Afraid

Sometimes we are afraid to face the mistakes we made in life
We are afraid to make a difference between good and bad

We are not equal
We are not we
We are not who we say we are

In everybody hides a demon
A demon we try to suppress
A thing we fight until the end of time

But we are afraid to give into our heart
The thing that lies deeply hidden
The secret of our heart
A secret that is trying to surface

A secret that has shredded so much blood
Created so much pain
A pain that would drive you insane

That every time it tries to surface
We once push it down
With an inhuman force

So that the secret that is hidden
Remains hidden
For another thousand maybe two thousand years

Angel

There she stood in front of me
Surrounded by white light

She came on her own free will
I have not seen her in ages

Only in my dreams
I believed she was not for real

But now
I am not so sure anymore

She opened a door
It was locked for me

But she made me see
The door did not need a key

I could open it anytime
By just listening to my heart
Believing in myself

Angel, o angel
From the heaven above

You made me see
I can be anybody who I want to be

Serenity Fay

Emotions

Emotions
are getting the best of

Things that I did not see
Seem to come after me

Certain feelings that I tried to hide
Come to the surface, to hurt my pride

I am afraid to loose the one I love
And every happy moment of our being together
This cannot go on forever

I have to draw a line
This life I am living, it is mine

Serenity Fay

Fear

Fear is a feeling
That we cannot control

Fear is that thing
That will come and go

Fear is not terror
Fear is when you are afraid to look in the mirror

To see the bruises
That you try to hide every day

No more I am sorry
No more pain

I am packing my bags
Leaving you, my past behind

It will not be easy, to start all over
But I will give it a try

I am leaving you
Don't try to follow

Even if you try
I am long gone

Goodbye

Serenity Fay

Friends, True Friends.....

Friends

True friends

Were to look

Were to go

I have given up hope

But now that I have found you

I am not so sure anymore

You listen to me

To what I have to say

Serenity Fay

Giving Up You

I am giving up hope
I am giving up you

You were my hope
I thought you were true

But you are not prince charming
You are a monster

Giving up you
It is like losing a little part of myself
I thought you were mister right
But it turns out you are mister wrong after all

It hurts a lot
This stupid love spell

I thought you liked me
I believed you were the one
You are a lie

I want my heart back,
And the life I had before you came

I won't fall for you sweet talk
And your angelic walk

I fought too hard
I fought too long

And it is tearing me apart
Piece by piece

But I will let you know
Not to mess with me
"Ever Again"

Growing Up In The Real World

I am moving from place to place
Trying to find a little bit of space

A place for myself
A place were I can forget the horrors of the real world
Just for a little while

The real world
It isn't fair

There is no superhero
Who will safe you in time of need
There is no such thing as a good deed

Now I am sitting here
Doing my time
For telling the truth and not for committing any type of crime

The real world
Is a place were you have to grow up fast

There is no youth
No real childhood time

It is growing up
Become an adult
And eventually die

I Am Here To Tell You

I am here to tell you
We can never meet again

It is for the best
I hope you understand

There is no such thing
As perfect love
Or the perfect one

I am here to tell you
You don't stand a chance

You are not the one for me
Just on time, I did see
That you were never interested in me

There was just one thing you wanted
But couldn't get from me

I am very lucky
That I read the sign

To much love will kill you
Every time

Serenity Fay

Little Miss Perfect

No matter what you say
No matter what you do

I will never believe you

Every word you say
It is all a lie

Miss perfect
In her perfect little world

She came crashing down hard
Her whole world fell apart

Miss perfect
Opened up her eyes

And saw that her life was build on lies

She lost everything
The friends she had are long gone

Now miss perfect
Has to start all over again

Telling the truth
I doubt someone will ever believe her

After what was said and done
Her perfect little everything is gone

Love Is In The Air

Love is in the air
And it is playing with my heart

It makes me do crazy things
Things that I normally would not do

I can't walk
Or talk

O get startled easily,
Because I am daydreaming

Your face keeps popping up in my head
And I rather not want to have that

Love is in the air
And I can't stop it

Even if I wanted to
There is no stopping love

Love is a virus
There is no cure

Love is painful
And can give you a lot of trouble

But in the end it does not matter
You will meet our prince on the white horse

Serenity Fay

On The Edge Of Life

I am standing on the edge
On the edge of a cliff

My future
Hanging on a silk tread

By something that just happened
A thing that was just there

From one day to another
It appeared

I did not feel pain
But it was there and bothered me

Not only I could see
Both my doctor and me did see
Something that did not belong there

He decided surgery was for the best
That and some other test

Just to make sure
That it would not come back any more

Test results
Were no good

Bad news
No luck

So now I know
That you should enjoy life

Even the bad sides
When you get the news
That you have got not long to live

And that living your life

Is all there is to give

Serenity Fay

Our Soldiers

One by one
They are going down

Fighting as brave soldiers
In a war they did not ask for

Defending their country
Young and old

Side by side
One by one
They die

A war
A war nobody even asked for

But still it is raging
Why?

No answers for the asking
They keep us in the dark

Oil is the main reason
For this treason

But nobody will admit it

Serenity Fay

Pain Hides In Every Corner

I try to survive the day
Trying to keep my mind preoccupied

Not letting my thoughts go astray
If I do
I will have to pay

Because pain hides in every corner
Stings at every little beginning

It is always present
No matter how hard I try to push it away
Somehow it always manages to stay

Not matter how hard I fight it
It almost always wins

It is an on going battle
One I can never loose

Pain hides in every corner
If it does win.....

I will break
I will fall to pieces
It will make my world shake

Serenity Fay

Rain Is Falling From The Sky

Rain is falling
From the sky

I wonder
Who made you cry?
Sad and watery eyes
Salty tears streaming down your face

Who did this to you
Who brought you to this place?
A pretty girl
With a pretty face

Is now
A sad girl
With a sad face
A girl who ones knew
How to laugh
But now it seems she can't stop crying

Rain is falling from the sky
I wonder
Who made you cry?
Bright eye
Sad eye

I want to hear your laugh again
Stop the rain form falling
Dry your tears
My little one

Real Love

Real love
Is electrifying
Real love is great
It keeps me warm in times of need

Real love
Makes my heart skip a beat
It moves my feat
It makes me smile

Dancing to the rhythm
To sound of the music
Your voice
Sounds like music in my ears
It makes me forget my fears

When I am in your arms, I feel save
When I am with you I feel brave Real love is
Being in love with you

Real love
Is loving you

Serenity Fay

Running Like The Wind

I am running like the wind
Away from you

Away from my future
Away from pain you have caused

Everything seems to be lost
I have to start all over again

It is not what I had in mind
But it is better than nothing

Life can be worse
Breaking the strings that are attached to the past
It is not a curse

The wind whispers to me
My angel you are set free

No more boundaries
No more rules
No more lies

It is over
My angel
You became what destiny had in mind for you

Serenity Fay

Slowly Slipping Away

I am slowly losing it
I am slowly losing consciousness

Slipping out of your embrace
Slowly I close my eyes

I am losing control
Control over my mind

Everything is quiet
The only thing I see is darkness

I hear voices around me
But I can't answer

No words come out
I am paralysed

I am slowly slipping away
I am losing the battle

White light is what I see
Calling my name
Pulling me towards it

Life is slowly slipping away from me
I can't leave now

I have to fight
I have to show that they were wrong and I was right

I am a fighter
I can't give up hope now

The white light
So tempting

Suddenly
I am pulled away from the white light

I feel someone shaking me
I open my eyes

I am back
Back into world

Saved from....
I can't say the word
I won't say it

Serenity Fay

Stupid Girl

I don't want to be your puppet on a string
I don't want to be your plaything

You can't make me do things that I don't want to do
You don't rule over me
You can't control me

You might have good looks
Be popular and rich
I don't care I don't want this

I want a normal boy
I don't want you
Because you are too good to be true

You use girls for your own good
Poor things, the ones that fall into your trap

If you and I were together
O' boy, O' boy

You wouldn't get the chance to use me

Get out right now
It is over
We are breaking up

But you are not my boyfriend
And I am proud of it

Proud to be single
I don't need money or popularity

I am who I am
I don't need you
I can stand up for myself

Serenity Fay

Taking A Risk

I have to take a risk
I have to learn from the mistakes that I made in life
That is the only way to survive

I have to take the risk
And break away

I have to leave the mess behind
The chaos that is also know as my life

I have to grow up
And be strong
I have to hold on

I am taking the risk
I am changing my life
Because of me

I am breaking free
Spreading my wings
Flying to an unknown destiny

Serenity Fay

The Mysterious Man

I walk the earth for centuries
Unnoticed for so many eyes

I pass by at night
I am in your sight
You can see me

One blink with your eyes
In a flash
I am gone

So many stories
Are told about me

But they don't see
They say I am a legend a myth
They say I am unreal

But what do you believe yourself
What would you do
When I would come to you

What would you do
When I tried to seduce you

Would you fight?
Or would you give in?

I will be watching you
You belong to me
You will see

Serenity Fay

The Truth

What I am about to tell you
Could hurt a lot

But I cannot lie
Because lies do no good

I heard you were in love with me
That is more than being friends

To get things straight
To get no misunderstandings
It might come as a punch in the face

I am not in love with you for me friendship is enough

I know you like me
I think that you are also ok

I just want to be friends
I hope you feel the same way

Serenity Fay

There Will Be One Day

There will be one day
The day that you will smile again

That day the clouds will part and the sun will shine
That is the day when all good things for you will start

You wonder
What is taking so long

Why do I have to fight?
Why do I have to be strong?

In time you will understand
Now is not the time
You must endure the pain a bit longer
Your day will come

The sun will shine for you
It will show you the path

It will clear the way
It will make the rain go away

Serenity Fay

These Scars Of Mine

These scars of mine
Are telling a story
That words can't

These scars of mine
They do not lie

I cry
Tears of pain
My scars remain the same

A look in the mirror
I can't bare
The pain inside is to much

These scars mine
They tell a lot

The scars from the inside
They have healed

The marks of the scars from the outside
They will remain

Long sleeves
I wear to cover them up

They are not a burden
It something I have to live with

Serenity Fay

Welcome To My Dreamworld

There you stood
In front of me

You smiled
I couldn't breathe

You took my breath away
An amazing moment
A moment to remember

Your eyes
The way you walk and talk

So breathtaking
When you walk by
The earth underneath me is shaking

I almost faint
At the sight of you

Then you wrap your arms around me
Preventing me from falling to a thousand pieces
Lying crumbled on the floor

You make me melt
Like snow underneath the warm sun

I just want to say
I love you so

Then I wake up in reality
A world were you are too good to be true

A world were someone like me
Doesn't get a chance with a person like you

So welcome to my dream world
A world where Cinderella does exist
A world where the prince on the white horse still has a chance

Welcome to fiction
Were nothing is unimaginable

Serenity Fay

You

I feel so lonely
But when I am with you
I don't

When I am all alone, without you
I feel cold

But when I am in your arms
I feel warm and save

When I am sad and want to cry
You are right by my side
You are able to make me cry

Without your arms around me
I feel so vunrable

So please stay close
I need to hear your soothing voice

When I can't sleep
You rock me gently in our arms

And when I wake up
I am greeted by your smile
