Beloved Brother

The first born of the family Brought happiness and prosperity Even his name represents that "Aklil" means "crown" in Tigrinya He paid his life with no doubt Stood for his people for his home land Such a good brother and son
So young and a sweet one Too unfair to be gone

How can I forget his smiley face So cute and decent our family's grace Life has been too mean to you Beloved brother I miss you

While I'm obsess through sadness Realize if it weren't you and the others Paid life and brought this peace
We wouldn't live and blithe Not even be able to breath Beloved brother, we all are proud of you Even though we crazily missing you

The short good times we shared Is what I deeply engraved And I always miss that "Aklilu" your memory is in my heart

Never thought life could be that short You deserve to live and it really hurt
My beloved "Aklil" this poem is for you I wanted the whole world to know you I love you and I really miss you!!!

N.B I wrote this poem for my brother who martyrs at the war between Eritrea and Ethiopia On May 17 2000 at the age of 24 in a specific place named Adirakba

thank you for reading it

Doesn'T Mean I Cant Live Without You! ! ! !

yes I said, I completely love you and I said, I totally need you and if that's what encouraged you to leave me on the reason I never knew all I can say is boy shame on you I truly and totally love you
doesn't mean I can't live with out you!

last thing it could ever take me is just tears for a few mints hours and may be for days but fortunately I didn't have even pieces yes said, you're my safest shelter under God and I said, my heart stuck on you just like foot in a mud and if that's what all encouraged you so bad to leave me on the reason that I don't understand

all I can say is boy shame on you I love you and I'm stuck on you
doesn't mean I can't live with out you!

and to tell you what happened when you gone I hardly advised my heart to be strong as Iron so I didn't dropp a tear the whole night long cos I thinked loving you wasn't wrong but your decissions where totally wrong also I don't care what you did to me now with you I spent unforgottable times somehow which I can never forget and regret always be proud of and respect

I'm still saying I ll remember you but it doesn't mean I can't live with out you however I'm unhappy with what you do! ! ! !

God Is My Home! ! ! !

When I'm with my tears
When I can't escape from my fears I come to you lord
And never loose a grip of hold

When the world feels so scary
When I see me with no futurity I relay on you immediately And God you always comfort me

While I can't endure my depression Still when ever I stuck in deep melancholation Your wisdom words are my inspiration God you are my only home
The safest place above anything at all

It's Chirstmas Time

look at the anticipation everyone is on aspiration for the big holiday celebration houses shone through docoration see everything is so scintillation

It's christmas has time!

friends closer families gather

all get altogether

It's christmas has time

get the bells ding on let's sing x-mas song candy & chocolate bring it on bless the day through it all marry x-mas every body! ! !

Pertinacious Lover! ! ! !

Just like an angle from the sky You're there for me every time that I cry
No one is like you such a perfect guy Treating you right is what I hardly try

What you mean to me can never explain First you setted me free from all the pain Then you thought me how things to sustain You're perfect and pertinacious swain
All the reason I'm here once again

Every since I get close to you Happiness is what I get through You made my entire dream come true Baby I'm so lucky that I got you You're such a pertinacious beau

Every best thing in me you created Every time you got me motivated
The bad side of me escaped
And I become so ameliorated
In the way no one evaluated You're so pertinacious and good

My love over you is at all cost My will is for you to comfort my word is so real never hesitate You're a pertinacious and I appreciate

Just like water for a throat You're my first need all that I want You found me every time that I lost No days that I forgot you in my collect You're engraved deep in my heart
Such a pertinacious stalwart! ! ! ! ! ! !

Sweet And Crazy! ! ! !

First I loved you just the way you re and now I asked your past to know you more not to hurt you so but you misunderstand that my question upset you alot and I domnt want to let you go cos of that baby dont do to me what I scare loosing you is my night mare If you dont want to talk I dontcare lets leave it and live with the feature so please get in close the door Its crazy forgive my thought Its you all that I need you re right come and hold me tight honey and dont ever try to go away from me belive my love over you is sweet and crazy

Weak Sunday Prayer! ! !

I'm so bad and clueless and everything I reach is worthless I'm feeling nothing but all emptiness means I'm useless and hopeless oh lord! take on me one glimpse the pain in me seems to be endless get me out of this terrible darkness please look at me with the eye of forgiveness oh lord, don't know where to head too lead me and show me something true all I can do is nothing but believe in you once and forever I'm leaning on you oh lord, pick me up, grip me stronger give me strength be my power make the depress in me over please listen, I'm a weak Sunday prayer! ! ! !
