Art Of Letting Go

And so now I'll sing you a song of farewell
This feet are entangled, waiting for the bell Took the challenge to read this stolid being
But I'm left in this horizon yearning

Was there with thousands of questions unanswered
Made a move, unaware I myself floundered
The girl once determined to know the deepest side of you Fought but failed, searched everywhere but haven't got a clue

Looked back the junction, feeling's empty for both you and I
Two souls invincible, you changed the latter but made her cry Cry of a love prematurely awakened a heart once was hard amazingly softened

Teary-eyed letting go of someone who's never mine
Who dappled my life, introduced the word 'fine'
Time to go, appreciate your deep silent loving Raise it up to the mighty One, I'll just wait here reminiscing

Don'T Be Afraid

Don't be afraid of anything coz I'm here
You can hold my hands if you're scared
Don't be even if you're at the edge of the ray
For I'll give you light enough to brighten your darkest day

Scary so it seems where we are right now
I feel you, could read you, just be strong though Just ride this trip I'm in control of Let's get high, no lies, no cries

Don't be afraid, be true, it shows in your eyes
Let go of the rope, believe and don't ask why Can't promise you nor give you anything for we're unripe
But don't wanna lose this worthy fight

I know nothing's certain, but i know this is special Motions are working for itself for you and me
Both of us understands the reason why we should stand
In the long run everything will be worth it
So just please... DON'T BE AFRAID..

Endless

Emptiness filling me out in the darkness
Found in the nothingness of the spaces
Battling inside to break free from bondage
Reaching out for your hand not breakage

Fill me with your love everlasting
Find me in the fullness of the heavens
Victory is mine to possess
In my hand the sweetness of success

My Lord, love incomparable i have with you
Your grace fills every part of me
Caress my longingness to devour
Make visible to me the endlessness of forever

Your mystery is mine to uncover
Lasting friendship, love and affection
The power that's pulling me closer
Is my grateful heart's desire

F.R.I.E.N.D.S.

Friendship, the most sang song ever written
Most fulfilled promise ever been done
With friends secrets are not made to be hidden Discerning each other's what makes them one

Got the ugliest flaw tattooed in my life
Have the poorest humor developed in strife
But why does a friend easily forsakes?
Yes, forsakes the deepest pitfall none could ever break

Everything could be summarized just to YOU
Thanks for listening to the dumbest story in history
For crying and laughing with me till the darkness fades
And for rising up with me with new hope to invade

Relationship far deeper than anything else
Two spirits, one belief, zero % falling apart
Our hair could grow white, our love will never grow old Bones could grow brittle, still we'll be together
... through it all...

Lost In My Own Home

Here i go again walking round and round left the place but caught myself on the same ground just turned about your face yesterday turned on the rock in me but drowned to my oceans and say how can i keep myself from you wrapped with scars from wars you thought have never existed walked myself back home that just led me back to where you rested digging myself to the core to find a piece of me found myself broken with a piece missing with waters dropping on the ground, please give it back to me tried searching for that lost part when i looked looked around seeing you all around here when i see not just a part but all was what you captured and now im lost in you but you dont even know im there you dont know coz you dont even care if you dont then should i also be when you're my home?
if you're my home then where else should i go?

Natural

He's like the sweetest honey on your tongue
His words like the most precious promise ever been done Spend a little a little time with him and you'll see You'll fall without even knowing you'd be

Moments penetrating my defenses
Conversations unlocking my deepest darkest secrets
If you're sad he can definitely make you laugh
You'll surely realize his being is really tough

Actions a lover does is his natural being His life like a movie of love in the making
But this guy loves all the roses
And just pick the one that satisfies his senses

Normally you'll just do this if you feel that
But for him just don't hope because no it's not You'll just be disappointed if you'll think that he's in love with you Because the things he does that made you fall is just part of his natural being and not because he feels something special for you...

Play Pretend

Sometimes it's so hard just to look you in the eye
For you might see through me filled by you
At times being with you seemed to be very distant Separated by the space I set to be safe from me

Was caught keeping your picture with me
Your eyes searched without a single word
Flipped through the pages I wrote for you Found a mark, noticed I know who

Let's play pretend we know nothing
Communicating in such an uneasy way
Denying to ourselves the truth beyond lies Mysterious emotions heating out deep inside

Guided, the clock's still silently ticking Compatibility test still slowly completing ONE soul dwelling in two bodies have part Anticipated union made to be known from God's art...

Secret Love

I'm feeling something but wasn't spoken
I'm assuming a fire but nothing's burning
Hearing sweet words that's nonsense
Trembling for every words without an essence

How could i just let it be Letting you get through my defenses
Thinking there could possibly be something Lying behind each and every gazes

Everytime we talk it seems everlasting
Wishing time would stop ticking
Heartbeat's racing with every thought
Melting myself to sweat with each puffing word

Oh God how could i feel this so early How could i be so happy when he's with me
Lord if this feeling is not honoring your name
Please let it stop as you stop the rain

But if this is what you plan for the future
Please help me wait for your perfect time
Perfectly crafted to be used by you Oh Lord
Is my heart's desire more than making him mine

Richelle Caliwan

Silent Breaker

Teary-eyed I'm wandering within your presence
Before I'm found in you, now I'm lost in all sense Sharp words puffing out you never realize
Heart was broken, fixed and again with just a roll of a dice

Insensitivity wrapped all around you Disappointment eating me up and I'm blue
Inconsistent soul moving within each other's world
Uncertainty, noone's even daring to be bold

Love-strucked for a couple of moment I was Destroyed, the feeling's slowly fading and will pass Tomorrow's unpredictable will it still be the same?
I'm messing up, I'm crying out, beautiful Lord I'm in pain

The Moon's Sun

So long have the moon waited for the sun

Here it rose romantically at dawn

Shortly they shared each other's company

And wave bye at each other eye to eye

Sometimes, covered by the clouds you won't see the moonlight

At times rain tries to hinder the sunlight

It's just so fairly hard

But God knows one should give up the card

Oh how I love the sun shinning upon me

It's feel, caress, and touch heating me up radiantly

But like how the moon got used to her sun's goodbye

I will as well as the Almighty sings me a lullaby...

The Notebook

Significant someone without acknowledgment
Everyday your pages call me to write Tender silence can be so open w/ letters I make the most out of the night

I open yours, slowly u make me open mine
Boldness is real and is sealed
Thoughts unfolding just w/ hand's motion
Reveal everything that shouldn't be spoken

Decipher the entries made to release uncertainty
Cry the tears of emotion hidden behind
Unfathomable joy trapped to come out in the open Deciphering u should read between the lines

Closing, covering this horizon's mile
Verity turning vanity if changed in time
My notebook don't perish just stay w/ me
Be still, hold on, don't be afraid
I know someday change will cease to be known
I know someday change will cease to be known

This Dance

My soul is dancing in unpredictable motions

Graceful feet moving in to my emotion

Feels like a flower blooming in spring

When your hand touches mine and now together we swing

Now you're taking the lead in the ball of our lives with feet pointed and hands in the air im making the most out of my life expressions you show are heavy yet simple dancing in your melody now we can never get it too gracious nor to slow from time to time they get your eyes off of me the floor gets gloomy when you sometimes intentionally leave me but in time and again you come back and in time again we dance the dance that noone can ever fulfil but just the two of us

Those Rainy Days

Pale blood running through my veins

Clothe me with coldness in the falling rain

Each dropp falls like spring tears

Trying to hold it back before reaching the ground and unfold all my fears

Though I'm with you still it constantly ppurs

Struggling for survival though the cloud is yours

Reminiscing the sweet rainy days

God help me forget hugs and kisses' taste

I hate how much i love the rain

Though it's hurting me, with open arms I embrace the pain

Yes, he's aware that he's soaking me wet

He's got all of me, drained and dried... there's nothing left

Richelle Caliwan

Turning Point

My hands are shaking
My tears are flowing
When my loneliness starts to appear
The air you breathe whispers in my ear

My mind is bursting
My wounds were crying
Your healing touch eases the pain
Bitterness and grief cease to remain

I looked for somebody but there's none
One day you came and my life changed
I usually bump the edge so painful
My turning point became you
Now all I think that's impossible is living without you..

Richelle Caliwan

Unblinded

Places I've been to are paradise with fading fragrance
Memories that was once treasured
Lost its value once measured
People I've known was so called friend without an essence Reminiscing all of those that was adored
Realizing all of it was unworthy allured

Love that's within me now undoubtingly uncomparable
Feels like heaven, tastes like vices, visions like ambitions
Sun rises, sun sets, change doesn't exist
Constant lifts, consistent spirit ages will never forget

Songs of the music I could hear joyful sound
Breathe of thy soul moving me harmoniously
Whisper it to me like a flute blown in sweet melody Endlessness I beg you, coz within these arms I'm found

Tomorrow's mysteriously unpredictable
Like emotions invisibly intangible
What's unknown will soon be revealed
Stay with me as we unfold what was yield

Richelle Caliwan

Uncommitted

I'm soaked in your stare
Irresistible talk, can't get up the chair
We're holding hands just in my mind
In the coldness of the air I feel you're embrace

Time runs so fast, I hate it
Just love being with you
So let's not end this breathtaking moment
I'm learning there's something special
Do you feel it too?

Can't lie but i can't hide
Just need to remain unspoken
Your actions are audible to my heart
Interpretation needs confirmation

Having a hard time handling this alone
Can you feel the rain dropp during my dawn?
This uncommitted love breaks me to pieces
Whole again not until I meet your bold spirit...
What should i do then?
Tell me... Is there any US?

Time will reveal things we're uncertain of
Be steadfast, hold on, just taste honey and chili on This will be challenging would you stay with me?
Anything can change, no assurance, should i be sorry?
Or could this be the beginning of a never ending story?

Walking, Wanting, Trying...

I saw a connection on a mirror, sick and broken....

My sight fell on the ground,

And I see no colors, no pictures but an image of a man, carrying all emotions with sins, a fault that He never did.....

No air, can't breathe

He struggles so many times...

It's a classic, no jokes...

empty handed, but have a real confession behind that scenery, I cried so hard,

I sat on the floor, flashed back

"Do you love me? ! Son....., do you know me? ? "

I honor you as my Father.. I owe you..

Sorry, I have so many faults, sinful desires,

I used names as my tool, ...wanting so much

I seek you, I will do it, .. help me..

You are changing me, You will change me...

I need Your touch, I want to reach Your voice

I will lay with You...

I will dream with Your presence...

I will sleep, hearing Your whispers...
