Sabelo Khumalo(23 SEPTEMBER 1996)

i'm an up coming poet, who writes based on inspiration.

Dear

Dear darling.

I still I love you and I still care.

You're still a part of this little heart of mine,
although you don't seem to notice.

You seem to think that I resent you, when I really don't.

From today on-wards I have to move on with my life.

I'm not rejecting you, but I'm simply distancing myself further away from you.

The reason I'm doing this is because of the decisions you've made in life, of which I don't like most of them.

I'm doing this because I want better and I can't get that with you around.

Not having you around is good, but just having you deep down in my heart is even better

Dear old me, thank you for being the foundation of the new me.

Every Time

Every time i see you my heart doesn't skip a beat, it just pumps harder.
Every time i look at you, it's safe to say that you have an inviting eye.

Every time i see you, it always occurs in my mind that your heart is soft like albumen.

Every time you talk to me, just the softness of your voice makes me smile.

Every time i look at your lips, i just imagine them to be as tasty as yolk in a half cooked egg.

Every time i look at you, it just brings joy to me that you still exist, even though it doesn't show.

I Hate You

I hate you
As she said bluntly.
I hate you
As she gazed at me with a bad eye.
I hate you
As she slapped me in the face.

I hate you
As she cried with anger oozing through her eyes.
I hate you
As she came very close to me and looked at me sadly.
I hate you
As she went down on her knees crying.

I hate you
As she kept saying while pointing at me.
I hate you
As I wounded unknowingly.
I hate you
As I asked why.

I hate you
As I started crying.
I hate you
'You cheating cow' as she said with a grind in her teeth.
'But I love you' as I said softly.

I hate you
As she stood up and pulled me close to her chest.
'I love you'
As I started kissing her like never before.
I...

I'M Sorry

I'm sorry for loving you.

I'm sorry i fell for you.

I'm sorry i even approached you.

I'm sorry i even got my self thinking i had a chance.

I'm sorry for wasting your time.

I'm sorry for distracting you from thinking about important things, because i'm not a part of those...

Rejection

I was focused in school
It lead me astray
I thought about it all the time.
I had no real idea
So, I asked myself why.

I did everything right
So, I asked why?
I didn't believe the answer
So, I kept trying.
I have faith in God
So, I kept praying.

I'd love a chance with you miss
so, I kept saying.
Me and you together
As i kept dreaming.
I thought I was distinctive
As I was thinking

Rejection four times, that was no dream

You

You're so beautiful that i can compare you to nature.
You're so beautiful like the sun rising in a winter season.

I sometimes imagen my self taking a stroll with you under autumn trees in a winter morninig.
You are my stress reliever, every time i look at you, all my worries vanish.

If i had to spend the whole day looking at you, i would, but i can't make a promise to keep my hands off you.

Your eye brows and your smile make me contemplate.
