Love Walking

She who strives for the rest before her is she who is called a Woman.

Poetrising her through words would demean her level of greatness.
A Woman is greater than words spoken and written.
A Woman is greater than a picture painted and imagined.

A Woman may think
he is hurting her
but yet he is half what a Woman is FACT!

Not looking in the fact that she is a WoMAN
A woman acquires within her far more greatness than we can ever feel.

A woman is a man with emotions expressed.
That makes woman the greatest leaving being breathing.

If love could walk
it would walk as a WOMAN.

Happy WoMaN'S day.

Past Present Future

It was a school afternoon.
Traped in and within my deeds.
Which was meant to be off inadequate doings.
But yet brought forth extreme gladness to one's life,
which later turnd to pain and hopeless undertaking.

Only now do one for see
years past.
The past is within me in the presnt.
Althoug one thought at such a young age,
one couldn't feel so strongly about thi.
Its now over years one brought past thoughts to present to face them.
Although fear of bing misunderstood stands inbetween.
But yet agen its not off them to deside...
Is then failer of not acomplishing it the reson for dealy...?
For one should step down to the ground and kneel befor thi,
to be clean and stright,
with matters of the past to the presnt,
which i aquire within me that well make whats coming more gracefull...

Because the future is surrounded by a dark cloud which is overcasted by the past.
Present can only make the future clear and lit.
For when the past is faced in the present only then can the future make reality better dreams...!

With that in mind
only in peace shall she lay or rather flow around when past is brought forth to make the future with meaning.
He who rules us have grace her with intenal life.
I can only promise in Promises grave to leave forth by word...

The Man In Her

They say God is a He.

Why is It not a She?

Is it only One male which is the ONE who is above us the ruler of all.

Then Woman are brought to this earth to be superior among us, because they can handle the power of greatness that were given by He who is the only One greater than them God?

I believe that they are man outside and woman inside.

They are strong both mentally and physically.

By physical they put their body through hell and back but yet still manage to find it as Haven on earth.

Greater is a Woman carrying a living creation for nine months.

Yet some men don't even know how to be there for a day for their own 'child'

Yet mentally they can transform a house to a home.

It's easy fighting a battle physically
but is what they do seen possible to men?
Because they bring new meaning to fighting,
through words of wisdom
with no death as a result.

I ask with no acquired answer,
is the word man greater than Woman?

Before you think of giving an answer.

Look within you and tell me if you can be emotionally strong as her for him...

Only She who walks the paths of earth with greater the mind body and soul can be called a Woman.

The Man within Her...

Is greather than a man around her!

Happy WoMaN's day

Within Unkown Bounds...

What does ONE say...

Is it a lie that grace ONE's path of walking among the past...?

Only by age of the past did ONE understand why so much emotions clouded ONE at that time and age.

But yet again, ONE has aged but still the feeling dwells within ONE.

If so...

Why is it that it still leaves strongly within ONE's skin, after so many years and emotions past?

ONE still ask, was it not of early age to assume such emotional bound...?

For years thoughts of that where of unsureness of age.

Yet a Question still lies in ONE's brain,

if ONE falsified such statement

why is it that they still run through ONE's veins to feed every body part with such endure...

Is it because THI was climbed before time in ONE's state of mind?

or rather is it because THI past to a greater life than life its self, internal life...?

That ONE grace THI more than THI walked along side ONE...

How else can this predicament be obtained?

With one knee to the Holy ground and head bowed before THI and under He who is above ONE, and by side to THI

as a sign of respect.

Only He who stands above all can lit the way to understand

WITHIN UNKNOWN BOUNDS...

For ONE to acquire what ONE 'know' but is contradicted by how ONE 'feels'...

Then ONE ask again, is it

Within Unkown Bounds...?
