Emotions

Emotions

Something we face everyday
But something we can't control
Emotions, emotions, they are
Our weakness as well as our strength
We live to trust and believe
In our emotions
We love, we hate, we care, and we feel
Emotions, emotions
You guide us to what is right
And you guide us to what is wrong

I Don'T Understand

I don't understand
Why people kill
Why people have hatred
Why people destroy nature
But most of all
Why people never care
Why people gamble
Why people died
What I understand most is
Why people love
Why the world rotates
Why people feel

Warnings Of Love

Warnings of love

Beware of love

Which come with a dove?

Be careful who you call

You always manage to fall

Females are always falling

Males are always balling

Love always come with a dream

Or it always feel like cream

You fall into each others eyes

And always feel like you might dye
