The Silence Of Suicide

She is only in grade 11 and is thinking about suicide, when and how are the negative thoughts that reside.
Her family cannot hear her cry or see that she's hurting, she keeps failing in school, her plans just aren't working.
Her friends keep telling her to leave school, they laugh at her and make her look like a fool.
She just wants to pass the grade,
I just hope her thoughts of suicide fade.

He is only 13 years old and in secondary school,
his classmates ostracize him and say he's not cool.
Due to his health condition, the doctor prescribed medication, ever since he has gained weight and is subjected to public humiliation.
He feels all alone with no one to talk to,
but a sincere 'how are you? ' and he'll open up and tell you.
They make fun of him and call him fat,
if they only knew how he felt, they would not call him that.
Perhaps his classmates find teasing him very amusing,
if only they knew the pain that comes from cyberbullying.
It's probably funny if you're the one laughing, but think of how you would feel, if you were the one being laughed at!

I write this poem to every teen contemplating suicide,
do not allow your circumstances dictate what you feel inside.
Dark days come, but go when the sun comes up, life is a gift which you have, don't ever give it up!
Fight from within, change your routine, change your mindset, you are going to make it through and one day you will jet set.

Perfect Love

I have never known such a perfect love,
so pure, so true, a love from above.
Greater love has no one than this,
when you experience God's love, you find true happiness!

He proved His love when He created us,
by His powerful love, He saved us.
He preached in love, raised the dead in love,
casted out demons and healed the sick in love.
I have never known such a perfect love.

God loves you; believe it it's true!
His words were, 'love one another as I have loved you'.
You don't have to be afraid because God is always near,
His word says, 'perfect love drives out all fear'.

The world celebrates love on Valentine's Day,
but there is no love like God's which is agape!
Some search for love in people to find their love lacks, but the love of God is perfect, read the bible for facts!

God never changes, yesterday, today the same.
His perfect love will always remain.
God's love is free because His son paid the price,
so when you think of Love, think of Jesus Christ.

A Righteous Leader

You were a visionary, who planned and prepared for the future.
You were an artist, who was creative, innovative and spectacular.
Your life was a testimony that will continuously be shared,
We will remember you for how you always cared.

Your unconditional love is the sweetest song which will always be sung,
Generations to come will hear of the wondrous things you have done.
You heeded the call and served your Master with your all.
Your standing was on Christ The Solid Rock, so you never feared a fall.

You gave to those who didn't have
And you taught those who didn't know.
You went the extra mile
And you always had a smile.

People who speak of you and say that you were a pastor,
Some will say that you were a lecturer,
Others will say that you were an artist and an author,
But I will remember you as being
A Righteous Leader!

We Don't Halloween, We Hallow Him

Halloween in its entity has pagan roots, its when people dress 4 the occasion wearing fancy suits.

The masks serve as a connection, connecting humans to the deity or evil beings. Halloween is the celebration of evil above all things.

The candle inside the pumpkin represents pure light, this light invites the evil ghosts of the night.

But we, children of the most high God call upon Jesus instead. We don't need to light candles to connect with a spirit that's dead.

For we serve a God who is the light, who is alive and who rose from the dead.

Psalm 97 v 9 reads,

For You Lord are the most high and You are exalted above all the gods.

We don't halloween, we HALLOW HIM.

I Am A Woman & I Am His Masterpiece

I am a woman

I am beautiful! Talented!

And much greater than the challenges I face,

I can do all things by His grace! ! !

He is my strength, for through Him I am made strong,

I am a woman and I know with Him, nothing can go wrong.

I am a woman & I am His masterpiece

I am a woman

I am educated, hard-working and skilled!

I fear nothing because I know who's in charge of everything!

I will receive all I need because in times of hardship, I never begged or stole, I kneeled!

I am a woman & I am His masterpiece

I am a woman

I don't have wealth, I don't have an education, I don't have much to brag about, but I do have Jesus! ! !

He is the reason I am free,

I am a woman and His love is what makes me.

I am a woman & I am His masterpiece

I am a woman

I've been laughed at & ridiculed,

I've been mocked, I've been beaten & overruled.

I am a woman and I am broken,

But I believe that God can turn broken pieces into masterpieces.

I am a woman & I am His masterpiece

El Shaddai

I call out to You my King for I know that you will answer me,
You have loved me before my conception and You will love me for eternity.
You have captivated my heart,
You were my God from the start!

El shaddai!

I shall proclaim Your goodness throughout the ages, for You saw me through the different stages.
You are my rock and you are my fortress.

You are El shaddai.

Empty

Oh Lord! Your Spirit fills me and I am made complete, through You I win victoriously; I do not encounter defeat.
I listen to Your voice and I follow Your will,
in the midst of trials I shall not fear; I'll be still.
You wrote my lifestory and you keep building my character,
You never left my side; but you guided me through every chapter.
You healed the sickly and made the blind see,
Without You this world would be empty.

More Than Beautiful

David Ramiah,

You give me happiness and total bliss.
I could spend hours with you,
but the moment you leave,
you are missed.

You know of my weaknesses and you make me strong.
You acknowledge when I'm right and you admit when you are wrong.

I'm not lucky to have you,
I'm beyond blessed!

With every word and action that you do,
My heart follows deeper after yours.
It's because you know exactly what to say,
And you know how to put life to your words.

And for these reasons, your love is more than beautiful.

Have You Met Jesus?

I was walking on a lonely road,
Then a man named Jesus approached me,
He said he loved me and it really showed,
He said he came to set me free.

He is with your mum and dad,
He is with your sister at school,
He is with the shop keeper in Germany,
He is with you!
He's JESUS and he's everywhere.

Have you met him before?
He usually is around when people are in need,
If He visited you would you close your door?
Do not be afraid for He is a friend indeed.

You should pray to Him when you have time,
He is really nice to talk to,
I gave Him my heart and now He is mine,
But if you want He can be yours too.

Are you sure you haven't met Him?
Cause really He is everywhere,
You can sing a hymn or dance before Him,
He loves to see His creation praise Him.

He changed my life from the day I met Him,
I think you will love Him too,
Tell me when you meet Jesus,
Or maybe I can introduce Him to you.

Let me know.

No More Sunlight: (

If I ever see him again, I may not have words to say,
He took advantage of my innocence, he took the sunlight from my day.
I try to wash myself, but the stains won't go away. I wear disgust as if it were my clothes.

Rapist!

You will feel better is what they say.
All I want is the sunlight back in my day.

'One World' - Featuring Robert M

We live in a world, where Black and White is like oil and water.

We say we are one nation, but our words are based on a lie.

We continue to hate each other.

We continue to hate each other!

Let us be blinded to seeing color.

Let the differences of each nation be seen as a blessing rather than a curse.

Let not past generations determine our present, For we are of our own era.

May our hearts form one heartbeat, so that we can become one nation and in time, one world.

My God Made The World

He created the sun and he made it shine, it wakes in the morning and sleeps in the night.
No other God could have done this, none but mine.
The beautiful rain falls at your command,
droplets! shower! pour!
Your power is unfathomable,
by your wonderous works, You made the world.
At the sound of Your voice, the waves crash!
At Your instruction, lightning stikes!
Millions of people pray to you,
and You listen to them all.
In the beginning, You created the heavens and the earth,
and You saw that it was good.
My God made the world.
