A New Day

A new day is here
With new charm and cheer Everything looks so new and bright Again I have power to make decisions right

I feel today I can undo the past And make a difference which will be vast Today I will try to give my best And God will surely take care of rest

It has come to me as a new blank page Where I can create and envisage Lot and lot I can accomplish this day
It can take me to places far away

Each beginning leads to an end
And every end leads to a new beginning So the end of day will have no fear Hope can only dispel all tears

Next day I would shout loud and clear Again a new day is here
With new charm and cheer
So start afresh with a gear

Childhood-The Best Days Of My Life

When i was struggling to stand on my feet like others do, and suddenly tumbled down it seemed like the worst day of my life

On my first day of school when my mother forcefully said' goodbye' I thought it was my worst day

When i forgot my notebook in school and my teacher scolded me hmmm that was my worst day

When my friends disowned me and i was left to gaze, i felt so lonely I believed my worst day was HERE

On my journey of life today when i look back I feel those were the best days of my life
And i wish to be a CHILD once again

Those moments I lived has evolved me to be a better person each day on my life's journey from good to great

I Am A Girl Child...

Girl, pity girl child I am So gloomy and sad I am

Like little toy doll I am treated Always felt insulted and cheated

Men, you take me for a ride No rules for me, You abide

Am I a mere puppet?
That can dance on the tunes of drums and trumpets

I also have My life
With wishes and fancies to be alive

God bestowed me my life
So let me Please be alive....
Allow me to enjoy my life.....

I Am Just A Beginner.....

As child learns to walk and toddle
I learn to think and wobble

I know my words today have no worth but believe me its a new poets birth who still has dearth of words but would soon learn to play with words

My mind is working day and night thinking to create something good tonight

By this i am learning each day though i am just a beginner today creating new has become my passion which i would do with lot of devotion

Slowly steadily i would win the race but would not step back in any case

Even Rome was not built in a day I am sure my hard work would pave its way Gradually people would like my work and I would get recognition as perk

After learning too, i would like to be a beginner
As learning each day will only make me a winner.

Ingredients Of Recipe Called Life

Life is a delicious dish Which we all relish to our wish We all enjoy it to the brim
By taking chances to lose or win

Sun of each day evenly rises Energy and openness are the best prices Which we should be ready to pay for contentment and happiness of each day

Smile illuminate this earth Can bring new things to birth As fun all through the way makes life longer Fading pain away leaving us stronger

Motivation is all we need To combat the adversities that life perceives Positivity can pave new roads Like king of jungle then we can roar

These are few important ingredients That make life complete Mix all these well
To come out of your shell

Let Me Be A Child Again...

Let me be a child again
Let me freely fly soar high in the vast sky

like a child...

Let me learn more try and explore the treasure unknown

like a child.....

Let me be soft and tender free to surrender all worries and anger

like a child.....

Let me spread smile as far as a mile make each moment worthwhile

like a child.....

Let me Love and adore our neighbour next door without any fight

like a child....

Let me be curious think and rise up to be a genius

like a child.....

As childhood is nothing but a state of mind
So lets live and learn each day like a child! ! !

Wonderland

Let sun shine bright Spread positivity right

Let flowers bloom full to allow beauty rule

Let river flow fast Vanish pain and sorrow apart

Let men love men
So that harmony prevail

Let us held our heads high Allow goals and visions to touch the sky

Let smile replace troubles spread happiness like bubbles I wish there prevail such a land Whom we can name WONDERLAND
