Prince(if somebody like my articals contact me: evilmaster1@)

So many of the words I used, have been told to me repeatedly throughout my entire life, but I listed them because I know them to be true; not because of others perceptions. If you literally dropp down into your heart, you can feel your very own essence. And something I learned about a year ago, is that these attributes? They aren't even really yours. They are gifts from God. We've all been uniquely gifted with these traits so we can make our greatest contributions. I am a person who is positive about every aspect of life. I always wanted to be a great writer, like Victor Hugo who wrote Les Miserable, or like Roman Roland who wrote John Christopher. They have influenced millions of people through their books. I also wanted to be a great psychologist, like William James or Sigmund Freud, who could read people's mind. I am just someone who does some teaching, some research, and some writing. But my dream is still alive. This is a brief introduction of myself.

...I Sit And Cry

its over and i dont even know why when i read 'we're done' i fell back and started to cry my heart broke she never will now how much it really hurt i feel like someone just came and slit my throat i cant do anything right im mad and sad and stupid and i cant even bare to live on for another night i feel like my heart has died away there is no more purpose if i was to go or if i was to stay you fussed and said 'guys are all jerks and only girls face heartache' well news flash it was my heart that did brake now i have to go in for more therapy i cant even go to skool i am no longer happy the worst part about it is i dont even know why or what i did all i know is she hates me now and i feel so stupid

this heartbreak hurts a ton it feels like im walking in the dark but this time there next to me stands no one i just walk alone heart left in the dirt knowing she is gone crying and trying to cope with this hurt what am i to do to prove i gave my heart i gave it all i do love you

.....i sit and cry
all night and day feeling so stupid as i let my heart remains rot and decay

"some Secrets Need To Be Kept"

Some secrets need to be kept,
Some stories should never be told"
You might just get your heart broken in the end Be careful who you fall in love with You can never predict which way the story will go

Prince

15 Questions

Why is it so hard to fall in love?
Why must there always be something in the way?
How hard is it for you to notice me Staring at you all day?

If you are not the one for me, then,
Why do you make my heart beat fast?
One look at your smile at any given time,
And time will seem slow to pass.

When can I know how you feel about me?
How do I ask that without scaring you?
Do not tell me after all I have done,
You do not feel the same way too.

Do you believe in coincidence?
Or do you believe in fate?
How else can we meet again in a pinnacle place,
All grown up and on a particular date?

If this feeling is one-sided on me, then,
What is it about you that pulls me in?
What is that special quality you have That makes me wanna commit sin?

If you do not have any feelings for me,
What is the reason behind it?
Is the feelings of the other guy
So important that you have to mind it?

If you truly have some feelings for me,
And know the way I feel about you, What is it that is stopping you from Giving us a chance through?

All I ask is to be given one shot, We'll know how it should be as time goes by,
I think I'm made for you, and you for me,
If you disagree..... Well then, why?

A Childs Pain

The tears I shed are dry and unseen no one to hold me nothing but this routine as I lay cold and weak on this concrete home they look and stair But for me no help will come Cast aside like a dog
I have no future
No good memories
Just a life of torture I see mothers and daughters fathers with there son's Yet I sit here and cry Because I will feel no one's love

Prince

A Dark Love

A gentle kiss;

a silent wish

A black cloud, descending all around

You looked me in the eyes

You told me dark lies

You used me and abused me

I was like a silent lamb, trying desperately to understand

I watched in terror, heartbreak could not be clearer, as you morphed into someone I never knew

Your words, like venom, pierced my soul

Your anger wildly out of control

I spoke softly with gentle deliverance

I loved you despite your ignorance

You slapped me across the face

A sign of hate and disgrace

You pushed me up against the door

Said you didn't want me anymore

Pain clung to me like a leech

With tears streaming down my cheeks,

I kissed you one more time

And said this very line,

'no matter what you do, I will always love you.'

with that I did depart, with a lost and broken heart

A Million Birds, A Thousand Tears (Learning To Smile Again)

A million birds take to the skies searching for the answer to my anguish reaching out to mend my broken mind flying free cos by your hate I'm bound with a million chains of steel screaming from my bloody mouth A million birds fly

A thousand tears have fallen for the thousand scars you've branded me with This fire is haunted by the look in your eyes as you carved these words into my flesh No water can quench my fury now not even your own pitiful tears

I'll make you pay for my pain These birds will eat your heart peck out your mind, devour your flesh and sing your screams will be music to my ears as I break these bonds and as my words break you I'll learn to smile again.

Prince

A Simple Request

That pesky, fleshy lump of faith pumping nonsense through your veins is a disgrace and your lips are faulty.
They leak stupidity every time you crack a rotting smile.

You are the reason why, every morning,
I greet the sun on bended knee begging for the chance to grasp a blade in my hand.
Hilt gripped firmly in my fist and shining steel lodged in your chest with a lovely glint of red as proof of my success.

One chance.
That is all I ask of you.

A Simple Smile

Sometimes it takes less to bring light to a dark time
We don't always cry out for a miracle Sometimes what is needed is more obvious & a lot more simple

Sometimes all we need, is a simple smile
It defiantly wouldn't hurt

Prince

All I Can Be

This is all that I am

This is all that I can be

This is all that I have

And it is all I can see

This right here is my life

This not your choice to tell me to change

This is how I will survive

I will live' things will arrange

This is how these things will be

This is my life' don't try to change me

Prince

All I Want

All I want is a room with a view
A messed up bed, shared with you 'Cause it takes two and it takes time To ease you into this heart of mine

All I want is a place to call home A hand to hold, someone to call my own 'Cause I am so alone, all of the time All I want is someone to call mine

All I want is an explanation A simple answer, a conversation
'Cause these complications are causing pain It's all I want, so please explain

Prince

All That Is Left

What the hell was i supposed to do, when i found out what's in store from you?
To run and run and leave your scene.
Goodbye; Intransigent, my nightmare, your dream.

Prince

All The Times

I felt like a withered flower Hating life with every gust of wind
You were an oak tree Laughing at every single attempt

I feel like a boy
Who's mind still wanders off into dark places
You are an angel Flawless with no sign of giving chase

All the times I cried for you I ripped out my heart and tried for you You didn't care
Keep that smile on your face It doesn't bother me like you think

I will go on I will find another You killed my insides
And the out is suffering Help me

Prince

All This Love For You

I have too much love for you And I don't know what to even do Confused in my own emotions
I wish I could give you my devotion I miss the old us happily together Everything back then was so much better Now I'm sitting here wondering why did you leave I look in the mirror it's because of me
The way I treated you Now I just don't know what to do I cry and cry
And ask myself why Why did I do that to you You helped me spread my wings and I flew But I left you Alone feeling numb
How could I be so dumb
I have all this love for you And don't know what to do
I don't want to waste it on anyone but you.....

Alone

I am alone
My heart ripped to pieces
By the one who cared the most.

I am alone
Trying to stay alive Trying to stay away from the darkness.

I am alone
From sunrise till sunset
From the day you decided to killed us.

I am alone
Maybe there is someone else
Maybe I can stay alive for a wile longer.

I am alone
Thinking of the time we had Thinking of what could have been, should have been.

I am alone...

Prince

Alone Again

I start to feel so alone Feeling cold to the bone
I Feel I am stuck in a cage My emotions restrained
I just can not enrage Nobody knows how I feel This... It just seems so unreal Like I am in a nightmare Wake me up I can not bare So unlucky without a prayer

Prince

Alone I Sit

alone i sit as i cry.
staring at my cuts as the blood dries.
debating with myself..
life or death? paying the price, will i pass this test?
my feeling is fading i'm lost in time.
what will it be?
will it be goodbye?

i gave you my heart and you didn't hesitate was i to be broken was it my destined fate?
your love is the blade that ripped my skin open you killed me for i am dead inside.
i was happy with your love, with your lies.

desperate to feel and desperate to feel and desperate to be someone pleasant for the eye to see.

time after time i cause this pain.
day after day i become insane.

i can imagine you just like your here until reality shakes me with fear.

your gone and alone i sit thinking of you.

Alone In The Rain

I wanna grab your hand.
Embrace you like never let go.
But its all over.
We're not for each other anymore.

There's a lot more to say.
But words won't come out.
I watch you walk away.
Tears fell from my eyes.
I was left in the rain.
See you fade away.

The hurt is killing me.
All I can do is to set you free.
Feelin' all the pain.
Hearin' nothing but rain.
Shivered by the last thoughts of you.
Shattered by the last words from you.

Alone in the rain.
Wish it drown away all the pain.

Prince

Alone In The Woods

Sitting here on this fallen tree, imagining what it could've been.
Maybe you sitting here next to me, my cold fingers being warmed by you warm ones, Together looking out at the flowing water. saying nothing but in the silence, saying so much

As the sun sets
I sit here alone,
thinking of you Wishing that the could of been, would be reality

Silently I feel my tears, dripping slowly down my face Watching them splash against the dead bark

Always

My bleeding heart beats loudly,
As your love whispers over my body: :

I stand before you bare and complete,
As you whisper your love so tender, so discreet: :

We breathe love into our beings,
For we know this moment is so fleeing: :

Time swiftly moves onward,
But our love will not be ignored: :

Your hand reaches out, our fingers entwine,
And the last words I hear are your whispers of love: :

For even in death, you will always be mine ~

Prince

Always Thinking Of You

All I need is you, with every breath I take,
I think about you,
As I lay here awake, Only thing on my mind is you,
They said you were a mistake,
But I still think about you,
As I drown myself in the lake,
I'm still thinking of you,
In all these activitys I partake, There all because of you,
Here comes and earthquake, Broken in two im thinking of you,
Now please take the stake,
On my head put a picture of you,
So They all know your the last thing going through my head..

Prince

Always Will Love You

My heart still holds you Deep within.
The times we shared I'll forever treasure,
I really did cared.

It wasn't what you did.
It was always me.
I broke my own heart.
I didn't think I needed you,
But I guess I did.

In your arms
I felt safe.
In your arms
was where I belong.

I can hear your voice.
Feel them in my heart.
See your face in my dreams.

I can see the consequence of my behaviour.
The only thing I can say is I'm sorry.
I will always remember you.
And I will always love you.

Prince

And I Still Think Of You

As the days go on I keep thinking of you Hoping that one day you'll change your mind
And come back to me so you could be mine
Every day I have the same dream Of you sitting here right next to me Because ever since the day you left All there was for me to do Was just sit here and think of you

Prince

And I'M Still Crying

I was sad,
And all alone,
I cried myself asleep,
And swore id get through,
But now I'm done,
And there's nothing to do,
I am happy,
And I am still crying,
I don't understand it,
Is this wrong,
Am I meant to be the one who cries, Am I meant to be alone,
I swear this is so confusing,
What am I suppose to do, Yell it out,
Please give me a clue,
I am so confused,
Why am I crying,
When everything is ok,
And all the $h1t$ been locked away, Hell has been ran through,
And creatures released,
And nothing is wrong,
At least I think,
I'm happy,
And I'm crying now,
What is wrong with me,
It gives me sensation,
To know what is happening,
Am I the evil one,
The one that has all power, Cause I feel like it, Why, Why, so much to devour,
I don't get it,
Why is it me,
Although I like it,
Don't take it away please,
I just want to know what's happening.
I am ok,

And I'm crying now.

Prince

Another Lonely Day

A bell rings, but I would rather stay.
I board an early bus in an array, Escape before I have to change
For a reason I loved.

I walk a distance, Crossroads I turn right in silence.
But how easily would I turn left And see what I loved.

I kick a pebble to my home
And sit by a screen in my syndrome
As the sun sinks so slowly Waiting for someone I loved.

Before I sleep,
I wish I didn't have to wait
For another lonely day.

Prince

As I Lay Here

As I lay here bleeding dying on the floor I notice that your picture is still hanging on my door all those thoughts and memories come flooding back to me and then the tears begin to fall for what we used to be we could've made it work out we could've made it last but all that love and happiness is only in the past

As I lay here trembling crying on my floor I begin to wonder if you care anymore how could you make me hurt so bad why did you make me cry it was then I realized I didn't want to die but now I lay here silent dead upon my floor and as I fly to heaven you knocked at my front door

Away

i dont understand what i could have done my affection was present you were my only one.
your actions towards me took a turn in the end your words didnt sound right you started to pretend. still you blamed me for everything that came this way you pointed your finger you pushed me away.

Prince

Bleeding Heart

Bourbon on the table Cigarettes on the floor
My hour glass is empty
Death is at my door

Lust is so temporary Love is such a chore

Loneliness my penalty
For the times I was a whore
Death is at my door

One less bleeding heart amongst you It's time for me to soar
My hour glass is empty
I had better get the door

As I sit in this dark lonely room.

I wonder if I would ever find my way again.

I think of how you hit me and how you tore my heart and made it bleed to the last drop.

I lay in my puddle of blood with tears in my eyes and pain in my heart.

I wonder how would you feel if you were the one with the bleeding heart and the pain of sorrow.

Would you Lie on the floor and drip blood till you have no more.

Every dropp of my blood is every tear you left on my face.

Now every time I see your face I think of your heart bleeding in my hands and how good it feels to see you hurt.

Prince

Blood And Tears

Tears of a fallen angel, drown us all in our sins.
Tears of the loveless, let us know the games about to begin.
Blood from innocent wrists, spills upon their shallow graves, Blood from a soaked shirt sleeve, tells us all that we can't be saved.

Break My Heart

I gave you my heart...
Thought you'd protect it...
But instead you broke it...

You asked for another chance...
You said you'd fix it...
I believed you, gave in again...
For a moment there you kept it...
But it wasn't too long before you broke it...

I cried, you apologized...
I fell for you, old habit...
Over and over again you managed to hurt me...
Over and over again I gave in to your lies...
You crushed my heart with your hand...
Now all the pieces of my heart's shattered, what's left of it?

I sit alone and wonder...
I sit alone and cry...
I sit alone and ask, what did I do to deserve this pain you're causing...

Prince

Broken

I have so much to say But nothing can come out I have to hide who I am Hide what I want to scream out loud

I hate myself
Who I am inside
But I fake a smile
To my friends I have to hide

I hold on another day Holding on for love Someone please rescue me I need that girl that I've been dreaming of You hurt me so much It's time to move on But I can't help but to think That we still belong

Every part of me is dying Why can't you see This bleeding soul before you This hurt guy is me

These secrets of me Lies that are buried deep Cut myself just to bleed You're haunting my every dream

I wish someone Would come into my life Save me from hell
And stay by my side

Broken Hearted

when good times come they're followed by the bad one minute you're joyful and happy the next you're broken and sad love is a dagger that kills all of your fears but it can turn on you and put you to the ground with tears you get back up and give it another shot you meet someone else and soon you're back as if you forgot but once again it tears you down you feel your regrets as you lay on the ground if only love was simple as simple as it could be this world would have less broken hearts and more faces happy but its not simple but it always gives us a smile to wear over our faces in a love so worthwhile its something special something to never be parted what makes it special is once its gone.....

you're left broken hearted

Prince

Broken Wings

Broken Heart
I can't understand Everything is crushing me

I try to stand over and over I shakily stumble to my feet again and again

Broken Smile
I won't rely on anyone my pride may be my death

My feet hit the floor
I stand balanced but my feet sink through being dragged down

Broken soul being pulled deeper and darker

I crash into the floor a heart with wounds a gashed little soul lost in the darkness

Broken Life
Broken Everything

Broken, Left Without

Im loosing my mind help me get over you i cant believe you cant feel it too.

You left me ther no heart its broken, 1 big broken heart with nothing spoken.

I'm losing my mind you left me a stray.
All this time i couldnt believe it but i know i love you though.

help me keep my head high, help me help me before die.

Broken.....

Betrayed in the worst possible way Rejected by you and left to decay Out of your life I have been shoved Kicking myself for believing in love Everlasting love must not be real No amount of it will be enough to heal

Prince

Burn With Me

the song in my heart a song as old as time the song that burns it burns like time a love so deep wit no one to love it a need so burning i die inside burn with me
we'll dance inside my heart burn to me burn with in my heart a love that dies with no love so dont bother to burn with me i've already burnt out

Prince

But I Still Miss You...

Do you miss me the way i miss you do you need me the way i need you i alwayz wanted to ask you what did i do that you left me but i still miss you....

do you love me
the way i love you do you please me the way i please you i alwayz wanted to surrender but it resulted in a blunder
but i still miss you....

now we are broken apart a new life you are gonna start but i can't think about a life without you all i wanted to tell you is that i still miss you.....

Prince

Can I.....

Can I believe that maybe one day it could be me and you can I believe that you'd might love me you'd be with me through my tears stay with me through all my fears be the one who'd make me smile would it be worth it for all the while could I believe you that you'd even care could you see me as me and be the one who belongs with me?

Can'T Breathe

Home
All on my own
No one on the Net
Or on the phone
And it's hard to forget things that you've said All these bad thoughts swimming through my head And I'm short on breath And I'm short on hope There's a pain in my chest
And a lump in my throat
And I feel like a joke
And I feel blue
When all I really want...
Is to hold you

Here
Sitting in fear
I know...
That things won't work out And I just wanna shout
But I hope I'm wrong
I just gotta stay strong Focus on the positive Because this isn't a way to live
'Cuz I feel like I'm dying But God knows, I'm trying Sighing, shaking Struggling to breathe Wanting, waiting
For this pain to leave

Can'T You See

Can't you see me crying Can't you tell I'm dying What do you think
When you see my tears
Do they reveal all my fears

What would you do If I opened up
And said I loved you

What would you say
If I went up to you today
And said I need you Would you turn away Or would you say You were here to stay

But I can't tell you Not out loud
So I will stay silent
Not saying a word

I won't tell you I won't ask you Who you want to be with I won't try
I won't pry
I won't cry
I will try to settle for just friends Without tearing
At the sound of your name

Child's Play

innie, minnie, minee, moe, catch a luster by his toe, if he cheats then let him go, and no emotion we will show!

Come Back From Here

You're right there everyday, Yet I miss you more than ever.
How can I miss you...when we're always together?

With you, I find a way,
In you, I have a say,
For you, my love, I gave.

We're in each other's hearts, Closer than ever before,
Yet, we're further all the same.
Please tell me we'll never grow apart, Tell me you love me more, Please, before I go insane...

Please! Come back from here...

Prince

Come To Your Rescue

When sadness is all around And peace can not be found
When you break down and cry
And there is no one to dry your eyes When those you love break your heart
And you it seems your life is falling apart
When you feel you can't take it another day It's time to kneel down and pray Pray, God will come to your rescue Pray, He will work thing out for you I am a living witness when you fall on your knees God will hear your desperate plea His love will drive the pain away When you pray

Prince

Come With Me

and you will see this is your destiny you were bad and now your sad so dont be mad at me or ill send you to the dark sea so everyone you better not have fun don't you run or ill shot you with my gun yes you will be the one i kill because you are the person i hate and i WILL bring you to your fate

Crying..

The pressure behind my eyes, stings my nose.
The feeling i get, when tears are waiting to flow.
It's like a kink, in a flowing hose.
Water trapped with no where to go.
Building up, without any release.
Needing to flow, and find some peace.

Dagger

I bring the dagger to my heart for your love
I will die.

Your love suffocated me your arms crushed my soul.

I am no longer the one you knew I am no one
I am not me
I am not anything

I am dying in your arms and all you can do is say
'I love you'
can't you see those are the words that are killing me.

Three very small, powerful words are killing me because I can't say them back.

I want you to put me down and let me die without you.

A later thought:
I don't deserve you.

Darkness

Darkness falls into my day Darkness consumes my happiness Darkness turns my happiness to sad.

Darkness is the reason why I have friends with lights Darkness is the reason why I write poems at night.
Darkness is the reason why I died tonight.

Darkness isn't as scary if you think about it.
Darkness is just in soletude and wants to be with you Darkness is just a face in the crowd.

Darkness is when you left me Darkness still hasn't gone away.
But after all the darkness, I still see the light.

Darkness goes away, and sun shine and happiness takes place.
I know this cause today darkness went away
And I realize that Darkness didn't fall into place by itself Darkness was brought by myself.

Now darkness is gone
Now I see the light
Now I don't need anyone but you.....

Prince

Dead On My Knees

dead on my knees
i feel no happiness, just sorrow and hate, i feel sad and lonely

dead on my knees
i cry out with mercy, hoping to see a light in the future for myself

dead on my knees
i feel so scared, nobody is there to comfort me no one at all all i see is black, complete darkness fills my heart, as it pumps steady in my chest

dead on my knees, throbbing with pain
i sit here alone,
without you

am i alive?
is this a dream?
i hope it is just a dream, trying to pull me into its squeezing grasp i try to wake up but i can't, your not here alone i sit,

dead on my knees

Deepest Secret

My heart is racing because I gave away my feelings.
I gave away my heart,
it is now in your hands.
Please don't hurt it for without it I would die.
I don't know anything anymore I feel like sitting in the rain and I hate getting wet.
I am so lost in the dark now will you bring me out of it?
I love you now can we make any sense of this?
I don't think we can.
This love is far too confusing and I don't necessarily want it too but I can't see anything.
I am lost
I am lost when I told you my deepest secret.
I love you.

Prince

Didn'T You Know?

Didn't you know,
that when I said
'don't waste your time... on me.'

I wanted you, too.

Didn't you know, that when I cried to you...

I wanted you,
to lission.

That when,
I frowned...

I wanted,
YOU to make me smile.

No.

You didn't know, only because...

you didn't care!

You never have...

you never, will.

Do With Me What You Wish.

Someone take my life
I don't wish to take it myself, But just to get those thoughts from my head Those memories from my heart.
Take my life as you would take yours Quick and sharp or slow and painfully Do with me as you please Just give my love to all.
Ill never forget them Let me go out into the night,
The dark starry stars look up You'll see the former shadow of a friend Who you will always know and always be with But never knew felt this way.
Take my life.
I beg you Goodbye.

Prince

Do You See What You've Done?

how can i be such a fool to continue to love you?
the one i trusted with my life and then let me down in the worst way. how could you do this to me?
give me false hopes then let me fall. you would see me everyday with a smile on your face oblivious to the pain that you caused me. everyday my heart would break just a little more seeing you with someone else until i could take no more.
i would cry myself to sleep just thinking about you. i still think of what we did and how i let myself believe that maybe you could like me and that we could be together... you have no idea what i went through when you chose someone else i waited for so long for you but you wanted someone else.
all of my hopes vanished my heart broken in many places and though it may be beating it is a very futile effort for i have already died from the pain and heartache that you created.
i am soulless and broken all because of you and i know i really shouldn't but i still love you...

Prince

Do You.....? ? ? ? ?

The Roses are dead
The voilets are too
This poem really sucks and it's all down to you You said that you love me You said that you cared Do you really love me or are you just scared?

Prince

Do You?

Do you think it'll be easy to leave me?
Do you think I'd be okay?
I wish you knew how wrong you are, Without you I'm not the same.
Do you think I can breathe without you?
Do you think I'd just move on?
You can't really be thinking that.
If you are, you're very wrong.
You're more than just a friend to me, You're like my good luck charm.
I want you to be happy, please.
Don't cause yourself more harm.
I know this isn't easy,
Trust me, it'll be okay.
Because I'll always be there,
For you along the way.

Dont Go

In my dreams my silent screams They set me free and let me be I sing myself lullaby's with lonely crys Going Thur changes that only I see

Please let me go my way let me stay I give my love while you turn away Theres nothing to do but think of you I spend my day alone this way

Tomorrows dreams I'm alone it seems Changes I see there not from me I see my souls not free Where did you go your love I don't know

Don'T Know

I dont know what i want to feel,
I don't even know if any of this real,
I love you with every part of me, but I only wish that you could see, im broken, lost and so confussed, I wonder around dont know what to do, got weird things going round in my head, and cry so much wen alone in my bed, but what am I sayin you can't understand,

I pretend that i'm happy wen your around,
I can't even tell you what I feel inside,
I cant even tell u I dont want to be alive, so i'll tuck myself back in to my shell, and all the things in my head I will never tell, and you can carry on not knowing a thing, and maybe one day, my life will begin.

Prince

Dont Know What To Say

I look blankly at the wall nothing in my mind
I think of all those feelings
I have left behind.

Love I no longer feel Saddness, no use to try Anger I still have All I do now is cry.

You never cared about me my family you say?
YA RIGHT
I sit in my room all day never to see the light.

Prince

Dont Leave! !

just the other day I wanted to say please dont leave but you did it anyway

now I'm broken torn
these feelings I wish I could hide

I wish I could tell u how I feel but even if I do relieve this hurt this feeling will not heal
I... --

Prince

Dont Make Me Laugh

you arent my sweetheart.
if you dont want to be, i'll snip the strings and off you go dont you see?
we're all just little marionette dolls in my little circus.
i'll take what i want,
i'll take what i need,
i can play the game just as easily as you can.
you arent my sunshine, you'll never brighten my day, you want bars?
i'll leave you locked inside yourself in a place you never knew you had.
YOU are angry?
dont make me laugh.
i've been keeping a beast inside, remember?

Prince

Dont U Remeber

when i see u, i tie to smile, holding in what i really feel, how u left me, how u just walked out of my life,
dont u remeber,
when we first found each other's eye's, i do,
u said i was the only one for u, i guess i was stupid for beliving u, dont u even remeber when u pulled that velvet box out of ur pocket, and when u said i do, i will alwas remeber

Prince

Don'T You Remember?

Don't you remember the laughter the way we smiled, Don't you remember how we sat and talked just for a while, can't you remember the love we shared, can't you remember how much i cared, will you remember how i held you when you cried, will you remember how i stopped you from wanting to die, soon you'll remember what you loved about me, soon you'll remember and then we'll go back to how it used to be,

but still you don't remember and our friendship and admiration, don't you remember now or do you still believe in this separation!

Prince

Dying For You

Days they come and nights they go Days are long and nights are cold
I think of you in your long black dress And all the pain that I possess
I want to be with you Feed with you Bleed with you
And live your nightmare Right by your side

Everything you have shown to me Maybe beyond this nightmare is a dream
I scream in silence
The violence it scares me
But on the inside I know that it prepares me For what's ahead...

Drowning in your sorrow Waiting for your tomorrow Not living for myself I'm merely dying for you And everything that you do Is new to me
Why can't you be...
My gentle seed
So pure and so non-existent Nothing's different, stay the same In this place of hate I will remain

Prince

Every Single Tear

Behind these eyes, so many lies,
so many unshed tears, so many wasted years.

Pain beyond human control, tearing away at the edges of my soul, burning everything in it's path, burning my skin with it's fiery wrath.

On my hands and knees I fall apart, breaking through right to my heart, wandering these streets I am alone, turning heads, they've never known.

Blindly disregarding how hard I've tried, breaking away as I slowly died.

Now I'm bartering my soul, soon paying the toll, to tune my heart strings, as from the gallows they swing.

And the last thing I'll ever see; what I see before I die, is every single tear you'll ever cry.

Prince

Every Time I Look At You

Every time I look at you the pain is real, and coming through and every time I ask why- y you just cant seem too reply every time I look away I feel alone in this very day Every one is here to stay But I fear I am not welcome here

Every thing is coming undone And I can not go on I am not grasping why You just won't be mine

And every day I am not with you I am not sure if I will pull through But every chance I seem to get I screw it up and you love me less

Your eyes they haunt this very soul
They shine like the stars above
And yet feel like I am in the dark and alone Your touch makes me feel at home

If you would not mind Could you explain to me?
Why, you and I weren't meant to be It seems fate has caught up to me

I stand in this hallow home Were I was once never alone For days I've cried, (pause) Just wondering why.

What could I have done better?
You leave me here alone and bitter And I don't understand what went wrong With you and me but it seems the past is gone

Prince

Everynight I Cry

Always wondering why

You dont say I love you anymore Did I do something wrong, am I no longer the man you adore

If you dont love me, then say so
So I would stop crying, and feeling very low

But I wouldnt be surprised if that was true Somehow I knew love didnt want me to be with anyone, even with you

Somehow I knew that I would just be broken hearted in the end
So I'm ok if you just want to be friends

Because I'm so confuse about my feelings towards you So if you dont love me, just say it then we are through

Then maybe both our lives will be easier And maybe you will be happier

Prince

Everything In My Mind

The cuts on my legs Burning more and more Each day
Surely this pain will go away
A few days pass
And nothing's the same
The pain is getting worse
With each passing day
I cry out in pain
It hurts so much
I want to leave this terror behind With everything that mattered And everything that was in my mind

Prince

Fake Smile

Its amazing what u can hide behind a smile Behind mine I hide 'me'
The real me
Unhappy, depressed me
To all those who think they know me I am cheery weirdo Ashleigh! !
And I don't care tbh
They know fake me not real me!
If they wanted to know the real me
They would ask Sit down with me ask how I'm feeling
But they never do Cause they are too wrapped up in their own lives
So I am alone again
It will be my birthday soon
And I will spend it in school Doing test and exams For a future I will not belong to I will spend it alone like always

Prince

Faking Everyday

Walking in the halls,
I smile strongly,
I laugh loudly,
All the while,
I'm breaking inside.
I'm indeed broken,
Not worth the mention,
My death could make the world a better place.
Who knew my heart was so tattered?
Who knew with all the crying, kicking, and screaming,
That no one noticed the flaws,
The pain,
The hurt,
That flashed across my face every few days.
Hurting so bad,
Walking off the pounds I barely managed to gain,
I walk to the park.
Surrounded by trees,
And in my mind I can see the ropes hanging from them, Rustling in the breeze.
I climb the giant tree,
My heart sews together,
As I lay on the branch, Connected with nature.

And the next day,
I continue faking the smiles,
The laughs.

I'm Faking Everyday with a smile as Fake as my tattered heart.

Prince

Fearing The Day

Life goes by with days of tears Life is gone so be good my dear Sing a song write a book be remembered for being a cook Life will continue with out you But let by gones be by gones Let the day be the day Take the opportunity, dont throw love away Yet every night as you drift asleep
A message will be spoken in your dreams Its not sleeping that keeps me up all night Nor is it dreams that make me afraid to lie down Yet the fear of tommorow will never dampen I fear the potential of tommorow Feeling the sorrow of the day Just waiting or me to screw up and you to say Goodbye its been real Fearing bugging you to death till you cant stand me I dont fear my dreams Afraid love would drift away
I fear the next day

Prince

Feelings

My eyes begin to shut as the world around me begins to fall into darkness i lay hard on the cold dead ground i hear a scream of thy name i wonder why they scream i feel then the blood begin to trickle down my motionless arm the pool of blood staining the concrete below me i swirl into darkness and in my head i know thier is nothing for me here but pain and a broken heart

Prince

Feelings For Nothing

I thought it was for real everything we had but it was all a lie all i feel is: sad.

I told you i loved you and you quickly shot me down we were together for so long i thought you cared, i was wrong.

It all happened so fast
I didn't see it coming I thought we could last but now it's all so stunning.

Every time i see you i feel the tears coming I guess this is what i get for really truely loving.

Feelings..

My heart is starting to heal While my mind has learned to deal You left me dying and hurt
But I'm back alive on this earth
You thought I'd always frown But truth be You now mean nothing to me I was dying
When you left me for that other guy
But now I'm flying Soaring back up in the sky
You said you loved me
You said you cared
You said I was your world For three years i believed your lies But now your words are so cold
Our lost love has eased its crippling grip
As my heart has given it the slip And now I'm finally free To find the one thats meant to be

Prince

Finally

I finally learned how it feels to want someone who don't want you I had him for awhile but then he broke it off and said we were through

But now he wants me back and I'm not sure what to do I'm just wondering if this time his love will be true

He says he wants to be with only me and I'd be as far as his eyes would see

If I go back he will hurt me more than before and this time he's just not worth fighting for

I know there's someone else he wants more than me and now I wish he would just set me free

If I decide I want you back I'll never let you know because my love for you will never show

Maybe we could have a shot at a good romance but only if I'd give you one more chance

Prince

Finding My Words

How can I put this?
'I love you'
No to simply I want something That says I love you And want to be with you forever.
Is it possible
For those words to be created,
To say then over and over Without it getting old?
How do I claim those words?
What do you want me to say?

Prince

For You

Fighting for you Will not stop Will fight until I die
I will not let you go
I will not let you fall
And if you do,
I will pick you back up I will set you back up on this chessboard of life
I will fight for you I will take every hit Every scream
Every cut
For you
Only for you

Prince

For You! ! ! ! ! ! ! ! ! ! !

I HATE YOU

EVERY TEAR I SHED WAS FOR YOU

EVERY CUT I MADE WAS FOR YOU

EVERY DRIP OF BLOOD WAS FOR YOU

EVERY SCREAM WAS FOR YOU

ALL MY HURT WAS FOR YOU

AND EVERYTHING YOU DO WAS ALWAYS FOR YOU

I GUESS WE BOTH HAVE SOMETHING IN COMMEN

WE BOTH LOVE YOU

Prince

Forever

Forever may not be forever,
But that doesn't mean not to try,
Don't give up,
If you do forever will not happen,
Try,
That's all you can do.
You only have one life make it count.
If you don't want one thing forever then don't.
If you do then go for it,
Nobody can hold you back it's your life!

Prince

Forever True

Love holds strong I hold on Never have I doubted
My love for you
Was true Though I've often wondered If I was good enough for you

But more than anything
My own life I include More than anything
I love you
And forever
This will hold true

You are the only one Who can bring light
You are the only one Who calms me after a fight

I love you
Forever
This will always be true.

Prince

Forever.....

Forever.....

i know i said forever...

.....

but i dont think that its possible

.....

Prince

Forget Me Not...

Forget me not.

Remember all the times we spent together.

The nights we spent watching shooting stars.

When we went swimming together.

When we would cuddle.

Our amazing hugs.

Our first kiss.

And our last.

Forget me not.

Prince

Frozen Child

The intricate design of a single frosty snow flake portrays A glittery embrace of child like day dreams

Dreams frozen in time begin to melt
As each year brings blizzards of tormented moments Leaving old emotions without breath in the chilled waters

The child can not resurface, so innocence has been laid to Rest in a watery tomb where there are no snow flakes of yesterday's Winters

Prince

Frozen Heart

This wasn't real,
Almost faker than last time,
It was a jump of faith,
It was not right.

I am best on my own.
I don't have to worry about anyone else except myself, Putting other people's feelings into the equation,
That kind of math is too hard for me.

I need to grow up some more.
And let this ice melt.
Then I will break free.

Prince

Frozen Tears, Frozen Heart

I know,
you don't love me.

But...

my heart keeps hurting.

It has, been so long since I felt, it beat.

I'm running, out of... tears.

So long, since I've known...

happiness, joy... and love.

My heart, is frozen...

my tears, are frozen...

all is,
frozen...

frozen in place.

Prince

Goodbye

i'm just another toy to break a mistake to make a love to fake a waste of time won't cross that line read the print that's small and fine second place not worth the chase just a face to forget to regret when someone says my name so tired of this game it'll always be the same till i put the gun up to my mind and i leave it all behind hear the shot echo across the sky that, my friend is my goodbye

Prince

Goodbye Forever

Jutted out arms Rolling tears
Split lives
Strong connection gone in a flash

Hope to remain together forgotten Life renamed with no point Last sighting of your best friend Last wave goodbye as you see them go

Wave goodbye to memories Wave hello to sadness Wake in the morning feeling empty Wake at night feeling alone

Shame inside for letting them go Pain inside of not holding on Anger inside of not being stronger Fear inside of lost hope

The next day they return And you realize Who am I to stop the inevitable Who am I to try and rewrite life

They chose their path I chose mine
My life gone before my eyes Leaving with no hug and no crying
I fall asleep wishing I had gone
I remember days where darkness engulfed my memories

Memories forgotten and memories destroyed Destiny took them and left me nothing Life re written my way Life would change

Prince

Good-Bye Without Feeling

Maybe if you knew what your words meant,
You wouldn't say them, Because when you say good-bye,
With no feeling,
It makes me want to prove you wrong,
You think i'm lieing,
And i am,
I couldn't kill myself,
I've already tryed,
It's just to hard,
You'd be suprised,
The memorys that flash back dont mean a thing,
Its the pain that makes me stop, Because it hurts to much,
When you say good-bye,
With no feeling,
It makes me want to die,
So you would be suprised,
To prove you wrong,
Your words mean so much,
They could kill me.

Prince

Hard To Hide

its hard to smile when all i do is cry its hard to hide the broken heart from you try to stay happy when all i am is depressed i cared for you
i wanted you
the mask is growing heavy i cant hold it up any longer the secrets you denied you told me everything i believed and all it is are fake you never cared like i did i wanted you never wanted me how did i make this happen i just hide its to hard to hide from all the lies i am trying to become real

Prince

Heart Of Pain

Love,
Is like the wind, It passes by,
And leaves nothing, Behind,
Just passes through,
My heart,
My soul,
And never let me,
Enjoy the feeling,
The sensation,
Of being cared for,
By someone,
Who really loves me.

Why is my life,
So desperate always?
Why is love,
Treating me,
So unkindly?
I look forever,
I search forever,
Look everywhere,
Search everywhere,
And all I end, Up with is,
A love that,
Never lasts long.

My heart is a,
Heart of pain.
It has never,
Been able to love, Someone longer,
Than it wants to.
I always love,
But does,
That person love me?
The answers,

To my questions,
Are always,
Painful,
And different to,
Take into term.

Am I suppose,
To search,
The rest of,
My lonely life?
Where will I go?
Where will I search?
I am tired,
Of searching,
And wondering,
Day by day.
Why must my heart,
Be all pain,
And none of love?

Prince

I try so hard but I'm always wrong I need someone to help me along This journey is difficult These roads are paved with cracks and faults I need to be saved from this dead end the cuts my life short and from this earth I need to deport cause it feels like my heart is empty and hollow not pumping any air my breathing is shallow what will I do when my life is gone how will I finish my song help me
everything is so hard it reminds me of shattered glass and I'm just a shard help me repave these roads help me fix my life save me from hurt, cut it out of my heart with the sharpest available knife!

Prince

Help Me Say Good Bye

I've been trying so hard, to forgive and forget, but it's not you that needs that apology, and these memories are holding fast.

Too many a night, do I cry until I fall asleep.
Laying horror-struck, by anything that makes a sound.
All a result, of my heart breaking.

These wounds are deep, and they will never heal, for as long as you are gone,
I will be fighting back the tears.

I don't want to feel this pain, though I know I've already lost you.
I don't want to be without you, but I know it will never be.
I just need someone to help me say good-bye.

Prince

Hold Your Breath

All I do is dream of you I thought you would wear away Torturing me baby, give me a sign That you are alright and maybe Maybe I could sleep tonight

All I need is a sign!
Or maybe your lips on mine...
To let me know
That you're with me

Was it you who called me from private?
At 12:30 in the morning?
If only I was awake enough to answer
But I was dreaming about the time under the cedar tree When it was so cold
That the blanket blew off
And you held me even tighter

You lost me...forget me You know I can't do that Could you? I wish I knew

Prince

Hope

My joy melts at your sorrows but my face smiles for the hopes of tomorrow and I know in my heart that this is where I belong, and where We start and I somehow think that when truth comes to show things are going to change everything should be alright

Helping you in your time of need setting aside my own selfish greed's you save me by letting me help you it might not make sense, but its so very true and I feel that things are already changing everything's going to be alright

Can you feel it like I can we just have to keep strong, and take a stand

Doubting ourselves helps nothing believing and keeping faith saves us from falling and I know that things are always going to change and everything will turn out just fine

Prince

How Can I Go On

after while it seems like no one cares after you passed away my life seems incomplete I try to hold back my tears thinking of you makes me wanna bust out in tears I try to feel that empty space
But i can't
I wish wouldn't have left me because i dont know how i can go on without you

Prince

How Can I Show You

I keep on trying to show you Just how much I care But you keep on passing me by
Of my love you are unaware

Nothing I try seems to work Now I don't know what to do How many more time can I show That I'm in love with you

It's written in some of my poetry
To you I'm always being nice But you still just can't see it So I guess nothing I do will suffice

So I'll go on hiding my tears Just so you will not know Of how you broke my heart Yet my love for you continues to grow

Prince

How Could I Have Known?

You said you loved me,
and you'd always be my special someone.
How could I have known?

How could I have known?
You were just pretending, pretending to love me.
Just so you could have your way with me.

I opened my heart, and let you in.
In more ways than just one.
How could I have known,
that you weren't the one?

Now I lay here, broken and torn.
My heart's beat nothing but a whisper in the trees.
How could I have known that you weren't the one for me...?

Prince

How Could You

How could you let me go'
Without letting me know?
And how is this right forcing me through the night feeling frozen with fright without you here by my side

How could you just let me be? '
How could you walk out on me?
Leave me with this broken heart
Inside I'm bleeding and all torn apart
I've come to far to go back to the Start

This misery has left me scorn for strife
I look for my love' my one & only life.
The one that was there and kept me strong'
The one that kept me moving on all along

And inside I feel that I should just give it all away
But something inside of me says that I should stay
To stop all the pain & prevent from being afraid.

So it levels out so that if I am ever filled with doubt
I can keep it strong keep moving along.
Because she is & was my life' my everything'

My bright shining sun
Keeps handy of the fun.
She brightens my existence Reasons for my life to live this

Prince

How Could You?

You beat me up when I'm on the ground,
I lay helpless not making a sound.
Bust my lip,
Bruise my skin,
Blacken my eyes,
Again and again.
And you think this is no big deal,
That these wounds will always heal.
Pull my hair, Cut my skin,
Crack my ribs,
Again and again.
Even though the abuse gets worse, Inside is where I keep this curse.
Broken soul,
Shattered heart,
Fallen spirit,
I'm torn apart.
You see, it doesn't matter if you kill me,
I died inside the first time you hit me.

Prince

How Could You? ?

How could you let me go'
Without letting me know?
forcing me through the night

How could you just let me be? '
How could you walk out on me?
Leave me with this broken heart
Inside I'm bleeding and all torn apart
I've come to far to go back to the Start

I look for my love' my one & only life.
The one that was there and kept me strong'

And inside I feel that I should just give it all away
But something inside of me says that I should stay
To stop all the pain & prevent from being afraid.

So it levels out so that if I am ever filled with doubt
I can keep it strong keep moving along.
Because she is & was my life' my everything'

My bright shining sun
Keeps handy of the fun.
She brightens my existence
Reasons for my life to live this.....

Prince

How Do I Tell You

how do I tell you that my love is true How do I show my feelings for you You're worth every moment I possibly have Time will fly by but I can't keep this hidden forever You'll find out sooner or later Weather it's real or not And if it's true My feelings for you will forever flow
The feelings inside burning my soul
One touch of you it brings me to fire
It burns me alive
That's love's true desire

Prince

How Does It Feel To Say I Love You And Get No Reply

How does it feel to say I love you and get no reply
How does it feel to know these thoughts in your head is one big lie

You may have thought you two were meant to be But what happens when you finally see

That you let your heart control you To have it broken when she never loved you too

You may fight for her, you do anything you can But what happens when it doesn't work, when you finally understand

You cant force her to feel the same way
No matter what others may think and say

They're only thoughts, those words were never true
And in the end, you never hear the answer "I love you"

Hypnotized

You hooked me from the start. I went until I couldn't hold my secret crush in. I was curious as to if we felt the same. Your answer struck me as cold. But yet, you acted as always, a flirt. Curiosity eased into my brain, my heart. Nervous, to whether you are playig wih my heart, or if you don't know what to do. Annoyed, at the fact that I can't read you as I can read any other guy, for you are to deep. Stop looking at me with those beautiful dark eyes. For you make me angry and yet I love talking to you, can you read me? Do you mean to do this? Is this what you want me to think? Am I hypnotized? Its like i want to question you but am afraid to jeopardize our friendship. So i will just put it out of my mind. But what if I can't? Do you see what you do to me. Have me going crazy, and I can't convince my self not to like you. Are you happy that I get lost when you laugh, and every thing goes away once you smile. I know that its NOT love, for sure! ! But I do think i am being Hypnotized.

Prince

I Am Alone

This is what I chose Then why do I feel so dead?
This emotion I cannot name On the run with a price upon my head

Words I cannot form Thoughts I shudder to speak Courage long gone
My words numbered, my actions meek

Tears become acid
As they stream from my eyes
I cannot control the sobs
When I think of all the lies

I had to do this, it's the only way I have to keep my distance
I have to stay away
"We never really fit" I say

My life in exile Shunned by family and friends I cannot bear it, too much to take Please wake me when it ends

Unkempt sorrow
Pierces through flesh and bone Realisation finally hit
I am alone

Prince

I Am Lonely & I Am Scared

I am lonely and I am scared
I wonder if I'll live
I hear bells ringing
I see colors of white
I am lonely and I am scared

I pretend to fly
I feel something inside
I touch the sky
I worry about the future
I am lonely and I am scared

I understand that I'll die trying I say what I believe I dream of love
I hope of flying
I am lonely and scared

I wish I could change
I think about life
I hope of flying
I cry for the world
I fear the darkness inside
I am lonely and I am scared

I understand the consequences
I thought of you I pretend you were here Now the darkness is near
I am lonely and I am scared

I wonder if life will ever change
I think about you
The darkness is getting closer The time is near I wish I could change the world
I am lonely and I am scared

I can die trying to change but I can't do this alone

The darkness is getting stronger
I need your support, I need your help
I am lonely and I am scared

I wish for love in our hearts and for peace on Earth Nothing matters now until the darkness fades until it is gone
I am lonely and I am scared

Silence
No movement Nothing is happening Everything is quiet everything is calm
I am lonely and I am scared

Bright light covers everything the darkness is dying we are together forever we will stand
I am no longer lonely and I am no longer scared

Prince

I Am Lost

I am Lost

Lost in a sea of troubles, without a life vest

Nothing to save me now

For defeat and sorrow are sure to obtain all glory

I am forgotten,

Forgotten because other people are more worthy than I

So I am simply left in the shadows of imaginary friends and deception

I am hurt

Hurt from striving heartaches that wont subside

Hurt from no one really caring

Hurt from no one knowing...

I am scared

Scared to be hurt

For my fragile heart can only take so much

Before it stops believing

I am angry

Angry at the world

How could they leave me to decompose all that has ever been said

To go back on their word

To never really care

I am seeking

Seeking and not finding

Maybe I am trying too hard,

For that's what others may tell you

But I can never know for sure

Only time will tell,

Only time will tell

I am waiting

Waiting for a special person to find me

To notice me

To heal me

To protect me

To comfort me

To love me...

But it seems as if the world has other plans for me
For others are the ones who share the joy of life
The happiness that I have never known

Prince

I Buried Myself Alive

The vines constrict my grave stone
The tree grows into me Leaning in to hear my cries Only muffled whispers escape the ground Sweet sacrifice is what i was made My heart still lives on With the pain of knowing im gone They still live on Trying to smile and laugh like nothings wrong
I didnt think i would hurt anymore
But the pain is still with me Everyone is weeping
But why?
I didnt think anyone would care
If i buried myself alive

Prince

I Can'T Stop Crying Today

I can't stop crying today
My world walked out the door With her she took my heart For I will love no more

The hours passed like seconds
When our two hearts were one The seconds passed like hours After she said that she was done

She was going to love me forever
At least that is what she said Her heart belonged to someone else That is what her letter read

I no longer live in color
My world is black and white I always wonder what she is doing As I lie awake at night

I hope tomorrow is better
This is what I pray
But right now my heart is broken
I can't stop crying today

Prince

I Cant Wait To Be Me

I sit here, my stomach hurting my heart aching,
i cant wait to be free,
i cant wait to get out,
I cant wait to be me.
I wanna find myself, out there,
here, everywhere
i wanna be somebody.
I dont want to live in this depression
I want to live life i want to see.
I cant wait to be me.
I cant wait to graduate i cant wait to be with my friends, I want tears
I want happiness,
I want joy,
I want more
I cant wait to be me.

Prince

I Cried

I sat and like a baby i cried.
Nothings really bad, nobody died.
Still I cried.
I cried for you.
I cried for the past.
For what we've been through.
I cried for now as i continue the quest.
Of putting the past in its place of rest.
Tears flowed for tomorrow, another day alone.
For a heart more broken than its ever known.
So many tears i couldn't count them all.
Still they continued, continued to fall.

Prince

I Cry For You

I'm dying here.
I'm drowning.
I can't breathe.
The pressure that fills my lungs also squeezes at my heart.
You lied to me.
You were the deceiver.
I was the believer.
I believed that you loved me.
But then you turn around and say "It was never so."
You said you felt bad.
Obviously not bad enough.
I loved you so much.
I had given you my heart way before I even said two words to you.
And you ripped it apart.
I told you that I was fine with being friends...I'm not.
How can I be? ?
You said with your actions that you loved me back.
But you said with your words that there's nothing there.
You said I could talk to you but how am I supposed to know if you're just going to lie again to my face.
I still feel your kisses on my cheeks.
Your hand in mine.
Your strong arms lifting me up.
Your face next to mine.
I need those things that you've ripped away.
You made me so happy.
I told my friends that I wouldn't cry but I don't think that's possible.

I cry in anguish.

I cry in pity.

I cry for you.

Prince

I Cry...

I cry for the unspoken words
The way i miss you
The way i wish i really had you Tears that could fill the oceans of the world
How much i need you
The way i wish i really had you I cry for what we never got to do and for what we never will every tear screams for the burning in my heart

.....

Prince

I Dont Deserve Her

I wait for her outside every morning Because I want to be the first to say hello I just want to be with her anytime I can But she doesn't know

When she plays with her hair
I can't breathe anymore
When she smiles at me
It makes me want her more

But I don't deserve her
She is too good for me
And she will never love me back Because I'm not the one she wants to see

In the afternoon when class is over I wait for her outside her door Just to be with her in the end I never did this before

When she calls my name
She is all I hear
I want to hold her hand But loving her is what I fear

Because I don't deserve her
She is too good for me
And she will never love me back
Because I'm not the one she wants to see

No it's not me, but she is still in my head
I only think of her Wishing every time to be hers
But I don't want this to be like any other

Seeing her everyday Makes it harder not to fall Fall deeper in love with her But she is not for me at all

Because I don't deserve her
She is too good for me
And she will never love me back Because I'm not the one she wants to see.....

Prince

I Don'T Even Want To Try

Every night I lie awake, wishing you were here, a cut, a gash, across my chest, from every single tear.

I can't help missing you, when you're away,
I can't help thinking about you, every single day.

I'm sorry that I love you, I'm sorry that I care, but I'm so truly sorry, that I'm not always there.

It's not that I can't live without you, It's that I don't even want to try, this has got to be fate, a secret, you and I.

Prince

I Don'T Know What To Tell You

Your eyes are red and your voice has that harsh quality to it...
I can just feel it in my veins.

And I don't know what to tell you when you've lost yourself, gone, fighting, resisting,
crying, screaming, breaking, hiding, losing, killing.
When you're angry.

I'm afraid you'll catch fire.

Prince

I Don'T Know Why?

I.
I don't know why.
This isn't me.
I'm not being who i'm supposed to be.

This.
This may not last,
therefore hold on to all memories.
Even though there only going to haunt me.

Just to let you know, I still love you.

Just to let you know, I still need you.

I.
I won't forget you.
I will forgive you.

You.
You broke me but, i'll be okay, don't worry.

Prince

I Dont Need You...Or Do I?

I don't need you to say 'it will be okay' because for me it wont so just walk away

I don't need you to say 'I'm sorry...I wish it didn't have to be this way' you made it like this so thats something you don't even need to say

I don't need you to say 'ill always be here'
Its a lie..your leaving me now and right now all I need is for you to wipe my tears

I don't need you to say 'if it was meant to be' SHUT UP and get over yourself just admit you never loved me

I don't need you to say 'Ive always loved you' don't waist your breathe I know thats not true

I don't need you to stay here to comfort me cause I know with her is where you really want to be so go on get out of my face

I don't need you
.....or do I?

Prince

I Guess All Of You Just Dont Understand...

There will be a point in every life..., But why can't people see me? ,
Why can't they hear my scream?
Why can't they hear my heart and feeling?
Why can't they understand me?
Why can't they believe, feel and touch me?
Why can't they hear my pain?
Why can't they hear my Cries?
Why can't they feel my tears?
Why can't they sense my breaking heart?
Why...Why...Why...? ! ? !
Why is everything happen to me?
Why can't i feel better, free in a perfect way for my life?
People see the Dark side of me...
They never try to see my Clear side of me...
Why...Why...Why...? ! ? !
And now i try hard to make it,
I just want to make all of you proud..., I'll never gonna be good enough for all of you,
I can't pretend that i'm alright,
And all of you can't change me..! ! ,
Only me...I'm the only one who can change myself,
What i actually want is nothing,
Just let me be myself back for now and always please! ! ...,
And afterward..I promise i won't disturb anyone again..., I'll take my leave...
I know i'm just a useless person to everyone,
And no one will like me...,
And for all that...I'm sorry for causing trouble to all of you..., I'll be gone for good...
~...GoodBye...~

Prince

I Hate Everything About You.... But I Still Love Where Are You? Why Can'T You Hear Me? Why Can'T You Understand My Pain?

i hate everything about you c/ you were the one to make me cry i cried and cried and i wanted to die you know i loved you and for a while i thought you loved me too

i hate everything about you c/ you were the one who treated me like dirt and ya know my heart really does hurt

i hate everything about you c/ i know i cant have you im drowning in this pain and i dont know what to do i hate evrything about you i hat your smile i hate your kiss

i regret crying over those warm hugs that put me in bliss i hate knowing you dont love me i hate knowing your gone forever

Prince

I Hate This Feeling

I hate this feeling
This feeling for you.
The reason I feel this I have no clue.
Lying awake, every night
I keep asking myself, What am I doing? Is this right?
I try to forget
All this pain that I feel.
But it seems that this hole in my heart,
Is something that only you can heal.
Because you know that i miss you I know you probably dont care
But i still wish everyday That you were there..
For when i am sad,
And my skies are grey You make all of my pain
Go away.
So I made a promise, to never let go.
Even if your feelings for someone else, Begin to show.
Because you were the one,
That was always here,
The one to take away my every fear.
But now it seems like your gone.
And as I sit here, all alone.
Still wondering if I will ever love,
With this heart made of stone.
Hurting everyday.
I feel like dying.
I know there is still hope.
So im going to keep on trying.

Prince

I Hate You, Don'T Leave Me

I want you to make it go away
I know you don't care But you're the only one I've got Don't mess with my heart anymore
I Can't bear it Please, stop killing what's left of me
Leave me Alone
Let me fix what Shatters Left of My Heart Just walk away on me it's easy everyone else I Knew did it to me It's not painful to you I promise
It's only painful to me
No one else take your Knife out of my heart take it and walk away Go
Leave me Alone
I Hate You
Don't Leave me
Please, don't leave me
Please, don't hurt me
I hate you
I Hate you so much Go Away
Just Go
Leave me alone

Prince

I Have An Answer

I found an answer Turns out it was a lie
You looked at me
But you failed to see
The tears in my eyes
I cried so long
For this to be ok
But it was all in vain Because in the end you went away

And I would have stayed with you Kissed you all the time Held you closer than ever To let the world know you are mine But not to be protective Not to claim you as my own Just to show you that I love you But you left me all alone

And now I spend my days Picturing your face
And your lips that I'll never kiss again Wondering who has took my place Which unsuspecting fool
Have you lured in this time Still despite all your tactless ways I still wish that you were mine

And I wish I had a spine An ounce of self- respect Just a trace of dignity
Then maybe I could forget All those precious memories And move on from you Instead of being stuck in the past Feeling lonely and blue

Prince

I Hear Something

I hear something; cry
I hear something; pout I hear something within and without

I hear something; run
I hear something; hide
I hear something taking my sanity and pride

I hear something; hush
I hear something; go
I hear something filling me with hurt and woe

I hear something; help me
I hear something; its running too
I hear something so run before it gets you

I hear something; im gone
I hear something; you see I heard something and it got me

Prince

I Hide To Cry

I hide to cry
because I have no where to call my own and 'happily ever after' is a land too far away, just after once- upon- a- time; just this side of the rainbow and no one really cares anyway

I hide to cry
because I know I will never leave this place and dreams don't really come true its just all make- believe and it really doesn't matter

I hide to cry
because my weakness brings my tears and I have no one to hold me close no one here who loves me

I hide to cry
because I embarrass the moon and she is my only friend but she's too far away to hold my hand and it really doesn't matter anyway

because no one really cares anyway and is this pain even real it really doesn't matter

I hide to cry
because no one validates my pain and no one really cares so why should I

and it really doesn't matter anyway

Prince

I Hope

I hope one day you realize that we were made for each other.

I hope one day you regret everything you've done just as i have.

I hope one day you will forgive me and take me back.

I hope that when that day comes i will still be here waiting for you.

Prince

I Lost Something I Never Had

Is it terrible to miss something that was never yours but you wanted so badly

I've lost something I could have had but respected too much and now I'll never know

I had my chance but now its gone somebody else took my advantage

I'm an idiot

but through my terrible sadness I'm so relieved
As temptation is now gone

Prince

I Love You Was That Ok

im sorry for hurting you im sory for coming in to your life im sorry for every loving you was that ok?

you mean the world to me, your everything i ever wanted you made my heart smile
was that ok?

my heart it broke,
you was there to fix it.
you made it all better you was the gule to my paper,
was that ok?

i told you how i felt i said things i didnt know i could, i felt strong against you
was that ok?

your everything i wanted, maybe more.
i love you
was that ok?

Prince

I Miss

I miss the days when life was simple.
Running and jumping in puddles,
My hair in braids.
No responsibilities, not a care in the world.
Dreaming amazing dreams, Impatience for the future.
Waking up every morning, happy.
Now I sit next to the window watching the rain.
My hair down, hiding the sadness in my eyes.
All the pressure in the world bearing down on me.
Dreams faded away with my future.
Waking up drenched in my tears.
I lost my happiness a long time ago.
No joy, no faith, no belief that there is a future.
Being swallowed by the darkness within myself.

Prince

I Miss You

i miss your laugh, your funny jokes, your sweet smell, your hilarious folks.
i miss your gorgeous smile and the times you'd randomly dial.
i miss your kisses and your hugs, most of all i miss our love..

Prince Still All Alone.....

Prince

I Miss You Sooooooooooooo

I miss you so Will I see you again? I don't know I don't see why you had to go Now all my tears have begun to flow Wait a second before you go I just wanna say that I miss you so

Prince

I Miss You Too Much

Missing you....

You consume my every thought.

Kiss me, if only in dreams.

Feel me, I'm not that far.

Hear me, my voice Is soft

Become one with me

I want to feel your warmth

Guide me, desire me

I miss you too much.

Prince

I Miss You.

You broke my heart once before You left me lost and broken, lying on the floor
But it was a mistake, nothing more Come back I forgive you I love you and I miss you I know I shouldn't trust you But that was then and this is now I can't live without you, there's no way no how Come back to me, I need you now.

Prince

I Need You!

i know you dont need me, but i need you,
yes ill live with out you, but happiness will not be there any more, id go back to my old ways, and i just wouldnt care, i think before i do now, because im afraid to lose you, and i guess thats a good thing for me and you, i try to tell you how i feel but deep down i really dont know, i know i want to be with you, but i guess its up to you, i want you to know im here for you and that i care, i now i told you i dont trust you, but your the one that gave me reasons not to,
and im sorry i cant believe you but you saw how much that hurt me, i was so unsure if i still liked you, but when you came back, i actually think i fell in love, im still recovering, but im getting better, my trust is coming back so dint take it again, because that would be the last time you get it...

Prince

I Never Wanted You To Have To Be Alone

There's a difference in the way you smile, behind those eyes, you now hide.
Over and Over I've tried to help you, but you keep everything locked up inside.
Should I leave you in hopes you'll change?
Hell, even now I know things won't be the same Why must you always make things so damn complicated.
It's only when I think of you that I become this frustrated.
Words have merely become spaces between us, and you refuse to take responsibility for all that you've done I don't think you see how much you're killing me.
I'm trying to hold on, but at the same time I bleed.
I promised again that I would never leave you, but after all the pain, it's harder to pull through.
Can't you see that I am on your side?
There's no point in all of these empty fights.
When I first saw you I wanted you to be mine, but maybe it would have been better to leave you behind.
I've stuck around through every high and low, but the lows have drowned the highs leaving me with no place to go.
You never even tell me how you feel, so how the hell am I supposed to make this real?
No matter what I do you're moods always change, and you act as if it'd kill you to have a little faith.
So many countless times you've made me cry, and the ground has caved in between you and I.
It's all in your hands and yet you're throwing it away.
I'd rather you just at least stay the same.
What happened to that boy that I love?
Was this all just a chance for fate to see me cut?
I can only help you if you let me, but time after time you choose to be so angry.
You've built up the walls too high for me to climb, and still you act as if everything will be alright.
I can't even speak your name, cauz it causes too much pain.
I just wish you wouldn't be so vain.
I hope you'll understand that it's better this way.
We both now that it'd kill me to stay.
I realize now I can't bring you back to life.

I must fix myself now by telling you goodbye.

Prince

I Slit The Sheet, The Sheet I Slit, And On The Slitted Sheet I Sit, With Freshly Fried Fresh Flesh. I Need Not Your Needles, They'Re Needless To Me-

These are the words I want to pin to you,
But you don't think in tounge twisters.
So I will brand you instead with empty words, Like love, because nothing else comes to mind.
I am revolted by this urge growing in my womb,
A yen I can't ask you to fill.
All sense directs me away from you but,
Here I am at your door again-Ready for you to rip me apart once more.
And I can't help but wonder how my heart Can still beat in your presence When you have shredded it into paper cut outs of everything you will never be.
So maybe it's me,
But I think that it's you That has been carving away at my body-Shaping me into whatever seems to fit for the moment.
But the moment passes
And you continue to work, Discarding the unwanted limbs onto the floor
To be swept up into another one of your lines of affection.
Somehow dismemberment won't stop the butterflies From turning over my gut.
And I believe that you believe what you have said And that Every Lie you fall for,
Just as hard as I do

Prince

I Stand Alone!

I know the sound of each roeck and stone,
And by the likes of me your welcome here..Everything breaths and i know each breath, Its more than enough for this land, like every tree stands on its own, reaching for the sky, i stand alone, i share my world with no one else all by my self...i stand alone...! ! !

Prince

I Still Love You

Now I don't know what's going on But lately something has felt wrong Ever since the other night
We ended things on an alright
We didn't fight, we just said bye
But ever since then this guy...
Has not really missed you, I've thought about you But seems that lately I can live without you Don't get me wrong, I've still worried and stuff
And I'm pretty sure that I'm still in love
But I just haven't had to restrain myself from calling Not even sure if I still think about you each morning No, I do, I think, I must Turns out, my feelings, I can't even trust
I even been checking out other girls Don't get me wrong, you're still my whole world Maybe it's just my brain thinking ahead Maybe he knows that soon we'll be dead
And I mean dead in the sense of over Got this other girl in my head and I don't even know her Just a pretty face that I can't forget Seems I'm losing you, but I can't let...
You go, so I don't know what I'm gunna do All I know is that I'm still all alone and that I still love you

Prince

I Still Need You

You ignored me the whole day.
And I wondered what was wrong.

I email you on Facebook
But you didn't reply,
And I'm starting to cry.

I can't take it when you're mad at me.
I'd rather die, then have you mad at me.

I never want you to go.
Cuz I don't think I can make my life on my own.
There's always gonna be that spot in my heart for you.

I'm sorry for whatever I did.
I still need you more than you know.
If you leave me I might as well die.
I mean it's not like you'd care.

Prince

I Still Remember

i will never forget the day my heart was broken i was walking her home from the lake we got to her porch she looked me in the eyes and it was my hands she did take she started to cry and i immediatly knew what was wrong and standing there a part of me died she put her hands around me said no matter where we go in life she has always loved me and that she was sorry i just backed away as she screamed 'i love you' and i turned back, tears burning in my eyes, i said 'im sure you do' she ran towards me telling me it would be ok and if it was ment to be we would be reunited one day i see her everyday but we just walk right on by not a smile not even a lil 'hi' i guess it just wasnt ment to be you wernt the girl for me and now that i think about it im happy because i have found Tiffany

Prince

I Thought I Knew You, But I Was So Wrong

I thought I knew you, but I was so wrong
I loved you so much, my heart felt so strong.
You lied to me like it was your religion,
You told me your sorry and you were forgiven
I hated the fact that you made me smile, I hated the fact that we lasted a while I fell for you way to fast
I got way, too attached
I wanted you to love me forever But to your self you said... "never".
I looked into your eyes, deep in your soul,
But honestly all I saw was a big black hole.
Now im alone,
And it just me at home.
Whishing you were here, but your not and I shed a tear! !

Prince

I Told You

I told you I was dying a little each day You said that I was just maturing And that these feelings would go away But now that I am older I can tell that I'm no better
The darkness didn't go away it only made me colder
I told you what was killing me You said it was just a phase
So why then am I waiting for death to set me free
I told you then that all felt wrong
You tried to tell me that wasn't true But you knew deep down that I didn't belong
I told you then I felt lost in my life You said one day I would find my place I just had to push past the grief and strife
But I really don't think that time is healing
As it ticks and tocks my life slips away
I am out of control and it's a familiar feeling I died a little each time I told you Because I didn't want to confess what I hide inside That I am the flower hate and I blossomed and grew

Prince

I Try To Be Friends

As I look at you
You look away from me,
As I try to talk to you
You walk away from me again, As I phoned you you always hung up every time, As I wright letters as friends do you always rip'm and through them away, I can always see everytime I try to be friends;
A tear drops off your face as you hid away.

As I cry infront of you you look away as I never was there, As I'm hurt from pain;
You pay no attention,
But laugh at me instead.

As I stumbled to get up you push me back down, A shadow of a vampire as my friend; treats me better than you do.

So know I try to be friends with someone else,
And that person is me;
Cause every time I try to be friends,
They always push me away, So being my friend is better than being friends with you, At least I now What a true friend is;
It's not you.

Prince

I Want It

Your cold stare Is my heart's bait it's the kiss of death it's the whisper of hate

It's so appealing
It lures in my heart
Even though I know
It'll tear it apart

I know it's no good For me or my kind But I want you to want me Until your heart's mine

I want what you have And I plan to succeed In making your cold heart Break just for me

I want your black heart bleeding
And breaking for my own
And when you are not with me I want you to feel alone

I want you to scream my name
In your sleep and in the dark I want you to only lust
After the love from MY heart

I want your black heart to break
When you see me walk away
I need you to be consumed with desire And NEED me to stay

I want your desire for me To break your cold, hard shell
And when my black heart starts to break
I want yours to break as well

And fall and crash you will see How wrong you were when you hurt me
The heart of an angel broken and hurt Lonely and cold buried in the dirt

Prince

I Want Someone

I want someone,
To hold me tight,
I want someone,
To kiss good-night.

I want someone,
To wipe my tears,
I want someone,
To rid my fears.

I want someone,
To really care,
I want someone,
To always be there.

I want someone,
Who's always true,
I want one person,
And that's you.

Prince

I Want To Know

I see you walking next to me, just wishing I could hold you and tell you how I feel.
Just wondering if you feel the same, or should I just turn the other way?
This silence, is burning up inside, wanting to come out;
I want to know,
do you like me too,
or not?
What they say is true,
'I have you in my heart, but it hurts to know,
I can't have you in my arms.'

Prince

I Want To Write A Poem

I want to write a poem,
That will tell the world how I feel,
I want to touch the world with a poem,
A simple string of simple words put together into complex thoughts,
I want to make people realize that I fight for my rights,
And for my beliefs,
That as I stare at the faces in the crowd,
They blend, each becoming the other,
Their deadly chorus sounds and pushes me off the stage, Saying, 'We don't want the truth' Screw you for trying,
Now, I want to write a poem with a metaphor all the way through,
One about me and a stage, Getting pushed down and pushed into tears, Well, I'm hiding a monster beneath my bed, I'm no longer scared,
But I pretend that it's not there,
I pretend that I am happy,
Let me rewind,
If I am to write a metaphorical poem with beautiful similes, Kissing the metaphors,
Making the harmonious sound of figurative language,
I must start by laying out the truth,
The things hidden in my heart,
I want to write a poem to say,
Girl, I am sorry,
You were the first girl I ever loved,
I believed in us,
I did,
I let go of you, but still don't know why,
We never sealed our love with a kiss, But I want what could have been,
I miss you,
I want to have our old life back, But you've moved on,
And I've pretended to as well,
I miss you,
You are still the everything inside my heart,
I want to write a poem,

A poem about being a man,
About growing up and becoming real, I'm forgetting everything I used to be,
And I'm still in love,
With you...

Prince

I Want You

I hate standing in the rain alone,
I hate spending a sunny day all alone,
I hate wasting my time on somethings,
I hate it when it snows and I'm all alone.
So you waste your time on me... and I'll waste my time on you.

Prince

I Want You To Remember

I want you to remember,
That you are my world,
You mean everything to me,
You said you would never leave,
So why did you say goodbye?

I want you to remember,
That I'll always be here for you, Like I always have been,
You said you never wanted to hurt me,
So why did things happen this way?

I want you to remember,
That for you,
I'll always have a smile,
No matter how much it hurts,
All I want is your happiness,
You asked how you could make me happy,
My answers still the same,
Just to see you happy,
That's what makes me happiest..

I want you to remember,
I'll never walk out on you....

Prince

I Will Be Silent

I stand here watching Listening to you talk Noticing how you are oblivious
To your hand taking mine.
I look at your eyes
All filled with sorrow
And I am tempted
To take it away
But I made my own rule
To not mess with people
So I will stay silent
As I watch you cry.

I lay there thinking wishing you would talk Wishing you would know That you took my hand
I wish you would look me in the eyes
All filled with sorrow
And you attempted to take it away
You said you wouldn't stay
You were tired of messing with people, You said you didnt want to Break my heart
To late
But I made my rule not to mess with other people so I will be silent As I watch you say goodbye Goodbye

Prince

I Will Go... I Guess...

Well... I'm broken...
People left me alone...
I feel empty and sad...
each day..
each night...
I cry...
for the fact that I will never be happy like I was once... for the fact that I will never be able to laugh like I did once... for the fact that I am the one 's hurting other with my sadness and pain...

I'm so sorry...
I don't want to hurt anybody!
I don't want you to be worried about me...
I don't want to cause you pain.. cuz I know what this means...
I know what it means to feel pain, hate, loneliness and sadness...
I know it all...

I'm just trying to live this life... I'm trying to live my imagine of life...
But it's not that easy...
Nobody told me that it will be easy to live this life...

But some of us are blessed with a life without pain and sorrows and all that stuff...

Sure... it could be boring to live without all these things...
But it's making me sick...
I'm broken...

And my tears will never end...

I'm sorry, my darling, if you're reading this...
I will leave you I guess...
Cuz I can't go on like this...

First I wasn't sure if I really should share this kind of mindspeaking... but...
I had to leave it anywhere... no matter what you're thinking right now...

Maybe you'll understand...

Maybe you won't...

But I just want to be free...

Even if death is the only chance to be free... I will go... I guess...

Thanks..

Prince

I Will Make It

Ive practiced, but what do they really think,
Do they look for the good, or do they look for the bad, Ive been thinking about it, but it just makes me more sad, I work really hard, but nothing pays off,
at least not to them, but i know i will make it in the end.

Prince

I Won'T Ask The Questions

I think about you constantly I think about your eyes
I think about your lips
I think about our time together
What we would say
And what we would do What would I love about you?
What would you love about me?
Would love the way I smile Or the way I listen to you Or the way I talk with my hands Would I love the way you look at me?
Would I love the way you introduce me?
Would I love the way you hold my hand while we're out?
Would we be happy?
Would it last?
It's just a bunch of questions That I'd rather not ask Because if I do I'll find out the truth
The truth about why you left me
The truth about why we will never be together again About the truth to why we never really were together
I know the answers but I just rather not face them You're happy now
I'm happy now
Do any of those questions matter
I don't think they do Not to me anyway
Knowing the answers doesn't help you heal Doesn't help you let you go It just drags you back under And I've become accustomed to breathing without you Honestly, I don't think I could go under again
It was too hard learning to breath without the first time Let alone now

I won't ask the questions
When we both already hold the answers

Prince

I Won'T Be Your Shadow

It's been so hard to lock your door,
I don't think I can do this anymore.
I miss the mornings and good nights, the endless laughs and long lasting fights.
It's so hard to be your friend because our memories never end.
I wish I wasn't so far away, because then we could always stay.
I know you said you would always wait, but I know being alone you do hate.
I can't take away your could be,
Even if what I do hurts me.
I love you so I should do whats best,
And put our relationship back to rest.
That's why I will let you go,
So I won't dim the light that you show.

Prince

I'm Still Missing You

From the core of my heart I said I love you Just without a single word you said I don't need you Now I'm wondering like I'm mad You with me now, I wish I had But that can't be true because you left me cold Not without single picture of you form me to hold Life is like hell, where ever I go there's dark You were the one who used to bring spark But now since you have gone
I lost my life, I've lost my sun Even when you are thousand of miles away
I still think of you each and every day
If you really have a heart my dear please come back to me If you can't just send your picture for me to see I'll glance at you picture each and every day
That can give me air to breathe though you don't pass through my way Fun, joys, Happiness in life are so few Years have gone but I'm still missing you

Prince

If I Can'T Have You (Then Nobody Can)

If I can't have you then nobody can I've waited so long to be your man And now you're telling me that we may never be Well I'm telling you that we'll be for eternity

I'll slit your throat, suffocate you But know that I'm not doing this because I hate you I'm doing this for love, you and me forever Even after all the years have gathered we'll still be together

If I can't have you then nobody can
The most beautiful person in all of the land
And I can't stand to know that they have touched you And that thought alone, it is enough to...

Bring a lump to my throat, a pain in my chest
The blood pouring down, your pale breasts I'm sorry that I hurt you, but you hurt me more And they'll never have you, because you are worth more

If I can't have you then nobody can
The last man to hold your hand
And walk with you know, to your place of death Where the roses are dead here and there's nothing left

If I Die Tonight

If I die tonight,
Hold onto these last words
But don't let them bring you down,
I am saying them to you,
To help you through,
When I am gone.

If I die tonight,
I'd want you to know How much you've meant to me (in this life) .
You have always been my rock,
My greatest support, through everything,
I wouldn't have made it this far without you.

If I die tonight,
I'd want you all to know that I am very thankful That I got the chance to be a part of this family, It's been the best part of my life.

If I die tonight,
I'd hope you'd still live your life to the full,
Knowing that I couldn't in my life,
So please do it for me.

If I die tonight,
Please know that I will be in a better place
And know that wherever that is I am happy And please remember I'll always love you Because love is the one thing that will never really die.

Prince

If Nothing Lasts Forever

If nothing lasts forever
why do I keep trying?
Maybe I should give up now or perhaps just keep on lying... for being in denial hurts less during the day though I dig a deeper grave there I shall decay but would I decay there forever if forever doesnt exist?
If I wanted to I could because I believe in forever
The only tiny thread that holds me through the pain I'll hold on to it forever until it snaps and lets me fall The little thread did say one day that it would never break it will never let me fall a promising mistake Lies will get it no where nor will it for me I'd just come crashing down harder to an unforgiving sea to steal my breath to let me die to let me hurt free to cry
But for now I'll make the best of it because this could be the last night we both can hear it the sea calling an invite Please my little thread tell me just once more that nothing lasts forever oh those words I might abhor but say it now, loud and clear so I can laugh at the thought with a sly smile and a wicked laugh

I will say 'why not? '

Prince

If We

If we don't have any love within our heart why is it so hard for us to be apart we keep ending up in each others arms like were under some kind of spell or love charm and it's tearing us both apart inside because there's just some things we just can't hide you don't seem to love me and I don't seem to love you but without one another what would we do?

Prince

If You'll Be Mine

Wind chill heart break Love me and seal your fate Together we can live as one Our life will be the winning home run

Chance lost love fade
We could be a marrying maid Letting go of a title of fame Embracing two hearts that feel the same

Hearts beat leaves fall Together we could have it all Our love could stand the test of time
If only you'll say that you'll be mine.

Prince

I'LL Be Damned If I Miss You..Sorry For This Title You Know That I Can'T Imagine My Life Without You... : '(

I've run out of words that rhyme with hurt
After all, not every response is curt There's nothing poetic about the word "squirt"
And who cares about someone's shirt

I tried sonnets for awhile
And all the counting made me smile
It may have made me grin like a child But my thought process was defiled

So I just decided not to rhyme
And it worked

But then...
I lost my way

I tried to keep a poem going But I only have so many witty phrases in me.

So I tried to rhyme again Getting sick at what came from my pen
The same rhymes used again and again
And even using the same word twice now and then

My patterns were far from such It made me angry so very much So though I thought I didn't need you as a crutch I've come to realize just how much I miss your touch.

Prince

I'Li Be Okay

If you don't love me, It's ok
But if you don't mind
I think I'll just sit here I might sit here forever Or maybe just a day

Maybe someday, all the pain will go away
But if you don't love me-It's okay

Someday someone new will come maybe then
I won't feel so numb

A day
A month
Years from now

You'll realize what you've lost and no matter what I do I can never forget you

I only ask that you remember How you broke my heart and then just walked away
I want you to know

...I'll be okay.

Prince

I'll Never Forget

You may not remember Everything I have done for you Everything you have done for me
But I do

You may have forgotten
That I loved you for you That you never needed to change
But I remember

You may have changed
But the real you still shines through You still brighten even the darkest of days You no longer treat me the same Yet I am still trying I can see your still there Hidden, dug under the surface

Things haven't always been great We had our ups and downs
As all friends do
But we were there for each other Now you have locked yourself away

I'll never forget
The way you made me feel
The way you still make me feel I will never,
Never forget each time you flirt with another guy
I will forever remember your past I will always be tormented by you

Though time has passed Nothings changed
I am living the past

I remember...
I remember those times
Both the good and the bad

I remember how I used to love you How you turned me down
How you broke my heart
But now it is mended It still beats for you My love
My first and only love

I will never forget.....

Prince

I'LI Stay With You

I won't hesitate
Ohh
The plan of escape
Trailing dead bodies, up and down with the wake Of the ocean baby

My eyes have turned inside out And I am seeing upside down Don't be frail, don't be weak I'll kidnap you sometime this week

Cry your sockets to submission Have you had enough?
The way oh the way You sway
And play with me Childish games
I'm insane...

Prince

I'LI Wait Forever

She drew a line upon the ground
I cannot pass it so I frown

I gain some courage
I build some steam
I cross the line in pursuit of my dream

She turns surprised
Who crossed her line!
What a fool
he will only waste time

It is I!
I stand and proclaim my love.
She shuns me away
She pushes, she shoves.

She takes two steps back, then once again impedes my path but now with a wall an infinite glass stall

And then I fall
I see the ground approaching But I do not break my fall For I see it just That such great love brings such a great fall

I struggle to my knees and lean upon the glass I stare at her beauty
She passes not a glance

I look at the ground between us the two steps I'll never tread

I'M ONLY TWO STEPS AWAY might as well be dead.

I look to the stars and cry,
'WHY SUCH PAIN! '
The wind howls with me as I feel a cold rain

I run out of breath as I lower my gaze to her beautiful eyes

I stare in contempt at this stupid guard I know there is no gate so down I sit Here, is where I will wait.

I'll Wait Forever
But Forever Isn't Long Enough

Prince

I'M Always Here

I walk quietly behind you Led by a single candle light As your path becomes darker My candle will become bright

Your road ahead may be glorious With no reason to turn around But come the first sign of rain
I will always be easily found

Sometimes the road may narrow With hills impossible to climb
My hands will be there for you With needed force from behind

There are obstacles that lay ahead May cause you to stumble and fall I'll always be there to lift you up And hold you until you stand tall

Not chosen to walk beside you I will gladly assume my place For I will always love you With these tears on my face

Prince

I'M Begging For Your Love

our heart does not belong to me It makes my heartbeat so sadly I am begging for your love For this love of mine bursting To hold and to make you mine No matter what others say
The love that I feel for you So strong that takes my breath away
So I begging you, please love me

Prince

Im Done Painting Your Picture

I will never paint your picture again Im tired of being this sketch In the back of your mind Youll never understand the demons that I face Go on make your decision Im waiting or are you still In that picture
I hate facing you
The more I hate you
The more I fall for you All of this is all that i can take The pain that your causing me You dont even care
Are you still in that picture
I have escaped
It was happy
Now it has rage
I paint over us
There is nothing left But a dark page Erase the sketch
Im not painting your picture
I have erased you face

Prince

I'M Happy For You.

I've shed tears,
But I still care,
I've been ignored,
Yet I still long,
You begin to love another,
But I still smile and say, 'I'm happy for you'.....

Prince

I'M Not A Poem Or Story

I'm not a poem or story
You don't believe in writing fiction You smiled and pretended I was Cliches were such an addiction

You wrote out songs and lyrics Speaking of our first kiss
You wrote so many poems Ignorance is not bliss

You didn't write of your feelings Of how an aching grin covered dread
You didn't write of fear For what she always said

You couldn't write your mind
You couldn't make it more than a phase
You could only make it beautiful Shower me with cliches

I wonder how you were influenced by just her saying it was wrong Maybe it's because There were no 'I love you's in your songs

Prince

I'M Still Dying

i'm dying in that dark corner beyond their eyes frozen under fears and false impression of ice

i'm dying
at this dreadful night in silent fight between my mind and my heart to find the right

i'm dying
my hands are ice-cold shivering with full weakness and i'm no longer bold to face a hurting scaring world

i'm dying
my soul is trying to get out of my body of my cells and then crying releasing a loud broken shout and now my soul became cool trying to sleep in gloomy pool of silenc, deep but i'm still dying.....! ! ! !

Prince

I'M Still Here

I'm still here,
Drifting in the broken mirror.
My hand scratches the surface,
I've lost my purpose.
All I have is the memory of what was,
And I cry at night because,
The loneliness kills me inside.

Let's pretend life is great,
And leave behind fate.
Sing our songs of sorrow,
So we can look forward to tomorrow.
Spare me the words,
I never heard.
'I love you.'

My final breath is gone,
I never knew you all along.
I shake and crumble,
And with the devil I rumble.
You kill my heart,
So my life falls apart.

Break my bones,
With sticks and stones,
But please don't break my heart.

Prince

I'M Still Hurt....

i know i've been acting like something im not... but it seems like i have to... i mean... you broke my heart...
i have to make you think like you didnt hurt me at all... cuz u did...a lot... but you can't know that.... that'll make it worse... and no matter how hard i try... i still feel hurt for all that you have done....

Prince

In Search Of A Broken Soul

Searching inside of this hole Looking for a broken soul Loss of feeling, out of control
It is so much for me to console

Out of place, without a trace So just in case if what I face is the end than promise me your Heart will mend I've made an oath
To see you again, my love for you Will always be sent

There will never be way to much
There will always be just never enough I cannot, I will not just give up There may be times, but never to tough
There is no need for us to make up I won't stop until I get your love

Prince

In The Wind

the cry of the wind so silent, so rare rising over the world can you hear it from way over there i blew my kisses deep within it trying to send my love to you feeling so perfect do you feel what i do the wind is carrying my heart to you when you catch it never let go for the wind can pull me free, ya know the moon shines bright over head the world is spinning the wind is still blowing im now laying down for bed my heart still soaring through the night dont forget when it reaches you to hold it tight

Prince

In This Moment

See the sunlight shining bright Over my sad day-dream world Standing so close to oblivion
I can feel your heart beating.

It's like waking up to the end Of a sad, sad, sad dream land Kiss me hello and throw My griefs to those sad, sad, sad dream winds.

Forget all the bad things for this moment
I swear I'll never let you fall alone Together for just one more moment Here in this forgotten moment.

Prince

Inside Of Me

There is a hole inside me where I had once kept you Why won't you look in my eyes realize why I'm so blue?

This gap that is inside of me is so empty and so unfulfilled I am calling upon you just so that we can once again rebuild

So that once again we can both become one just you and me Let this love begin i no longer want to feel numb' we can be

All we once before were do you remember when we were together Or has it all become a blur has all that we have ever been become blurry

I am really not so sure weather
I should be aware should I have to worry Should I even be here do you even want me to care should i feel so scurry

Is there something that I should know is it something you are itching to tell me Is there somebody else there should I go' should I just walk away and let it be

Please, please tell me
I just want to know' was it to much or was it just not enough Tell me the truth is there no longer a use I can take it because nothing is to rough

I am here for you' I am listening I love you with all my heart I always have all the way from the very beginning all the way from the start' don't let me fall

Prince

It's Been Too Long Since I Heard You

It's been too long since I heard you Too long for anyone to wait Thinking that you forgot me Call me back before it's too late

Every day I wait right next to my phone Checking messages that aren't even yours Can't fall to sleep I need to hear you You said you love me now I need to be sure

Because I'm crying, yes I'm crying
I am falling, I feel destroyed Dying more and more without you I forgot the feeling of joy

I need to know if you still love me I need to know if I'm still in your mind
I really need to know I need to know your mine

I am waiting by my phone I never knew this pain before
I hate this feeling
I can't wait anymore

Prince

Just Another Game

Don't you see
Whats inside of me
The bloody mess
Of my heart you used to caress

Stripped of my sole That steered my actions
When I used to be whole With fun transaction

Stabbed time, time again
With no true reason

Except to you it was just a game That you'd play everyday

So smack me up Leave some bruises Us me till I'm dry
When I'll have no more uses.

Prince

Just Realize Who I Am.

Do you know
Who i truly am?

Do you know my secrets That I've kept hidden?

Do you know of all the misery That I've lived through

And do you know that the person I love Is you?

Do you think this will change
How you think of me?

Do you think it will compel you To get to know me?

Do you think that this Will even effect you one bit?

Or do you still not give a #^@ about anyone's shit?

Prince

Just To See If You Care

Girl you know who you are And this one's just for you It's a poem that i wrote that You might find depressing too:

I keep this hidden sorrow
You can see it in my eyes
I keep it locked away
And sealed with my lies My actions still speak louder Then any lie I may speak Every time that you walk by I feel myself grow weak
It hurts to know it's over And I can't help but to stare I guess i'm looking for a sign To see if you still care

Prince

Keeps Me With You

I'm new to this I wish you were too
You know so much
But I don't have a clue
And it doesn't make no sense
And it hurts so much
To have these thoughts of mine
But it's your soft touch...
That keeps me here with you

I want to be the one to make you feel like new I'll never be that special I can never do that for you I need to let you know this I don't really know why There's nothing that you can say All you can do is lie
But I'm so in love with you And that is why I try

Do you remember what you told me?
Does it still apply?
Why couldn't it have been me
That made you see the light?
I can't help but feel like this
It hurts so much
To have these thoughts of mine
But it's your soft touch...
That keeps me here with you

Last Minutes

Last Minutes

By Dawn Tate

My heart is beating faster my lungs grasp for air, My hands are shaking into the cold night my teary eyes stare, Could it be that I am wrong?
Could it be that I'm not strong?
My mind searches for answers my feet want to run,
All this time i thought I had it tricked but this dark feeling has won,
Sweat pours down my face my body starts to shiver,
The thought of dying tonight my body starts to quiver,
The blood runs down my arm at last I am distressed, Good at aiming for blue my chances are blessed,
The last minutes are here my eyes stare off in space,
My life flashes before me the tribulations I will now face

Prince

Last Solution

This desperation Warps itself
Into my words
A sorrow
Beyond this world

A last solution
I cannot find
I've lost myself
Inside my mind

Nothing remains now
A shell of a soul
A vast wasteland
Of eternal repose
A silence of ages
The calm after storms
A tortured being Only human in form

This seperation Drowns itself
In its own tears
A pain
Beyond all fear

A last solution
I cannot find
I've lost myself
Inside my mind

Nothing remains now
A shell of a soul
A vast wasteland
Of eternal repose
A silence of ages
The calm after storms
A tortured being
Only human in form

Devoid of all feeling Stripped of all being A heart so broken
A soul so destroyed
A life thrown away
For the fates to employ

Learning To Breathe

Learning to breathe a sound Lifting up above the ground

Start breathing life back into your soul fulfill the gap to once again feel whole

Rise above from all your grief
There is hope, search for belief

Turn away from all of your sorrow you are not promised another tomorrow

This world may be wrapped in guilt
But they're is a promise land that is built

A white stairway to a wonderful place called heaven no matter how many mistakes you've made, you are forgiven

There is a gift that lie for you once you draw your last breath
If you take on this adventure step by step until the day of your death

A promised gift of an eternal life full of peace and serenity Blooming flowers, bright blue skies where you live happily

Stand in your pain we are all are strong knowledge in your brain to keep moving on

Find something that makes you smile stronger Something that will keep you for a while longer

Prince

Leave Me Behind

You leave me behind
And you don't even see That what you are doing Is actually hurting me

I thought we were friends But that can't be Because a true friend wouldn't Forget about me

But it seems you have All because of her
I'm nothing to you now Nothing but a blur

So you go and have fun
With your new found friend While I go my separate way And my heart I try to mend

Prince

Let The Rain Fall.

Well this is the day I hoped would never come.
Maybe somehow I'll be missed by some.
Sometimes I try but my best effort fails.
I'm caught in a storm on a ship without sails.
Even though I cry, my tears will be silent.
I'll hide my true feelings no matter how violent.
Even if I feel I'm losing it all,
I'll take a step back and let the rain fall.

Sometime's it's hard to just keep going.
But life is still moving without us knowing.
I seem to be the target for all of the thrown stones.
Tired of feeling broken from more than just bones.
But I'll pick up the pieces and start over again.
Knowing there'll be a day I'll remember when I'd get knocked to my knees and forced to crawl.
Trying to stand strong while I let the rain fall.

Well, that day has finally passed and moved on.
But I still know all my hard times are not gone.
I sit in the silence in the break from the thunder.
With no need to be worried and no need to wonder.
For even if it's a second, I can rest in peace.
Just calm my head and let the raging cease.
If it comes down again trust that I will stand tall.
Because the sun will shine after I let the rain fall.

Lies Of Being Alone

See those dark and cloudy skies forming in your eyes the smoke from your fire of lies here is your prize for having the most realistic mask it was such an easy task to rip away what little faith I had it used to make me sad but you look now it is clear to see you are far lonlier then me

Prince

Life Knows Me

Life knows no Mercy,
No Hope,
No Compassion,
No Rationality, Life knows pain,
Suffering,
Hate, Depression,
Life knows no Happiness,
No Peace,
No Love,
No Joy,
Life knows war,
Agony, Fear, Isolation,
Life knows no bliss,
No Contentment,
No Pleasure,
No Amenity,
Life knows Me.

Prince

Life Of Sorrow

Broken hearts Broken souls Broken minds
Nobody knows

Lost in silence
Dead but alive Fighting a battle Trying not to die

Heart aching Wrists bleeding Bones breaking Mind sinking

Eyes closing Body dead Soul unheard of Lost in my head

What to do What to say Nobody knows
Why i act this way

Confused and tired Disappointment revealed
There is no laughter Behind this shield

Going insane
Memories remain Covered with guilt
It wont go away

Prince

Listen To Me

We all have our problems we all suffer pain We're all confused about our own age
But I have a big problem it's that no one cares
No one asks me how my day is or how I'm feeling Everyone tells me their problems expecting me to help but no one gives a damn If I need help no one's there they all seem to go At the moment I'm losing two people I love the most But no one listens to my pleas
No one can tell when my life's just a big tease So I'm going back to the closest comfort I can get I'm getting my blade and making my arm wet Don't give a damn I don't care Tell me your problems you're sure I can fix Then when I finally get the courage to finish the deed My death will be yours my problems left in the air

Prince

Lonely

I'm lonely
And only you can really help Guess you don't wanna phone me So I'll just sit here by myself Longing for you to hold me Will you ever again?
Do you even wanna know me?
Do you even wanna be my friend?
Or have I messed things up so much now...
That you can't stand to hear my voice
I don't wanna be alone no more But I guess I have no choice

Prince

Lonely For You

I am lonely
Cold and waiting for you To come and hold me Warm this heart so weak and so blue Far away from Where I lay alone tonight
You are dreaming
But in your dreams I don't come into sight I'm just a shadow
That voice in the back of your head Reminding you that Everything we once had is dead
But I won't leave you These feelings inside will not let Won't let me lose hope They simply won't let me forget

I am hungry
I long to consume your love
But you won't let me
And so I am consumed by hurt I've had enough, but Not enough to make me give up I'm such a fool to Even think that we can make this work Or maybe I'm wrong I Don't really know anymore I've gotta stay strong I Need to explore beyond that door
But what if you Cut all my strings and let me fall
I will plummet
And in the end I will lose it all

Prince

Long Night

The night seems long,
When you are gone,
And i don't know, Where to go,
I see you standing,
As your handing,
Me your heart,
Now tell me where to start,
From a brokenheart,

Prince

Losing Life

Darkness turn to light, as the stars show your face.
So beautiful, so clam.

Needing every breath you take.
Feeling the darkness again, like a whirl pool from the dark sea. Filling my lungs.

Losing the site of you.
Your my life line, my heart beat, my blood.

Losing my life...darkness fills my lungs as I am dyeing.
Never knowing how much I needed you, til it was too late.

Dead of feeling now. Numb of the world. Darkness is a new world for me, not like before. Sorrow is about, and death is strong on me.

Prince

Lost Inside..... When My Heart Broke

My heart broke today
When you walked away Tears rolled down my face Will this forever be my place?
Is this really my fate?
To deteriorate?
I'm taken out to sea with the tide
I am lost inside

Prince

Lost? !

Shatter my eyes, awaken from my sleep, Trying to forget those things i said? !
Words trying to break through my head, Listen to me, i Lost my mind, i Was left to cry alone...

Shatter my wings, for i wasn't able to fly, cross between my Breath as i cry,
I Saw a shadow pass by me telling me, Your wings shall soon be fixed, if not then i shall be yours to mend,

Should you trust a 'Broken Heart'with a Voice of fear he said , and left,
i started to wonder if he was real? !
and if i still had some tears to shed..

Prince

Love With A Question Mark

You love me
I know you do
But why should you love me
And why should I love you

You're a bad taste in my mouth
A blow of a bat
I never want to see you again
Let's just leave it at that.

I know you love me
I know you do
But what I want to know Is why I love you?

Prince

Maybe I Should Leave

I feel...

Unneeded

Unwanted

Replaced

Why am i even here anymore?

No one wants me here any longer

I have been replaced

I am not needed any longer

i should just leave

Never to be heard from again

Wouldnt that be nice?

Wouldnt that be painful...?

to know for a fact that i am no longer needed

No longer wanted

To have everyone forget i was ever even here

If i leave this poetry world no one will notice accept maybe me...

This pain to much to bare

Barely even here

IN this reality called life

Hurting people

thats kinda what i do not like i ever planned to Im just a disgusting plague

That corrupts the minds of children

Who breaks the hearts of the already broken

Why be here?

Why be anywhere?

i will probably leave and come back to see if anyone would miss me then i would leave for good realizing that nobody truly did maybe this will be my last visit to this world That brings me away from my reality

Maybe today i will share only a few more times What i truly feel deep down inside

I have been replaced
No one will really miss me much They have a new amazing 14 year old

i feel...

Unneeded Unwanted
replaced

Why am i still here... in this world of poetry?

Prince

Maybe...Just Maybe...

Maybe I'm the one who's always wrong.
Maybe I'm really not the one who's strong.
Maybe I'm just a fool in your eyes,
Maybe we're trying too hard to live this lie.
Maybe I thought wrong about the way things should be.
Maybe I was stupid for getting in so deep.
Maybe I should have listened, as I watched you change.
Maybe I should have noticed it was starting to fade.
Maybe I could have realized that you were letting go.
Maybe things would be better if I didn't even know.
Maybe I could live without you here by my side.
Maybe I can go on with my life.
Maybe the both of us were wrong.
Maybe in time, I'll be able to be strong.

Prince

Memories

the pain of memories, they come at the worst times, they keep you on your guard, they are your experiences, but only the worst remain, your old places and memories, all haunting you,
you can't forget that they happened, you never remember what was good there, the worst stays, a past love will be in your mind all the time, appearing at the worst times, a bad experience will be remembered, and cause you to close up, you will look for a safe place, but they have memories too, and when you're alone that's all you got, your memories,
your life,
the haunting presence of how cruel life can be.

Prince

Memories Of Everything

Thinking of everything
I've been thru
And of the blood that's been shed
And the tears that i've cried I wish I could fly
Thru the clouds Way up high Were nothing matters
And no one crys Life is so hard So delicate
And bittersweet
It's amazing we survive
With the memories
Of everything

Prince

Memories.

Aching silence in my head, emotions gone from the tears I have shed.
Thoughts concealed as I wake, unsteady and I begin to break.

Hope is lost when everything reminds me of you, pictures and places, everything I once knew.
Distant memories begin to fade, and all the marks you once made.

I wish you could have stayed, but I have been betrayed, and I hate good bye's, I can't pretend, as everything I loved comes to an end.

Prince

Miss The Rain

I miss the rain,
the freedom to walk around,
with tears down my face, the gentle drops dripping, running over my cheeks, hiding my pain n my tears.

I miss the rain,
the glistening pools,
on the floor,
the gentle tapping, on the windows,
makin it feel ok to cry.

Bring back the rain, so once more i can cry, so my pain can unfold, and noone can tell,
as i walk in the dark, how i truely feel,
inside.

Prince

Mistake

I must admit that I have often thought of leaving it all behind and letting everything go

I was lost and alone, as I always am,
So many people around me,
Yet no one seems to care.

They say they understand and love me very much,
But just when I Trust to love, they forget and move on.

I held the knife so close as tears, mixed with blood, Began to fall slowly.
Like a foolish child I cried.

Knowing that I could end it all now made my mind draw a blank.

I put the knife away and tried to wipe the blood, that ran faster than I can describe.

I knew suicide wasn't the answer I was looking for.
I knew there was a reason for me being alone.

So many bad things happening at once -
They can make you forget About the good qualities of life.

Even though life is hard, and trouble an inevitable part of it.

If you decide to leave it all behind, maybe you will,
but I can guarantee that others
....Your Mistake will haunt

Prince

My Addiction

Forsaken would be I, if I'd not have you by my side, yet again this feeling to cry I tell you it's nothing, but then again it is a lie.

It's not a feeling of sadness nor is it a feeling of a toy, to tell you that these tears are the ones you have made of joy.

My heart beats faster at your touch, and how I hate to say
'I miss you' so much, stay by my side so I will be free of sadness, to tell you 'I love you' and save me from this madness.

I will do my best indeed to keep myself from this greed, to love you this much it seems that our love is compared to our dreams.

For days I've been dying to see you how great it must be to be you, for this day is purer than a dove and I ask myself, is this feeling more than love?

A kiss upon your lips is all that I ask, that would get me up higher than a silver plated flask, you are my addiction, my drug for life, tell me you love me and keep me from this strife.

Hello my dear
How much do I care?
Three simple words, that my heart will dare.
Say it both for me and you as easy as an
'I love you'.

Prince

My Darkest Moments

I feel so very alone, lost in the world of men.
Surrounded by death, pain and hurt.
Nothing I do ebbs the sadness in my soul.
The feeling of emptiness eating away at my heart.
It grows each day, consuming my life.
My very fiber of being.

My friends fade away, becoming dust in the wind.
A distant memory I desperately try to hold on to.
Their voices are fading, their pleas for help only whispers.
I stand alone, tears streaming down my face.
Yearning for a familiar face.

Loved ones lay dead about me.
death and decay claiming their helpless souls.
I mourn my losses deeply receiving no comfort for my pain.
Heart broken I cry in utter anguish.

My temptors will is strong it bades me come, offering relief.
It's false smile strikes a familiar chord. knowledge of the relief it brought,
Comes pouring back to me.
As my hand curls about that familiar piece of steal.

Breaking a long dead promise.
Fullfilling my undying need. relieving myself from all my torments pain and grief.

Prince

My Heart

This place, you called heart
Is now empty and cold
This place you called home Is broken down to the ground

Would you stare at your reflection Knowing I'm left here forgotten Would you dare call my name
If you see me waiting

I have nothing to hold onto And yet why do I find myself Crying on the floor Searching for all of my mistakes Knowing that there is none That could have drive you away

I'm so utterly desolate
I know I'm not making no sense at all

Prince

My Heart Can'T Move On, So I'M Still Standing

I wish you knew how much pain you caused me But obviously you're too blind to see

I cried and cried because of you But I know it's too good to be true

You didn't notice or care
You were never there

My friends says you're not worth my tears
But I can't help crying when you're near

I want to scream at you, swear at you, hate you But my heart won't allow me to

I know it's time to move on But not until the last memory of you is gone

Prince

My Life In A Poem

Bound by misery
Destroyed by pain Forbidden by love
With nothing to gain

Forgiven in death Forgotten in sorrow Driven by thoughts
Of surviving tomorrow

Lost in silence
Tortured in hell Fighting for life
Though no one can tell

Prince

My Life Without You

I can't tell you how much I miss you.
I never realized it before but now I do.
You are my reason to breath, my reason to live.
And without you here by my side I have nothing to give.

I think of you day and night, to the point where it's just not right.
I reminisce on your beautiful eyes and your soft skin.
And I can't do nothing but cry, thinking of the places we haven't been.
I want to let go, I want to stop living, I want to stop the fight
The only thing that keeps me going is the hope that you might call me tonight.

I try to call you anyways, knowing your phone is broken.
But it soothes the pain, hearing your voice be spoken.
Just like a moth who keeps getting to close to the light.
I look at your pictures day and night and it's a beautiful site.

Your smell, your laugh, your feet, words can't say how much I miss.
There's nothing I wouldn't do for just one more kiss.
You know they say, love conquers all things,
If that was true you'd be with me and you'd accept this ring.

Prince

My Life Without You -2

My life without you is like
A clock without the time
A rich man without a penny A poet without a rhyme

My life without you is like
The sun without a glow
A star without a twinkle
The wind without a blow

My life without you is like
A butterfly without wings
A lion without a roar
A humming bird without a song to sing

When you're not around My life seems desolate and odd Something just isn't quite right Like an empty soul without God

But when you are around Life is filled with laughter and smiles Everything is beautiful and pleasant Like a mother embracing her first child

Prince

My Loss

She is mine for all eternity
A way she'll stay to me,
My life is torn apart
As she is, you see?

A long time ago she left me,
To face this cruel world alone.
My heart torn to pieces,
I'm lost, and I'm at home.

An old photograph I found Is somewhat bound By my love, I feel as though My world has crumbled down.

Alas I am rescued,
From this unnatural world today,
I escape from my solitude Into her waiting arms I'll stay.

For now my days are numbered And I am getting closer to my love My worrying heart no longer trembled My eyes are bright with hope.

My love is right there waiting And I will once more rejoice, My heart no longer lingering
I made my own damn choice.

I will go to her always,
And stay with her, I will.
And as my final days draw near,
My soul doth love her still.

Prince

My One And Only

I don't know what I'd do, Without you by my side.
Every second I'm with you,
I don't have to hide.
Hide from all the sadness,
Hide from all the pain.
Because when you say 'I love you',
I feel whole again.

Prince

My Silent Collection.....

I position each delicate corps
To portray a scene from the indecisive Play of my dreadful life

There eyes seem compromised With rosy scribbles that look like A portrait composed by a four Year old and his red crayon

There skin has been kiss with icy lips,
That seemed to leave a blistering blue paint That consumed there idle bodies And there fingers forever pointed To the last questionable site that Invaded her view of God's blinding Flashlight

My odd collection of Death's remains Mutated into hundreds of grim and deceitful Photos, that fit into a ghastly flip book Where the dead operated like the living Dancing with a intimidating grace that could Fraud the living or the divine

I concur that my hobby of harboring These emptied frames would place me
As the poster child for the criminally insane

Yet I find a purpose in keeping death close It reminds me that tomorrow is not promised To anyone, yet soon earth's mother plants Seeds of untimely decay where sapphire petals Bloom from my quite children like a garden Of awareness that has been silenced

Prince

My Weakness

I gave in today
Just a little, I swear I've been doing good, but,
I was in such despair

When I found out
I couldn't stop crying
The pain was so bad
I thought I was dying

I'm really not proud
I know it was wrong
That's the problem with weaknesses Temptation is extra strong

Don't judge me
You don't understand It calms me down Like nothing else can

Prince

My Wish....

I look around
But, I can't see
There is nobody here but me
Who is some what like me

I think im confused
Please give me a clue
Of what to do

I'm hanging onto nothing Searching for something

I don't know where to go,
Or where to hide

I know you see right through my eyes Please Just let me hide

I DON'T want to be noticed I just wish to hide Why do you have to do this Can't you just tell me why

Prince

Never Alone

Tear drops glisten,
In the rain.
If you listen,
You can hear my pain.
It's not dying out,
Not ever,
Not now.
Your words are clever,
And push away the clouds.
But don't you ever, Wonder out loud,
'What's it like to die? '
And if you listen closely, You'll hear my pain, But mostly,
The person I don't want to be.
The real me,
That only you,
Will be allowed to see.

Prince

Never To Be Loved By You

Never to be whole, always to be broken, broken like my love, always left unspoken.

Never to have joy, always to have sorrow, never planning on today, not expecting a tommorow.

Never to have you, always losing my smile, the pieces of my heart lay, in a dusty pile.

Never to be her,
always to be me, you said that you were sure, we were not meant to be.

Never to have your heart, always giving mine away, you make me fall apart, at every word you say.

Never to get over you, always left to linger,
I can be anything you wish me to be,
I am wrapped around your finger.

The only thing I want,
I can never get,
the best moment of my life, is the one that you regret.

I can be loved,
but not by those like you,
don't you see?

I can't move on, no one else will do.

No matter what you do, no matter what you say,
I love you tommorow, and every single day.

Never to have what I want, everything else is out of view, depressingly,
I guess it was meant, that I was Never to be Loved by You.

No One Knows

My hectic highs my psychotic lows all the things that no one knows

I can be hyper
I can be wierd
I can be sad
I can be feared what I do where no one goes all the things that no one knows what I dream about is nothing but sick its in my music and played with a pic

I dream of death everyday and they wont leave they wont go away

these wierd voices it really shows
all the things that no one knows

Prince

No One To Answer Me

no one answers me any more they dont return my messages they dont answer my calls just as i predicted ive lost everyone everybody and nobody that ever mattered to me just abandoned me even in my dreams
i am all alone bringing nightmares that resembles home the place i felt safe suddenly so vulnerable no emotion in your voice when you said your goodbyes but i gues i dont deserve it should have expected it no one keeps a promise not any more here i sit waiting for no return

Prince

No Reason

I Know how wierd this will sound, but I totally think you went out of bound, I screw up you day,
with some things I said, you later asked me to dropp you off, I did cause I knew you were pissed off, I knew you were mad and why, but there was no reason to go out with another guy, if your plan was to hurt me, ill tell you just succeed, I just feel like if we were not meant to be, there was still no reason to disappoint me, I might not be what you expect, but at least I gave you my respect, I never wrote poems till now, I never even knew how,
my car broke down today, and just made my day even worst, I just wish you could give me another chance, and not just act upon revenge.

Prince

Nobody Cares

I sat by the phone waiting wondering will you call me do you think about me that way i do it doesnt matter i wonder i dont know whats happening life is spinning im falling to the ground and no one is coming to save me im in a place where im not free everyone judge me i cant even be me im sitting by the phone waiting wondering is anyone going to call me it doesnt matter
no one loves me im still falling everyone still judges me i still cant be me me is always what i wanted to be.....

Prince

Not Today

I sit at home but think away.
My thoughts; sporadic and run astray.
My skin is numb my eyes look grey but no surprises came today.
And I do not think it helps to pray or I'd pray once more for you to stay.
And I do not hear what wise men say for I had the will but found no way.

Prince

Not Together

forevermore I'll know never forgetting but hoping hoping the past will forget me maybe even disown me anything but together

Prince

Nothing

Crying over nothing just a screwed up life a messed up life with no right way to turn

Prince

Nothing Changes

Nothing ever changes, things are always the same,
as time slowly passes, my life slowly drains,

promises are made,
and easily fall apart,
i still see no light, i'm still standing in the dark, time passes more and more, my life slowly drifting past, i stand and watch it go, wait for the day that is my last, because nothing ever changes, things just stay the same, and i dont have the strength in me, to keep on playing this game.

Prince

Nothing Left

i feel hated unappreciated jaded sometimes i even feel faded it's cuz of you i have all this pain cuz of you my hearts going down the drain you lied cheated and you said you have the same feelings for me as i had for you your a liar i hope your heart catches on fire for all the pain you put me through i owe nothing to you i gave you my heart and what did you do with it cuz i have to say i still can't find it i loved you you said you loved me to but honestly i keep getting used what do i do

Nothing Left Behind

What should I do?
What do I do?
When everything around me is falling apart,
When all I have left is a broken heart.

The end is near,
The end is here.
I'm left with no one,
Left behind on this desolate Earth.

Because who is there left to care?
To care for the one left in despair.
Nothing is left for me here.

Strike me down and take my power,
I have no more reason left to cower.
You laughed at me,
You pitied me,
Now it's your turn to see.

What should I do?
What do I do?
When everything around me is falling apart,
When all I have left is a broken heart.

I'll tell you what I'll do,
But it won't include you.

Prince

Nothing.....

Nothing ever goes right,
day after day,
night after night, nothing goes right.

Somthing always ends up wrong, and so I'm falling,
I'm falling down.

And so I'm crashing, crashing down.

My hopes...
My dreams...
My pride...

all is coming down, down... down to the ground.

As I was falling... you sat there,
you watched me as I fell down, down into my hole.

I am nothing....

I am nothing now that your gone.

Prince

Now Without You

My vision shatters as I awoke
From this perfect dream with you You protected me from the miscreant Who tore my heart apart Left me on the sinking boat

There you came, my dear
You let me breathe the air
So jocund, took my heart away I'll never forget those days
I laughed above the dark with you

Your eyes kept me safe every minute
Your words got me through troubles Your arms around me are anodynes Soothed me and comforted me You promised a bright future I'll never forget those days with you

I didn't need anything, except for you To spend a pleasant time in the world But you had to leave me, I knew I could see the tension within your eyes

I was drowning in a sinking boat
When you came with that smile
Now I float on the ocean Trying not to drown...now without you

Prince

Of Without You

veil of indifference i cast upon my broken heart on the surface i was shining, inside totally torn apart i mended the wounds by freezing the emotions and chaining in memory the hopeless devotion with grace and charm i adapted to my new role cold fragments of smiles and merciless control i thought i could live in a perfect masquerade but i knew too well that some feelings never fade the promise of 'just friends' was a common, cheap illusion and my calculated mind sinks into deep confusion i yearn to throw away the mask and let your sunlight through and admit my days are black when i spend them without you

Prince

Only I

Only memories,
Lie under the stars,
And watch time fly past.

Only dreams,
See me and you there,
Holding hands, in love.

Only fantasies,
Tell story tales,
With happy endings.

Only childhood memories,
Remember how we used to play,
Without a care in the world

Only I,
Lie under the stars,
And watch time fly past.

Only I,
See me and you there,
Holding hands, in love.

Only I,
Tell story tales,
With happy endings.

Only I
Remember how we used to play,
Without a care in the world.

Prince

Only You

I think of you everyday,
But do you think of me?
I wonder do you even feel the same way.
It's been two years and you're still the only one I want to see.
It's hard to know if you even know who I am or if I exist.
Well maybe someday we'll meet,
Until then I'll be dreaming of you in my sleep.

Prince

Open Book

I stood here alone
Waiting anxiously by the phone.
Are you planning on calling?
Or should I just give up?
I wanted this to work out but you never pitched in.
All my feels spilled out for you but you kept your bottled up inside for way to long.

And this is how I know you walked all over me.
This is how you see we just couldn't let it flow away like a river gone forever.
I wish I could see your face again and apologize.

But wait, that's what you want me to do.
I'm sick and tired of all the meaningless lies!
Tell me you love me, tell me I'm the one.
Stab my back multiple times.
I'll still believe you.
Why do you have a spell over me?

You made me feel like death, a permanent solution for a temporary problem, was looking like the only way out of this nightmare.
Are you happy? I finally admitted what I was afraid to say, cause I knew you'd walk away from me.

Your presence is what's killing me.
But my body, it just can't say no.
But I know I'm slowly dying.

Prince

Our Secret Place

Do you remember watching the beautiful blue sky painted with snow-white clouds.

Because I do.

Do you remember our own little secret place.

Where I'd always see your face.

Waiting for me with open arm.

That place that you let no one harm.

I remember being tucked into your arms gently, with you singing that sweet lullaby.

That secret place where we were together.

In this beautiful place forever.

Prince

Pain..

how could you?
what did i do to deserve this kind of pain?
how can this love that i have for you turn in to so much hate?
i was there when you needed me and you where there when i needed you you always knew the right things to say but i guess now all thats gonna goaway insted all you leve with is pain you took my heart i just now got it back now its all cold and black how can i be so dumb i always had your back and now all you do is sit back and laugh i dont understand how can you say all those things and say you mean it. but like what you said thats life and life must go on so as much as i dont want to thats what i might have to do i just hope that one day you will tell me the truth.! ! !

Prince

Please Come Back

I'm sorry for those tears I cried, I can't help but wonder why Every time you looked me in the eye,
I think about it and want to die,
If you meant it don't just leave,
Please stay and comfort me.

Prince

Please Don'T....

Left in the Dark Left Alone;
Tears streaming down my face, no spirit to sing, too Heart-Broken for anything;
Please don't say Goodbye...

Prince

Please..

I just sat there as I saw you leaving But I sat saying nothing just silently breathing
I didn't want you to go
I wanted you to stay I can't figure out why It ended up this way I don't know what caused me to act as I did I guess it's just me Selfish, like a kid
Please forgive me
Please come back cause without you all i do is lack Please, you complete me Swear, promise, you do Can't you just understand, that I love and need you?

Prince

Poems

Why are people attracted To roses, pain, and broken glass?
I sit here and wonder alone Rejected, watching people pass

All these things are sad
But not sad enough Inside they're still intact While on the outside rough

Real pain is agony.
Don't roses sybolize love?
Broken glass doesn't hurt Broken hearts are what pain's made of

Prince

Prince Can You Tell Me Why You Have Been So Sad? My Heart Ask Me This Question And I Have No Answer....

Can you tell me why you have been so sad?
You sat on a bench, waiting on a bliss.
He swam with her in a drench and kissed a Swiss.

Can you tell me why you have been so sad?
You picked a red orchid, loving a gross lust.
He hiked a path so sordid and in that face there was no rust.

Can you tell me why you have been so sad?
You picked the sheets, hoping for a heartfelt hug.
He danced in the streets and so smooth skin was this drug.

Can you tell me why you have been so sad?
Can you tell me why you have been so...

Prince

Prince Of Darkness

Prince of Darkness
You're not damned
I'm at your service
I'll take your hand

Prince of Darkness
I know you're true
Take a bite
Make me you

Prince of Darkness
No cross I bear
I won't make a sound
I'll utter no prayer

Prince of Darkness
No garlic is near I want eternal life
With no fear

Prince of Darkness
Please take flight
Come to me now Can't wait for night

Prince

Pure Torture

Slowly and painfully the heart of one shatters
It never heals, it is always desolate
It fears another broken piece That will sink into a dark place Other dented and broken pieces are waiting Just sitting there in their loneliness Finding a way back into our minds As a tear falls, one after the other The pain starts rushing through,
It feels as if it put an incredible weight in us
It's a pain like no other, it is pure torture.

Prince

Questions

How many times has the darkness come?
How many times have you held it at bay?
How many times has it left you weak and tired?
How many battles must you fight before the dawn will come?

We all fight our battles against the darkness, wether we fall victim to its control, becoming a wraith of shadows, or we fight it to the bitter end, living a life full of misery but still in control of our own soul.

But it matters not how many battles we face, but why we face the darkness anyways.
Do you fight for hope and love?
Do you fight for control and sanity?
Do you fight for an unnamed cause?

And what is the other reason people let it consume them?
Have they no hope?
Have their hearts been broken once too many times?
Or do they simple not care?

How many times has the darkness come?
How many times have you held it at bay?
How many times has it left you weak and tired?
How many battles must you fight before the dawn will come?

Prince

Sadness

A feeling of sadness has overcome me lingering and tending to stay there is nothing to do to chase it away and nobody can see the true pain i'm in

Prince

Searching For Meaning

Searching deep inside
In find a broken soul
Looking to the sky
In reason and understanding Lost inside i ask for some guidance Please take me away
From this pain
This anguish
This hate
To once again be reborn
To be a better person
To be proud and filled with happiness Bring me the grace take me far away bring me face to face To the one who breathed this life into me into this broken soul and even though I was untold just please give me one more chance To look into your eyes take glance into mine realize that I was lost I was so confused.
Just give me the time to adjust and I promise i will make you proud Of What I choose
Of what I could become A goal to put a smile on your face in endless ways and miles

Prince

Secret Letter

Dear? ,

I hate that I love you, it crushes my soul.

But when I try to move on, I reminded of times of old.

How I'd look into your eyes, and tell you how I feel.

Then you would do the same, I could have swore it wasn't real.

How I would long for your voice, even if I was talking to you.

But now I realize, all my feelings would never move you.

I was never what you wanted, I just took care of needs.

And you only come back when you've been hurt, or atleast thats how it seems.

And I really want to be there, because thats what a friends for.

But it's hard being friends with someone who you adore.

I wish I hadn't tried, and set myself up to fail.

Time after time, now it's like my love is stale.

You'll never truely know, how much I really love Ya.

And if I was to compare future girls to her? No one would be above Ya.

So I guess this my vent, I guess I need to move on.

With All My Love, Your bestfriend Prince

Secrets

The silence around me thickens like a stir of mist secrets hiding in the walls never to give in blood, roar, and rage all pulled into one never to be undone the hair black as ebony the stars full of light reflection on the water from that horrid night scars, blood and bruised never to fade their here to remind me to never let stay secrets, pain, remorse, blood, shadows, tears all of these are hidden in our darkest fears though they shall not listen they will always know the way to someones heart is hidden down below

Prince

She Is Me/I Am Her

Building up my wall again
Just to keep them out I don't want to let them in They'll make me scream and shout

All they do is tell me lies And my other side she listens Then they leave, she always cries
And who is with her then?

I'll be stuck to mop her tears
To calm her down and say don't cry
To keep her close, chase away fears And all the while I'll have to try

Try to understand she is me Her tears are mine, I am her It's through her eyes I do see And for this pain there is no cure

Prince

Shut My Pain Behind The Door your fussing causes my pain

tears run down my face like blood in the main vein

All my feelings

all kept inside

makes me think of suicide

Nothing I ever do will be right screaming want stop these fights

Im tired of the arguing fed up with with life all my sorrow is like a stabbing of a thousand knives my life isnt worth living i dont care anymore

as i close this pain in a hidden door

Prince

Silence

Tonight's the night I stand in silence, Center stage of a bitter romance, Street light's shine down in my eyes, Reflecting every dropp of passion, Hidden beneath and behind my heart,
Prince

Silent Tears

A thunderous silence breaks through my thoughts.
What was once many great ideas is now a triumph, lost.

Baffling words tumble through my mind.
Reflections of darkness hover.
A disturbing peacefulness beckons to me, and inside myself, I take cover.

What would it be like to stay there forever?
To be lost in all my cares?
From the inside, looking out - I cry silent tears.

Prince

Sleeping Tears

the sun has risen it's time to smile although i'm still broken, a mask of joy must be my profile.

the days i live so awfully long, how long shall i remain captive to this hidden pain so strong?

the night is coming with the sound of a chilling breeze, what's kept inside too overwhelming filling me with hidden injuries.

so exhausted from all these fears what is now awakened are my sleeping tears.

Prince

Snow White

If I could grasp yesterday with hands of today
This present pain might melt just enough To create a puddle with a mirror image Of whom I once was

Yet, yesterday was not meant to be linked To this fever stricken moment Father time has been crude In his collection of recycled time

So this snow white must Continue to gaze up from her Crystal blue sarcophagus whilst choking on The fermented fruit Produced in death's deceitful garden

The same ruby red appetizer Handed to her by god's disciples During her last supper where Love once courted her supple sanity

Prince

So Many Years Wasted

so many years so many tears i've wasted on you i have become so numb because of you i hate you yet thank you for what you did i get to feel a baby growing inside of me you lied to me about everything and it hurts to know im not exaggerating you've made me so much stronger yet so much weaker i wish you could feel this pain this pain and this agony but i know you never will with my bleeding broken heart i fly above
i want everyone to know i died for love

Prince

So Much To Say

I still love you,
I always have,
And always will.
I'm no good at letting go.
I still wanna be with you,
But you've kept me on hold.
I've been by your side for much too long.
So i thought i should move on,
I thought i could be strong.
But once you were gone,
I found it hard to even find reason.
Reason to wake up,
Reason to live,
Reason to keep breathing, Reason to give,
This life another chance,
This world another glance,
From a different point of view,
But I still only saw you.
I never wanted to say those things i did,
But i was tired of getting hurt.
I waited for only disappointment.
You knew it wouldn't work.
Did you like giving me false hopes?
Your words are the ropes,
That hang me high off the ground.
The choking lies that wrap around,
My throat so tightly,
The sight unsightly.
Hanging breathlessly, Swaying lifelessly,
Forever endlessly.

Prince

Some Things

Some things are better left unspoken.
Some things can't be fixed once broken.
Some things can't ever be seen.
Some things aren't what they first seem.
Some things are never touched nor heard.
Some things can't be writ in words.
Why are some things what they are?
A tree's a tree, a star's a star.
Wolves will howl, and cats will mew.
I will die and so will you.
Why?

Prince

Something Missing

There's something missing,
what can it be,
i dont feel complete, dont feel like me,

my mind is blank, or to jumbled to make sense, when you were talkin to me, i didnt know what you meant,

everything is so shit, its all so confussing, no matter what i do, i always feel like im loosing, but loosing what,

i really dont know,
i never really thought,
i could be this low,

you sit on the ground, n think thats the lowest u'll be, but when you sit there, your sittin on me,

get up out the way, please move aside,
cus when your not there, i think i can rise,

theres something missing,
what can it be,
theres something missing,
from deep inside me.

Prince

Sometimes There Is A Moment

Sometimes there's a moment,
That we don't want to change.
Sometimes there's a moment,
Where we are truly happy.
Sometimes there's a moment,
That you want to last forever.
Sometimes there's a moment,
That you look back on and smile.
Sometimes there's a moment,
When you see someone in a brilliant way.
But there's always a moment,
Where that person's changes.
There's always a moment,
Where that image fades.

Prince

Sorry Can'T Save Me

When I fall,
I fall with a knife in my hand
And you in my heart,
My last breath for you, Couldn't be more true,
I cared,
About everything we shared,
But i'll miss one thing,
As I end this nightmare,
You were everything to me,
Why couldn't you see?
Now, your a little too late,
'Sorry' can't save me

Prince

Standing In The Dark

Standing in the darkness
All alone in the cemitairy Things threw my mind Bats flying behind

With a lot of fangs Beeing in the dark People thnk its strang Being alone in the park

With the cold wind Moveing the swings
Be afraid what comes behind Behind u alone at night

At night it may be fearful But times may come They come to see
Whats inside of me

Just let me be free
I need to clear my mind Before i go insain
The dark will clear my mind

Its quiet when your alone Pretending to stand strong When u shut ur mouth You no theres something wrong

Prince

Stay Away From Me

You say you love me,
And I say I hate,
I'm mad at you,
And I won't contain,
I don't care if I hurt you, Because that's all I want to do,
What ever I can,
To just take something from you,
I do hate you,
With a stupid passion,
You took something from me,
And now your going to regret it,
I HATE YOU, I HATE YOU,
And I want to get that through,
BECAUSE I HATE YOU,
And there's nothing you can do,
You freaking text me again,
And I swear ill scream in your face,
I don't care if I embarrass, I'll do it anyways,
I want you to die,
I don't care what you say,
You can love me,
And I'll hate you anyways,
You tricked me,
And I was a stupid fag,
I fell for your trap,
And now im sad,
I want to kill you,
So please stay away,
If you touch me,
I might tear up your face, Freaking don't call me, Because I might snap,
I might crack your little bones,
Right in half,
I told you to stop talking to me,
And I effn mean it,
I don't care how mean this is,

I want you to know,
Don't talk to me,
JUST DON'T!
I don't know how I can hate someone so much,
That loves me,
But it is true,
I hate you,
Stay away from me,
Or else ill have to hurt you.

Prince

Stay With Me!

as i call you on the phone you sound so happy, it makes me want to cry because im not apart of it this time, i feel like were fading, but i dont want to believe it, i want to be close,
i wish you would notice, when i try to tell you i cant, because i dont want to cry in front of you, i wanna to be your one and your only one, im scared your going to hurt me again, i kno you said you wouldnt and that ppl can change, but apart of me believes you didnt, i want you and i wont lose you, ill try hard to stay with you if you try hard to stay with me....

Prince

Still Alive

Laping up my courage in an old dented bucket.
I carry my water with me.
Foams over, as self expression frosts.
I crumble.
On the edge for all of my hours, the perfect whisper might just set me on fire.
I'll keep my secrets, while you keep your cool.
Bitter as I am,
I remain focussed.
To spill any of my silence... would be too revealing.
On pause.
Numb to your slithery words that rode on my soul.
I'm alive in my own skin, porcelain to you. Just as I should be.
Crossed arms over a raging pulse, my vibrant innocence is no longer your constant gift.

Prince

Still Bleeding

Our passion vanished into the dawn, serpents night swallows me in sorrow, a soul crucified as loves pawn, leaves resentment for tomorrow,

The morning sun rises to taunt, and laugh at miseries fool, and cast my darkness to haunt,
in this world oh so cruel,

The angels came to ease my pain, but I faded in the dark, in my heart loves been slain, but it left an endless mark,

Yet my heart still craves the light, and lights the flame anew, but soon sinks back into my path of night, as im already dead to you.

Prince

Still Luv U

Sometimes I just Wonder Why Do I Feel Sad
Whenever I Think of U

And I Realized That The Only Time I'm Smiling Is Whenever I Believed I Still Love U

Prince

Stop Calling

Another sleepless night at home
All alone
As the vibrations go off on my phone

Not answering your calls Not letting you make me feel small I'm really just trying to stall

Sneaking out into the hall
What time is it ya'll?
I don't know
But I don't really care Cause time doesn't matter when I'm there!

Not surrendering
To what I know is hindering My life

Taking one step into the hall
The blue glow coming off my phone Pretending that I'm not at home

Sneaking out
Its one AM
Just need to get away from them

Walking in the street light glow Pretending I know
Where to go

Listen to the crickets sing Serenity Never brings
The piece
Of what I need

Missing clues
And hidden lies Remembering what I despise

Your calling me again Pretending that your still my friend Did I not tell you this was the end?

Yeah I'm crazy
And it's cold
Its dark outside
And this love hangover is getting old!

I walk the street like its mine Barefoot
And I feel just fine Knowing that I'm alone
That no one cares if I'm at home

Walking through the neighbors grass Wishing that you'd stop calling at last!
You never seem to get the point

Don't got the nerve to turn off the phone Just staring down my street Not worrying about who I'll meet I feel so incomplete

Yes I'm crazy
But I'm alone
The vibrating stops on the phone...
So I go home

Trying to fall asleep
A Quarter past two My mind fills
With images of you
And that stupid phone!
I'm never alone!

Yes I'm crazy
And I'm tired
My patience has finally expired!

I'm done with you
These late night walks too!

Fell asleep
At three AM
With nightmares
Then my consciousness tares I'm wide awake
And I'm scared
Of a dream I will Never recall
I hope your happy with this all!

I'm haunted by that stupid phone It always reminds me I'm alone!
And that you're sad Somewhere
Wising for me!

I hope you stay that way Unhappy
For all your days
So I can say:
I hate you
I miss you
I'm all alone haunted by my stupid phone Will you stop calling me? !
Please!

Prince

Story Of My Life

Why can't I be happy
I let you in my heart
I thought I was complete Before you tore me apart
It's the story of my life
Another unrequited love Another angel I let slip Past me from up above Guess I can't take a hint That love is just a lie
But I know that without love That I would surely die
So I'll hold on to you And I'll slowly fall apart Then I'll find another lie To mend my broken heart
It's the story of my life
A mistake that i repeat But I just can't help myself
This lie is bitter sweet

Tears

Teardrops and rain, seem to wash away the pain.

But when teardrops turn black, all the pain comes back.

With the ocean and the moon, we think of peace.

But we need the wars to end, the deaths to cease.

Love seems to be lost, tears come into play.

Death happened again, there are funerals today.

Lives are ending, tears are becoming black.

We all know whats happening...

The pain is coming back.

Prince

Tears Of A Broken Heart

its clear to me from what i see a fake... you laugh with ur friends then you look away with the smile off your face i see sorrow in your eyes depression in your heart i walk in the halls we pass each other u look at me with the most sadest face i had ever saw but what i cant believe is me and your friends see something different in you they see a happy guy jus chillin with friends but what i see is the real you the tears of a broken heart...n that i see in me..

Prince

Tears..

A tear suddenly ran along my cheek
I felt it falling down slowly from my eye

I told u, I have enough wounds in my soul, I need no more but u kept pushing me to that corner, once called 'believe in me'.

I believed in a dream that was easy in a person that wasn't true damn this chance that crossed me with a loser, a self centric miserable liar u made fun of my believes and then u disappeared

I'm not weak my friend, and u know why?
coz weakness is in ur heart its majesty is the queen of ur soul as the malignancy was the kind of ur world goodbye my lover <like if it was meant> goodbye my friend

u have been the one to show me that my world has become a better place with u so far away.

Prince

The Freedom Of Winter

I feel there is something in the wind A new season comes Rain melts my frozen heart today Slowly I'm beginning to breathe And shake this fear away
Let the raindrops pour into me
And wash the cruelty out of me To purify me
The black dress turns into white And the image had changed God's love is so strong Can't help but feeling it in my wind Life is mix of good and bad And I've learned my lesson
I have to feel the pain
To enjoy the freedom that comes next
The freedom of winter

Prince

The Hardest Thing

people say that the hardest thing to do is let go..

thats not true..the hardest thing in life is trying so hard to hold on to someone as you watch them leave and you keep holding onto the bare threads of what you had even though you know he's gone the hardesst thing in life is realizing that he's slipping away and not being able to let go, no matter how much you know you should

The Last Line

just one more line one more to go the words slip out of reach lost in the fog

one more line just one last one then it is finished the words flowing on the page without thinking they came now it is done

this was my last the final one i said one more line one more indeed the pen slips through cold fingers blood flowing freely the last line is finished and now its time to leave no one will notice that a life has been taken taken to the devil taken by the blade

The Night I Came Home

the night i came home
i came home late i when to the office her dad and me shared i found the letter on my desk i told her dad to call the hospital to get an ambulance i ran to our room we shared to stop her but i was too late to stop her i picked her up into my arms and asked her why? she said im tired of this world i couldnt take it anymore but I STILL LOVE YOU WITH ALL MY HEART

she died that night in my arms a hour before the ambulance got their so i went into the office grabbed her dads gun and said forgive me for this i put the gun into my mouth ready to pull the trigger but her dad stopped me and said i dont blame you for what has happened and i know that you loved her with all of your heart but we couldnt stop this from happening so dont blame yourself for what has happened she would want you to live not die so please dont kill yourself because its not yur fault that night was the first night i had a total break down i went to mine and hers room and sat in the bean bag chair that me and her sat in every night the same one i held her in while she died in my arms and to this day i still blame myself because if i was their this would of never happened to me i was asked by her father and mother to say a few words at the and i did the words were:

I LOVED HER WITH ALL MY HEART

AND THAT VERY NIGHT I WAS GOING TO KILL MYSELF BECAUSE I BLAME MYSELF FOR NOT BEING

THEIR BUT IF IT WASNT FOR HER FATHER I WUOLDNT BE HERE TO THIS VERY DAY

The Pain I Feel Inside

I hurt inside
I dont know how to explain this pain
It sharpens as i think of you Why dont you like me the way i like you?
Why dont you see me the way i see you?
I feel like i am nothing when i am without you.
But then again i feel like nothing when i am with you.

Prince

The Rain

To see you is to see the sun to not is to feel the rain

to look into your eyes is to feel true love to not is to be left wishing

I feel only the rain
I see not the sun you took it away for you are the one the one i see when closed my eyes are

I cannot see your eyes so I am but neigh but what do you care you don't even see me there

I'm just standing here:
Cold, Wet, Alone,
Wishing for you

~I'll wait forever~

The Reason My Heart Died

I don't get why you worry about me
I know i won't be fine
But why would that matter to you?
Your the reason why im broken
So why worry when you really dont care?
You've ignored the words i've spoken
So many times again and again
You still choose to ignore But you still call me your bestfriend You say I'm even more I don't see how When all you do is hurt me I've never felt like this before But you crushed my feelings so easily You don't even feel guilt
You take whatever you want no matter who it hurts You wander about this wall I've built Tell me to take it down
But why?
So you can hurt me more?
So you can feed me more lies?
I don't know why you keep this act up It's getting old and I've had enough So take your fake compassion And stop cause I'm already dead Are you happy? you killed me inside Goodluck living with being the reason my heart died

The Story Of Life

Tonight I'll rewrite this life
I'll turn it around and look around a bit Tonight, I'll rewrite this tragedy I'll just erase, write, and I'll sit

Thinking, pondering about how to rewrite my life
One by one, one line at a time
I've been given a chance to write a better story A chance to change this tragedy of mine

I'll write a better story
One with hope, joy, and love I'll write a symphony That's what It'll be made of I'll write a magnificent novel I'll make it fun and I'll make it fair It'll be a masterpiece

And everyone will care

I'll change the scenery and I'll paint new colors I'll make the tragedy end tonight It'll include you and me and everyone around And it'll bring around a new light

But then in a sense How could I bring hope?
How could I play judge
When we can already cope?

I can't decide what to keep and what to kill I can't decide what's fair and what's not I can't rewrite the story, when there wasn't one in stone
I can't decide what's to live and what's to rot

It can't be changed, this life of ours
It can't be conquered and set apart
It isn't fair but it has hope
It is bleak, but it still has heart

It'll be okay, because we know there's a story It'll be fine, because we know how this ends
There might not be true love, but we have a choice
We can choose to mope or be good friends

Following life can be treacherous and hard But it has hope if you really look Rewriting the story just can't be done But we can find the faith that someone once took

It can't be changed, this life of ours
It can't be conquered and set apart
It isn't fair but it has hope
It is bleak, but it still has heart

The Struggle

I lost.
Its over.
What happened?

I swore I'd fight forever.
Was I exaggerating...
Or was the challenge too hard?

They say fight for what you love
But, they also say...
When you love something...

Set it free.
Should I...
Can I?

I cant win!
Why try! ? !
Try, try, try again!

Even if they understand you,
Even if there just like you...
Love is weird.

I lost the battle...
Do I lose the war?
All these cuts...

All these bruises...
All of this agony...
For you!

I am not a bug you can step on Not a mountain to climb.
Look at me...

See me...
Care for me.

I'm not a piece of trash.
I am not a man with feelings.
Not a piece...of trash.

I put my armor on...
Pick up my head...
Wipe my tears away,

And look to the future.
I know who I am...
I know what I want,

And I still have a chance... At that special prize.

The Way I Love You

im shaking like a leaf cold as rain scared of what im about to do in a crowd of people i can see you
i cant breathe
im forgetting what i need to say but im not forgetting whats in my heart you look over to where i am and lock eyes with me my heart is stuck in my throat you smile at me i can feel my body gong numb with desire a desire to run up to you to embrace you and never let go we start to walk towards each other a mass of people comes between us then i cant see you anymore they all pass by i stand there looking for you but youre gone i start to walk away trying to hold in the tears that want to come out i look up to the sky that i hope will give me strength strength to keep moving strength for my heart thats breaking breaking into a million pieces over you i think to myself, 'why? '
'why cant i ever find where your heart is? ' i will live life never knowing whether you love me...
the way i love you

The Way It Use To Be:

The day that you left is the day that I died
The way I wept, you were all I could confide You were all that I had wanted to be with It was no fantasy or fairytale, it was no myth This was all that I wanted, all that I wanted to be My eyes started adjusting and got use to what to see But nothing could be any better than those days Nobody could amount more to you in any way You were the best thing that had ever happened to me
When you were by my side I had always felt so free
So now I take the time to thank you for always being there For everything, but does it still remain, I ask do you still care Because I still do, I just hope things go back to how it use to be When time was on our side, you know, when it was you and me

Prince

The Way That I Feel About You

I finally decided to make up my mind About a certain someone who's loving, tender and kind That person is easygoing and nice to talk to Yeah, that's right, it's definately you

To me you're like my favourite stuffed toy That ever so often fills my day with joy
If I don't see you I feel so sad Cause' without you my whole day goes bad

You make me happy in every special way Your smile alone brightens up my day I'll always keep you close to my heart
I hope and pray that we'll never be apart

If I just feel your warm embrace There will be a smile anytime on my face
All these things are really true Cause' that's the way I feel about you

Prince

The Way Things Are

One more time to test the real power of me.
This feeling that I hold not,
Just won't let me be.
This woman won't leave me alone,
Shes gonna ruin my happy home.
With her mind games.

Well I got an other back home Whos the beat in my heart.
I never thought no one else Could tare us apart.
To each other we can't get so true.
Until a love from the past comes along and messes it all up

I know I have to be strong I have to fight this all off
So I break for what I must do I have to love my woman, or you.

But I got a feeling telling me let your heart be your guide I don't want to loose either one Which makes it hard to decided

While my mind continues to run My heart stays at home and controlls My temptations.

I'm sorry little miss Thats the way things are I gots to be on my way
For that love one is waiting on me.

Prince

There Is A Pain In My Heart.....

Somewhere in my heart, there is a buried pain
Can not be shown to anyone whoever even cares for me I keep my feelings under wraps without showing my tears
With whom I can share my pain and ease my suffering
No one in this world will know what has stored deep in my heart Sometime in the night my pain awakens me from my sleep And bring back my old memories from the hell of pain me more Life without life is like being in the dark Wondering why my life is not that fair Today live with hopes and tomorrow die with no hopes to see When life proves to be no simple goal then each pain is added to my heart Life is like an hourglass and there is an end to it So in our life there is an end to it but when God only knows!

There's A Girl Crying In My Mirror Tonight & There's Nothing I Can Say To Make Her Feel Alright.

"When it comes to relationships people are always so scared of the what-if's that they forget the what-is. They spend so much time thinking, 'What if I get hurt? ' and 'What if it doesn't work out? ' that they stop thinking about that things that are already real. They forget the feeling they get when the person they love walks into the room and the excitement that rushes through them when the phone rings 'cause it might be the person they are waiting to hear from. Never let the fear of what-if stop you from letting yourself take a chance on love... 'cause 'what if' this is the person you're destined to spend the rest of your life with? "

When I look in the mirror this is what I see.

There's a girl crying in my mirror tonight, and there's nothing I can say to make her alright...

She hides in her room, tears flooding down her face.
Cleans up the cuts, tries to breathe a slower pace.
Thoughts race spastically through her head.
How can anyone look at you like they want you dead?
She stares in the mirror, mascara under her eyes.
She doesn't know how she could believe all these lies.
"Love is blind, " she says under her breath.
Her love addiction to him was worse than an addiction to meth.

Hands shaking, vision blurred, she picks up the phone but can't say a word.
Her finger tips dial but she can't see the keys
She hears his voice but her body starts to freeze.
She didn't know why she was calling this other guy
She hangs up the phone and begins to cry.

He's the only one there for her throughout all the pain Little does she know he cares about her through all the rain.
Every little tear digs deep into his heart, he thinks she doesn't care He doesn't know where to start.

She stays with her boyfriend because she's so scared to leave

She doesn't know how respect herself, so she continues to grieve.
When she looks in the mirror, she doesn't recognize the girl in the reflection
She wonders how she could change so fast all for the desire of affection.

Not a day goes by that she doesn't think about that other guy
She wishes she could tell him, without having to cry.

She doesn't want to believe that she loves that guy
So she tells him when he asks that she feels nothing inside.
Days go by; that guy feels heavy-hearted Days go by; she wonders how to end what she had started.

Days go by; she finally decides to do something right
She was sick of waiting upon each day for a new fight.
She got up the courage to leave her boyfriend and be strong All for this boy- She figures things will start to come along

Tears of happiness run down her face she can't wait to be with him So she begins to race.
She races up the steps, knocks on the door, taps her fingers on her sides- but nobody's there.

Was she too late? Did he no longer care?

She begins to turn around from the sound of his laugh stop,
She turns around, both of their jaws drop; as does the girl beside that guy
All that boy could say was 'why'? ..
'Why after all of this time, I've sat there loving you, I finally give up and you know now know what you want to do.

There's a girl crying in my mirror tonight, and there's nothing I can say to make her feel alright.
She wishes she could have been brave, and expressed how she truly feels about that guy
but its too late now, she's wipes her tears and decides she will no longer cry.
That guy has moved on, but has made her a stronger girl. She wishes she would have ignored the what-ifs and realized he could have been her world.

Scars still remain upon her body, as pieces of her heart remain glued together.
She learned not be afraid to love, and forget about 'is it forever'.
She regrets not saying something and wonders 'what if' but,

There's a girl in my mirror, who finally knows she is. Her memory has faded a bit, but she won't forget any of it.

Thinking Of U

The love I feel for u is more than words.

I can't see or talk to u anymore.

Witch feels like I'm in the deepest part of hell and I die a little each day cuz I no put myself there.

Every one tells me to move on well I wish I could but every time I almost do I thank of u and go back to loveing u.

I can't help to wander if u ever thank of me or talk about me.

but what kills me the most if thanken of u.

Thinking Of You!

I wake up in the morning with you on my mind.
The vision of you, to my eyes so kind.
My passion for you burns like fire.
Being with you is my deepest desire.

Being with you is my only passion.
To me what you are will never go out of fashion.
The perfection of you I must say.
Makes my heart melt away.

You in all clarity Puts my heart in prosperity.
The thought of life without you haunts me.
For my visions of you, they taunt me.

As difficult as it may be I need you to complete me So my life i wount rue I need to say 'I love you! '

Your perfect style, your perfect grace Only compared by your perfect face

It's no wonder why....

I'm always thinking of you! !

This Book Of Life

This Book Of Life, Alas What A strange one it is? ?
For Some A beautiful dream, For Some a Painful Agony.

For Some resting shade, for some burning desert somewhere in some other form of Tragedies.
Many faces does it hide in itself, what a strange mask it is.

To some it Gives everything, To some it snatches everything.
To Some a Moment of Joy, To some a Moment of Misfortunes.
Somewhere it snatches every happiness & somewhere Merciful limitless.

For Some A beautiful dream, For Some a Painful Agony.
This Book Of Life, Alas What A strange one it is? ?

somewhere river of tears flow, Somewhere Happiness overwhelming! !
To Some Rain of Blessings, To Some season of drought....

This Book Of Life, Alas What A strange one it is? ?
For Some A beautiful dream, For Some a Painful Agony.

This Poem Is As Deep As The Sea

This poem is as deep as the sea
And you dont even know it.
Until you've read it once or twice You'll realize it you might.

Have you read it again
To try and figure it out?
Has it brought you to the point of tears
Or will you just pout?

There is meaning deep within this And you'll see it if you thought There are many things you'll come to know
And a cornucopia you'll not.

Thoughts Of You

Thoughts of you,
our history,
flow through my mind insistently.
My energy is wasted on remorse, and while I'm struggling desperately to keep my dignity, your destiny is following its course.
A memory, life's driving force

Whispers in the dark;
a meeting at the park, a flash of sudden inspiration.
We rode out into the night, surrounded by moonlight, to an unknown destination;
and with memories following close behind, we climbed up a hill to gaze at the sky - to talk about life as it's passing us by, and we tried to find the reasons why

Is it useless to hope that this torment will cease and passions lose allure?
That time will offer some kind of release and memories will blur?

Prince

Time To Let Go

Thought i let you go, long time ago.
But everytime i see you, i go back to things we do.
I made you go away so many times, every thing you say is the same lines.
That makes me fall for you everytime, i just want to stop everything.
I just want to let you go, and never come back to you.
I hated being with you, but i miss what we always do.
I lover how you kissed me, and i love how you always miss me.
But we had a relationship, that never had companionship.
We been off and on, we never seem to have something strong.
We don't have something uncommon, but we had something.
Every time we talk to each other long enough, we enjoy how we always end up.

Prince

True Feeling

We went out And
We broke up
You moved away to school
I moved away a year later Even thought we were in two different states
You still kept your promise to me
We stay friends
You moved back home
And I moved back a few months later Despite everything
I see you as my best guy friend
When I was going throw a break up You call me to make sure I was ok
You are always there for me And I'm always there for you Out of all friends
We always chose each other
I never stop liking you
And
You never stop liking me Everyone can see we still have feeling for each other So why are scared to tell Each other how we feel?

Trying To Write

Trying to write is like taking flight, not sure of the direction, and up for correction.
Destination, kind of known, but this can change as things have shown.
Plot gets lost.
Words dont fit, whole thing ends up like shit.
Write from your heart, thats a good place to start.
Its working for me and helping me be free.

Waiting...

Wanting, lusting, to be held,
to be loved,
to feel warmth,
to feel your beating heart.
Wanting to be sheltered from the cold, heartless winds.
Falling into invisible arms;
into an abyss of love.
Wishing, hoping,
that my desires will be filled;
my desires of loving warmth.
Wanting to be held, comforted,
loved.
Dreaming of passionate embraces, of tender kisses, loving words,
romantic nights.
Waiting for undying love.

Walking In Your Shoes

For me,
You left them behind Footprints from your shoes, Embedded in the sands of time Filled with your history And all your memories
You want me to pursue them, Hoping your shoes will fit eventually So that I can be just like you But I need to be just me, Make my own footprints is what I'll do With each step I take,
My path becomes clearer
I will never fill your shoes,
Or be like the man in your mirror

Too much reminiscing nights with the tears/too much restless night with the thought of you on my mind/no more looken out the window thinking you might just show up/just gonna sit here and miss you like crazy/while wishing you was lying here next to me /too many words can't explain this feeling/its like a sharp pain when you're far/and so refreshing when you near/it's like the thought of you keeps floating upon my mind/speechless when talked about you/what am I to do /my baby/where did we go wrong/you only broke my heart/trying to move on to better things/I don't need someone to explain to me/cause you want someone else to play with/

I only want my best friend/my baby/you say you're not ready for my love/ but what about me?

What Can I Give In Return To Someone Like You?

I'll be there with you through thick and thin
As long as you give me that cheeky grin
So intoxicating it makes my head spin

Those eyes...
Oh my god those eyes!
More gorgeous than the sky
At sun set or sun rise

Your love is addictive More passionate then the way fire burns
But what can I give in return?

I'm not sure....

All I can do is love you forever
I'm afraid it doesn't get much better

What Do I Do

When my walls come down
And you come in
What do i do?

When you break everything on the inside
And i have only broken bricks to build my walls again
What do i do?

When i have nothing left Just a shell
And I'm so empty
What do i do?

when you leave me there With no protection
What do i do?

When I'm all alone
And I'm wishing for death

What do i do? ...

What Do You Do When You Break Your Own Heart

My heart's been broken many times by many heartless peoples.
Except this time.
This time where I rip my own heart from it's cavity and crush it under the weight of my own palms.

My lips have betrayed me with a kiss of mutiny.
How I wish these lips found yours instead of that strange pair.
That strange pair that didn't match mine.
That wasn't soft,
or skilled,
or caring,
or perfect.
That pair that was nothing like the pair that used to belong to me.

You told me I had your heart but I find that hard to believe.
For if it were in fact mine you wouldn't want it back so easily.
So I come to understand that it was just a fraction, just a part of what I could've had.
And I don't know I guess I'm glad that I never got to feel it's whole beat because I couldn't bear to lose it's heat.

So what do I do now, that I've broken my own heart.
Do I move on or cool it off?
Do I concentrate on what matters or do I give in to defeat?
Do I prove you wrong or admit your right?

I haven't figured that part out as of yet but until then it's pretty much a bet that I'm going to stay here trying to piece together the shards of an iced heart.

Prince

What Do You Want?

Why do you always go Why do you always need to leave reasons neither of us will ever know your getting harder and harder to read

You push me away and leave my heart torn in two then when I accept your gone you come back out of the blue do you want me back or are you here for another heat attack what do you want from me what do you want to see what do I have to do to prove myself to you be with me or let me be untill you figure out what you want.....

I can't figure out what you want.

Prince

What I'll Never Forget

As i watch him leave my body sinks into defeat the tears roll down like a forbidden river never to stop again i know i did the right thing i know he is better off but he honestly was all that i got..
He nuzzled me when i was lonely he knew when i was sad he drove me totally crazy but thats what he did best I'll never forget our moonlight rides along the shimmering creek hearing nothing but the rush of the water as we see nothing but the stars above our heads as i groom his mane and tail as they wait outside i know that i will never forget what we truly had....

Prince

What Is To Become Of Me?

My future is unclear Nothing for me do i see i feel my mind becoming less, becoming less of me.

My hope is fading,
and i fear it won't return.
My spirit seems less engaging My soul is all but gone

What is to become of me in the future that you see? without my spirit, without my soul there is nothing left to be

Prince

What Is...? what is life when you cant live?

what is giving when you cant give?

what is warmth
when your soul is cold?
where is security when you dont feel bold?

what is a home when you dont feel at home?
what is a crowd when you feel alone?

what is love when its not forever?
what is a family when youre not together?

theres a wound from these questions please give me the meanings please give me some answers because im unsure.

Prince

What You Don'T See

I sit here looking at you I laugh and giggle just like all the rest
I find it's easy to lie to you about how I truly feel I smile when I need to I sigh when I have to I lie when I need to talk I dress how I need to dress
I cover all my scars with long sleeves and bracelets
I laugh when you grab my arm in excitement when all I want to do is cry

Its funny that you cant see it Its funny that you don't even know

That late at night I listen to my favorite song
And I play my favorite game How deep can I cut?
How many can I make before my world gets blurry and starts to spin?
I always make it to 155 and I cut till I know I might need to get it sown up.
I cry late at nights
I pray to god himself
I try to figure out why I am burning in this hell

You think you know me
You think you've seen it all Come here and have a closer look I'll show you it all My soul burns in blue and angry red My heart is cold and black it makes my grandmother's look alive
My eyes are hallow
My smile is nothing but a tattoo My laugh is something I came up with My giggle, well that's all for you

I can't believe you couldn't see me falling this hard I can't believe you can see me drowning in this lake of blood and tears

Shit underneath my bed is ten thousand pills Underneath my book case are one hundred and fifty razors

This is what you can't see This is what you don't want to see Dear God if you only knew

I am waiting for my death to happen!

Prince

When I Am With You

when i am with you eternity is only a step away my love continues to grow for you with each passing day
this treasure of love i cherrish within my soul how much i love you you will never know you bring joy to my heart i have never felt before with each touch of your hand i love you more and more whenever we part i know i'll hold you deep inside my heart so these 7 words i pray you keep true:
forever and always will i love you.....

Prince

When I Feel So Alone

When I feel alone
You are the only one
That lets me know
I'm not on my own

You understand
You try as best as you can You won't let me fall
I'm not scared at all
When I talk to you

When I get lost in the race
I picture your face
An angle of grace
You keep me sane
We are the same

Prince

When I Think About You

when i think about you
i cry
i want to die
i wonder how could i love you i hate myself
i want to end it all
when i think about you i miss how things use to be i can't get over how you use to love me or the way you would hug me i thought i was it i thought i was your only i think that you're a liar and that you're a foney. yea, i did it i just called you fake but you know what.... i no longer give a shit so go on and hate.

Prince

When I Think Of How It Was...

you hold me close i slipped away you're still there i'm miles away

i can feel your heartbeat it's taking hold of me my breath matches yours and i cling to you for more your smile and laugh is contagious i can't stop i need you now more than ever and i won't let go

when i think of how it was i remember you said forever i remember i almost gave up i wanted to pull the trigger but you held on and never let me go now all i have is was i use to be and i don't want that anymore you are all i want and need so when i want to give up i just remember how it use to b

Prince

When It Means Nothing To You.. It Means Everything To Me

I can't stand when you do this All these little things
But I have to let them pass Because they mean nothing..

To you, sure they don't But to me they * kill
And you never see it Never get it
That your actions kill

So cut me off in a sentence Don't hear me out, it's fine Because it's just a little thing
And it means nothing
This time..

Prince

When Things Got Hard. (You Left Me)

i said for always and forever because i ment it i said i loved you so much because it is true i said i need you in my life because i cant live without you when things get hard, i try hard to stay strong.

when things got hard,
i tried so hard for you.
when things got really hard,
i never left you,
not really,
you never ever
left my mind.
but you left me.
when things got hard,
you left me when i needed you most i cried my heart out when i thought forever was true you left me and then came crawling back to me and i still loved you so much i couldnt even hesitate in taking you back.

but my love, my sweet, my life, you had broken me so far, im so sorry, it was so stupid but i couldnt take it loosing you shattered me so i just cut and cut till it felt better and i feel so stupid now while your back in my arms and we try to pretend that this didnt happen but my love my sweet my life, it did happen and i have the cuts to prove my pain my suffering while you left me so now my love

i still love you i love you forever i will never stop you are my world and without you i have no world it came crashing down and i drown in my own tears for they never stopped when you said its over

if you truly feel like it is over i will let you go ill never stop loving you i can never stop loving you i just want you to be happy and if thats not with me i understand love, i do i still love you forever.. i still always will love you and i still want to be with you forever i do not wish this to happen again i no you dont either.. so help me stay strong with me i can not hold us both up at all times and i know you know that.

im here for you.
i promise that im here for you as much as i can be.
always

i hope i never have to loose you again i hope ill never have to say goodbye i hope to never be in that pain again but for you ill do anything i just hope you know what your doing before you make your final decision just know

ill never stop loving you no matter what you will always have my heart.

Prince

Where Are You?

The world is all dark and cold,
I have no one to kiss, I have no one to hold,
You are my everything and I just want you to know,
Your in my heart where ever I may go,
You may have left me and walked away,
But my love is something that can not stray,
So Ill sit hear with tears streaming down my cheeks, Hoping you come to me in the next few weeks.

Prince

Where Can You? ? ?

Where can you hide
When love is your prison
When you're bound to pain
With no honest reason Where can you run from The pain of the past Doomed from the start A love that wont last

Prince

Where Is Me? ?

On my blood, betrayal knife feeds
How delightful it would be to kill me indeed & with tears burning my face No, crying is not what I need

Hiding inside my skin Every touch feels like a sharp pin Every smile is like a sin & my emptiness no one can fill

Every sigh summons the past Every tear sharpens the knife
To live is to die, to die is to die Am I even alive? ? ! !

Why can't I be felt? ?
Why can't I be seen? ?
& after all those painful years I still don't know where my heart has been

If I can't feel my heart Does it mean I don't have one? ? or is it that I lost my soul? ?
or may be I finally fired the gun? ?

Despite the pain, the bleeding & the sorrow Still trying to hide in the darkness
But there always will be a part of me that is hollow & I'll still lose myself behind the kindness

No matter how hard my tears try I won't find myself until I die & they'll always bleed, my unheard cries & in the end I think I believed my own lies

I won't cry
No I won't cry
Oh, how I much I want to cry
But there's no more tears left

My eyes are dry

Prince

While Thinking Of You

You are the flower-
The angel that runs through my sudden light
You are the wine-
The wine I drink to get me through the night

At night, the moon becomes your face To comfort me in my final resting place

There, preserved in you, is the fresh miracle of beauty
There, preserved in you, is everything I ever wanted I've come a long way, I wish you could see But instead, I sit here broken hearted

I am mesmerized immensely by your eyes
I am struck by the feather of your soft reply

You want ecstasy, desire, & dreams
And for all of that, I am everything

Prince

Who Remembers Me

Who will remember me, this lonely boy Only I will, but who cares what I think Who will comfort me, the silent type
The moon stays with me, but it's just a thing
Who will see me for who I am, the broken musician
I love my music, but does it love me back Who will hear me cry, the empty sprinkler My eyes will not give in, so I shed ash Who will look for me, the visible invisible
My friends are here, but how long will they stay Who will love me forever, when my skies are grey Who will remember me, the forgotten toy

Prince

Who Understands? We Do!

theres nothing wrong with you other people just need people like us to help them sleep at night they are the ones who should feel this way but they cant standing in plain sight but never in veiw they will never understand to our dismay this is just a truck stop a few miles away from the real show when they are burning in hell then they will realize life aint so swell

Prince

Why Am I Sitting Here Crying? ?

Why am I still sitting here crying? ?
I really don't know.
But inside I feel like dying.
Thinking of you the tears are falling.
But when I come around,
You're always stalling.
I'm sick of being hurt.
There, just take back you shirt.
Puddles of lies Which you always come to deny.
I'm through with it all.
I will just let my love for you fall.
I'm over it.
Every last bit.
None of the words that you will come to say,
Will ever again make me stay.
Its time I walk away.
And this time is actually going to be the day.
Why am I still sitting here crying? ?
I really don't know.
But whatever it is,
To you, I will never show.

Prince

Why Am I Still In Love With You?

The worst thing
Is that we could have been everything But now you've gone away Never to come back and stay But please tell me
After all the things you've put me through Why am I still in love with you?

My life is another sad love song
And the feelings I have for you just seem wrong Why do you deserve this?
You're such a hit and miss Please, somebody come save me from my distress Can't take it anymore, I need less

Why do I still give in?
You always beg and plead til you win
But I fall for it everytime Because I want you to be considered mine
It never works though Because you're so dirty, untrusting, and low Please tell me what it is about you That makes me feel like I am new What is it that makes me feel this way
'This time the truth, ' you say

But you lie
And I cry
And nothing ever goes right
At least that's how it seems tonight
I wish I could stop wishing about you And just tell you what I need to

Prince

Why Cant You See Me?

You see me for who you want me to be, but you dont really see me, Why cant
you, you've known me for a long time, look deep inside,
You think your hurting, but im hurting too,
why cant you see me?
I hide my feelings, I dont talk but you should know, You know what I go through, its painful, it hurts, but dont take it all on me,
I hold a grudge,
Its hard for me to talk and I know your pains why cant you see mine?
Why cant you see ME?

Prince

Why Did You Go?

We were having so much fun.
But you just randomly left.
You said I love you and now it's goodbye.
My life makes no sense.

And here I am crying my eyes n't believe that you left. But there you are somewhere else.
Is this for real. Why did you go? Tell me at least one good reason why you have to go.

Did I do something to ruin our relationship, all that I remember was laughter and your face always smiling.
I thought that we were happy together. So why did you leave? my world is turned upside down.

Where did you go?
why did you go?
It makes no sense to me.
the happiness inside me is fading.
Now you're just somewhere that I'll never reach.

Prince

Why Don'T You Feel The Way I Do?

Life goes on and on.
And i miss you for so long.
Many questions in my head,
As i walk up head up ahead.

Why don't you feel the way i do?
Why don't you ever say 'I'll be there for you? '
Why do you always have to go?
Why are you in my inner core?

You are always more than a friend;
Yet not my lover.
I have loved you now and then But as you hold me do you feel me shudder?

I always pray for you to feel;
Feel the same way;
To love with the same depths;
To experience the same craziness.

Yet, all i see in your eyes;
Is genuine care;
And not love;
And yet again;
I ask myself:
Why don't you feel th way i do?

Prince

Why Me? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?

i feel like giving up.
i'm not sure what went wrong or where it began. everything takes a turn normally for the worst.

why me?
what did i do that was so bad?
i'm not complaining and i ain't whinnying.
i just want to understand... why all that i do turns out bad.

i try to be nice my words get turned around i try to help out my deed gets punished i try to make things right they only get worse it feels as though i'm cursed.

i lie alone at night and wonder... does God hate me or is it a joke i don't find it funny.

so i guess i'm giving up i'm tired of trying nothing ever goes right
and as much as i love to write my spelling sucks! ! ! !

Prince

Why, Why, Why

laying here in the light,
not knowing what to do,
laying here in the light,
thinking about you.

why do i just sit here,
thinking of you?
why am i sitting here,
not knowing what to do?

why do you let me sit here, right next to you?
why do you let me sit here, after what i did to you?

Prince

Why? ?

You say its fate
I say bullshit, make your own we control our lives not some invisible hand What was i to you?
Nothing thats what its just your excuse for hurting me if its fate then why were we in the first place answer me that you can't can you

Prince

Will I Always Love You?

Sometimes when my tears fill my eyes
And I completely fall in sorrows, I say to myself, Will I always love you?

When your love hurts me inside and every thing seems blue.
I talk with my silence,
Will I always love you?

Days are converting in months Months will change in years Years will make big distance Wondering, will I always love you?

One day when I will become old man My hair will gray, my legs will thin
I will stand with a stick, thinking Will I love you at that time also?

Or my pains will letting me live anymore?
Or I die in young age?
And death embraces my life but,
I am living in this fear and Thinking, will I always love you?

In the noises of this world, among thousands of people,
I am all alone.
And wondering,
will I always love you?

Prince

Will You Be A Friend Of Mine?

Will you be a friend of mine,
Friend of mine, friend of mine,
Will you be a friend of mine,
And play a game with me?

Yes, I'll be a friend of yours,
Friend of yours, friend of yours,
Yes, I'll be a friend of yours,
And play a game with you!

Prince

Windows

If the eyes are the windows to the soul Then my eyes are frames that contain Only shards of stained glass

My pupils would be the towers Of abandoned chapels Where only crows inhabit
The dark pigment of the glazed Layers that stare at you now

Empty pews stare back Like a crib that once contained A sleeping infant before Heaven Changed its indecisive mind on the youth's Permanent placement

You look away
With a demoralized awe

I blink twice to display the next slide That projects from under these swollen lids You regain connection with a moral purpose Of justifying what u have marked with A vain reversal

But the next image reveals A foreign replica Of your being

No angels are hovering Over your now disembodied Soul, as you strive for a more Admirable view on this vile Planet

I feel regret as the once clear Windows of your innocence Become fogged and cracked By the chilling truth of the human

Wish I Could Stay In Our Memory Forever

I sit in my room Complete silence Reliving a memory that you and i shared It quiets my mind
And opens my heart
My eyes close and a hint of a smile crosses my lips
The feel of your lips is fresh in my mind But soon it will fade away So quickly it goes
The memory is going to be gone soon
The knowledge of this makes me sad
I put it to the back of my mind for now Just concentrating on our memory I lay perfectly still Not making a sound Eyes closed Mind empty Heart filled with you So peaceful in this world
My own little world
I'm relaxed and all is well Until i hear a door open A voice fills my silence And hatred fills my mind
I shut down so they dont see Hiding the real me
A fake smile, is what i wear Feels so normal, and that makes me scared
As the memories fade
And my eyes open
I see the real world
Nothing like mine
Here there are fights almost every night Here there is no such thing as silence Screaming is what invites me in Making me want to leave this place Moms in a bad mood tonight Which means everyone else has to be My sister will scream back

Moms gf will be silent
I will stay in my room and write my feelings Tonight will be interesting I'll stay strong for you Reaching for your hand Hoping you will never let me go Time to face my biggest fears...
This house
And the people who it shelters

Prince

With Broken Wings

Somewhere out there but so far away you live your life day by day and I'm over here doing just the same thinking about you again and again These wings I have, well they're broken down holding me here firm on the ground away from you, my happiness
The air that I breathe, the one I miss and I never thought I'd get this far, to feel the way I do and honesty's the way to go so to be honest, I love you

So I'll be strong, keep holding on wishing and waiting with a nice fake smile You know me better then I know myself so believe me when I say I'll never hurt you on purpose and I'll always be here wishing and waiting... with broken wings

I may not be happy, but I'm happy for you Don't get yourself down worrying about me I'll always be here as long as I'm needed with a smile to light up the sky and with words I've always wanted to say still hoping and dreaming for the time and the day Just think about me every now and again and hope I'm happy too and remember every thing I said was 100% true

Now these broken wings may keep me here but one day they will mend and I'll be hoping and praying with all I've got that it wasn't already the end

Prince

With Every Dying Moment

You know I'd take the punches but all I can do is wait it out Until the storm calms down Every  moment is a treasure
With you
The black on my lungs is calling to you And to me too
We just wanted to love
IT WASN'T ENOUGH! ! !

I pieced my soul back together
But when I let go it crippled back to nether Water across the brow Cooling us down Roads keep calling Savor this time
We won't get out of this alive

Nothing is as special to me Than your lips, your kiss Reeling back I write the lines Remembering when you were mine

I've been floating outta here
Oh I want so many things I PROMISE TO REMEMBER! ! !
Oh I've been so many places
I WILL COME BACK! ! !

Prince

With Every Right To Cry

Death brings killer things dead among the living some black tears no time to cry killing my life to feel alive Lost dead not hanging on No place to fall Among you the chosen ones now sitting here in my ocean of tears trying to over come my biggest fears Allowing my heart to twist and bend
But its all for nothing cuz this is the end

Prince

Without You

Please go.
I think it for the best.
My heart needs to heal.
Memories need to fade.
Your going into the Army.
Who knows for how long.
I dont wish you pain.
I just wish you away from me.
I cannot forget you.
For I see your girlfriend everyday.
She is my friend.
I dont want to feel like this anymore.
I need to move on.
I need to find someone new.
Someone who will truly love me.
Respect me.
Trust me.
To be there for me.
I cannot do it without you.
So please go.
I dont intend to sound surly.
Its just the way it is.
I need you out of my life.
So I can start a new one.
Without you.

Prince

Without You..

When I look at myself in the mirror,
I can't even see myself anymore.
Not without you.
And everyday my wounds seem to grow bigger and deeper.
Now I don't believe that pain can heal over time.
Because everyday I find myself crying.
Because without you my world means nothing.
Leave now and it will shatter before our eyes.
Shatter the mirrors that seemed broken to begin with.
Broken like my heart that you once mended.
But a heart inflicted won't heal.

Prince

Words

Words....

Bring love, a smile and emotions...
Words cause hate, anger and frustration

Why do you speak those words of negativity?
Is it to cause a reaction?
Is it to cause destruction?
Do you even know?

Your words cut like the sharpest blade
You should have picked up the knife
It would have caused less pain

My heart cannot escape your words,
My head cannot escape your voice

When you said you loved me....
Were those just WORDS?

If you meant those words,
Those words you spoke,
Those words that broke me
Would have never been a reality...

A reality I cannot destroy,
A reality I cannot escape Your words live on in my thoughts, I carry them everyday Are they now a part of me?

I had to free myself of you, Say fairwell to body and spirit I remember what love is,
I remember how to smile

A weight has been lifted, your existance, a cloudy memory No hatred, no anger, no frustrations

Now your words are just...

Prince

Writing Is...

Writing is my sacred escape
One that's always there Writing is the metal drape That protects me from despair

Stories are my secret place Banishing my fears Stories are the shining face That always dries my tears

Poems are my sword and shield My relief and my way of war Poems are my wings to wield
And with them I will soar.

Prince

Yes I Lied To You About The Pain

okay its true, i lied to you,

how can it be that i'm everything, but yet to another person you'd cling,

no i didn't let you know, that it hurt to be temporaly replaced by some hoe, why would you let her hold your hand,

i don't understand,

when your supposed to be mine, but i guess you just didn't have the time, i hope you never find out that as you spoke tears were already falling, and the second we were off the phone i began balling, so this is my silent confession, of all the little things i 'forgot' to mention, inside i'm dying even in your embrace, i guess evenualy i had to fall from grace...

Prince

Yesterday

As the wind blows so cold
I sit remembering days of old Living life without a care
A bright future we would share

With someone I thought so dear Life's meaning I found so clear As the days turn to frost From yesterdays insurmountable cost

I really don't know what to do When all I can do is think of you.
Time heals all wounds is a famous quote.
But in my head it's the same sad note.

Will you shoulder some of the blame?
Will you even remember my damn name?
Will the sun shine down on me?
Or am I destined a lonely eternity?

They say to live for today But all my happiness was yesterday

Prince

Yet Another Broken Heart

The names of a thousand, the thoughts of a few.
I search day after day, looking for you.

Each word, each step, confirmed it's yours,
I treasure forever, behind locked doors.

I hide my eyes, my thoughts, never trusting you in full.
For given the chance, you would shatter my heart; Irreparable.

But I can never stop loving you, no matter how hard I try.
I'm too selfish to let you go, too selfish to say goodbye.

I hope you can understand the reason, the pain. It is worse than death to love, but love in vain.

Prince

You - 2

Tears fall from my face
You on my mind Shocked into place
I wish I was blind

To the pain you have caused me
From what you just said You set me free
Now I wish I was dead

But in all this sadness
I realize something so nice Together its madness
And theres no more dice

To roll everyday Make me cry so much Now you go away
And I don't miss your touch

I'm better off this way Then how I was with you Everyday your away
I feel less and less blue

Prince

You Always Left.

Try and find me.

When I miss you.

But I don't. I can't.
It's when times are hard And I swear what I have to run to Is never going to be you.

Maybe when I'm upset
I want to be against you
And have you hug me.

Until I get sick.

And let you fade away in the morning Pretend I'm okay
When really you're so gone now.

You always left.

I miss you
Until I get sick.

And then I feel better again
When I get you onto the page And bleed all of you away.

You'll never find me any easier
You never looked when I felt.
So I'm so invisible.

When I miss you.

Prince

You Came, You Left

I don't cry or make a sound Even when I'm pulled all the way down
No one likes me
So they just let me be

All alone
Just about to drown Til you came and turned me around

But then you left and you're not coming back Not this time

These are my fears:
That if I drop that first tear
The tears won't stop Til I surrender and drop

Last thing I want to do Is submit to you Never again will I do What you want me to

I won't die
I won't cry
I'll be alone
And won't turn around And maybe one day I'll be found

Prince

You Can'T Keep Me

Where all is lost and dreary, My countless thoughts aren't nearly.
Keeping away from the pain and disgrace.
Look at the wound that tears my face.

My heart falling and sifting down below,
Where love and tears never show.
My heart with the caring is broken, Dead roses around the place I awoken.

Bear away into the darkness of those eyes I knew,
The ones I knew that loved me, only a few.
Rain touching the earth's lapidary skin, Penetrating the crust, so broken, that should have never been.

Out under the tree where we use to meet,
Our love and tears are under your feet.
I don't want to be with nothing but all that I've lost.
How do I get it back, how much will it cost?

I couldn't pay; I have been left alone to die.
No matter how hard I work for it and try.
With only leftover energy in me, I cry.
Too much pain and fear comes in when I sigh.

I won't make it through the troubles that haunt me.
I want to get them out of me, just let me free!
Withering relations that my heart so greatly desires, Stoking my hottest fires.

Within the gaze of the one who left me to ruin.
You've pushed me so far I won't let you in!
I want to fly away,
You've clipped my wings therefore I must stay.

Now left alone for my life to be degraded.
Love and care inside of me has faded.
I want to be a hunter again, to see the world alone again.
With my heart so entangled by your pain, not even I can get in.

Prince

You Don'T Know The Real Me

I am not, who you think I am.

I am someone completely different,

you don't know...
the real me.

I hide away, from all that is joyful...

just by putting, on my mask.

You don't know... the true me.

I want you,
to know.

But I'm afraid, for the same reason.

I need you,
to save me.

So please... don't run away.

I need, you to see the real me...

I need you
to save me...

to save me,
from myself.

Prince

You Don'T Know Why

Love hurts, girls lie Friends cry, People die Parents yell, You always try You're never good enough
And you don't know why.....

Prince

You Don'T See Me, At All.

My breath is still used to catching, when the light hits you in a certain way.
My eyes are still used to searching, for you in a crowd everyday.
My heart is still used to beating fast, every time you happen to come near.
My insides are still used to bleeding, whenever you are no longer here.
Your breath no longer catches, when I happen to be in sight.
Your eyes no longer see me, every time I walk on by.
Your heart is barely even beating, even if i am near.
I guess I no longer exist, cauz to you, I'm not even here.

Prince

You Make Me

you make me wanna scream you make me wanna beg you make me wanna run run far to get to you you make me feel longing you make me feel pleasure you make me feel love love i never thought id know you make me smile you make me laugh you make me cry you make me feel without you i feel nothing you make me everything

You Think You Know Me

you think you know me. you think you know who I really am.

you think you understand me. you think you can see through my master plans.

when I smile, do you see it touch my eyes?

when I laugh, can you tell if its real or a lie?

you think you know me but your not even close! !

I'm never a step ahead, I'm always a foot at most.

when I grin, can you see the devil's hidden pride?

when i smirk, can you tell what's really inside?

you MIGHT think you know me, but your not that wise.

you MIGHT think you know me, but you don't know what lies behind my eyes.

You Truly Made Me Insane

'I Love You', mighty words, That can hurt, and can heal,
When am I going to tell you,
About how I feel,

I can't stop thinking of you,
While I know that you're not mine,
I cry a lot, day and night,
This love for you, I know, is divine,

I remember that day,
I fell in your sweet love,
I've just became a man of God, Then you became all what I think of,

Really weird,
How you stood in front of me for years,
And it seemed like you didn't even exist,
Now all that I hear, is your voice in my ears,

I can't get rid of it,
I can't forget,
The image of your face,
That always makes me fret,

You truly made me insane,
That image of yours I can't really replace,
That image of yours I stare at all night, Give me a chance, and in your love I'll ace,

I'd give away my life,
Just to see you smile,
I'd give away my dreams,
Just for you, it's worthwhile.

Prince

You Were My Angel

You were my angel
When I loved you, my life was hell

And when I want to forget you
It was the hardest thing to do

I had expressed my love many times
But I was turned down everytime

When you talk about other guys
It made tears fall from my eyes

It made me feel sad
And at the same time very mad

Because you were my angel Something I'm not afraid to tell

But now those words mean nothing Because I'm tired of everything

Everything about you Because now I'm through

I'm through thinking about you I'm through wondering what I should do

Because you were my angel
But now my love for you fell

It broke into parts It's no longer part of my heart

Prince

You Will Never Understand

I don't see why People try to defend me They obviously don't know me

Their fighting a lost battle
They will never win
The opposing side have more against me

There are things I haven't mentioned before I'm ashamed of what I have done
I do not wish to tell you

For fear you will hate me for it I am sorry
But you will never truly understand.

Prince

You,

You were there When no one else was I cried on your shoulder
And you caught every tear Your love is unconditional Your presence is unforgettable Your healing is overwhelming

Prince

You..

i held back my feelings trying to never let them free knowing it wouldn't be long until the time you would see you turned to me as i gave a great stare wishing and hoping you would stay right there til hurt did me in you were my life then you killed my soul with a stab of your knife the words you let out and the pain i took in wasnt the feeling i wanted from you but i could tell you were happy from your heartless grin they told me to stop i would go to deep but it would make it better as the blood began to creep til the time i die i will remember you and the hurt you bestowed in me theres nothing left for me to do

Prince

You're Not Here Anymore

The fire burns, my heart is sore
The rain finally falls down Now you're not here anymore

Your picture is off my wall
A smile I'll never see again Nothing is the same, nothing at all

I listen to your favorite song
I cried at the line Together we belong

I sit here thinking I could've done more Crying at the memory of that day Crying because you're not here anymore

The last words you said that day
I never want to see you again
I can't believe you're not here today

I was walking through your door
And I never knew that day Was the day you're not here anymore

Prince

You'll Ever Know.

I love you more than there are;
Trees in the woods, Waves in the sea, Oceans for us to swim
Just you and me.

I love you more than there are;
Words to speak, names to say,
Stars in the sky
Just you and me.

I love you more than there are;
Songs to play, Photos to take,
Memories to hold
Just you and me.

I love you more than there are;
Hearts to beat, Breathes to breath, Hairs on my head
Just you and me.

I love you more than...
What's the point?
You'll never notice me.

Prince

Your There

Your thoughts give you pain.
And you thrive there.
Stay inside, you hide where.
You think that its safe.
A nasty old place.
All that is good, going to waste.

Find your centre.
You know where it is.
Its the place, you are covering.
With, all of your shit.
Listen to it.
Its speaking to you.
Telling you things, you know to be true.

This is you, where you are.
Really not that very far.
Although you may have, to do some digging.
Once you do, You will start living.
This is your freedom.
You've buried away.
Go and find it now, throw your prison away.

Prince

You're Always On My Mind

give me a word and i can trace it back to you cause every thought and every second of every single day im thinking of you.
you're always there smiling tucked carefully in the back of my mind along with every word and every touch and every moment of bliss together
and no matter what i do or where i go or how the world is passing me by those thoughts of you are beating with my heart and every step i take my feelings for you grow
grow and grow and every breath i take i can feel you feel your words whispered into my hair and when i close my eyes im taken back to that last moment where the lights danced across your face in that dim lit room and you were watching the story unfold and as i gazed up at you i felt my heart pirouetting in my chest and all of these words welled up inside of me dying to be heard but i just wrote them out in my head and kissed you instead.

i wish i could have found the words but they all were tangled in my mind but if only i could tell you.. but if only you knew how hard i've fallen for you

Prince

You'Re Gone

I love you and miss you But I don't know why.
When I think about you
I just want to cry.

My heart aches
When you come to mind Because at a point in time
We were one of a kind.

I don't say anything.
I do not dare.
It really hurts
To know you do not care.

You left me here
With so much to say.
But I know that I can Live with out you day after day
