
For you I will not sleep, so I will not die and live life on.

The Beach

I feel the warm sand beneath my toes
And I smell the ocean waters through my nose;
I see the water waves crash on the shore
There are seaguls and dolphins fish and more;
You stand there and listen to the sounds of the beach
You hear birds sing a song and dolphins give a speach;
I feel the brisk ocean breeze kiss my cheeks
I love to be there, I love to be on the beach.

Miranda DeNooyer

Water's Edge

I'm standing here at water's edge
Varely looking over the ledge;
Then rain drops fall out of the sky
The water ripples and I catch in my eye;
The stars and the moon shinning so bright
I've already been smiling through half the night;
I get on my bare feet and start to dance
Thinking ov my dreams, wish they would get a chance;
Then I feel these arms wrape around me
I turn around and smile to what I see;
I see my prince, we are where we belong
Then we dance, we dance all night long.

Miranda DeNooyer

Weaker Than Before

Open your eyes and sit up in your bed
Listen but no goodmorning has been said;
Roll off and to the ground then stand up straight
You look in the mirror, 'is there any fate? '
Dress yourself on how you feel for the day
Bright if happy, if you're sad maybe gray;
Skip the first meal 'cuz you don't want to eat
Feel like you want to be light on your feet;
School is school, it won't get any better
With teachers and grades, to you don't matter;
After school activites can b rough
'Specially when you feel not good enough;
Wonder if this day could get much longer
Through out it you thought you would get stronger;
You are now home, as tired as can be
Tomorrow comes soon so lay donw to sleep.

Miranda DeNooyer

Winter

snow flakes sprinkle to the ground animals hibernate and leave no sound;
Ice seeps over and covers the streets kids smile, they're ready for sports meets;
To ride on the snow down a hill
the joy and smiles in our hearts fill;
Colorful lights decorate the trees hot chocolate by fire, outside is a freeze;
In the town, the star sits up high
Christmas brings happiness, atleast in my eyes.

Miranda DeNooyer

Won'T Be This Way

She has my heart
And she doesn't even know
Won't get a start
My heart will dropp very low;
She can't help it
She won't ever be this way
And I just sit
And see her everyday;
Wish she was mine
Love ev'rything about her
To me she shines
Her name in the wind whispers.

Miranda DeNooyer

Your Savior

I take a breathe
And hold it in
Avoid death
Forgive the sin;
I pull you up
Off the ground
Up to the top
Don't make a sound;
Just one more step
'Til we reach the door
The secrets that were kept
Don't matter anymore;
I'm here for you
I always will be
I want to save you
You meant so much to me;
I answer your call
In the middle of the night
I catch your fall
And take over your fight;
And I want to be
Like your guardian angel
And I want to see
Life from a different angle;
No matter what I do
I can't make you feel better
It's really up to you
Just write a single letter;
I forget about my life
When I hear your voice
To help you with your strife
To make a better choice.
