.....Flowers.....

she blossomed quickly her petals were rich in color they left me speechless taunting me with a nectar uncompered i felt thorns, and i could not let go tempted by infatuation passion arrived in spring like a cherry blossom withering in a breeze so was the moment i dared dream if i were the sunlight i know she would not resist one gentle kiss i am just a breeze passing by tomorrow my soul will fly hoping to find love before i die none quite so rare as the rose i left there memories to be as time that wasn't meant to be ticking away endlessly so i take one last look then drift into the loneliness inside of me

.....Breathe.....

THE WORLD IS A SPECK OF DUST DRIFTING THROUGH THOUGHTS OF HUMANITY IN A WIND CALLED SPACE BLOWN THROUGH THE NOSTRILS OF GOD EACH BREATH CREATES A UNIVERSE IT'S BEAUTY SO UNIMAGINABLE REALITY ITSELF IS HARD TO CONCEIVE IT'S INFINITE POWER HARD TO BELIEVE WHY?
GOD STILL BREATHES

.....As We

the lines of injustice blur twisted by racial slurs little innuendos that say i'm superior fade into the night
the memories of discrimination by a hate filled nation rekindle in the thoughts of children like those who died in South African jails lynched in southern magnolias tarred, and feathered or when OJ was found innocent then you saw the real color barrier how dare you let a black man off when for decades whites did it almost every day
don't hide the truth in rap songs, poetry, or inside don't let your color destroy your pride white children saying we know it was wrong hispanics saying we feel it too! !
we must all stand strong what does having a black president really mean? except a change in history one man can't stop a nations misery

through the sands of racism tunnel through the wall of injustice
we must unite

.....I Cry.....

INSIDE OF ME IS SO MUCH ANGER
SO MUCH PAIN
SO MUCH HURT
SO MANY LIES
I PRAY

RAS KDC

.....My Prayer.....

lord someone tonight is filled with pain & sorrow they can't see tomorrow lord their tears are falling pouring like rain like a storm unescapeable they feel like they are drowning reach out saviour pull them with your mighty hands towards your understanding love
a hug a kiss a dream to come true show them your blessings come through wipe the tears ease their fears open their ears so they can hear children laughing birds singing your praise feel the wind blowing show them you're all knowing that tomorrow will be a brighter day from the depths of your mercy to the strenght of your love bless them so tomorrow shines like a diamond glitters like gold let your eternal light shine this i pray for those who suffer undeniable pain Amen

.....A Peice Of U..... i want a piece of u lets get in2 something new no need in fronting boo this is what i want u 2 do hold me in your arms forever never ever weather the storm alone i'll make u moan passionate screams when it seems so unbearable ectasy so incredible your heart skips a beat as i caress u from your head 2 your feet damn u taste so sweet kiss me darling keep me hollering your name things will never be the same i'm so in2 u i keep a piece of u in my heart dreaming about every part that's a work of art tell me how much u love me boo while i'm so deep in u i'm feeling every piece of u tingle as we mingle in a sweet embrace u can tell by the look on my face no one will ever take your place boo this is so true i become a piece of u

oh! baby please don't tease i'm begging on my knees 4 another peice of u i'm so in love with u

.....Beautiful
Lies.....

yes i heard u those stories are quite well u know what i mean
i probably would have left so u used to do that you've changed how sweet so what are we going to do
so beautiful so tempting so u yes i remember when but i thought u didn't do that oh! u lied

.....Labels.....

whoever made words started all this confusion
there shouldn't be
hassle over day or night no divorces, or horses no names at all i bet we'd be loved by all now you say why?
without that word there would be no answers heard maybe there's too much intelligence, or common sense it might have made the fog so dense where nature belongs we'd get along listening to beautiful wordless songs

Nikki.....

After listening to nikki giovanni i felt like a failure hearing prison poems captured the inside of my tormented soul my heart became words
to stories untold the skin in which i live, and like seemed to blossom like a african violet growing to the sound of a scratched record repeating free at last, free at last

i became poetry like a butterfly from a seed like a river from a weed

i have love love 4 u nikki 4 u nikki

.....Ancient Visions

wandering down the Nile on memories long forgotten drifting rapidly through time
her beauty so rare
her eyes glowing with excitement I'm hypnotized by the length of her hair the grace with which she walks my ears tingle as she talks of visions I have never seen drifting far, and in between this paradise where I now stand this wonderful, magnificent ancient land slowly she grasps my hand so nervous am I that sweat pours from my brow my mind said take me I'm yours now she whispered relax, and dance with me listen to the romance of the galaxies this time is meant for you, and I I could hear Cupid's arrow fly it landed straight into my heart for her beauty was God's greatest work of art or so I thought then she kissed me oh so tenderly our lips embraced I prayed to the heavens above for such a love to be sent now all my sins I repent scared that I may lose something so precious worth more than jewels, or any material thing inside I could hear love start to sing we cuddled, and held each other tight as if this was the very last night yet it's here i'll remain smiling happily insane with ancient visions of love

.....Please.....

the morning came & went so fast i dare not ask if sunlight was a thing of the past she smiled at me i took it seriously as if romance was meant to be yet night did fall the darkness did rain loneliness creates pain a door opens & we begin again
    i dare ask instead i cried please

.....To Malik.....

sometimes i cry deep inside every minute away from u your growing up, and it seems i'm missing that too! my love 4 u cannot be described it can only be seen in the tears in my eyes the happiness i feel when i'm with u is the best joy of my life i look at u, and i'm amazed at the young man you've become i'm so proud of u in my heart it's u who keeps me forever young love daddy

.....A Small Tap.....

if i could tap into your soul what would i see?

sheer beauty

or something demonic & scary

how would you feel?

stimulated

i mean lets be for real

what would i hear?

a symphony of loneliness, or serenity the beauty of silence confusion at it's best or the sins we all confess

could i really smell?

the hours that tell little secrets that make you rebel in a world some call heaven, or hell

would i taste the same flavors that sends your heart messages captured in time memories dripping so divine

.....Eyes & Heart.....

i feel tired
like my eyes are burning my mouth is dry
wandering spirits distant voices
hidden images emotions lost souls i hear tomorrow creeping slowly
the breeze i relax i listen for hope
nothing
in fear
exhausted
lifeless don't ask me why?

.....If U Were
Mine.....

YOU'D BE MY TASTY TREAT

WE'D LAUGH AT THEIR PETTY JEALOUSY

KINGS, AND QUEENS WOULD BOW AT OUR FEET
WE WOULD ENJOY ENDLESS ECTASY EVERY INCH OF YOUR BODY MY SURPRISE EVERY MINUTE I LOOK IN YOUR EYES I YEARN TO KISS YOUR LIPS
PULL YOU SO CLOSE TO ME

I'D TREASURE THE GROUND YOU WALK ON
OH MY GOD! !

.....Secret

Desires.....

what i need from u
a meaningful embrace i need a little tongue slipped in every now & then
a passionate kiss from you a look that says i'm yours a freak behind closed doors a woman at all times to be sweet memories in my mind a smile when you see me that certain way you walk that sensous way you talk
cuddle, rub me gently massage the pain
love me hold me tell me im yours

.....Tainted Desires.....

this is the picture i painted desires so tainted ladies seduced me i did things my heart craved never realizing to sex i was a slave addicted to passion
burned hot like fire everytime i jumped in the flames grew higher i never could stop they would take every last drop

.....The Magic Never Dies.....

sprinkle dust golden, sparkling watch a heart appear a rosy red visions dance in my head like a ballerina on tiptoes tossed into her lovers waiting arms caressed by a everlasting charm only found in dreams picture colorful light beams shining down a magical shilouette on the ground of love come true imagine that love is you feel the warmth of amazing joy the touch of sensuality flowing like a tide of passion which pulls all feeling of ecstasy i want to drown inside of you awaken in a ocean of unbroken promises swim forever more to distant shores where i can be as lucky as you find love that is true never ever again feeling blue then disappear with you don't believe the lies the magic never dies

.....Autumn's Song

the chill refreshes as a new day is born the colors golden, and green so peaceful, and serene

voices rip a quiet now torn footsteps slide in a pattern
glances of wonder clear as a cardinal disappears just like a breeze

a cardinal sang this autumn morn
ignored by many cherished by me it's meomory forever more as flickers of red touch the sky i ponder the question why

.....Fears Of My Past.....

this loveless night i yearn to break the tormented soul let my passionate desires drip away as i watch my dreams run and play
a twisted tale of endless romantic agony alas my poor heart craves what it seems to be denied the very essence of love cries as the most intimate part of me dies the fears of my past multiply turn into moments of true loneliness surely you must know this

imagine how much joy you could feel ecstasy would bloom like a flower seduction would dance like a star
intimate moments would be colorful like a rainbow of sweet nothings flying into your ear, and out the other imagine how beautiful your lover treasured like a rare jewel shining ever so brightly tenderness does excite me
would we float on clouds dance with glee romance each other endlessly on a river of whipped cream, and chocolate strawberries would taste so sweet
we'd tiptoe through erotic moans, passionate screams smile as orgasmic emotions overflow like a flood as a river grows breaks levees of true romance no tears no lies no alibis
we would be washed away

.....Sensations.....

oh the joy
the sweet seconds of magical delight that turn into hours on end this night the blood rushing through the veins the urges we cannot explain the ultimate pleasure such heavenly pain to be endured over, and over again surely we cannot escape the passion the yearning the burning desire the hunger we have sets hearts on fire pounding away at a rapid beat each one so unique until the grand finaly where we are lost in each other
breathless tangled in love so blindly shh!
there's no need to remind me

.....Sweetness.....

i poured honey where i wanted began to lick every spot
i knew i had you when you hollered my name will we ever be the same? you were so sweet a treat we became one under the sheets
i removed your teddy that thong disappeared when the smoke cleared
exhausted, but wanting more
the look in your eyes spoke to my heart
such a radiant glow as a man i began to grow every minute every hour it was only you i wanted to devour your sweetness your love your touch consumed me i poured the honey never knew how delicious you could be how sweet love could be my tastebuds cry your name my lips wet with joy my heart yours forever more

.....This Morning..... i woke up, and said good morning god what a beautiful day this is birds singing with cheer making love on a ledge

but they kept on singing what a beautiful sound i shivered in the cool breeze relaxed, and prayed please a moment of silence then i sung the blues my baby dun left me
my baby is gone
oh my baby was so fine when she was mine all mine
my baby was sweet without her i don't feel complete the birds kept singing and i was proud because god gave the strenght to sing out loud
but i've got to find the strength to carry on

.....Pure Sensuality.....

Just as i was falling asleep the cellphone rings guess what
a late night booty call i dont have the strength at all to turn her down i'm gonna enjoy this love i've found
she's so sexy i wanna get it right make love to her all through the night i put wine on chill dim the lights for the feel light candles for whip appeal the doorbell rings anita baker sings she says baby thats my song one sweet kiss and its on one the sofa i unsnap her bra nibble on her neck now she's getting wet this will be a night i wont forget
i take off her skirt relax girl this wont hurt slow down she starts to beg but i'm deep between her legs she starts unwinding, and grinding she gets on top her eyes roll back but she wont stop until i start to shiver

sweat dripping everywhere as i run my fingers through her hair she collapses in my arms without a care we kiss and hold on tight we still have the rest of the night all hands go to work two rubbing two start to jerk this feels so good it can't be wrong

.....She Thought.....

she thought she could tell the type of person i was when she read my poetry she laughed, and giggled with me we talked, and we talked, and we talked so much i wondered what the hell was going on such amazing beauty, and sexy as could be kept me deep into her every word then she leaned over, and kissed me i asked what was that for?
just being you she replied now shut up! ! and kiss me some more she said of course tongues went for weeks tangled in passion bodies too!
she was everything i dreamed of finally i thought! !
true love then she thought jealousy erupted anger burst into flames my heart went down the drain so much pleasure turned into pain the sad thing is it wasn't true

.....The Miracle.....

i saw a vision it was so magnificent it made me cry i reached out to touch it its radiance drew me in i found myself lost in a trance like i was trapped in romance the touch was warm, and gentle i relaxed it's just that simple emotions vibrated inside of me captured inside sheer beauty the experience hard to explain like walking in the rain the little drops cause no pain i kissed her her lips were so soft her body perfection the ultimate connection we danced the night away as music serenades this memory
this miracle

.....The Phoenix.....

The flames get higher as tears fall from my eyes
steadily being pulled down by lies envy, hate, jealousy all things i despise they say one day from this i'll be wise right now i'm barely escaping life on the streets blessed to have food to eat it seems my will to survive is incomplete yet something burns deep inside blinded by my foolish pride while each day a part of me dies the flames getting higher
flying, striving to reach the top
it'll be my last stop so hotter, harder i burn thinking maybe now's my turn to be a part of life erase the pain and strife so i can enjoy my life finally free to fly free to sing free to spread my wings and fly the flames get higher, higher, and higher i supernova like a phoenix rising from the fire i inspire

.....The Question Of Love..... is it is or is it ain't my baby driving me crazy

that sweet looking lady over there with the cornrows in her hair
the one whose kissing me loving me hugging me thinking of me
dreaming, and scheming of sexy moments blessed with all the right components
with that pretty smile that lasts awhile just long enough for me to say

.....The Shining Light..... the light shines in the mind yet some are still blind to the ways of mankind it's sad to see wars, and poverty drugs in the community homeless on our city streets children with no food to eat this world treats them so unkind yet a light shines in the mind with a glimmer of hope like someone tossed a rope to save humanity, maybe just a family from suffering from hunger, and pain it seems the poor loses, and the rich gains as shots are heard, and blood stains grow at a rapid pace only god can save the human race a light shines in the mind as a prayer is heard about how life is so absurd songs like we shall overcome motivate people where i come from yet the battle continues staring through windows with no money to see the menu

still god's light shines through in the minds of many is there hope – plenty

about our world make it shake underground with shivering trees bending knees deafening cries psychadelic eyes cannibals, and vegetarians catholics, and rastafarians mixed up like a stew you better know what to do it will spill all over you making such a mess

hear a melody singing it's way into your heart feel the vibrations of past kisses as your feet obey strange wishes watch as your hands start to move, and lose control as if the music possesses your soul
not a chance to forget yes dance with me as i hold you so gently smile the night away who cares what those people say
dance dance with me, my dear lets get lost in a dream come true together forever with you
far above the crowds your lips your hips feel devine at last my love you're mine

.....Some Say.....

some say u can feel a vibe when love is in the air it leaps out at you grabs you, and all is fair there is a certain magic that arises full of surprises like you
there's a beat uncontrollable rapidly pounding away some say it generates urges the type that put you to sleep where little erotic thoughts creep until a touch, a word, a kiss sends you to places never imagined in your wildest dreams and so it seems some say loves is meant to be precious little miracles that capture you & me forming a bond of unity serenity for eternity linked together romantically

.....Bloody Mary..... how much blood

intoxicated by hate impoverished by war

over, and over
as the waves of innocent lives crushed the shores while their leaders plotted how much the rivers would drink teaching millions how to think marching, singing patriots of equal stupidity hero's by day idiots by night fighting some war they thought was right

out of broken glasses, or silver chalices mixed with tonic water, or ginger ale oh what stories the soldiers do tell
of wars commercialized of generations analyzed

how many can walk a straight line?

.....If I.....

If i never know
if words could caress i surely wouldn't settle for less
kissing your sweet lips
if i die crying
let it be because i was so happy to be in love with you knowing finally love was true my smiles became endless oh my love there is no way to end this than to make love to you
let me awaken in heaven kissing you then my dreams will come true

.....My Love Is.....

not what you expect as a matter of fact i'm definitely a reject there may be some rules i don't accept romance a dance of chance just a short glance a peep at intimacy yet maybe down the road you wont remember me
when i prayed for us to be more than the game you played with me
tomorrow wrapped up in yesterday trying to escape and run away from the pain and misery of today
confused, used, abused sometimes i have a short fuse thank god it was anger management i choosed while walking the road of infatuation running into so many imitations of life's past mistakes girl just give me a break for goodness sake
what you always wanted

but always denied sometimes it even hurts to say i tried
the lies the useless cries the sad goodbyes the alibi's after all is said and done these words remain true
you

.....A Sweet Remembrance.....

I think i hear the beauty of life calling me as I look for my love which drifts in the wind while the sanctity of romance is treasured how sacred is the time spent between lovers?
the holding of hands a walk in the sands of time bodies tangle, and then slowly unwind how many take for granted the simplicity of it all?
will suddenly disappear
missing a simple whisper
for a love that will replace romantic visions of yesterday forgotten in your masquerade that left you empty, yet filled with loneliness is the reality that love is not a game chances are life will never be the same

.....Gangster Gospel.....

this is the first gangster gospel rap scarier than micheal jackson's thriller nothing can be more real sir! i told the preacher from the depths of hell came strange creatures all with gross satanic demonic features each, and everyone up to no good posessing brothers, and sisters in the hood so scary is this story i'm about to tell satan ran straight back to hell the priest said calm down all is well but father i said it's not! ! !
we need holy water, garlic, the cross, alot he started laughing i started running a demon snatched off his head that's what he gets for frontin i kept running then slowed down i see demons all around one on the corner selling crack
up pops a fine skeezer thank god i'm a believer satan comes in many ways to decieve ya! ! here comes one disguised as a friend trying to get me to walk the path of sin
lord i got to keep on moving so i'm running

guns showing creating instant insanity the type of junk young kids admire i grab them, and tell them you can get higher with the messiah that's the true dope
our motto no evil can harm thee through the depths of hell we march
there's a ship bound for heaven
the battle is fierce so god sends guardian angels we attack demons from all types of angles but soon as we kill them they multiply
armagedeon in full effect revelations told you what to expect so now we walk through the valley of death there's only a few of us left
here they come eyes glowing the fear in our hearts showing i yell heaven is better than this the battle is rough soon we'll cease to exist lord i never thought it would end like this all of a sudden our dead become angels
demons scatter running with all their might but to no avail
i guess that's why satan ran straight to hell that's my story and i'm sticking to it dont let those demons around confuse this

.....Global Socialization.....

thriving on a superiority egotrip
adding chemical, and biological disasters
placed in the hands of lunatics trapped inside their own intelligence our doom is sealed by the laws of nature revealed in polluted rivers diseased bodies disappearing species food grown in human feces
homeless growing by the millions a army of hungry children just mad enough to create a society where your laws don't apply to me
racism no longer the big issue believe it or not it's just you what are you going to do when the whole world comes after you
the world is steadily collapsing wall street just one more scenario of the media pumping insanity in stereo

stay tuned for the next episode created by god, or the human mind

.....A Treasured Rose.....

you are like a rose so beautiful when you blossom
yet if i try to pick you i will prick my finger so much love will pour out
until you rise like a phenoix
still delicate still beautiful still radiant with a glow of love like a angel from above
flying inside my heart a magical work of art seductive passionate gentle

.....Her Secret Desires..... she wanted more than i could offer her hunger

this seductive wench
way above the norm
of her erotic little feast there was no way to tame the beast with every movement i was tortured like a slave taught how to act how to behave
always taking always giving how much more of this could i take my goodness i'm about to break then she stops what a cruel torture am i being raped by satan's daughter? just as i seem to relax that's when she starts right back now i scream, and i beg my manhood dripping down my legs
so hollow
says she'll be back tomorrow

.....Tongue Kissed Sweet Black Treat.....

she is a sweet black treat like chocolate melting in your mouth her bittersweet appearance
knees weaken, shiver
to other delicatisies she is such a sweet black treat it cannot be left in a wrapper it must be held gently
to remember for all time she could be called a tongue kissed sweet black treat it's like u can't imagine anybody so precious eyes so adorable lips so sweet

life seems as if it will never be the same dancing becomes a joy u hold hands the sunlight smiles at u the moonlight invites passion cuddling becomes special laughter everywhere childish little games romantic treasured moments walks in the rain
wishes we hope time doesn't erase when love is sweet

.....The Death Of A Fool.....

My dear
my love
i smile when the jealousy of others comes to mind alas once again fate intervened someone else came between the precious sand in the hourglass stopped to the floor my heart dropped
was shattered into a useless soul
To be loveless and lonely
was for you only twas the moment i feared
has been trampled upon like dirt
My heart crushed like grapes into wine your betrayal the ultimate crime
has died.

.....Would Of, Could Of, Should Of

she said she would of, could of, should of
soon things became heated the games were constantly repeated she thought the dog gave her everything she needed but he was selfish, and conceited soon red tears her eyes bled

she was in love dreaming of what foolish love is made of fairytales, and puppy tails all lined up in a row
he was playing her like a ho

now she begins to regret endlessly tries to forget she despises the look in his eyes she hates his useless lies all the nights she cried she said she would leave him but she lied

she was trapped in her own decisions locked in a lover's prison

but she did up and had a kid thought dad would put in his bid marry her treasure her love her believe it or not he tried but steady continued to lie giving alibi, after alibi
she said she had enough of it tried to handle it on her own she grew to be a queen on her throne

and she did everyday i look in the mirror at that kid

.....The Fountain Of Youth.....

imagine love when it was love when little angels with arrows
the innocence we now fail to see
at the slightest touch
tender kisses of infatuation never thought about anything else dancing around in each others eyes adorable goodbyes which meant absolutely nothing walks in the park after dark romantic rendezvous we were young we had no clues how love could confuse
dreams of being husband, and wife turned into lust filled sex we never cared what was to come next we never knew what to expect
you'll have to find the fountain of youth

.....Kissing In The Middle Of Nothing.....

what the hell i'm talking about when i say
it's like a sweet little peck on the cheek a slip of the tongue that makes u weak
when u would never expect it bam! ! ! wham! ! ! thank u mam! ! !
like a walk in the rain
that drives u insane
the one that causes a lingering embrace
the beauty of bodies pressed together moments so steamy
the tongue has a mind of it's own all of a sudden it begins to roam passionate sounds like screams, or moans fill the room as your body i consume on my lips i taste perfume yes that's not all

The Teaching

THE TEACHING Author: KEITH R. WILLIAMS

but have no knowledge in their head yes sir that's what i said they might as well be the living dead walking around like zombies searching for a miracle it's hysterical, i mean incredible how individuals get caught up in subliminals
people too dumb to make their own decisions usually end up in prison, or worst no one curse what god has blessed no one bless what god has cursed i wish i knew the bible verse by verse so i could teach you preach to you take your hand
but it's not that easy believe me

tell me why we can't solve them we claim to be so superior yet everyday we seem so inferior to the ways of the lord i'm showing the pen is mightier than the sword

but you're not ready to be on board i hear your alibi's, lies, and deception everyday you throw away your blessings respect you don't have it
constantly picking up bad habits tricks are for kids silly rabbit damn it

some let these problems into their bed so they can't rest no way to progress some say education is the key they've been saying that for centuries if i only knew the answer to this madness that spreads like cancer
becoming more, and more reality millions or should i say billions multiplying rapidly is there a way to save humanity? our leaders start wars our preachers sleep with whores our friends betray us
as if were insane like their the only ones with brains is there any solution to this enormous mental pollution? we'll just have to wait and see! after all i went to college i don't even know if it helped me! ! !
