I am his 'tough angel'

Butterfly Angel's Angel

I met someone somewhere out there One angel, with eyes that dare
I saw him sent from the sky
Oh, he's an angel, an angel of a butterfly

Dark angel, cricket angel, my only angel
You had no idea what is heaven and what is hell Gazing into your blue eyes when we first met Wow, I knew then, you were a heaven sent

Dark angel, you are a white angel
You lighted my path when dark days prevail
Now I know, you didn't walk away Stay with me, is all I pray

Dark angel, oh my angel Cover me, fly beside me
I love you, I need you with me
All I wanted is only you and me

I love you
-your butterfly angel-

Dark Angel, Faith's Angel

i was lost and alone, as I always am, no one's around me nor understands no one seems to care I am waiting til it comes they say its okay

and love me in some way
But just when I trust to love, they forget what they say i held the knife so close as tears fall mixed with blood with purpose began to fall slowly and lose like a crazy crying dead rose i put the knife away and tried to wipe the blood, that ran faster than I can describe.

an angel tapped my back i saw him with wide open heart thank you angel, my dear angel love you took me out of the dark and bring back my soul you are angel, you are my all

- i love u my dark angel -

Dark Angel, My Angel

(Humbly dedicated to my only angel, my cricket angel, my dark angel)

As I woke up from dreaming
I quickly stood up scared and crying Suddenly, I heard a whisper inviting T'was a strange voice I was seeking

I looked around my dark lonely room
I find nothing and still all alone Night was about to end that dawn Hopeless, Yes! That's my home

Sun started to rise in the morning Someone touched me with an invisible wing Wrapped with his arms around my being
He was an angel, I was waiting!

Dark angel, my angel - you are amazing Faith and love are just same things
For an angel like you, I received these blessings
I LOVE YOU my angel, you filled my soul with meaning always,

(your butterfly angel)

Undying Angels Love

Cricket's fly, butterflies die Angels wings, angels fly Yesterdays dreams tomorrow will pass by My angel stays...yes our love wont cry
The time of my soul will wait
And angels won't fear to let me grieve
I'm here my angel I'm here
Let me lightened your darkest days
I'm here my angel, I'm here
You and I, never let fall our tears
I love you my cricket angel Love always, your butterfly angel won't leave.. i love you...

always,
- your butterfly angel -
