Alone

Alone, alone, all alone
Come to alone go to alone
Nobody is with you
Alone, alone, all alone

Spirit of life
None can think about it
But all are alone
None can refuse it

Everybody thinks I am not alone
I have all
But extreme practical situation
Push him fall

Angel

Cloud are passing want to touch and try to hold it Only feel just like cool wind it looks like a dense fog

Sometimes I think what you are?
then I decide you are nothing but my imagination I feel you from my heart but you have no existence at all

You have no color not any shape
You do not make me crazy, make me brave
Why do you touch me in my dream?
Without you I can not think nothing, my life become dim

You are my heart, you are my soul
Except you I can not full fill my goal
You are hot, You are cold
Never leave you, want your hand to hold.

Come To The Origin

Come to origin, come to origin
Time is available
Without origin plant can't live
So make it capable

You have the right
To cock a hoop
But what you are
That you need to proof

From my childhood I hear Past is past
But I want to tell them
It is with you upto last

Raihan Chowdhury

Cry Of Heart

Are you hearing the sound when the heart is crying
You can not stop it how much you are trying

Heart is working for circulation of blood It's beat is working for making it flood

Beat of heart is nothing but cry of heart
Don't try to stop it because this is valuable life part

Date Of Birth

A memorable day of a person
The date he came to the world
If he happy or not
He must be pray to god

Birthday means
You are for from your birth
The time is coming
When you will leave from the earth

Date of birth
Helps to leave the past
Make our life happy and enjoyable
And also be fast

Birthday is special one
Glitter my heart
It shows nothing but my age
This is extreme of my part

Raihan Chowdhury

Dream

Dense fog is affecting the road
For which visibility is poor
I just try to walk in that road
But the light is lower

Life never wants to stay for a while So dream needs to see
Rouse to the sound of calling bell
I realize I missed the key

Dream is not impossible
It can be touch
Dream can be evolved
As like such Dream is a evoke

Not take it as a mission
Dream may truth for this reason
Not necessary to over passion

Father And Mother

I see a smiling moon
That is none but my mother
I see a sun shines
That is none but my father

Father and mother both are working
For create my life successful more
By this way they can create
A wonder of my core

For them I can see the earth
So I love them from my heart
I can not forget them for a while Because they are my undivided part

They are friendly
They are good
My life is more attractive
Because they are my root

Friend Forever

Walking inside the river
I see your face into it
I can't see it clear
But I got it

Friend is forever
Never can die
Friendship means tight linkage
Never say bye

Friend is my heart
Friend is my soul
Friend is my all
Without them I can't fulfill my goal

When I fall in a problem
I want you by my side
If you are not able
Not necessary to hide

Friendship is rainbow
Different color flavor
For this reason I say
Friend forever

Raihan Chowdhury

Good Friend

Not only for friends
Enthusiastic is for good friend
It is part of your life
But it is very much difficult to find

Friend is by your side
And it is ever more
It is makes your life happy
Never be bore

You may have lot of friends
But good friend is luck
To keep it carefully
It never makes your life dark

Raihan Chowdhury

Island

I was stayed in the island
Water, water surrounded all the side
Nothing without water
All the things seems to hide

Into the mid sea I saw a boat
Just to rolling as like dance
I could not control my mind
And that time not worked my sense

Mind blowing the scene
How beautiful the island is!
It kept touching my mind
I never forget this

Raihan Chowdhury

Love With Nature

I am trying to wake up
Through the window the sun slant
It is directly fall on my face
Then I feel not disturb but enjoy that

I hear a sound of anklet
You are walking I think
But when I come into the window
I see dead leaves are playing with wind

Beautiful, mind blowing scene
Attractive me ever more
Wind with sweet smelling flower touch my mind
I just feel I am in a shore

Nature is a friend
That you see in live picture
So you need to think again
Love with nature

Raihan Chowdhury

Mysterious

It is very difficult to sustain
All the things is going Nobody can predict the out come Because every things is just for showing

Mysterious is always with you
This keeps itself unseen
So it is not your duty
To find the original mean

Mysterious is focus in cogent
You can suss
You have opportunity
Simply to pass

Don't run to invent the mystery
It makes you curious
That time you can't forget it
And it makes you serious

Raihan Chowdhury

Nice Refuse

Refuse me, refuse me well in terms
Because I know it flower has germs

What I want that you not giving to me
For which I am not ready to feel and see

More my emotion more my feel
You never understand all these things till

After happening this
I do not mind
Because I do not want to prove me as a blind

You are pretty
You are cool
By this nice refuse
I do not know who becomes fool

Raihan Chowdhury

Rain

The sound of the rain I just hear
I can not stop myself so go there You are amazing to look at
I do not want to miss, so silently see that

Every dropp of rain you are touching Stand into the door I am enjoying Controlling yourself is not so easy to see the view
For this reason I get wet and dancing with you

Whole evening we are walking into the green field Because we want to make a relationship build
I do not know why you hold my hand tightly
I always give you priority and never take lightly

Raihan Chowdhury

Sweet Friend

I can not think anything without your share
I am very much fond of your care

Where you are that is not important to me Sweet friend is in my heart to whom I can see

Sweet friend is always in my mind
To whom it can be easy to find

Sweet friend should be always in my side
Who never do anything which can be hide

Sweet friend always feel happy and fun
Because they want to walk in long run

Raihan Chowdhury

Why You Come?

If you leave me, why you come?
Not tell me everything only tell some
I feel happy when you are by my side
Nothing do anything which should be hide

Without you I forget how to make fun
For this reason I am not interested to walk in long run
You make my life red, blue and green
So without you my life shows like clean

Want life with full of joy
But life is not so easy not a toy
You are my life, different color flavor
I want to remember it for ever

You are nothing but means of life core
Without you nothing can make me happy it become bore
Your are my love, you are my heart
You are nothing but important life part
