Difficulties

Accepting life without difficulties; is a frog in the well
A person is himself a great well; come out to read and face the life
Try to face every impossibility; is must to face the difficulty

Free mind free of doubt; strong heart difficulties then nothing
Life is long, joys are less; enjoy guys without fear But win difficulty; wins life, happy life; happy you are Love the life of difficulties; accept life as the challenge

Hope

Hope is the walking dream; hope is the name of life

hope is half success

Hope can do everything, if the courage is in the heart

Hopeless makes hopple in the legs as well as manacles in us like a slave under someone

Hope is the truth as result, hope can do everything if the courage is in the heart

Hope by hope everyone wants take up steps to become better, accept life as the challenge

Importance And Will

Will is our dream; importance is our duty Importance destroys our will; will develops our importance Importance and will; two things of our day and night

Where is an importance; kill the will and awake
To do some better and nice, make the life without fear
Go on, go on..., on your way; when importance is in right and will left

Life Is Full Of Knowledge

A knowledge is an integer, starts with life ends with life
A life is itself a knowledge, from which we catch... we wants...
Hope courage defeat at all..., taste bitterness are meanings of life joy and sorrow are parts of life... Like ink with paper Life is full of knowledge, a man gets aim in but never fails

Lovely Personality

So simple, innocent nice what u r,

I Like u, y..., i dont know.

U r the cute like no other suit, in my sheep-s-eye deep heart.

U r the unique in which u r, like the gem in all black stones.

Melrose talk mellow tongue and magical voice,

ends the miff of my anguish
heart.

Ur smile all the time, keeps me alive in all the way.

U r the angel from hearts of heaven,

angel of my life throb of my heart.

Ur smile and scent in all time, makes me attune in every time.

Loveliness increases in my heart for u,

as i think deep about u.

Make me a part of ur thought, in ur dream of affection. U r the communion of my thought,

but no core is in my life for u.

My Cool Shade

I once was wandering; hither and thither Searching something; here and there Undirected unwillingly insatiate unconsciously Finding something curiously
Smell of that diffuses in me;
... was confident might be near to me Incomplete i thought i am;
I was but not i am Sweet smell of admiration
surrounds me;
Nodding me to find her out
Suddenly and finally, luck favours me; Fortunate i was, to trace her out Gorgeous magnetized mesmerising...
... belle was she in front of me;
Ecstasy of her love i feel; Angel was she or my imperfectioness Benign candid she was;
Endeared me, as what she is or did Really best pal of my part; Ever i seen, what i sort She holds my hand and pulled me up;
She was no one but my 'COOL
SHADE'

Steps Of Love

First step of love;
... May be the last step of life,
Commune with one's self, realizes the truth

It is the dray of two ways...,
One way of God's ace,
... Another is life of love.
But the ways are always same.

Love is life, love the life,
Make it sure that you are pure
That will glister as what you do

Bonafide love never dies even you want deaden it,
It will remain at all time in your heart
With sweet feelings of anguish heart.

There are various ways in your mind,
Select the one and run on that way
Take a decision with your heart not mind

It will remind you at every time
When you suffer from any crime
It is your choice what do you want First think and go on...,

The Girl I Like

A girl with a shiny dress; calls me and my heart press
I surprise, i want to know; went nearer to..., with a blow
I impress with her gown; i wish to paint her on the heart down Nice her talk, nice her voice; if you are nice she is more than you So gorgeous, so elegant she is; i can't express what she is!
I want to cast a net, but fails to catch her because of threat

The Unforgettable Gal

How can I forget how I think; to separate love from the heart
In every movement in every time; is in my view all time hermetically Never she disappear, even I sleep; in closing and opening of my eyes as well

Her voice gentle and sweet, makes noise at all time
Nice her voice, magical tune; I remember her all time as the sun shine
So how can I forget, how I think; to separate light from my life
Who is she? nobody, knows unless GOD, perhaps me

Those days never I forget; in my life or in my mind
How can I forget how I think; to separate life from the heart
