10 Things.....

Your sweet kiss on my lips
Your eyes connecting with mine

Our endless touch
Your enticing smell

Your uproarious sense of humor
Our long kisses

Your vast of intelligence
Your passionate charm

You and me arm in arm
My insatiable appetite for you

As Time Goes By

As time goes by and the day is through
I have learned so much about me and you,

As the day passes and I watch the sun set
I have learned so much since the day we met,

Time is a moment that we share together
For I know that these moments will last forever,

The sky will always be blue, the sun will always shine
When I think of us and these moments in time,

As time goes by for me and you
My heart will always be loyal and faithfully true.....

For Just Tonight

For just tonight can we be together, like we've been here forever?
For just tonight will you call me sweetheart, like we promised to never part?
For just tonight will you stay the night, like everything's all right?
For just tonight can we pretend we're in love, a love sent from the Gods above?
For just tonight can we hold each other close, until we part our ways and say goodbye.....

I Am Standing In The Present...

You walked with me down the path of life
You showed me things I did not know

My eyes now see the world for what it is
And not for what it could be

The trees are taller now and full of life
Seasons have passed as the time has moved on

I walk with my head held high
To see where I am going and not where I have been

I am standing in the present
As the future is unwritten

As I walk down the path of life
I learn what I do not know

For my heart will see the world for what it is
And not be broken by the unknown

The seeds that I have planted
Shows signs of life

I journey through my time here on earth
Looking ahead at the endless horizon

I am standing in the present
As the future is unwritten

I Have Been Influenced

I have been influenced by time
Everyday I wish the day away
Then I wonder where the time has gone

I have been pressured by society
To be someone that I am no
I just want to be me

I have power over my own thoughts
To achieve my goals that I have set
I will accomplish my lifes plan

I have been swayed by friends
To do the things that I wouldnt do on my own
I have experienced new territory

I have been controlled by many
Unable to freely express emotion
I have learned to not be a victim

I have been manipulated by strangers
Asked to give too much to fast
I have learned to guard my emotions

I have been persuaded by love
To love so deeply that I give it all away
I have learned to love myself..

I have been influenced.....

I Have Known You Forever....

The moment we first met
I felt I'd known you forever.

Under the moon and
Under the stars
We shared intimacy together.

Your sweet kiss on my lips
You stared in my eyes,
In the park we held each other tight.

Under the moon and
Under the stars
It felt so right.

I have known you forever

Summer Solstice

First day of Summer is finally here
Friends, fun, BBQs and beer
This is the longest day of the year

I miss my Mom and my Dad
And all the fun we used to have
All my memories are happy, I'm never sad

New friends and a new found love
The flowers, the green grass, the sun above
Happy times in the days to come

Summer Solstice the longest day
The cats, the dogs, the kids at play
Will remember this beautiful day

To my daughters and to my son
I love you so much
Love Mom
