Diamonds Forever

Diamonds are diamonds wherever they be.
Who cuts and polishes them makes gain.

Talents shine wherever they be.
Who uses and multiplies them makes gain.

Great Soul

Blessed is the one
To be born as Human

Blessed better is the one
To be born in the elite clan.

Blessed most is the one
To be born as selfless man.

Love Sick

Near to me
Yet no sleep.
Far from me
Yet no sleep.

Nature

Nature is Harmony which not understood by Many when aspiring for Money.
Being with Nature
Brings the God's features.

Omnipresence

Nature maintains its Balance
Nobody can have Excess

Nature is Witness
To all your badness

Nature is Boundless
You can have bounties

Nature is Tutor
More You master
Better you prosper

Nature is Beautiful
Imitation is artificial

Nature nurtures Peace on earth
Man-made leads to pieces of earth.

Patience Pays

Fossil turns into Oil and Coal

Sand becomes Soil

Mulberry grows as Silk

Dust shines as Pearl

Rock changes to Marble

Devotion yields Liberty

Hard-stone sculpted to Beauty

Tradition grows to Charity

Crane prays for prey

Multi-color unfolds from dirty Caterpillar

Multi-storey emerges from sturdy Mortar-Pillar

Edifice is built over Time

Pebble is formed by Time

Genius shines through Time.

Soberness

Solitude is a curse
When salvation is farce.
Sadness is sweet
When selfishness is source.

Suspense

Huge tree hidden in a Tiny seed
Red hidden in Green (Betel leaf) and White (lime) .

Electricity is everywhere but felt only when you dare.

Life etches out of fusion
but grows with confusion.
